MINUTES,

ETC.

The One Hundred and Twelfth General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America met in the Washington and Compton Avenue Presbyterian Church, St. Louis, Mo., Thursday, May 17, 1900, at 11 o'clock A.M., and was opened with a sermon by the Moderator, the Rev. Robert F. Sample, D.D., on Exod. xiv. 15: "Speak unto the children of Israel that they go forward."

After the sermon the Assembly was constituted with prayer.

The death of Rev. William A. Echols, a Commissioner from the Presbytery of Athens, was announced by the Stated Clerk, and he was authorized to make arrangements appropriate to the case.

The Committee of Arrangements presented the following recommendations, which were adopted:

1. That a recess after this service be taken until 3 o'clock.

2. That the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper be observed this evening; that the Cup be administered by Rev. John M. Worrall, D.D., and the Bread by Rev. A. A. E. Taylor, D.D.; and that the following Ruling Elders distribute the Elements: William H. Scott, of the Presbytery of Philadelphia; John P. Ammidon, of the Presbytery of Baltimore; John M. Coyner, of the Presbytery of Los Angeles; R. S. Lawrence, Ph.D., of the Presbytery of Emporia; D. R. Noyes, of the Presbytery of St. Paul; D. C. English, M.D., of the Presbytery of New Brunswick; Charles B. Pearson, of the Presbytery of Brooklyn; Hon. Alburn S. Parmelee, of the Presbytery of Binghamton; H. M. Swan, of the Presbytery of Rochester; E. D. Moore, of the Presbytery of Steubenville; A. E. Donaldson, of the Presbytery of Portland; John H. Converse, of the Presbytery of Chester; J. W. Rugh, M.D., of the Presbytery of Blairsville; Joseph M. Woods, of the Presbytery of Huntingdon; Newton C. Sample, of the Presbytery of Philadelphia; J. C. Gray, of the Presbytery of Pittsburgh; C. K. Gurley, of the Presbytery of Utah; C. F. Smalley, of the Presbytery of Milwaukee; George C. Coxhead, of the Presbytery of Chicago; William Irwin, of the Presbytery of New York; D. I. Carson, of the Presbytery of Westchester; William G. Alexander, of the Presbytery of San José; James M. Rice, of the Presbytery of Peoria, and B. F. Edwards, of the Presbytery of St. Louis.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 17, 3 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Moderator announced that he had appointed as pro tem. member of the Committee on Commissions, the Rev. Joseph Gamble, D.D., of the Presbytery of Champlain.

Upon the report of the Permanent Committee on Commissions, the following ministers and elders were recognized as duly appointed Commissioners to this Assembly, and their names were entered on the

The Rev. Charles A. Dickey, D.D., of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, was elected Moderator.

On the nomination of the Stated Clerk the following persons were chosen as Temporary Clerks: Rev. Joseph Gamble, D.D., of the Presbytery of Champlain; Rev. John M. Galbreath, D.D., of the Presbytery of Westminster; Rev. R. E. Flickinger, of the Presbytery of Fort Dodge, and Mr. W. G. Alexander, of the Presbytery of San José.

The docket was presented and approved.

The Stated Clerk made report of the death of the Rev. William E. Moore, D.D., LL.D., Permanent Recording Clerk, as follows, and the recommendation of the Report was adopted:

The Stated Clerk reports with deep regret to the General Assembly the death of his beloved colleague of many years, the Rev. William Eves Moore, D.D., LL.D., the Permanent Recording Clerk of the Assembly. Dr. Moore entered into rest on June 5, 1899. Funeral services were held at Columbus, O., and West Chester, Pa. The latter service was attended by the Moderator and the other officers of the Assembly, and it was the privilege of the Stated Clerk, at the request of the bereaved family, to deliver the address. It is Recommended, That the Assembly appoint a Committee of three to prepare an appropriate minute on the life and services of Dr. Moore.

The Stated Clerk was authorized to pay the expenses involved in the transmission of the body of the Rev. William A. Echols, late Commissioner from the Presbytery of Athens, to his home, and the Rev. A. T. Huber was made the representative of the Assembly.

The Committee of Arrangements reported the hours of meeting as 9 A.M. to 12 M., the first half-hour to be spent in devotional services, and from 3 o'clock to 5 o'clock P.M.; and that the popular meetings begin at 8 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly adjourned until Friday, at 9 o'clock A.M., and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 18, 1900, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional exercises.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The following resolution was referred to the Committee on the Permanent Clerk:

Resolved, That in now filling the vacancy in the office of Permanent Clerk, and hereafter when a vacancy shall occur in the office of Stated or Permanent Clerks, the term of service shall be five years.

The Special Committee on the Celebration of the Twentieth Century reported through the Chairman, Rev. Robert F. Sample, D.D.; the Report was accepted, adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on the Celebration of the Twentieth Century respectfully report to the General Assembly that they were appointed by the General Assembly of 1899, as indicated by the following record:

"Whereas the century now drawing to a close has been one of signal blessing to the cause of Christ and to our Presbyterian Church—a time when the power of the Holy Spirit has been clearly manifest in extending and deepening the life and work of the Church—and whereas the century soon to open presents to our Church unparalleled opportunities of service for the Master, therefore be it

"Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., in session at Minneapolis, May, 1899, expresses its earnest desire to show in some fitting manner our gratitude for the mercies of the past and our consecration to the opportunities of the future.

"Resolved, 2. That a Committee of six ministers and five elders be appointed by the Moderator to report to the next General Assembly as to the best method of fitly celebrating the close of the nineteenth and the advent of the twentieth century. Adopted." [Minutes, 1899, pp. 53, 54.]

The Committee have held three meetings and have carefully considered the important subject entrusted to their care. They feel that words are inadequate to express the richness of God's bounty to His people. The progress made by the Church of Christ in the U. S. A. during the century now closing is very great. Our own Presbyterian Church has increased from twenty thousand to one million communicants, and more than two million two hundred thousand persons have been received into our congregations on confession of faith in the course of the one hundred years. In the great missionary advance of the century, both on the Home and Foreign fields, our missionaries have been in the van, and the Church was so blessed of God that she could give during the period to the work of saving souls, through the Board of Home Missions, $21,154,867, and through the Board of Foreign Missions, $25,150,086. The total of the missionary and benevolent contributions of the Church from 1801 to 1900 exceeded $87,000,000. Such figures emphasize the truth that for the work of Christ in the world, America has been but another name for opportunity. "Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy and for thy truth's sake." The divine favor accorded in the past is a sure foundation of hope for and new endeavor in the future.

The Committee, after serious thought, feel that the Church, in connection with this historic period, should be summoned to praise and effort along three lines. First of all, there should be in our congregations a period of thanksgiving and prayer. This should be accompanied by a general effort for the strengthening of the financial interests of congregations and the extension of educational and missionary work. Having received from God so abundant a spiritual blessing, we should as a denomination manifest our gratitude by compliance with the Scriptural command, "Freely ye have received, freely give." In addition, it is believed that a public celebration, under the auspices of the General Assembly, would be a proper denominational tribute of praise to God and an appropriate testimony to the world of the thankfulness of the Church for unnumbered mercies.

In connection with the proposed day of public celebration by the General Assembly, it is respectfully submitted that historical reasons should lead the Assembly to appoint the services in the City of Philadelphia. It was at the beginning of the eighteenth century, nearly two hundred years ago, that the General Presbytery of this Church was organized in that city, and in the year 1901 the First Presbyterian Church of Philadelphia will celebrate the two hundredth anniversary of the ordination of its first pastor. In the judgment of the Committee, it is highly appropriate that the Church should hold this historic celebration in the historic place in which, as an organized branch of the Church Universal, it was founded.

The Committee, in view of the preceding considerations, therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That during the observance of the Week of Prayer, in January, 1901, and also wherever practicable during the week following, there be a grateful recognition of the goodness of God to His Church during the nineteenth century and earnest supplication for His continued blessing on the Church during the twentieth century.

Resolved, 2. That the first Friday of the General Assembly's sessions in 1901 be set apart for special services in connection with the advent of the twentieth century—the morning session to be occupied with the review of the history of the Church during the nineteenth century; the afternoon session, with the outlook for the twentieth century; much of the time during these sessions to be devoted to prayer and praise; and the evening session to be of a popular character, with addresses appropriate to the occasion.

Resolved, 3. That a special memorial fund, to be known as the Twentieth Century Fund, be raised for the endowment of Presbyterian academic, collegiate and theological institutions, for the enlargement of missionary enterprises, for the erection of church buildings and the payment of debts upon churches and educational institutions, and for the other work of the Boards, at the option of the donors; contributions to specific objects to be strictly regarded, and contributions to the general work to be distributed according to the proportions which have been designated by our General Assembly as applying to miscellaneous offerings; and care shall be taken that this special effort shall in no way conflict with or diminish the regular contributions to the treasuries of the several Boards.

Resolved, 4. That in connection with the Fund a central committee be appointed, to consist of six ministers and five elders, whose headquarters shall be in Philadelphia; which committee shall have a general supervision of the work, shall publish appropriate literature for the furtherance of the object, making the widest possible distribution of the same, all expenses to be met out of the general contributions; and that the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly be appointed treasurer of the fund, to serve without expense, except for such clerical assistance as may be required.

Resolved, 5. That, for the reasons stated, the General Assembly of 1901 meet in the city of Philadelphia.

The Committee also report the following programme for the proposed Public Celebration:

Morning Session.

The Committee further recommend that a Special Committee of five, including the officers of the Assembly, be appointed to take charge of the Public Celebration on Friday, May 17, with power to attend to all matters connected therewith.

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Committee,

ROBERT F. SAMPLE,
Chairman.

The Special Committee on the Omaha Theological Seminary respectfully report to the General Assembly that unavoidable hindrances prevented the calling of a meeting before January 18, 1900. At that time the Committee met in Philadelphia, Pa. Rev. E. Trumbull Lee, of Cincinnati, O., was elected chairman, and it was decided to issue an appeal, which was afterwards published in the Church papers, and is as follows:

"The General Assembly, at Minneapolis in 1899, adopted the following, viz.:

'Resolved, That the General Assembly most heartily commend the Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Omaha to the benevolence of the Church, and the Moderator is authorized to reconstruct the Special Committee appointed some years ago to secure for that Seminary an Endowment Fund of $100,000.'

"The Committee was duly appointed, and at a meeting held in Philadelphia, January 18, 1900, it was unanimously Resolved, That an appeal be made for an Endowment Fund of $100,000 for the benefit of Omaha Theological Seminary, and that subscriptions be solicited for the sum of $1000 each and its multiples, upon condition that the whole amount be pledged.

"The Seminary has been in existence for nine years, and during that period has been entirely dependent for its support upon the voluntary contributions of its friends from year to year. Since the last General Assembly the institution has come into the possession of property to the amount of some $20,000, and a beginning has been made for the endowment of the Chair of Theology. The time has come when the Seminary should be put on a more permanent basis. The work of nine years has demonstrated its value and the demand for it, and now that it may be enlarged and continued, it is urgently necessary to secure invested funds that will yield a regular income. This Seminary is the only school of its kind in our Church between Chicago and the Pacific Coast. There is, therefore, a large place for it. The work being done is thorough, and is equipping young men for Home Missionary fields especially. About fifty graduates have been sent out in the nine years, and these are now actively at work in the States of Nebraska, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, South Dakota and Colorado, while never in its history has the Seminary had so many appeals as this present year from promising Mission fields for its graduates. It is impossible with present equipment to supply the demand. The promise of the future is great, and if the modest endowment now asked for can be secured, it will insure the permanence and far-reaching usefulness of an undertaking which, though yet in its infancy, is destined to be one of the most important agencies of our Church for meeting the responsibilities which God has laid upon us for the advancement of His Kingdom in our own and other lands."

GEORGE D. BAKER, Philadelphia, Pa.
JAMES D. PAXTON, St. Paul, Minn.
ALEXANDER MCDONALD, Cincinnati, O.
T. D. FOSTER, Ottumwa, Iowa.
W. S. P. COCHRAN, Peoria, Ill.
GEORGE E. STERRY, New York City.
JOHN J. MCCOOK, New York City,
E. TRUMBULL LEE, Cincinnati, O.

The time has been too short to accomplish definite results in an undertaking which may be the work of years, but the Committee report progress, and ask to be continued.

Respectfully submitted,

E. TRUMBULL LEE, Chairman.

The Special Committee on Sabbath Observance reported through Rev. I. W. Hathaway, D.D., Secretary. The Report was accepted and made the Order of the Day for 3 o'clock this afternoon.

It was made the Order of the Day that Rev. John Fox, D.D., Secretary of the American Bible Society, be heard immediately after the Order for 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The Special Committee on Standing Committees of the General Assembly reported through Rev. Wallace Radcliffe, D.D., and the Report was accepted. Rev. Isaac A. Cornelison, D.D., made a Minority Report, which was also accepted. It was moved that the Majority Report be adopted. The Minority Report was moved as a substitute. Both Reports were made the Order of the Day for to-morrow morning, after the Report of the Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief.

The Special Committee on Time of Notice of Appeal in Complaints and Appeals presented its Report, which was accepted, adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee appointed by the General Assembly of 1899 to report to this Assembly on the question, "Whether an appellant or complainant is required to file a notice of intent to appeal or complain with the judicatory appealed from or complained against before the adjournment of said judicatory, in order that the judicatory may appoint suitable persons to defend its action before the superior judicatory," respectfully report as follows:

The Sections of the Book of Discipline which bear upon this subject are Sections Nos. 84 and 96, and read as follows:

"SECTION 84. Written notice of Complaint, with the reasons therefor, shall be given, within ten days after the action was taken, to the Clerk or, in case of his death, absence or disability, to the Moderator of the judicatory complained of, who shall lodge it, with the records and all the papers pertaining to the case, with the Clerk of the superior judicatory, before the close of the second day of its regular meeting next ensuing the date of the reception of said notice.

"SECTION 96. Written notice of Appeal, with specifications of the errors alleged, shall be given, within ten days after the judgment has been rendered, to the Clerk or, in case of his death, absence, or disability, to the Moderator of the judicatory appealed from, who shall lodge it, with the records and all the papers pertaining to the case, with the Clerk of the superior judicatory, before the close of the second day of its regular meeting next ensuing the date of his reception of said notice."

In view of the specific provisions of these Sections, the Committee report that an appellant or complainant is not required to file notice of intent to appeal or complain with the judicatory appealed from or complained against while said judicatory is in session, unless it continues in session ten days after action was taken, but that he has ten full days after action taken within which to enter an appeal or complaint. The provisions of the Book of Discipline are intended to conserve the rights of parties to judicial cases before our judicatories, and also to insure to members of the same the power to secure the reversal of unconstitutional procedure, by giving full opportunity for both thought and action. In addition, the ten days' limit gives not only reasonable time for thought to those who regard themselves as aggrieved by the decision of a judicatory, but also frequently leads them to the conclusion that an appeal or complaint in their cases would be unwise. It is admitted that judicatories at times are hampered by the fact that they adjourn prior to the expiration of the time allowed a complainant or appellant to enter a notice of intention to appeal or complain. It is suggested, however, that each Presbytery and Synod of the Church make provision for this probable condition of affairs by the adoption of a rule conferring upon the officers of the judicatory, or other persons being members of the judicatory, the right to appoint persons to defend their judgments and decisions before the superior judicatories, in the event of the filing with the Stated Clerks or Moderators, by proper parties, of notices of appeal or complaint. The resolution might read as follows: "The Presbytery (or Synod) of. . . . . hereby authorizes the Moderator and the Stated Clerk to appoint suitable persons to defend before the superior judicatory its judgments and decisions, whenever the same are appealed or complained against after the adjournment of the (Synod or) Presbytery."

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT F. SAMPLE,
WM. HENRY ROBERTS.

The Special Committee on Vacancy and Supply reported through the Chairman, Rev. Robert F. Sample, D.D. The Report was accepted, and made the third Order for this afternoon.

The following telegram from the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, now in session in Chicago, Ill., was read:

CHICAGO, ILL., May 18, 1900.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church:

The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, now in session in this city, sends greetings to your body, praying for you the divine direction in all your deliberations. Ephesians iii. 14–19.

DAVID COOK, Secretary.

The Moderator and Stated Clerk were directed to send a suitable reply.

The Moderator was empowered to appoint a minister and a ruling elder as fraternal delegates to the Methodist Episcopal Conference.

The Committee on the Digest made a Report, which was accepted, approved, and is as follows:

The Committee on the Digest would respectfully report to the General Assembly of 1900 that they have been engaged in carrying out the instructions of the last General Assembly, "to gather into a separate volume the permanent historical and administrative documents of the Church," and "to carry forward in the office of the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly the preparation of material for a future Digest." The Committee necessarily cannot make any other report at this time than one of progress.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. H. ROBERTS,
E. R. CRAVEN.

The Report of the Permanent Committee on Editions of the Constitution was presented, accepted, approved, and is as follows:

The Permanent Committee on Editions of the Constitution of the Church respectfully report to the General Assembly of 1900 that during the year a new edition of the Constitution has been issued by the Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, and that said edition has been supervised by the Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. H. ROBERTS,
E. R. CRAVEN.

The Report of the Special Committee on the Reprinting of the Minutes was presented, accepted, approved, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on the Reprinting of the Minutes reports to the General Assembly of 1900 that the Index to the Minutes of the General Presbytery and the General Synod, covering the period in the history of the Church from 1705 to 1788, will be published during the present calendar year. It is also expected that during the same period of time The Minutes of the Convention of Delegates from the Synod of New York and Philadelphia and from the Associations of Connecticut, 1766–1775, will also be issued from the press.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. H. ROBERTS.

The Special Report of the Presbytery of Jersey City on the subject of an Overture to the Presbyteries on the "Pastor Emeritus" was presented, amended, and adopted. The Report is as follows:

At a meeting of the Presbytery of Jersey City, held in Jersey City, N. J., December 5, 1899, the following action was taken:

The Committee appointed under the instruction of the last General Assembly (see page 109, Minutes of 1899) to formulate a Constitutional Rule fixing the relations of Pastor Emeritus to a congregation, and to send the same up to the next Assembly, respectfully reports that after continuous and careful study it has agreed upon the form of a Rule, to be added as Section 2 to Chapter XVII, F. of G. It is herewith presented, with the recommendation that it be approved by Presbytery, and in due course be sent up to the Assembly.

RULE.

"When any Minister shall resign his charge by reason of age or incapacity for further labor, and the congregation shall be moved by affectionate regard for his person and gratitude for his ministry among them to desire that he should continue to be associated with them in an honorary relation, they may, at a regularly called meeting, elect him as Pastor Emeritus, with or without salary, but with no pastoral authority or duty. This action shall be subject to the approval of Presbytery, and shall take effect upon the formal dissolution of the pastoral relation."

Done in Presbytery at Jersey City, N. J., December 5, 1899.

Attest:

G. R. GARRETSON, Stated Clerk.

The Special Report of Westchester Presbytery on the question of Ministerial Representation in Church Judicatories was presented, accepted, and made the second Order of the Day for Monday morning.

The Committee on The Assembly Herald presented its Report, which was accepted, and adopted, and is as follows:

Upon the recommendation of the former Committee in charge of The Assembly Herald, the General Assembly of 1899 directed that the magazine should be managed by a new Committee, to consist of one representative from the Board of Foreign Missions, one from the Board of Home Missions, and the third member to represent the remaining six Boards. In accordance with this direction of the General Assembly the Foreign Board chose the Rev. A. W. Halsey, D.D., the Home Board chose the Rev. John Dixon, D.D., and the remaining Boards chose the Rev. B. L. Agnew, D.D. Dr. Agnew served for a portion of the year, and then, much to the regret of the other members of the Committee, tendered his resignation. His place has been filled by the unanimous election of Mr. William H. Scott, of Philadelphia. Mr. Harvey C. Olin was appointed Treasurer, whose services are given without charge.

Your Committee found it impracticable to assume charge of the periodical during the midsummer months which immediately followed the session of the General Assembly. The June issue of the magazine had already appeared and arrangements had been made by the former Committee for the three following months. Moreover, in the summer dispersion it was impossible to close up the accounts of the previous administration and make new arrangements for the future. Again, certain of the contracts and agreements had still time to run. With the appearance of the October number, however, preparations for which were made during September, and even August, your Committee took full charge. To assist them in the management your Committee engaged Mr. Henry R. Elliott as business manager, his services beginning August 10.

In July, 1899, the paid subscription list of The Assembly Herald was in the neighborhood of 15,000. Vigorous measures were instituted in the early fall to increase interest in the periodical among the churches, and with such success that at present the paid circulation is about 40,000. By direction of the General Assembly of 1898, the Committee then constituted sent the magazine free of charge to pastors. No similar instructions were given by the General Assembly of 1899, but carrying out the spirit of the preceding year, we continued to supply pastors until it was apparent that to do so would entail a serious loss on the treasuries of the Boards, and it was represented to the Committee that the pastors of the Church would not care to cast this additional burden on the Boards to save so trifling an expense as twenty-five cents a year each. With the beginning of the calendar year, therefore, we notified pastors that hereafter we would ask them to join with other readers in paying for the magazine, and we are happy to acknowledge the very cordial spirit in which most of the ministers have accepted this change of policy. We respectfully ask the Assembly to approve our action in the matter.

The General Assembly, in its desire to disseminate widely the information for which The Assembly Herald is the vehicle, directed the Committee, if possible, to publish The Assembly Herald at a price not exceeding twenty-five cents a copy. Your Committee are more than willing to follow this direction of the Assembly, if it be clearly understood that the first purpose in publishing the magazine is to give it as broad a circulation as possible. It should be remembered, however, that a magazine of the size and quality of The Assembly Herald cannot be manufactured and distributed for twenty-five cents a year. The white paper used costs over twelve cents a year, and the expense for composition, presswork, binding, mailing and postage nearly eats up the remainder, not to speak of the office and incidental expenses.

The revenues from advertising contribute in part to make good this deficit, but it is of doubtful expediency to fix the price of a publication below the cost of mechanical production, in the hope that the loss may be recouped by advertisements.

By arrangements with the Boards the acknowledgments of receipts have been published at cost, so that this item does not affect final results.

Your Committee would recommend that the fiscal year for The Assembly Herald should begin with January, rather than with June, as at present. Under the existing policy any change in the management would involve the same difficulty and delay which were found to apply to last year's change. The summer-time is proverbially a dull season for all periodicals and the interests of The Assembly Herald must suffer if any change in its management is made at that time.

Your Committee are thus happy to be able to report marked progress in the affairs of The Assembly Herald. The magazine has more than doubled its paid circulation and advertising during the year, and the deficit will be small. This progress has been made in the face of a sharp rise in the price of paper, which seriously increased the cost of production. A very large number of subscriptions fall due in June, and your Committee hope that pastors and others interested in the dissemination of news concerning the larger work of the Church will see to it that these subscriptions are renewed. If this hope is borne out in results the year will close with a very satisfactory exhibit.

The Treasurer accompanies this Report with a financial statement.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

A. W. Halsey,
John Dixon,
Wm. H. Scott, Committee.

HARVEY C. OLIN, Treasurer.

To the General Assembly's Committee on Assembly Herald, 156 Fifth Avenue, New York City:

Gentlemen,—I beg to inform you that I have examined the accounts and vouchers of The Assembly Herald for the seven months ending May 1, 1900, and would report that I find them to be correct and in good order. The above statement is a correct showing of the business of The Assembly Herald as indicated by the said books and accounts.

The Special Committee on Ministerial Education presented its Report through the Chairman, Rev. S. J. Niccolls, D.D., LL.D., which was accepted, and made the second Order for Tuesday afternoon.

Rev. Frank W. Sneed, D.D., Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, addressed the Assembly, heartily welcoming the Commissioners to St Louis. He also presented to the Moderator a gavel made from wood taken from the First (New School), the Second (Old School), and the Washington and Compton Avenue (Independent Synod) Churches of St. Louis. The Moderator responded in appropriate terms.

The Committee of Arrangements through its Chairman, the Rev. F. W. Sneed, D.D., offered the following resolution, which was approved:

In view of the Moderator's expressed desire in assuming the Chair yesterday that this Assembly should reflect the spirit and power of the great Ecumenical Missionary Conference recently held in New York City, and thus give a new impetus to the aggressive work of the Church, it is recommended that a missionary meeting be held next Thursday evening in the Odeon, and that the Moderator, Stated Clerk and Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements be authorized to invite ex-President Harrison, the Honorary President of the Ecumenical Missionary Conference, to preside.

The Moderator appointed Rev. S. J. Niccolls, D.D., LL.D., and Ruling Elder William H. Scott as delegates to bear the congratulations of the Assembly to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The Assembly took recess until 3 o'clock, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 18, 3 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Permanent Committee on Commissions reported the following additional Commissioners, who were duly enrolled Ruling Elders—John H. Scudder, of the Presbytery of New Brunswick;

Henry H. Forsythe, of the Presbytery of Chicago; J. B. Clayton, of the Presbytery of Athens; Irwin M. Landis, of the Presbytery of Philadelphia.

The Order of the Day, the consideration of the Report of the Special Committee on Sabbath Observance, was taken up, and after addresses by Rev. J. W. Hathaway and others, was amended, adopted, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on Sabbath Observance would respectfully report to the General Assembly that the present condition of the Sabbath question in the United States of America presents more dark than bright sides, more threatening aspects than hopeful signs, more difficult problems than encouraging features. It is a question of far greater importance in its effects upon the weal or woe of the American Church and the American Nation, and upon all Christian civilization, and deserves more attention than is generally accorded it.

The Church of Christ in this country—not excepting the Presbyterian Church, ministry and membership—are not as yet fully awakened to the stern fact of the vital relation of this question to the present and future condition and life both of the Church and the Nation. The recent retard in the growth of the Church, and the failure of the Benevolent Funds to increase in proportion to the increased wealth of the Nation, are largely traceable to the increased secularity of the American Sabbath. The life and strength, power and potency of the Church are, and always must be, determined by the character of the Sabbath of its environment. When the people who should be in the pews of the sanctuary are absorbed in the pursuit of pleasure or business on the Lord's Day, the Church and the Lord's treasury are the immediate and inevitable sufferers. Other questions are superficial; this is basal. Others affect the limbs; this strikes at the vitals.

There is much prayer in the Church for the manifested presence of the Holy Spirit, and also a conscious necessity of a quickened public and private conscience; but the gift of the Holy Spirit is conditioned upon obedience to the known law of God. We cannot expect to secure a better Sabbath Observance by waiting upon the gift of the Holy Spirit, without obedience to the law of the Sabbath. The true diagnosis of the ills of the Church of Christ in all Christendom to-day can be found in Sabbath secularization, caused by forgetfulness of Divine law, Divine character, Divine purpose, beneficent design, and binding force of the Fourth Commandment.

The burning questions of the Church in America to decide, as they affect all missionary work at home and abroad, are: Is the Fourth Commandment abrogated? Is the Decalogue obsolete? Did our Lord know what He was talking about when He said "The Sabbath was made for man?" Or has the world, in this marvelous nineteenth century, outgrown the knowledge and the law of God? Are the enterprises of this age too great to come within the scope of the old law? Has human nature changed that we no longer need a sacred Sabbath? or have the culture and cares of the physical and the material become the dominant necessity of human life? These are the questions that confront the Church as it stands in the vestibule of the twentieth century.

It behooves us to discover the fountain of this flood of Sabbath desecration that it may be abated, rather than to exhaust our strength in the endeavor to breast it. This fountain is found in the popular infidelity concerning the vital character of the Divine law as expressed in the Decalogue, of which the Fourth Commandment is the heart. Voltaire truly said that "Christianity could never be destroyed until first the Christian Sabbath is destroyed."

All those who for any reason have looked upon the question of Sabbath Observance as a minor or secondary one, have had their attention called to the superficial effects rather than to the deeper causes that are forming the conditions and shaping the ends of human life in the Christian world. Notwithstanding the many strong and allied forces that are to-day demanding and promoting the secular Sabbath, there are signs of an awakening upon the part of the Church and the people in defense of the sacred character of the day as evidenced by the attention given this subject in recent times by both the ecclesiastical courts and the secular press. Witness the Presbyterian General Assembly last year at Minneapolis, when it spent a whole half-day in the consideration of this question, something unheard of in the history of the Assembly; thus putting this cause where it belongs, by the side of the other great causes on the Church calendar. This action of the General Assembly has been a mighty power during the past year, as it has stimulated many other ecclesiastical bodies to give attention to this subject. A few days ago, in a Methodist Conference sitting in the city of New York, a brother defended himself for occupying time upon this subject by citing the action of the General Assembly at Minneapolis. Witness also the interest aroused and discussion evoked over the question of the closing of the United States Pavilion, etc., in Paris on the Lord's Day, with the many favorable comments upon President McKinley's instructions.

Such are some of the encouraging signs and hopeful features, the effects of which should be to stimulate the friends of the Christian Sabbath to a renewed zeal and a still more vigorous effort to preserve for our children and our children's children, and for the American Nation and the world, this most beneficent gift of God to man, which our Master said was made for man, and of which He is the Lord—a day sacred for religious exercises, spiritual culture and Christian work.

We therefore do earnestly recommend that this General Assembly adopt the following resolutions as expressing the strong convictions of the Presbyterians of the United States of America upon this vital question, with the prayer that by so doing many in this and in other lands may be stimulated to a stronger conviction and a renewed zeal in defense of the sacred Sabbath day:

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly reaffirms its previously expressed conviction that the law of the Sabbath is a Divine law of perpetual binding obligation upon all men.

Resolved, 2. That the Sabbath is given of God to man specifically that he may, one day in seven, cease from his secular pursuits and turn to the contemplation of the Divine, and to the seeking after the knowledge of God.

Resolved, 3. That the Christian Sabbath, or Lord's Day, commemorates the expression of Divine power and Divine love given to mankind in the threefold witness of the Resurrection, the descent of the Holy Spirit on the great day of Pentecost, and the unveiling of the New Jerusalem to the Apostle John on Patmos, as he was in the Spirit on the Lord's Day; and that it should be observed sacred to religious uses, spiritual culture and Christian work.

Resolved, 4. That any and all secularization of the Christian Sabbath day is destructive of its beneficent design, and inimical to both public and private morality.

Resolved, 5. That all profanation of the Christian Sabbath converts this most potent force for righteousness into an equally potent force for evil, so that in a profane Sabbath God is less honored, and Satan is better served, than upon any other day of the week.

Resolved, 6. That the Christian Sabbath will be saved or lost to the Christian world by the action and influence of the members of the Christian Church. We do therefore most earnestly enjoin the ministers, elders and members of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America to a renewed diligence and faithfulness, by both precept and example, for the preservation of the sacred character of the Christian Sabbath day:—

a. By an active use of the day in Christian work.

b. By abstaining from the more popular and therefore more dangerous forms of Sabbath desecration, such as the purchase and reading of the Sunday newspapers, advertising in the Sunday newspaper, and from all forms of excursions, sports, games and amusements on the Lord's Day, and also all unnecessary secular work by ourselves and our employees; all unnecessary traveling and visiting, and from all things that are opposed to the spirit and purpose of this day as defined in the Word of God.

Resolved, 7. That we heartily commend President McKinley and Secretary of State Hon. John Hay for the instructions sent to Commissioner-General Ferdinand W. Peck and Ambassador Gen. Horace Porter to close the United States Pavilion and offices at the Paris Exposition on the Lord's Day, and to endeavor to secure concerted action of the American exhibitors to the same end; while we deprecate the action of the French authorities which has denied to the American section of the American exhibitors the right to close their exhibits on the Lord's Day, and have consented to the closing of the United States Pavilion only, which is distinctively the property of the United States Government.

Resolved, 8. That we respectfully request the United States Congress and all State Legislatures to make no more appropriations for expositions to be held in this or any other country without the proviso that such expositions shall be closed on the Lord's Day.

Resolved, 9. That we deprecate the rapidly increasing Sabbath employment of corporate employees in this country; so that to-day, by a careful estimate, no less than 4,000,000 men are forcibly deprived of their inalienable right to this day of rest.

Resolved, 10. That we earnestly request the railroad companies of this land that are engaged in running Sunday excursions, or allowing their road and rolling stock to be used for such purpose, to reconsider their action in this regard, so as to secure the minimum of transportation and service of their employees on this day, both on economic and moral grounds.

Resolved, 11. That we hereby urge all publishers of daily newspapers who are engaged in what is known as seven-day journalism to seriously consider the advisability of discontinuing the Sunday edition.

Resolved, 12. That any and all efforts to promote commercial or business interests and financial gain at the expense of the sacred character and religious uses of the Christian Sabbath are inimical to the best interests of society and the State.

Resolved, 13. That we most heartily endorse the work of the American Sabbath Union and the Woman's National Sabbath Alliance, and bespeak for them the cordial coöperation of our Sessions and Churches in their faithful endeavors to promote a better religious observance of the Lord's Day throughout the United States.

Resolved, 14. That we earnestly recommend that each pastor, on some Sabbath in the month of April next, preach a sermon on the Sabbath, and that an offering be made for the work of the American Sabbath Union, or that this cause be placed upon the list of benevolences of the Church; contributions to be sent to Col. A. S. Bacon, Treasurer, New York City.

Resolved, 15. That the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work be requested to prepare a lesson specifically on the Sabbath, supplemental to the regular Sabbath-school lesson, and that our Sabbath-school superintendents be requested to use the same for Sabbath, October 7.

Resolved, 16. That the Assembly's Committee on Sabbath Observance be continued, and these resolutions be read by the pastors from their pulpits in connection with the sermon preached on this subject.

All of which is respectfully submitted by the Committee.

Rev. John Fox, D.D., Secretary of the American Bible Society, addressed the Assembly, and the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Assembly reaffirms its conviction, expressed last year, of the importance of the work of the American Bible Society to the mission work of the Church, and it recommends, in order that there may be more efficient coöperation with the Society, that each Presbytery appoint a Standing Committee on the work of the American Bible Society.

Rev. Edward T. Swiggett and Rev. James G. Galbreath were appointed a Committee to prepare a minute with reference to Rev. William A. Echols, deceased.

It was Resolved, That the daily newspapers of St. Louis be requested to make no report of the proceedings of Saturday in their Sunday issues.

The Order of the Day, the Report of the Special Committee on Vacancy and Supply, was taken up. The Overtures to the Presbyteries contained in the Report were adopted. Pending the consideration of the remainder of the Report, and of an amendment thereto, the Report was referred back to the Committee.

Stone, of the Presbytery of Winnebago.

A communication was received from the Young Men's Christian Association of St. Louis, extending greetings to the General Assembly, and inviting Commissioners to make free use of its building. The invitation was accepted with thanks.

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief through its Chairman, Mr. Louis H. Severance, presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by the Chairman of the Committee, Rev. B. L. Agnew, D.D., Secretary of the Board, and others, was adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Assembly's Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief would report that in the examination of the forty-fifth annual statement of the "Presbyterian Board of Relief for Disabled Ministers and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Ministers," they find the following facts:

The roll of annuitants has greatly increased during the year past, so that there are now 903 names of individuals and families, representing a total of over 3600 persons who are entirely or in part dependent upon this Board for their support. Three hundred and sixty-three of these are ministers, 127 of whom are on the Honorably Retired Roll, entitled to be placed upon this roll only after thirty years of active service in the Presbyterian Church, and being not less than seventy years of age. These 127 ministers have an average age of seventy-eight and two-tenths years, and have been in the actual service of our Church an average of forty-four and four-tenths years. There are 483 widows of ministers, one widow of a medical missionary, and eight female missionaries who are broken down in health, making an aggregate of 492 women and their families. Besides these there are thirty-two orphan families, and in the Westminster House at Perth Amboy, N. J., sixteen guests.

The question will naturally be asked, What are these persons and families receiving? Those on the Honorably Retired Roll are entitled, under the rule of the Board, to receive each $300 per year, but owing to the fact that all do not ask for the full amount they are entitled to, the average amount paid is $287.87. This required an expenditure of $35,925 for the past year. After thus providing for the "Old Guard," there was only an average amount of $181.76 in the Board treasury for the remaining 776 families. Surely no one will for a moment think the Board has been too generous with these aged and honorable men and women, but rather that the Church at large has failed to fully appreciate her responsibility and has not reached her full measure of duty in contributing to the immediate needs of this Board.

It is a startling and important fact that the demand upon this treasury for relief has been steadily increasing each year of the fifty years past.

In 1860, the first decade, there were forty-eight names, representing ministers or families under the care of the Church; in 1870, 246; in 1880, there were 427; in 1890, 624, and in 1900, 903, an increase of forty-three per cent. during the last decade. These facts show most conclusively that we must be more loyal and generous to this branch of the great benevolent work of our Church. We call attention to the comparative statement of contributions for the years 1899 and 1900, showing a growing and increasing interest in this work by the gifts of churches, which present a gain of $5678, and individual contributions increasing $1000. More churches have become contributors during the past year than ever before, the total number reaching 4240, but, unfortunately, of these 2045 gave only $5 or less each.

A deep loss has been sustained by this Board in the death of the largest regular individual contributor, Mr. John D. Thompson, of Los Angeles, Cal., who has shown his love and appreciation for the work of this Board by contributing during the past ten years an average of about $5000 yearly, thus contributing annually more than one-twentieth of all given by churches and from individuals. Were it not for the income received from endowment funds contributed by generous friends in the past and from unrestricted legacies, the treasury would have long since been depleted, or this noble work have been greatly curtailed.

While the permanent funds have thus been a source of unfailing supply in the past, we have reached a period when income from endowments or trust funds has greatly decreased. Business men recognize the difficulty of finding safe investment securities at a greater rate than three to four per cent., while if moneys are placed in Government bonds they will not yield over two per cent., so that all future investments or reinvestments of maturing loans must be made at a less rate than the Board has been receiving. The income from permanent funds will thus be reduced, and the need of increased endowments from individuals and increased gifts from our churches is strongly emphasized.

Lest some Presbyter may feel that he or his Presbytery has no personal interest in increasing the contribution to this Board, we would call attention to the tabulated statements of contributions and payments, as shown on pages 55 to 57, and note that with the exception of four Synods, viz., Montana, New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania, all other Synods are receiving through their beneficiaries a very much larger amount than the Synods or Presbyteries contribute to this Board. Attention is also called to the large number of non-contributing churches in the various Presbyteries.

Although not officially informed of the fact since the last meeting of the Board, we have heard of the death of Rev. Henry E. Niles, D.D., who was a charter member of this Board, and has been connected with it as a director ever since it was incorporated. He was profoundly interested in this most beneficent work, was regular in his attendance upon all the meetings of the Board, and ever prayed most fervently for God's blessings to rest upon the efforts made to carry comfort and sunshine into the homes of the worthy annuitants of the Board.

Your Committee would recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That the examination of the Minutes of the Board shows that the great trust committed to the directors of the work of relief has been executed with painstaking conscientiousness, and the Church has every reason to repose confidence in their wisdom and fidelity in the performance of the delicate and difficult duties entrusted to their hands.

2. That to its Secretary, Rev. B. L. Agnew, D.D., who has so zealously and faithfully served our Church through his connection with this Board, we would express words of earnest and hearty commendation.

3. That this General Assembly expresses the earnest desire that all our people make a special effort to show their high appreciation of the faithful labors of the noble men and women who have so long served our beloved Church, by making generous contributions to this hallowed cause, so that while the sun is setting upon their lives they may be made to feel that they are not forgotten, but are affectionately remembered by a grateful Church.

4. That Art. 4, Sec. 3, of the By-Laws of this Board, relating to investments of funds be made to read as follows: "All investment of funds which are left to the management of this Board shall be made in such securities as are sanctioned by the laws of Pennsylvania relating to investments by executors and trustees, or in such other good securities as may be formally authorized by not less than two-thirds of the members of the Board."

5. That pastors be requested to deliver a special sermon to their congregations at least once each year, setting forth the Board's work and needs, and that a contribution for this Board be taken at that time.

6. That the rules and regulations of the Board, as recorded on pages 11 to 21 (both inclusive), of the annual Report, be approved.

7. That this General Assembly urges the Sessions of our churches to appoint Special Committees, consisting of representatives of the various organizations of the churches, to devise ways and means for largely increasing the contributions to this sacred cause, and that a member of the Session be appointed a Committee to procure from the Board the necessary literature for circulation in the Church.

8. That Sabbath-schools, Christian Endeavor, Young People's Societies, or other organizations of our youth, be invited to assist in providing for the orphan children under the care of this Board.

9. That the noble women of our churches, through their Ladies' or Missionary Societies, be urged to coöperate in this work by regular gifts of money to the treasury of the Board, and by preparing and sending boxes of clothing to such persons as may be suggested by this Board, so that not only the present 492 women now upon the rolls, nearly all of whom represent families, may be fully and properly provided for, but also the gradually increasing number who will eventually come under the care and protection of this Board.

10. That Rev. J. H. Mason Knox, D.D., LL.D., Rev. Samuel

T. Lowrie, D.D., Henry L. Davis, Esq., and Robert H. Smith, Esq., members of the Board, whose terms of office expire with this Assembly, be reëlected, and that Rev. Thomas R. Beeber, D.D., be elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Rev. J. Henry Sharpe, D.D.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

LOUIS H. SEVERANCE,
Chairman.

Overture No. 281, being a memorial from the First Presbyterian Church, Jacksonville, Fla.

The Standing Committee on Freedmen, through the Chairman, Rev. E. Trumbull Lee, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by the Chairman, by Rev. E. P. Cowan, D.D., Secretary of the Board, and others, was adopted. It is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Freedmen respectfully reports as follows:

There is a romance of races. Your Board of Missions for Freedmen is dealing with the romance of the negro race. The story involved is thrilling. The condition of that race in this country as a result of slavery is one thing. There are 8,000,000 negroes in the United States, eighty-five per cent. of whom cannot read. Let this condition alone remain and it means tragedy. But considered with intelligence and with the Christian largeness and intensity of redemptive purpose, the menace is removed, and we have instead a brighter perspective of hope, luminous with a noble destiny, and projected through every possible combination of shadow farther than eye can reach, and filled with the fullness of the Divine blessing.

The Report of your Board of Missions for Freedmen is a paper full of pathos and of noble heroism, and it demonstrates that perseverance of the saints which always wins in every struggle and becomes master in every conflict.

The Report opens with a statement of the financial troubles by which the Board has been afflicted, and out of which this sacred cause has been divinely delivered. The blackness of darkness came when the limit of the Board's ability to borrow was reached, and no member knew where to turn for relief except to Him whose possessions of silver and gold have provided the supply out of which plenty came, and the imperiled credit became gilt-edged and could be turned once more into a marketable security. Listen to these words from the Report: "Our darkest time was in the winter of 1898, when we reached the limit of our credit in bank and were nearing the payments of January, not only with absolutely no money in sight in any direction, but with the largest interest-bearing debt we have ever carried. Now that this day of adversity is over and deliverance at hand, it is interesting as well as profitable to look back over the way through which we have come, and see what reason we have for thanking God and taking courage. In our extremity we sent out a cry of distress to some of our best friends, ending with, 'Will you come to our help, or shall we give up the work?' The cry was not in vain. Many friends wrote us words of cheer, and sent us help and bid us keep our courage up. But best of all, on the second day of the new year, the very day when over $9000 should be sent out as salaries, and when we had not a dollar to send, a modest letter came from one of God's noblemen, a man not personally known to any member of the Board, containing a check for $10,000, 'for our general work.' Whether this came in answer to our direct appeal to men, as well as our prayer to God, we know not; but we do know it was a Divine deliverance. It was the turning-point in our struggle against debt. The language of our hearts was the language of David when he said, 'This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles.' Other friends came later to our help, and by the close of that year we had paid all our bills and taken nearly $18,000 off our financial load. But we came to the Assembly with still a debt of $40,000.

"While no large amount was secured directly by this effort, the way was no doubt prepared for the finally successful effort of the Standing Committee on Freedmen, of which Rev. Charles Herr, D.D., of Jersey City, N. J., was Chairman. It was in the air that the debt on the Freedmen's Board must be removed. The Committee rightly interpreted the temper of the Assembly, and calling to its aid and availing itself of the counsels of Rev. H. W. Hulbert, of Cleveland, and Rev. W. H. Hubbard, of Auburn, N. Y., a scheme was soon devised and executed, with the hearty coöperation of Rev. Robert F. Sample, D.D., the Moderator, and Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., the Stated Clerk, whereby at the close of the day on which Dr. Herr made his Report on the Freedmen's Board, we could publish to the world that the whole $40,000 was secured—sufficient assurances having been received by letter, by telegram, by pledge and by verbal promise to that effect. This money was, of course, only promised, but as the months rolled by these promises began to be redeemed until, when our books closed for the year, over $37,000 had been paid in, with a month still remaining before the meeting of this year's Assembly. Notwithstanding this shortage on the $40,000 pledge, we are glad to say that the excess of receipts over expenditures for the current year enabled the Board to come to the rescue and wipe from its books every last vestige of a debt that had been hampering and hindering it in its work and progress for the past eight years."

The debt has been extinguished, but new work must be undertaken. Expansion is in the air. It has ever been the determining principle of that kingdom that is an everlasting kingdom, and the demands of the work in this department of human redemption have but given a staccato of obligation to the supreme imperatives of the Master's commission, "Go, teach all nations."

More money is needed, and where men are at work who are outside of our commission, putting into operation great social and industrial forces for the saving of the black race, but who are appealing successfully to Presbyterians for large sums of money with which to carry out their intelligent and philanthropic enterprises, this Assembly would do well, while not belittling such enterprises, to emphasize the necessity and the importance of just the kind of work that our great Church is doing for the negro, and of giving to that work. This is nowhere better stated than in the body of the Board's Report, as follows: "There is no school of any prominence on our list in which we do not maintain and encourage as far as our means will allow some kind of industrial work. With more money at our command to spend in this direction, most gladly would we spend it. Our Board, however, is a missionary Board, and our work is primarily a missionary work. The injunction of our Saviour is, 'Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness.' Our object in giving the youth of this race an education is not primarily that they may 'make a living,' but rather that they may rightly apprehend the saving truth as it is in Jesus Christ, retain it themselves intelligently in their hearts, and maintain it steadfastly in their lives in the midst of a wicked and gainsaying world. Every school that we have is primarily a religious school. More than this, it is meant to be a Presbyterian school, in which the doctrines of our Church are taught, and the spirit and genius of our phase of the Christian faith impressed upon the pupils. It is gratifying to state that the Board has received during the year $155,033.08, which amount is an increase of $5,599.76 over the previous year. That this money has been both wisely and economically expended, an examination of the financial tables will demonstrate. Indeed, for the best health of the work, the economy has been altogether too rigid for the grandest results, and we cannot help the wish that the liberality of our Church might be more abundant in the year to come."

It is one of the pathetic notes in the Board's Report that the Rev. J. J. Beacom, D.D., Treasurer, was stricken with paralysis last December, but the carefulness of the office is nowhere better exhibited than in the statement that his duties have been assumed, for the time at least, by the present office force.

Mrs. C. E. Coulter, who has been for sixteen years the General and Corresponding Secretary of the Freedmen's Department of the Woman's Board, resigned during the year, and her place was taken by Mrs. Flora D. Palmer, as General Secretary, and Mrs. V. P. Boggs, as Corresponding Secretary. In conclusion we would state:

1. Your Committee has examined the books of the Freedmen's Board and find them neatly and correctly kept. We recommend their approval.

2. We would recommend that this Assembly express its conviction that the scope of the Freedmen's work is such as to justify an appeal for $200,000 for the year to come.

3. We recommend that a resolution of sympathy be conveyed by Dr. Cowan from this Assembly to the Rev. Dr. Beacom in his great affliction, by which he has been removed from his office of Treasurer, in which office he has been so long faithfully serving the interests of the Church without compensation.

4. The term of service of the following-named members expires with this Assembly, and we recommend their reëlection, viz., Rev. D. S. Kennedy, D.D., Rev. H. T. McClelland, D.D., Rev. D. M. Skilling, Rev. S. J. Glass, D.D., and Mr. Vincent Miller.

Finally, we desire to commend most heartily the work of our consecrated women in furthering the great work of this Board.

Respectfully submitted,

E. TRUMBULL LEE, Chairman.

The Order of the Day, being the Report of the Presbytery of Westchester on the question of Ministerial Representation in Church Judicatories, was taken up, and after consideration the Overture therein contained was ordered sent down to the Presbyteries. The Report is as follows:

At a meeting of the Presbytery of Westchester, held in Hartford, Conn., April 17, 1900, the following action was taken:

The Presbytery of Westchester, pursuant to the directions of the General Assembly (Minutes, 1899, page 109), recommend that the following Overture be sent down to the Presbyteries for their approval:

Shall Section 2 of Chapter X of the Form of Government be amended as follows:

II. A Presbytery consists of (1) Active members, namely, all pastors and one ruling elder from each congregation within a certain district; also all ministers residing in such district appointed by the Presbytery, or a superior Judicatory, to some particular work of the Church under control of the appointing Judicatory, while engaged in such work; and, (2) All other ministers on its roll.

In Presbytery all members shall have the right to sit and speak, to serve on Committees, and shall be eligible to office; but active members only may vote. No Presbytery shall consist of less than five ministers who are active members.

Attest:

W. J. CUMMING, Stated Clerk.

The Stated Clerk reported on the Overture sent down by the last Assembly to the Presbyteries. The Report was approved, and is as follows:

The Stated Clerk respectfully reports to the General Assembly the answers of the Presbyteries to the Overtures sent down by the last General Assembly, containing an amendment of Chapter XIII of the Book of Discipline, and commonly known as the Overture on Judicial Commissions. The Presbyteries voting in the affirmative appear to have been 108; the Presbyteries in the negative, 64; the Presbyteries which took no action were 19, and the Presbyteries not reporting were 41. The law enacted by the General Assembly of 1891 requires that these returns shall be referred to a Committee of Canvass for final report, and for action by the Assembly.

The Committee to canvass the answers of the Presbyteries to the Overture on Judicial Commissions, as required by the foregoing report, was appointed as follows: Ministers—W. A. Patton, D.D., J. G. Reaser, D.D., D. W. Cassat; Ruling Elders—B. F. Amerman, S. C. Hodgson.

Revs. A. A. E. Taylor, D.D., W. H. Roberts, D.D., and Robert Hunter, D.D., were appointed the Committee to prepare a minute on the life and services of Rev. Wm. E. Moore, D.D.

The Assembly took recess until 3 o'clock P.M., and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 21, 3 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Education was presented by the Chairman, Rev. George B. Stewart, D.D., was accepted, and after addresses by the Chairman and Rev. Edward B. Hodge, D.D., Secretary of the Board, was adopted, and is as follows:

Ministerial education is just now attracting unusual attention and the problems it starts are being ably discussed in various quarters. It is before this Assembly in the annual Report of the Board of Education, and in the Report of the Special Committee appointed by the Assembly of 1899. The Report of the Board was referred to your Committee. This is an able and interesting Report. It shows a prosperous year for the Board and a wise administration of the interests committed to it.

It in the main is concerned with the matter of student aid, but also deals with the matter of ministerial supply, and only indirectly touches upon the question of theological curriculum. While it does not fall within the province of the Board to deal with the matter of the theological curriculum, nor within the province of your Committee, yet we cannot refrain from the remark that it is second in importance to no other portion of the subject. The curriculum must be carefully articulated to the academic curriculum; it must be harmoniously and symmetrically developed within its own area, and it must adequately prepare for the work of the ministry in our Church. Before it can meet satisfactorily these conditions it must undergo many modifications and readjustments. This matter presses for immediate attention on the part of those charged with the education of our ministers.

The Report of the Board calls attention to the decrease in the number of candidates for the ministry which has characterized this past year as the three preceding years. There were twenty-three candidates in preparatory schools, 294 in college and 399 in theological seminary, a total of 716, being twenty-nine less than in the previous year. Undoubtedly "a low spiritual condition in our families and our congregations" is a cause of the decline, very properly emphasized in the Report. This should stir us to prayer for a renewed spiritual life. But other influences are working to this result. Undoubtedly many serious and earnest young men turn from the ministry to other fields of Christian service because of the conviction, not entirely without justification, that they can find in them quite as large a sphere of Christian usefulness as in the ministry. Ordination no longer holds open the only door to active Christian usefulness, and its attractiveness to many of our most thoughtful and capable young men is sadly impaired by the intellectual and religious life to which they suppose it admits. It behooves the Church to ask why so many godly and able young men deliberately reject the claims of the ministry upon them.

The Board's Report deals largely with the question of student aid. As this question is before the Assembly in the Report of the Special Committee, it is neither seemly nor necessary for this Committee to discuss it. We take satisfaction in saying that so long as the present system of giving aid to needy students obtains, we do not see how the administration of the system can be improved. It is carefully safeguarded by the rules of the Board and by the diligence of its Secretary, so as to prevent unworthy or unpromising men from receiving aid. If there be such receiving aid, the fault is largely that of the Presbytery recommending the young man and the Faculty of the institution where he is studying.

The Report makes a gratifying financial exhibit. The debt of $5337.50 with which it began the year has been paid, all obligations have been met, and there is at the close of the year $7216.41 in the treasury. The Board entertain the hope that the scholarship aid may be restored from $75 to $80 for college and seminary students, and from $65 to $70 for preparatory students.

The records of the meetings of the Board have been examined and give evidence of fidelity and wisdom in the management of its business. The published financial statement of the Treasurer, accompanied by the certification of audit, has been carefully examined also and is most satisfactory to the Committee.

We recommend that the Assembly take the following action:

1. That Presbyteries are recommended to strengthen their Committees of Education by putting on them the wisest men in the Presbytery; to entrust to them the examination of candidates with respect to personal religion and motives for seeking the ministry; to hold special meetings for the examination of candidates for licensure or ordination where full time cannot otherwise be allowed for the all-important work; to combine written with oral examinations for the better testing of candidates; to enter into and maintain correspondence with other Presbyteries in order that the same standard of strict attention to the watch and care of candidates may everywhere prevail for the common advantage and protection.

2. That the attention of Presbyteries, Presbyterial Committees on Education, pastors and Sessions is called to the fact that more than one-half of our churches made no contribution to this Board during the past year, and they are earnestly advised to use diligent efforts to increase the number of contributing churches this year.

3. That the last Thursday in January is set apart as the day of prayer for colleges, seminaries and schools of learning, and our churches are called to observe the same by appropriate services.

4. That the records of the proceedings of the Board are approved and the diligence and wisdom of the Board, its Secretary and its Treasurer are commended.

5. That the Rev. Robert Hunter, D.D., Rev. Charles Wadsworth, Jr., D.D., Rev. Lewis S. Mudge, Charles H. Matthews, Esq., George W. Bailey, M.D., George Pierce, Esq., are hereby reëlected as members of the Board to serve for three years.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. B. STEWART, Chairman.

A supplemental Report on Education was also presented, which was adopted, and is as follows:

There have been referred to us by the Assembly * Overtures from the Presbytery of Helena and other Presbyteries, praying that the Board be directed to adopt a rule requiring students to repay the money received from the Board if the candidate shall discontinue his course of study for the ministry of the Presbyterian Church. We recommend that, in view of the fact that such a rule of the Board has been in operation for years, no action be taken.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. B. STEWART, Chairman.

The Moderator announced that Elder William H. Scott had been called home by sickness in his family, and that he had appointed Elder Cyrus H. McCormick, Jr., in his stead to bear greetings to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Chicago.

The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures reported as follows upon Overtures which had been referred to it by the Assembly:

Overture No. 201, from the Presbytery of Newcastle, concerning money received by the Secretaries of the Boards for the supply of pulpits. It is recommended that the following answer be given: As to compensation for occasional pulpit supplies, the Assembly thinks this matter should be left to the judgment and conscience of the salaried agents and officers of the respective Boards. As to income from extended engagements to preach in a given church, the question involves far more than the matter of compensation and the use to be made of it. Such preaching might easily become an impairment of efficiency in the work of the Board to which the agent is already committed, and for which he is already compensated and is distinctly responsible. The Assembly therefore expresses its grave doubt whether such engagements should ever be made. Adopted.

Overtures Nos. 220 and 221, from the Presbyteries of Freeport and Kendall, on the consolidation of Certain Boards to Reduce Expenses. It is recommended that while it is of the last importance that the expense of administration in all the Boards be kept as low as possible, yet it is not deemed wise to open the question of consolidation at the present time. Adopted.

Overture No. 216, from the Presbytery of Dayton, asking a column for contributions to the American Bible Society in the Minutes. It is recommended that no action be taken. Adopted.

The Report of the Special Committee on Ministerial Education was taken up, and after addresses by Rev. S. J. Niccolls, D.D., and others, the Report was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Ministerial Education, appointed by the General Assembly in 1899, would respectfully submit the following report:

This Committee, by the terms of its appointment, was directed to "confer with the authorities of the theological seminaries and other educational institutions, and with the Board of Education, and thoroughly investigate the whole subject of ministerial education, and to report to the next (this) General Assembly." (Minutes, 1899, p. 50.)

In the prosecution of the work assigned to it, the Committee held a session in the city of Philadelphia, December 12, 1899; in Chicago, February 6, 1900; and in Princeton, N. J., April 19, 1900. At its meetings careful and extended consideration was given to all phases of the subject assigned to it. Representatives from the different theological seminaries, and from the Board of Education, were heard at length; and communications were presented from all of the thelogical seminaries in answer to special inquiries sent out by the Committee. The Committee also sent to the Presbyteries such inquiries as these: "Does the present system of Ministerial Education command the hearty support of the ministers and churches? Does the beneficiary system affect in any way the character of our ministry? Does Presbytery take due care in granting applications for aid? What improvements in methods do you suggest?" On these and kindred questions the Committee made diligent investigation, so that if possible all the facts might be brought to light. Replies were received from 120 Presbyteries. In view of all the information thus secured, the Committee presents the following statements :

1. There is no general dissatisfaction with the present system of Ministerial Education. All are agreed that we must have a thoroughly educated ministry, and that the necessity for it was never more urgent than now. There is no demand for lowering the standard of educational qualifications for the ministry ; on the contrary, the call for men of the highest order of intellectual equipment and of the best quality of manhood was never more urgent than at present. There is, however, some criticism as to the methods of education, and the opinion is expressed in influential quarters that the instruction given in our theological seminaries should be revised and adapted more fully to the demands of the present time. It is claimed by some that the course of study now in use is antiquated, and that a proper proportion is not observed in the distribution of the subjects which the students are required to study. Less attention should be given to some branches, and more to others. It is also urged that special attention should be given to the fact that increasingly large numbers of the young men of our Church are seeking their education in State institutions, and that our denominational schools no longer occupy the central and commanding position they once did. As a consequence the Church is losing her distinctive hold upon her educated sons. She cannot afford to be shut out from, or to neglect these great universities which are so powerfully dominating the intellectual life of the country. There is also no little diversity of opinion as to the ways and means of securing the best men for the ministry. A small number has challenged the principle of beneficiary aid, so long in use, and has asked that candidates for the Gospel ministry should have no more favors granted them than are shown to those who are seeking to enter the profession of medicine or law. Others think that aid should be given on the ground of scholarship alone, and not for financial inability. Superior merit should be the test for aid ; the grant should be regarded, not as a gratuity or help to those who need it, but as a prize, or as a reward for service rendered. But the large majority is emphatic in its testimony to the importance, wisdom and justice of beneficiary aid. Most of the Presbyteries refer to some defects and abuses in administration, such as are incidental to the working of all human institutions. They ask that more care should be exercised in the selection of candidates, and greater watchfulness shown in the supervision of their course of study. But they assert, without qualification, that no unwholesome or evil effects upon the character of those thus aided have resulted from the beneficiary system. There is also a desire expressed for some systematic and authoritative method of receiving candidates under care of Presbytery, such as shall be strictly applicable to all. A varying practice in this respect has made the correction of defects and abuses impossible. Another fact brought to the attention of the Committee is, the serious decline which has taken place in the number of candidates for the ministry. The number of candidates reported by the Presbyteries in 1899 was 1115, as against 1161 the preceding year, a loss of forty-six. This decline has been going on steadily for the last four years, until now the loss is 393 during that period. During the same period the candidates under the care of the Board of Education declined 293. That this decline is being felt in the ministry at large, is evidenced by the fact that in 1899 the number of licensures and ordinations was less than in any year since 1895, by thirty-four licensures and six ordinations. Coincident with this, has been a marked decline in the contributions to the Board. In 1893 the income from all sources, exclusive of legacies, was $74,634; in 1898 the income had declined to $56,972. If one could be satisfied that this state of affairs was local and temporary, it might be dismissed without serious thought, or attributed to some special disturbances in our own Church. But the fact is that it is general in its extent. It is characteristic in greater or lesser measures of the whole Church, both in America and England. However much it may be deplored, it must be admitted that multitudes of our educated young men of social standing and of the highest ability, look with little favor on the ministry, and are drawn to other pursuits which seem to offer more brilliant and successful careers.

Various reasons have been given to account for this manifest falling off in the number of candidates. Among others offered to account for it are: the alleged surplusage of ministers, the financial depressions through which our country has recently passed, the distractions due to present theological controversies, financial embarrassment of the great Mission Boards of the Church, and the secularizing influences of State colleges.

Each one of these reasons has doubtless had its application to special cases, but back of all of them is another more comprehensive in its action: it is the spirit of worldliness which has infected the Church and lowered its spiritual vitality. It is a significant fact that the decline in the number of candidates is coincident with the manifest decline in the number of additions to the Church.

All of these statements have been carefully considered by your Committee. They naturally divide themselves into two general classes: those which have reference to the methods of educating candidates for the ministry, and those which have reference to their selection and support.

Your Committee recognize the fact that the character and methods of teaching in our theological seminaries are matters of prime importance in a right theological education. That the instruction must first of all be true to the Word of God, and to the standards of our Church; and, secondly, it should be given along lines adapted to the needs of the time, and in accord with the advanced knowledge of the day.

If the faculties hold to antiquated methods of instruction, or give more attention to studies which were once of supreme importance but now have lost their relative value, the defect should be remedied at once. The supreme object of our theological seminaries should be to train men to be heralds of the Gospel of the grace of God, and not to become experts in theological science, or in criticism, or past masters of ancient languages. Two things should be kept specially in view: the spiritual life of the students and their thorough acquaintance with the Word of God. The pastoral oversight of the students by the professors should not be minimized. It is of supreme importance that they should have an experimental knowledge of the great doctrines of the Gospel, so that they will preach, not speculations, or interrogative discourses concerning religion, but the everlasting verities of revelation. The seminaries should be places of constant prayer as well as study.

Your Committee is also of the conviction that it would be wise to introduce into our seminaries some more direct methods by which the students could be trained in pastoral and parish work. They need more than theoretical instruction to qualify them for the pastorate. This would doubtless require an extension of time for preparation, but it would not be time lost. If the Lord Jesus, in His perfect manhood and taught as none other by the Holy Spirit, waited until he was thirty years old before beginning His public ministry, we cannot claim that there is urgent need for rushing immature young men into the sacred office. Boy preachers can afford to wait. Having the care of souls is a serious business, as well as a most honorable office. But it is to be feared that often the desire to secure a pastoral charge at the earliest possible date, is prompted more by the wish to have a settlement in life than to win souls or to edify the Church. The unwillingness of many a young man to serve a proper apprenticeship has marred his whole subsequent career.

It is our opinion, also, that more definite and systematic instruction should be given in the English Bible. This may seem a strange demand to make, but the fact, as revealed by examinations for ordination, is, that many students leave the seminary without any clear and definite knowledge of the Bible as a whole, or of its different books. They have been trained in exegetical criticism, and can rightly interpret different passages from the original text, but they cannot tell the purport of the book from which they read—their doctrinal knowledge is good, but they are not yet prepared to interpret the Bible to the people. To ask of any young man coming from the seminary a complete mastery of the English Bible would be unreasonable; but surely he ought to be able to tell why the Epistles were written, and the main course of thought in them, or repeat the history that is in the Gospels, or tell in general the nature of the message of the prophets.

Somewhere also in the course of study for the ministry, either in the college or seminary, there should be found a place for thorough acquaintance with English literature. Too often this is overlooked; yet it is of the highest importance to the preacher. It should be the duty of the faculty to point out the best course of reading, and see that it is followed. It may be urged in objection that all this would lead either to an overcrowding of the allotted time or else to its indefinite extension. It is quite certain that it would require higher qualifications for entrance to the seminaries, and also the articulation of the college course with the seminary curriculum. But this is not unreasonable. Indeed, one of the urgent questions before the seminaries is, that they should take some united and definite action with reference to the intellectual qualifications for admission. The seminaries are not primary schools. They should furnish the highest possible intellectual and spiritual instruction, and those who enter as students should be qualified by previous training to receive it. It is not forgotten that some men, poorly qualified intellectually, and who have taken partial courses in the seminaries, have become successful pastors and winners of souls. Some also, who have never entered divinity schools, have learned more by a prayerful study of the Word of God than the most eminent theologian could have taught them, and they have preached the Gospel with apostolic zeal and power. The Holy Spirit in calling and preparing men for the ministry is not limited to any special method. But all this furnishes no ground for the belief that an efficient ministry can be secured without special training, or that the Church should not establish the best possible schools for instructing those who seek to enter it.

The existence and influence of State schools must also be taken into consideration in the education of young men for the ministry. It is true that they have very largely supplanted the denominational college. More and more the public schools and the high schools are being articulated with the State institutions. Our young men in increasing numbers are seeking their education in the State universities. The ample revenues provided by the State, the enlarged facilities for scientific studies, the free tuition, the boasted freedom for investigation, and the toleration of all sorts of religious opinions have their attractions for many, and serve to turn them aside from the denominational college. It is not admitted that the smaller colleges, and especially those under religious influence, are doing an imperfect work, or that they are doomed to perish under the operation of the law of the survival of the fittest. On the contrary, their fruits justify their existence.

Their graduates are among the leaders in Church and State, and the education they give is not inferior to that secured in the great universities. We hold to the truth that religion must ever be an important factor in a true education. It is also from the denominational college that the largest number of candidates for the ministry is recruited. Instead of neglecting these institutions the Church should see that their endowments are made ampler and their facilities for their work enlarged. The Board of Aid for Schools and Colleges should receive a more liberal support from the churches, and be made in some appropriate measure efficient for the work for which it was established. But at the same time it would be folly to neglect the religious education of the sons of the Church who attend the State universities. The time is past when the Church can choose the schools for her children, and enforce their attendance. But she can and ought to follow them with her loving care and instruction. So far, the only direct effort for their spiritual welfare in the majority of State schools, is that made by the Young Men's Christian Association. State laws forbid any special religious instruction in connection with the university curriculum, but we believe that the authorities would gladly welcome the establishment of lectureships, or Bible schools, or divinity halls, that would furnish it for the students. Something could be done, either in connection with the churches of our denomination in university towns, or by some independent institution, that would meet the exigencies of the case. We cannot expect any large number of candidates for the ministry from the State schools until this is done; nor can we afford to have our sons and daughters educated away from the faith of the Church.

Another reason given for the decline in the number of candidates, and one demanding special attention, is the alleged fact that there are now too many ministers. Certainly the ministry, like any other calling, cannot escape from the application of the law of supply and demand; and if it be true that its ranks are overcrowded we need seek for no other cause for the decline. Young men, and especially those who aspire to be useful in the world, will not seek to enter a profession in which they are not wanted. But your Committee is fully persuaded that the facts do not sustain the statement that there are too many ministers. The statistics of the General Assembly show, that during the past five years we have received through ordination, 1429 ministers. During the same period we have lost by death and dismissal 878; this leaves a net gain of 551, or an average of 110 for each year. To this must be added 335 received from other denominations during the same period. Last year we received by ordination 269, and from other bodies 57; but we lost by death and dismissal 178, leaving a net gain of 136. Surely this does not indicate any alarming increase in the ministry of a Church that is extending its work throughout the whole world; nor does the comparison of the number of ministers who are efficient for work, with the number of churches and fields of labor show any surplusage. While it is true that some are without charges, and some are eager to find pastorates and cannot, it does not follow that there is no need for more ministers thoroughly qualified for their work. It must be admitted that there are some who have no special qualifications for the ministerial office, and some have been helped into it who would have been vastly more serviceable in other callings. There are failures in the ministry just as in every other profession. There has been, also, a serious mistake on the part of the Protestant Church in not recognizing the diversity of gifts which the Holy Spirit has given to men for the ministry. There is a disposition to try all by one standard, namely, that of the popular preacher. The gift of prophesying is the coveted and admired one, while the less showy gifts of teaching, exhorting, ruling and ministration, are underrated. It has been assumed that in order to be successful, one must have all these gifts. The conditions of modern life demand a division of labor in the Church, as well as in commercial life. The Church has lost hold of the masses of the people very largely because she has not made provision in the ministry for a proper pastoral oversight of the whole flock. The demand made upon a modern pastor, especially in the large towns and cities, by his preparation for the pulpit, is such that pastoral work and the work of parish administration can, at best, be done by him only in an imperfect and insufficient way. The result is that the poor, who generally require most oversight, are neglected and fall away from the Church. There is need of more ministers in all our large churches, some to preach, some to teach, some to visit, and some to administer. Still greater and more urgent is the need for men of intelligence, piety and apostolic zeal, to extend the kingdom of Christ. No one can look at the wide fields, both at home and abroad, and say that the time has come when the Church need no longer pray the Lord of the harvest that He would send forth more laborers into His harvests. If the statement that there are too many ministers has influenced worthy and desirable young men not to present themselves as candidates for the ministry, it is high time to brand it as misleading. The other reasons given for the decline, such as the financial depression of past years, theological controversies, and the embarrassment of our Mission Boards, are very subordinate ones and do not reach the root of the difficulty. The real cause is a more serious one. It is to be found in the low state of vital piety in the Church. Let the whole Church renew her consecration to her Lord, and realize afresh the supreme importance of her mission to a lost world; let personal and family religion be revived among her members, and it will not be long until her sons will be presenting themselves by the thousands as candidates for the ministry.

The second class of statements under consideration, has reference to the admission and sustaining of candidates during the period of their education. Accepting as true the statement that more ministers of the best qualifications are needed, the question naturally arises, How is the Church to secure them? To this a short and Scriptural answer might be given: "Pray that the Lord would send them, as He has commanded us." Very true, but if it is the prayer of faith, the Church must be prepared to answer her own prayers by the wise use of appropriate means. To pray for more laborers, and at the same time make no provision for their training and maintenance, is like asking for a harvest and neglecting to sow the seed. The problem of introducing young men into the ministry involves two things: one is their financial support, and the other their theological education. As to financial support, the problem is still an unsolved one, as is evidenced not only by the great variety of methods employed, but also by the fact that the very principle of beneficiary aid is challenged by some. It is condemned as injurious to the character of the beneficiary, and as affording an easy way by which incapable men, who could not enter other professions, are helped into the ministry. It is claimed that young men of spirit and determination find their way into other professions through their own exertions, and that the same rule should apply to candidates for the ministry. On the other hand, there are those who contend that the Church should adopt the plan of the national Government with reference to its military and naval cadets, and provide a free education and support for all its candidates. Between these two theoretical extremes, that of giving no support, and of paying all the expenses irrespective of the financial ability of the students, there has been a great variety of practice. A few candidates, so few that they are the exception, support themselves; the vast majority are supported, wholly or in part, by beneficiary aid. This is given in some cases as a reward for superior scholarship, in others as a loan or as payment for a certain amount of missionary service, and in others as a direct grant. The latter class is the most numerous. It must be admitted that, in practice, the tendency is toward the governmental plan, and that the opinion prevails to a large extent among the students themselves, that they have a right to the aid which they seek at the hands of the Church.

This conflict of opinion and diversity in practice at least shows the necessity for finding some settled and underlying principle that shall control the whole matter. For this we turn to the Scriptures. It is but reasonable to suppose that since God has established the ministry, He would not leave us without some instruction on so important a point as its training and support; nor has He done so. We find that under the Old Testament dispensation, the tribe of Levi was set apart to the ministry of the Tabernacle, instead of the first-born of each house, and that provision was made for the support of all its members from those who were "a month old and upwards." Thus the prospective candidates for the priesthood, those who by birth were destined to that office, as well as those already engaged in it, were supported by the other tribes in Israel. The Levitical laws have passed away, and have no application to the new dispensation, but the great principles underlying them have not been abrogated. The Lord Jesus, while changing the methods for the support of the ministry, has clearly enunciated the principle of support. He did indeed send forth His heralds and missionaries empty-handed; they were to carry neither purse nor scrip; but it was also with the significant declaration, "The laborer is worthy of his hire." He transferred to the new dispensation the principle of the old, that the support of the ministry is a sacred charge upon the Church. This parallelism between the two dispensations is positively affirmed by an inspired apostle: "Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar? Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel." A necessary corollary from this statement is, that as the young Levites in their novitiate, were entitled to a support, so now those who have renounced all other pursuits in order that they may prepare themselves for the ministry, are entitled to aid from the Church. But this right to support is not an unconditional one: the candidate is not entitled to it if he has means by which he can support himself. To refuse to use his own means to the very utmost in securing his education would be the sure evidence that his consecration to his divine calling was not complete. If God in his providence has given him the means, either through his own labors or by inheritance, he is bound to use them before he can honorably or righteously accept aid from the Church. It must also be remembered that the primary obligation for the support and education of children, for any calling or profession, is with the parents. Any system of education which would weaken or supplant that obligation would be most disastrous, both in Church and State. It is the duty of both Church and State, in some organized form, to assist in this service, and in case of complete inability on the part of parents to take their place; but the parental obligation is primary. That dedication of sons to the ministry which is not accompanied by any effort or sacrifice on the part of parents to secure their proper education, is a mockery in the sight of God. Whenever the element of self-denial or self-sacrifice is lost sight of in connection with the ministry, either in preparation for it, or in its subsequent exercise, its power is gone. The first condition then is, that this aid be granted only in cases where it is required on the ground of the financial inability of the candidates.

This aid must also be conditioned by such tests and limitation as the Word of God and the experience of the Church demand. The candidates must have the Scriptural qualifications; that is to say, they must furnish the sign-marks of their calling, and give evidence of their capacity to receive a proper training. Under such limitations, there can be no valid objections to the principle of beneficiary aid. It is both reasonable and Scriptural. The Church has acted upon it during all ages of her history, and is now. The seeming exceptions in some branches of the Presbyterian Church, in which aid is not given directly to the students, are not real ones. They simply mean that these churches have not applied the principle to the same extent as others have done. They have made liberal provision for the free education of students for the ministry by establishing seminaries and libraries and providing dormitories; with these they stop, leaving the students to provide for their boarding and clothes. Others go farther and provide for all expenses. How far beneficiary aid should extend is an open question. No rule applicable to all cases can be laid down; each case must be judged on its own merits. Some will necessarily need more help than others, and the question of age must be considered. Doubtless mistakes have been made in the application of the principle; the whole subject of administration needs careful investigation and some reforms to rid it of such abuses as are sure to come through human ignorance and infirmity; but these abuses, whatever they may be, do not affect the soundness of the principle. The dictum so often heard, that "if a man is called of God to the ministry he will get there," is like saying that the "elect will be saved." But God uses means for the accomplishment of His purposes, and these means are not less providential because they are systematized in their working, and the Church is using them for the very purpose of helping men into the ministry. If it were true that the beneficiary system necessarily tends to bring into the sacred office a class of men too indolent or too weak to make the proper exertion to secure their own education, and that it produced men of inferior manhood who had not strength to face the struggles of life, such results would be enough to condemn it. Its fruits would show it to be evil. No greater calamity could happen to a Church than to have its ministry recruited from those who are too mean-spirited to help themselves, without manly independence and self-respect—a ministry without the spirit of self-sacrifice, and whose chief aim is to find a comfortable temporal support. But the long history of beneficiary aid does not show such results. Doubtless some have been aided who should not have been, but in the main its recipients have been among the bravest and most stalwart servants of the Church. Their names can be found among the most self-denying and efficient missionaries, both in the home and foreign field. They have become scholars of whose standing the Church is justly proud. The small help they received did not make them extravagant, or indolent, or unmanly in character. They have fully realized their obligations to the Church for its aid, and they have returned what they received a hundredfold in service. That the beneficiary system tends to recruit the ministry from those who are poor in this world's goods is undoubtedly true. But this is to its praise. Any system of education for the Gospel ministry which does not leave the way open from the handles of the plow and the carpenter's bench to the sacred office is not in accord with the spirit of the Gospel. The opinion held by some that if there were less financial inducements held out to the poor, there would be more from the richer and higher social classes to offer themselves for the ministry is scarcely worthy of consideration. If any one is kept out of the ministry because the poor can freely enter it, that fact shows him to be unworthy of a place in it. Recruits from the wealthier classes might bring more of refinement and a certain kind of culture into the ministry, but they would not bring more, if so much, of that tough-sinewed manhood which is best acquired in the limitations of comparative poverty, and which men attain only through struggle and self-sacrifice. Certain it is that the larger part of the ministry, through all ages of the Church, has come from those who had little of this world's goods.

As already intimated, there are some abuses of the beneficiary system. Aid has been too easily obtained or too freely offered as an inducement to young men to enter the ministry. There is also a growing disposition on the part of students in seminaries to demand it as a right. It is admitted that the needy and the consecrated have a claim upon the care and the support of the Church. The aid which such are entitled to receive is not charity. It is given in fulfillment of a sacred duty. But still it remains with the Church to say how and under what conditions and limitations it will discharge this duty. Only when the student has faithfully and honorably fulfilled these conditions has he the right to ask and receive aid. It is questionable if it should be granted in the collegiate course before the Junior year, except in extraordinary cases. In the judgment of the Committee it should be given in the seminary course through four methods :

1. By scholarships open to all who attain the necessary grade in study.

2. By salaries given for missionary services, under the direction of the faculty.

3. By loans to be repaid either in money or service.

4. By direct grants given to those whose necessities justify it, or, in other words, the method now in general use.

It is enough to say of these conditions that they are not novel or untried. They are already in use, in a disjointed way, in different branches of the Church, some laying emphasis upon the particular excellence of one method, others of another. The Methodist Church uses the loan system and prefers it to all others. In the Scottish churches scholarships or bursaries prevail. What is needed is, that these different methods should be rightly coördinated and systematized. No one method of granting aid is suitable for all cases. The plan advocated by some of providing fully for all, rich and poor, as is done by the general Government in the case of military cadets, has at least the merit of simplicity, and there is much to be said in its favor. But its right application would require a degree of authority, and an exercise of discipline on the part of the Church more in harmony with military rule, or the Order of the Jesuits, than the free life of American Presbyterianism. It would necessarily place the power of determining who should enter the ministry with the seminaries, instead of the Presbyteries. The best features of this system could be conserved to the Church by adopting the plan of scholarships, open to all who attain the necessary grade in scholarship. Certain it is that before it could be adopted in its entirety, the terms of admission into our theological seminaries must be definitely determined and unified.

There are two agencies employed in the distribution of beneficiary aid, both of which have been subjected to some criticism. One is the Board of Education, which acts under laws and regulations made by the General Assembly. Your Committee regret to say that this important agency has been greatly limited in its work through lack of financial support. The contributions to its treasury, as already stated, have steadily declined since 1895. The amount which it was able to give last year to each candidate under its care was only $75. There has always been some opposition, and a large amount of indifference to the claims of this Board on the part of the churches. It cannot be said to be a popular one. It has been charged with mistakes of omission and commission which properly belong to the Presbyteries. Too often it has been required to "make bricks without straw," and condemned because it could not. Your Committee feels that it is imperative on the part of the Board, as an agent of the Assembly, to assert more vigorously and effectually its claims upon the whole Church, and also that pastors should be urged to justify its claims on their people. Some changes also should be made in the rules of the Board, by which it can more effectually correct the mistakes arising from the neglect of Presbyteries in exercising proper care in receiving candidates. Your Committee also are of the opinion that aid should not be granted by the Board to candidates until they have entered the Junior class at college, and only to those who are taking a course of study approved by the Board.

The other agency employed in granting beneficiary aid, is that of scholarships in the seminaries. It is not directly responsible to the General Assembly. Its administration is primarily determined by the conditions imposed by the donors of the scholarships, and by the authorities of the seminaries. In some seminaries the income of the scholarship fund exceeds the amount of aid granted to their students by the Board of Education, and thus it becomes an important factor in determining the patronage of these institutions. Your Committee takes pleasure in saying that there is no foundation for the charge that has been made, that this scholarship fund has been used to induce students to come to a particular seminary on the ground that a larger amount of aid would be granted. The agreement made among the seminaries, as to the maximum amount to be granted in any case, has been faithfully observed. This amount is fixed at $200 from all sources. We have also the assurance that these grants from the scholarship fund are made only after a careful and faithful examination on the part of the faculties of the merits of each case.

Another very important element in the care of candidates for the ministry is Presbyterial oversight. This, as we find from the reports of Presbyteries, is too often neglected, or but imperfectly discharged. Many are taken under the care of Presbytery hastily and without due examination. There is no general rule binding upon all the Presbyteries as to the conditions of reception. Some are rigorous and some exceedingly lax as to the terms of admission. Your Committee is of the opinion that some constitutional rule should be adopted regulating this matter, which should bind all the Presbyteries, both as to the reception of candidates and their subsequent oversight. A prolonged study of this whole question of ministerial education has impressed your Committee with a profound sense of its great importance at the present time. The attention of the whole Church should be directed to it anew in order that she may more fully discharge her duty to her sons, to the rising generation, and to the nations that need her ministry. It is time to make an advance in the training of men for the work of evangelization both at home and abroad. Especially should the Board of Education receive more liberal support in its appointed work. It is no new or untried institution. Its history, extending over half a century, fully justifies its existence. It has already returned a thousandfold to the Church all the money placed in its treasury by educating men who have adorned her ministry, and carried the banner of the Cross into the uttermost parts of the world.

In view of all the facts thus presented, your Committee would recommend to the Assembly the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly expresses its profound conviction of the importance of securing consecrated and thoroughly educated young men for the Gospel ministry, especially at the present time. It regards with anxiety the decline in the number of candidates, and it would earnestly remind the churches under its care, of the solemn admonition of the Head of the Church: "Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest that he would send forth laborers into his harvest." It enjoins upon all pastors to present the claims of the ministry upon our educated young men, and suggests "Education Day" as a suitable time for so doing. In view, also, of the large number of the sons and daughters of the Church in attendance upon State colleges and universities, it would urge upon the various Synods to make special provision for their religious instructions, in such ways as may be judged most expedient, and in agreement with the laws governing such institutions.

Resolved, 2. In order that the most efficient measures may be taken to guard against the reception of insufficient men as candidates for the sacred office, the Assembly hereby overtures to the Presbyteries for adoption by them, under the provisions of Section 6, Chapter xii, of the Form of Government, the following rule, to be known as

CONSTITUTIONAL RULE NO. 3.

SECTION 1. Every applicant seeking to be taken under the care of Presbytery as a candidate for the ministry shall file his application with the Stated Clerk at least three months before the meeting of the Presbytery, during which time a careful investigation shall be made as to his Christian character, physical and mental qualifications, and his previous education; and no person shall be received by Presbytery as a candidate for the ministry who has not been recommended by the Session of the church of which he is a member, under whose care he shall have been for a period of at least six months.

SECTION 2. Presbytery shall examine annually, in person or by letter, all candidates under its care concerning their Christian experience, their progress in study, and their fidelity to the doctrines of the Church. It shall also advise with them concerning their course of study, and the institutions in which they are to pursue their studies.

Resolved, 3. That the Assembly hereby directs the use of the following form of application by the Presbyteries in the reception of candidates:

APPLICATION TO THE PRESBYTERY of . . . . . to be taken under its care as a candidate for the Gospel Ministry.

Name, ...

Address, ...

I wish to enter the Gospel Ministry of the PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

My age is . . . . ., my parents were members of . . . . . I became a communicant in . . . . . Church, A.D. . . . , have been a member of . . . . . Church since . . . . . I agree, if received as a candidate, to submit to the RULES and REGULATIONS OF PRESBYTERY applying to candidates for the GOSPEL MINISTRY.

For the information of Presbytery I answer the following questions:

How long have you attended high school or academy?

Did you graduate?

What other schools have you attended?

How long have you attended college, and where?

What post-graduate or seminary work have you done, and where?

What degrees have you obtained, and from what institutions?

What practical Christian work have you been engaged in?

Give your reasons for desiring to enter the Gospel Ministry?

Have you reached the conviction that you ought to be a minister as the result of prayer and inquiry from the Lord?

What experience have you had in other work, such as teaching or any business calling?

I also give the following references:

As to Character. . { 1. 2. 3.

As to Scholarship. { 1. 2. 3.

As to Ability. . . { 1. 2. 3.

This application is to be accompanied by the recommendation of the Session of the church of which the applicant is a member.

The Committee also recommends that the General Assembly send down the following overture to the Presbyteries, viz.: "Shall the Form of Government, Chap. xiv, Sec. 6, be amended by the addition of the clause, 'and no candidate shall receive license to preach until he has been under the care of Presbytery for at least one year, except in extraordinary cases, and by consent of three-fourths of the members of Presbytery present.'"

So far as the distribution of beneficiary aid is concerned, your Committee is embarrassed, in making definite recommendations, by the fact that the funds of the Board are held in accordance with the terms of its charter, which limit them exclusively to the aid of indigent and worthy students. This also is true to a large extent of the Scholarship Funds of the seminaries. This aid might be granted in some cases in the form of a loan, or upon conditions of attainment in scholarship.

We would therefore recommend to the Assembly the adoption of the following with reference to the Board of Education:

Resolved, 1. That the Board of Education be and hereby is authorized to allow those who ask help from it, the option of accepting the amount granted as a loan, without interest; and service upon the part of the borrower, in mission fields either at home or abroad, shall entitle him to a credit of $150 for each year of service.

Resolved, 2. That the Board of Education is hereby directed to prepare a blank, to be signed by the candidate seeking aid from its funds, in which application shall be set forth the extent of his inability to provide for himself the necessary funds for his education. It shall also contain a pledge from him, that if at any time during his course of study, he should wish to abandon the ministry, or if he ceases to adhere to the Standards of the Presbyterian Church, or if he changes his place of study contrary to the direction of the Presbytery, or if he withdraws from connection with the Church, he will refund to the Board of Education all moneys received by him therefrom. This provision shall not apply to those who, by reason of ill-health or other providential reasons, are prevented from carrying out their purpose.

Among the subjects submitted to your Committee from the theological seminaries were two, which we believe should receive special consideration. One had reference to the terms of admission to the seminaries, and the other to the length of the course of study. Your Committee would recommend that the General Assembly adopt the following:

Resolved, That the Governing Boards of the several seminaries under the care of the Assembly are hereby requested to meet, through their representatives, and consider the questions of the terms of admission to the seminaries, and the length of the course of study, and such other matters as may concern the advancement of the seminary course; and also to consider the methods of granting beneficiary aid, presented in this report, as they apply to the Scholarship Funds of the seminaries; and to report their conclusions to the next General Assembly.

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Committee,

SAMUEL J. NICCOLLS, Chairman;
LEVI PARSONS,
WM. MCKIBBIN,
J. ADDISON HENRY,
W. S. PLUMER BRYAN,
JOHN B. DONALDSON,
FREDERICK G. BURNHAM,
HENRY W. JESSUP,
ELISHA H. PERKINS,
E. W. C. HUMPHREY,
H. M. HINCKLEY.

The Stated Clerk was appointed to be the medium of communication between the governing Boards of the several theological seminaries in securing a meeting of their representatives, as required by the last resolution of the Report of the Special Committee on Ministerial Education.

The Report of the Committee on Permanent Clerk was made the second Order of the Day for to-morrow afternoon.

The time for the opening of the afternoon session of the Assembly was changed to 2.30 o'clock.

Rev. F. E. Shearer, D.D., at the request of Rev. George W. F. Birch, D.D., was appointed counsel in his appeal case.

The Assembly adjourned until 9 o'clock to-morrow, and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 21, 8 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting was held in the interests of Missions for Freedmen, and addresses were delivered by Rev. W. G. Craig, D.D., Rev. Lawrence Miller, Rev. D. J. Sanders, D.D., and Rev. W. H. Weaver, D.D.

TUESDAY, May 22, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional exercises.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following Report, which was accepted and adopted:

Overtures Nos. 237 to 247,* bearing upon the Duties, Salaries and Terms of Service of the Stated and Permanent Clerks and the Bond of the Stated Clerk. The matters pertaining to the Permanent Clerk have been referred by the Assembly to another Committee, it is recommended that upon all the Overtures bearing upon the duties, salary, term of service, and bond of the Stated Clerk no action be taken.

Overture No. 222, from the Presbytery of Steubenville, on a column in the Statistical Reports for Temperance contributions. It is recommended that no action be taken.

Overtures Nos. 1–89, being Overtures† with reference to a proposed rule for the Board of Education, as to the repayment of money received by students. It is recommended that inasmuch as what these Overtures ask for has been provided for in the supplementary Report of the Standing Committee on Education, and also in the Report of the Special Committee on Ministerial Education, that no further action be taken.

* For List see p. 36. † For List see p. 34.

Overture No. 205, from the Presbytery of Binghamton, on the so-called Topeka Overture. Answer, that no action be taken.

Overture No. 210, from the Presbytery of Osborne, asking for action upon the methods of making appropriation by the Board of Home Missions. The following answer is recommended: Whereas, The matter asked has been adjusted by the Presbytery and the Board, therefore no action be taken.

Overture No. 208, from the Presbytery of Indianapolis, asking that the surplus funds remaining in the hands of the Assembly be distributed among the Boards. It is recommended that no action be taken.

Overture No. 248, from the Synod of Minnesota, on approving Synodical Records. The following answer is recommended: The Assembly orders that when an ecclesiastical court has been opened by devotional exercises this shall be a sufficient substitute for an opening prayer.

In relation to the request or resolutions with reference to the famine in India, it is recommended that the matter be referred to the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT F. SAMPLE, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Polity, through the Chairman, Rev. Daniel W. Fisher, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and is as follows:

Overture No. 226, from the Presbytery of Kansas City, asking that two Presbyteries may be permitted to exist within the same territory. It is recommended that no action be taken. Adopted.

Overture No. 206, from the Presbytery of New Brunswick, asking for the simplification and shortening of heresy trials. It is recommended that no action be taken. Adopted.

Overture No. 207, from the Presbytery of Newark, suggesting an amendment of Chap. X, Sec. 2, of the Form of Government. It is recommended, on account of the Overture which has already been sent down to the Presbyteries on this subject, that no action be taken. Adopted.

Overture No. 214, from the Presbytery of Lackawanna, asking for reduced representation in the General Assembly, and proposing plans for the same. It is recommended that no action be taken. Adopted.

Overtures Nos. 141 to 147 and 269 to 270, from the Presbyteries of Louisville, New Brunswick, Newton, New York, Philadelphia North, Walla Walla, Westchester, Omaha and Philadelphia, all relating to the revision of Chapter XIII, Book of Discipline, on the subject of Judicial Commissions. Of these, that from the Presbytery of Westchester assigns reasons for the negative vote upon the Overture sent down by the Assembly of 1899; and those from the Presbyteries of Omaha and Newton ask that no new Overture on this subject be sent down by this Assembly, but that instead of this a suitable special Committee be appointed to prepare an amendment on this subject. All the other Presbyteries ask a revision of the chapter such as approves itself to them, and New York Presbytery includes in its Overture such a proposed revision.

It is the judgment of the Committee that there is a demand for a revision of the chapter on Judicial Commissions, and that it ought to be regarded. At the same time it is impracticable for any Committee during the time for which this Assembly will be in session to prepare with sufficient care a revision which would be likely to command the approval of the Presbyteries and fully meet the necessities of the case. It is therefore recommended that a Special Committee, consisting of Rev. Willard M. Rice, D.D., Stated Clerk of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, Chairman; Rev. B. F. Bittinger, D.D., Stated Clerk of the Presbytery of Washington City; Rev. George W. F. Birch, D.D., Stated Clerk of the Presbytery of New York, and Ruling Elders Judge William M. Lanning, Trenton, N. J., and J. C. Gray, Pittsburgh, Pa., be appointed by this Assembly to prepare a revision of Chapter XIII of the Book of Discipline. It is further recommended that this Committee shall publish not later than March 1, 1901, the results of their labors; and that Presbyteries and Synods be invited to send to the Chairman of this Committee any suggestions which they deem valuable not later than November 1 of this current year. Adopted.

Overture No. 205, from the Presbytery of Trinity, upon abandoned church property. It is recommended that no action be taken. Adopted.

Overture No. 217, from the Presbytery of Newark, asking permission for colored ministers, churches and Presbyteries to withdraw from this Church and unite with the "Afro-American Presbyterian Church." It is recommended that no action be taken. Adopted.

Respectfully submitted,

D. W. Fisher, Chairman.

Chattanooga, Tenn., May 22, 1900.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church:

Sincerely and heartily does the Cumberland Presbyterian General Assembly reciprocate your fraternal greetings, praying for blessings divine to rest richly upon all your deliberations.

H. C. Bird, Moderator.

J. M. Hubbert, Stated Clerk.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions, through the Chairman, Rev. Richard S. Holmes, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by the Chairman and Rev. John Dixon, D.D., Assistant Secretary of the Board, was adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Home Missions would respectfully report to the General Assembly that it has received the printed Reports (a) of the Board of Home Missions for the year ending April 1, 1900, (b) of the Woman's Board of Home Missions for the same year, and (c) of the Board's Superintendent of School Work, as they have been respectively presented to the General Assembly. Your Committee has given to them such attention as it has been able, in the time at its disposal, and commends them to the Commissioners, to the General Assembly, and through them to the churches. We make no attempt either to present a compendium of their contents or to restate any of the interesting facts which have there found permanent record. Every Commissioner can easily become familiar with these things. We desire to thank the Board of Home Missions for its clear statements of all matters pertaining to the history of the year in every department of work. The review of the year in the various Synods receiving aid from the Board, as summarized by the Synodical home missionary in each Synod, or by the Stated Clerk in Synods having no Synodical missionary, is valuable beyond all estimation as giving a view of existing conditions from within the field.

The Report of the Superintendent of School Work is an encyclopedic presentation of the various branches of the educational work done by the Woman's Board, that will answer any question of fact that may arise in the prosecution of our own work among the churches during the coming year. We record our sense of indebtedness for this, and our appreciation of the wisdom and fidelity and comprehension of the needs of the Church at large for information as to this branch of Home Mission work which it displays. We especially commend the Woman's Board of Home Missions for the efficient service which it has rendered to the general cause by means of the very able monthly publication, by the weekly meetings held under its organizing auspices in various cities, and by its Auxiliary Societies, Synodical, Presbyterial and congregational, with their annual or monthly or weekly gatherings for prayer, conference, instruction and work, for the relief in various ways of home missionaries upon the field. The old direction of the apostle: "Help those women," has been changed in practical experience from an injunction to give aid to need, into a statement of a mighty fact: "Those women help." That the women have helped should be still further emphasized by the statement that this Board has not only most efficiently cared for the school work entrusted to and devolved upon it by the General Assembly, but has also provided in part for the carrying on of the evangelistic work among our exceptional populations, up to which their educational work has led. For this the Board of Home Missions desires to make grateful acknowledgment through the medium of this Report.

We also record our gratitude to Almighty God for the very effective agency that the Woman's Board has become, and for the new setting of His seal on our relation to the evangelization and instruction of the unchurched and untaught among our countrymen, upon His own great utterance: "It is not good for man to be alone." For the furtherance of the work so unwearyingly performed by the Woman's Board and to interest our Sunday-schools in the school work under its care, your Committee believes a special offering on some Sabbath of the year by the Sunday-schools is desirable, where it will not interfere with the systematic beneficence of any church.

Your Committee finds the Report of the Board of Home Missions varied in character from those made in preceding years. Its tone is hopeful and its vision is large, but the attitude is one of caution. It has been able to maintain the work already established and to add to that a gratifying amount of new work. Wise conservatism in appropriations and rigid scrutiny of demands has enabled the Board to come to the end of its fiscal year unembarrassed, and for this we should be unreservedly grateful. And yet we note from the statement of receipts and expenditures made by the Treasurer, page 60 of the Report, that had there been a year ago just an even balance sheet, no deficit and no debtor cash balance, the Home Board would, on April 1, 1900, have been in debt $1037. There is menace in this which the churches must carefully consider. For the fact that there is still a balance to which cash is debtor, the Assembly should be grateful; but that it may not be decreased nor destroyed nor converted into future debt, the Assembly should awaken the Church. The condition of the treasury is due to the policy the Executive Officers adopted in fulfillment of the pledge made to the Church a year ago, that it would give the money to pay the last dollar of long-standing debt if the Board in return would incur no great debt hereafter. Have nothing, spend nothing, has been the rule under which our Home Mission matters have been managed during the past year. The early months of the year are, to be sure, months of money borrowing and interest paying, but an expectation based upon the average receipts from the churches for ten years past for current work, debt receipts not included, is a fair asset. Beyond that refusal to go has been the policy for the past year, and should be for the years to come. This draws the responsibility for larger or smaller work, expansion or contraction, advance or retreat, upon the Church, where it belongs. To meet this responsibility in the noblest way, by prayer, by consecration and generous devotion of money to the work of Home Missions, because she loves God and her country, is the duty imminent upon the Church in the United States to-day.

Your Committee does not consider it necessary to refer to legislation of past years contained in rules adopted by successive Assemblies for the regulation of appointments by the Board, whether the Synods or Presbyteries, and of the time and manner of submitting estimates or of disbursing funds in Presbyteries. Nor do we recommend any new deliverances or rules touching this general subject. We content ourselves with a reaffirmation of certain great principles and a single suggestion as to future administrative methods.

The work of Home Missions is primarily to provide Gospel privileges for those destitute of them in our own land. The field for this work is very wide and its demand for men and means for its prosecution are very great. The problem which any organized attempt at Home Mission work has to solve is how to bring the field, the men and the means for their support into conjunction. The field must be found, the men placed in it, and their support provided. It is not altogether an easy problem to solve. It requires supervision, administration and execution.

The work of Home Missions is secondarily to stimulate to self-support the churches which result from this primary function; to transform them from dependence to independence, and to make them efficient in helping others. This is a problem even more difficult of solution than the former. Home Mission churches start in extreme weakness oftentimes; are frequently veritably needy children, are trained to expect help from organized agencies, form the habit of dependence upon such aid, and are loath to relinquish it even when really able to do it; but these churches should never be allowed to forget that their duty is to grow as quickly as possible away from the childhood habit of dependence up into adult power. Churches which are not fired by an ambition to become independent are living below their privilege. Self-support at the earliest possible day should be the motto of the Home Mission church, and efforts to effect self-support by all their churches should never be discontinued by the Board. The Board recognized that this principle is true, and has made during recent years efforts toward its practicable realization. That it has met encouragement and discouragement in this work is only saying that it has experienced what all those who work for advanced standards experience. There has been gratifying response by some Presbyteries. There has been reluctancy in some. Individual churches which have come by long continuance in aid-receiving to consider such their normal condition are hard to move, and yet there has been progress: and your Committee would express, in behalf of the General Assembly, gratitude to those Presbyteries which have responded to the efforts in this direction of the Executive Officers of the Board, and would urge all other Presbyteries in which such effort shall be made to emulate the example which has been set them. The problem confronting the Board by the recent developments in national relations is most interesting. Home Missions have gone beyond Congress and the Executive in comprehending that the Caribbean Islands, Cuba and Porto Rico are already a real part of our moral domain, and entitled to our help under the law, that our neighbor, is the man who needs. The Board of Home Missions faces the conditions presented to it, notes their requirements, states them clearly to the Church, and says we are your servants, we will act as you direct; but we will take our instructions as to expenditures of money, not from resolutions passed by General Assemblies, but from remittances passed into our treasury by the churches. It is gratifying to note from the Report that the Church seems to be awaking to a realization of the greatness of her responsibility in reference to Porto Rico and Cuba. It is worthy of note that the Synod of Iowa, herself a Home Missionary Synod, is the pioneer Synod in the work of evanglization in Porto Rico, although individuals in Illinois, and a church in Rochester, New York, also acted in this matter. She has furnished and supports the first missionary of the Home Board to San Juan, in that island. It marks an epoch in Home Mission history and realizes once again in the experience of the Church the truth of the word of wisdom, "Cast thy bread upon the waters; for thou shalt find it after many days." May it be the prophecy of great achievements in the evangelization of men in the opening century and the first step in the new onward march of our wing of the army of the living God. The Synod of New Jersey leads the way in providing for the support of a missionary in Havana by pledging from one of her churches the entire salary, if the suitable man can be found for a missionary, and the Board looks anxiously for the church or churches, the man or men, who will provide the man for the place, and after that the means to provide the place for the man—for success in mission work in Havana depends upon a suitable church building almost as much as upon the man. It must be noted that while really Cuba is Foreign Missionary territory, as not being a part of our national domain, and the Philippines are Home Mission territory because they are, yet by an arrangement of comity between the Home and Foreign Boards, the Philippines are the mission territory of the Foreign Board, and Cuba the territory of the Home Board, so that the call for money with which to direct the First Presbyterian Church in Havana is regular and wise.

In order to provide a basis for securing self-support or an advance toward it, and a systematic method of operation, your Committee believes that a wise, intelligent division of amounts apportioned to Presbyteries might be made by the Board into separate funds, to be known as apportionments for established work, and apportionments for work to be hereafter begun—in other words, into apportionments for old and new work. This should not be done in any way to work hardship to needy churches, but only in the exercise of a wise discretion based on comprehensive knowledge of the whole field not only, but also of each individual case.

Your Committee believes that the basis of successful prosecution of work old and new by the Home Board is an educated constituency, and that the method of providing for work old and new should be entirely within the discretion of the Board. Given a Presbyterian of consecrated heart and mind, informed as to the wants of the Church, and you find a Presbyterian with a hand open to supply those wants. Knowledge is not only power, but it is the key to the strong box also. Given a Presbyterian with confidence that whatever administrative measures this Board may employ they are wise and unselfish, such a Presbyterian would say to the Board of Home Missions, "Do as seems best with the money under your control to effect the two ends that are your warrant for existence : first, organized effort to provide Gospel privileges for the destitute ; second, organized effort to stimulate the churches you have planted to self-support and help for their neighbor." Your Committee accordingly believes that it is the duty of Presbyteries to use all legitimate efforts to insure the information of our church members, with respect to the work of the Church as done and to be done by our Board, whether by the use of literature prepared by the Board or by means of conventions, or by efforts to extend the circulation of the missionary publications of the Church, or by visitation by Presbyterial Committees or Synodical or Presbyterial missionaries.

Your Committee has read the Overtures from the Presbyteries of Sacramento, Santa Barbara, San Francisco and Benicia, regarding mission work among the Jews. They are identical in language, and emanate from the very earnest missionary in charge of the Presbyterian mission among the Jews located in Howard street, San Francisco. The matter is entirely beyond the range of vision of this Assembly, and no deliverance could be made concerning it intelligently without a larger knowledge than the Assembly possesses. It is essentially a matter which belongs to the Board of Home Missions, and should be so referred for investigation and such action as in the judgment of the Board will be wise.

Your Committee has examined the Minutes of the Board for the past year, and finds them a clear, succinct and concise statement of the matter pertaining to the executive and routine work of the Board.

We offer the following resolutions for adoption by the General Assembly :

Resolved, 1. That the Minutes of the Board of Home Missions for the year 1899–1900 be and hereby are approved.

Resolved, 2. That the action of the Board of Home Missions in electing the Rev. L. Mason Clarke to fill the unexpired term of the Rev. Charles Wood, D.D., resigned; of the Rev. George T. Purves, D.D., LL.D., to fill the unexpired term of the Rev. James M. Ludlow, D.D., resigned, and of Henry W. Jessup, Esq., to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Robert Henderson, be approved.

Resolved, 3. That the members of the Board of Home Missions whose term of service expired with this General Assembly be and hereby are reëlected for the term of three years, to wit: Ministers—D. Stuart Dodge, D.D., Lyman W. Allen, D.D., Wilson Phraner, D.D., Howard Agnew Johnston, D.D.; Ruling Elders—George R. Lockwood, Titus B. Meigs, George H. Southard.

Resolved, 4. That the General Assembly commend the policy of the Executive Officers of the Board in limiting expenditures or estimates of possible expenditures to the receipts in hand from the churches, or to those to be reasonably expected as based upon average receipts by the past ten years.

Resolved, 5. That the General Assembly recommend the revival of the monthly concert of prayer for missions, and for all the interests of the Church, as carried on by its established agencies in any churches where it may have lapsed, and renewed interest in its observance in churches where it is still kept up from month to month.

Resolved, 6. That the General Assembly, for the sake of securing a larger information through the whole Church as to mission work, urge Presbyteries to create Standing Committees on the Missionary Publications of the General Assembly, whose duty it shall be to secure as large a circulation for them as is possible.

Resolved, 7. That the Board of Home Missions be authorized, for the purpose of aiding Presbyterial Committees in their efforts to induce churches to make advance toward self-support, to make in its discretion a division in the apportionment of moneys for any Presbytery, into funds for the support of work already begun or old work; and also for work that may advantageously be done or new work; with the understanding that money so designated for new work shall be used for that and that alone, and in no case be withdrawn from the treasury of the Board, unless for such use.

Resolved, 8. That in order that our Home Mission churches may more rapidly come to self-support, it is urged that in a spirit of friendliness and kindly coöperation our Presbyterial Home Mission Committees, as far as may be possible, shall personally visit the churches annually, urging self-support, and that in widely extended Presbyteries this service shall be performed by our Presbyterial or Synodical missionaries.

Resolved, 9. That it is the sense of the Assembly that the Board imperatively needs $800,000 for its work for the coming year, and calls upon the churches and Sabbath-schools, and all auxiliary societies to endeavor to so increase their offerings to this Board as to provide this sum.

Resolved, 10. That the Overtures concerning mission work among the Jews be referred to the Board of Home Missions for investigation and such action as in the judgment of the Board may be wise.

Resolved, 11. That on the Sabbath preceding Thanksgiving Day our Sunday-schools be requested to make an offering for the mission school work under the care of the Woman's Board.

Respectfully submitted,

RICHARD S. HOLMES, Chairman.

The Assembly took recess until 2.30 o'clock P.M., and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 22, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures reported on Overture No. 215, from the Synod of Ohio, asking that the offerings of Young People's Societies be sent directly to the Boards. The Report was adopted.*

Overtures Nos. 165 to 196, on the Revision of the Confession of Faith and on a new and shorter Creed. The Report was accepted, its adoption was moved, and a substitute was offered. After discussion, the Report was made the first Order of the Day for Wednesday afternoon, and with the substitute was ordered to be printed for the use of the Assembly.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Aid for Colleges was made the second Order for Wednesday afternoon.

The Committee on the Permanent Clerk presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on the Election of a Permanent Clerk would report that seven names were presented to your Committee as suitable candidates for the office of Permanent Clerk, viz.: Rev. Henry Branch, D.D., of the Synod of Baltimore; Rev. W. B. Noble, D.D., of the Synod of California; Rev. Benjamin McKee Gemmill, of the Synod of Pennsylvania; Rev. E. T. Swiggett, D.D., of the Synod of Ohio; Rev. T. Ralston Smith, D.D., of the Synod of New York; Rev. J. H. Miller, D.D., of the Synod of Missouri, and Rev. C. S. McClelland, D.D., of the Synod of Pennsylvania. Your Committee recommend

1. That all these names be voted on by the Assembly, and that to each candidate one nominating speech be permitted, not over five minutes in length.

* This Report was reconsidered on May 23, and the final action of the Assembly is recorded on p. 133.

2. That a ballot be taken on the seven names proposed, and, if there be no election, the name of the three having the lowest number of votes then be dropped and a second ballot taken; then if there be no election, the names of the two having the lowest number of votes be dropped, and the final ballot be taken on the two names remaining.

Your Committee also would report on the resolution referred to them, that at this time it is inexpedient to make any change in the tenure of the offices of Stated and Permanent Clerks.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM MCKIBBIN, Chairman.

The Judicial Committee presented the following Report, which was accepted:

The Judicial Committee would respectfully report

Judicial Case No. 3, being the appeal and complaint of James G. Patterson, D.D., vs. the Synod of New York, and recommend (1) that the appeal and complaint be found in order; (2) that they be referred to a Judicial Commission. Adopted.

Judicial Case No. 7, being a request from the Synod of New York for permission to amend its Records. It is recommended that the request be granted. Adopted.

Judicial Case No. 8, being the appeal of George W. F. Birch, D.D., vs. final judgment of the Presbytery of New York. Your Committee finds said appeal regular, but inasmuch as the case raises difficult technical questions as to procedure (because, through the course that has been taken, the situation created is unique, and should not become a precedent), and also inasmuch as Rev. Dr. McGiffert has withdrawn from the jurisdiction of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, therefore, be it Resolved, That without entering upon the constitutional questions involved, and without any prejudice whatever to the appellant while entertaining the appeal as regular, this General Assembly deems it best, considering the peace and prosperity of the Church, that the appellant be given leave to withdraw his appeal. Adopted.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM MCKIBBIN, Chairman.

The appellant in Judicial Case No. 8, appeared before the Assembly, and made a statement.*

The Assembly adjourned until to-morrow at 9 o'clock A.M., and was closed with prayer.

* See final statement and action on p. 85.

TUESDAY, May 22, 8 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting was held in the interest of Home Missions, and addresses were delivered by Rev. S. J. Niccolls, D.D., Rev. Richard S. Holmes, D.D., Rev. Hugh K. Walker, D.D., Rev. M. D. McClelland, Rev. W. S. Holt, D.D., and Rev. Charles L. Thompson, D.D.

WEDNESDAY, May 23, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional exercises.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Committee on Church Polity, through its Chairman, Rev. D. W. Fisher, D.D., presented an additional Report, which was accepted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Church Polity presents an additional Report as follows:

Overture No. 209, from the Presbytery of Huntington, concerning the power of the Board of Home Missions to withhold from a Presbytery a grant of aid. It is recommended, in view of the form in which the question is raised in the Overture, that no action be taken. Adopted.

Overture No. 203, from the Presbytery of South Florida, asking that the Assembly recommend that letters of dismissal for church members be sent directly to the pastor of the church to which the member is dismissed, and that it be the duty of the Session of the church so receiving the member to notify the clerk of the Session of the church dismissing the member. We recommend that the Overture be answered in the negative, for the reason that the constitutional rights of the individual member would be subverted by the action requested.

But in view of the confusion and laxity prevailing in the practice of the Church, occasioning loss and inaccuracy in the roll of membership, the Committee further recommends:

1. That the Assembly authorize the Stated Clerk of the Assembly to prepare a form of dismissal, to which shall be attached a certificate to be returned to the Session issuing the letter of dismissal. There shall also be attached to this return certificate a form of notification to the Session of the church to which the letter of dismissal is addressed.

2. That the Board of Publication be requested to print the form prepared by the Stated Clerk, and use its best efforts to place them in all the churches. Adopted.

The election of a Permanent Clerk was appointed as the next Order after the Report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on Revision.

The Committee appointed to prepare a Minute on the Rev. W. A. Echols presented the following, which was unanimously approved and ordered to be entered upon the journal of the Assembly:

The General Assembly is profoundly touched by the unexpected death of the Rev. William A. Echols, which occurred as the Assembly was about to convene on May 17, 1900. Mr. Echols was a Commissioner from the Presbytery of Athens, Synod of Ohio, where much of his lifework had been done. A graduate of Marietta College and of Lane Theological Seminary, he had been well fitted for the work of the ministry, and had prosecuted his service with industry and success. The Assembly recognizes the fidelity of the noble body of ministers, as it does of the Ruling Elders, who labor in the less prominent centres, as did Mr. Echols, and desires to record its appreciation of his services. His summons, though sudden, found him with the harness on, in the line of his duty, and prepared for service and for joy in the immediate presence of the Master, as he had ever been in the Church on earth. The reward upon whose possession he has entered in middle years comes as a relief to an afflicted physical life, and as a crowning happiness to his spiritual experience.

Your Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. The General Assembly thankfully acknowledge the goodness of God in giving to our Church so faithful a servant.

2. The sudden death of Mr. Echols has produced an enduring impression on this Assembly, and comes as a solemn admonition, and, at the same time, as a suggestion of the blessedness of death.

3. This Assembly hereby offers its sympathy and condolence to Mrs. Echols, and to all who are nearly affected by an event which brings the sadness of separation into their lives.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWARD T. SWIGGETT,
JAMES G. GALBREATH.

The Stated Clerk made an official Report to the Assembly, which was accepted and adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Stated Clerk respectfully reports to the General Assembly the following items of business:

1. The lists or registers of ministers and churches, authorized by the Assembly of 1898, to be kept in the office of the Stated Clerk for reference and information, are in process of compilation.

2. The General Assembly of 1899 (Minutes, page 89), directed the Stated Clerk to ask of the Presbyteries a question in connection with the support and use of The Assembly Herald by the congregations. This question a large majority of the Presbyteries have answered, stating that the attention of the congregations had been drawn to their duty in the matter.

3. The Stated Clerk reports that his accounts and books have been duly examined and audited by a public auditor and accountant, as directed by the General Assembly of 1899.

4. The organization of the Presbyteries of Nanking, Synod of Central and Southern China, and of Yukon, Synod of Washington, constituted by the last Assembly, was duly reported.

5. The Stated Clerk respectfully requests that his service as Secretary of the ad interim Committees, in so far as presence at the meetings of Committees is concerned, may be optional with himself and the Committees. This request is occasioned by the pressure of office work.

6. The Clerk has been in his office, engaged in the performance of his duties, the entire year, with the exception of three weeks taken as a vacation.

Respectfully submitted,
WM. HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The Judicial Committee presented an additional Report in Judicial Case No. 8, as follows:

ST. LOUIS, May 23, 1900.

Dear Dr. McKibbin:—I did not suppose that the Report of the Judicial Committee was to be presented until this morning, and on yesterday made a statement for which I desire to substitute the following:

In view of the action of the Judicial Committee and its adoption by the General Assembly, I desire not to prosecute the appeal further.

Yours fraternally,
GEORGE W. F. BIRCH, Appellant.

Resolved, That the statement now made by Rev. Dr. George W. F. Birch, appellant, be substituted for that made by him yesterday, with the following additional minute:

Resolved, That the desire of Rev. Dr. George W. F. Birch, appellant, be granted, and the case be and is hereby closed.

The Resolutions of the Report were adopted.

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions, through its Chairman, Rev. Charles Cuthbert Hall, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by the Chairman, Rev. A. W. Halsey, D.D., Secretary of the Board, and others, was adopted. The Report is as follows:

At a time when the heart of the Church is deeply moved by the Ecumenical Conference, the Report on the Foreign work of the Presbyterian Church, a subject always welcomed by the Assembly, will be heard with peculiar interest and with solicitous attention. The recent Conference has brought home to all hearts the majestic realism of world evangelization. The extraordinary assemblage of missionaries, the impressive exhibition of the problems of Christian Missions, the statesmanlike, scholarly and illuminating discussions of those problems by experts, the spirit of coöperation rising like a tide to submerge old divisive landmarks, the atmosphere of prayer, the continuous exaltation of Christ in His Atoning Sacrifice for the World and in His Living Headship over the whole Church—these things have affected powerfully the thoughts and aspirations of great multitudes of believers. And because of this, it may be assumed that in a General Assembly convening so soon after the adjournment of the Ecumenical Conference a profound desire exists to hear the record of our own beloved Church; to learn whether she is maintaining her historic place in the great onward movement of modern Missions, whether her operations on the foreign field are being conducted with a consecration, an open-mindedness, a wideness of outlook which keep her abreast of her contemporaries in the same work, whether her pastors and members at home are exhibiting that eager sympathy and that universal sense of responsibility which raise the scale of giving to a point commensurate with the actual ability of the Church.

Your Committee have endeavored to give thorough and thoughtful consideration to all information coming before it from all sources touching the policy and the operations of the Board at home and in foreign lands. The Committee is particularly indebted to the Board, which through its representatives has placed in the hands of the Committee all its private records as well as its official Report. The Committee has also invited the coöperation of missionaries in reference to problems of the foreign field, that they might be understood from the point of view of those having first-hand information of facts and forces prevailing on missionary ground.

As a result of these efforts it is the belief of the Committee that a Report is herewith presented which reflects faithfully the existing situation—on the one hand, recognizing the many and great reasons for thanksgiving that appear from a study of the mission field work abroad and of office organization at home; on the other hand, candidly admitting that the measure and proportion of gifts to this cause, by the churches and individuals of our denomination, is at certain points unequal and unsatisfying. Your Committee will seek to show that while the spiritual and educational fruits of our missions are such as to call forth devoutest thanksgiving, and while the consecration and thoroughness of our missionaries abroad, of our Trustees and Secretaries at home, are beyond praise, the condition of apathy toward Foreign Missions prevailing in a large number of our churches, the total lack of contribution from an amazing number of congregations, points either to neglect on the part of pastors in instructing their people in the awakening facts and principles of world-evangelization, or to a very grave condition of spiritual indifference on the part of thousands of communicants toward the sacred injunction of our Lord.

Fidelity requires that in the Report presented to-day gladness and sadness shall mingle—gladness over the splendid fidelity of our missionaries and other representatives, gladness over the steady ongoing of vast, difficult and delicate undertakings, gladness over the rich outpourings of blessing at many points, gladness over the large sums of money laid on the altar thankfully and willingly by Presbyterian men and women; but sadness that in multitudes of our churches the givers were but a fragment of the total communicant body; sadness that over one-third of our churches gave nothing whatever to Foreign Missions during the year of the greatest Missionary Conference since the age of the Apostles; sadness, above all, that many missionaries to-day are mourning because work is crippled that need not have been crippled had the whole Church been awake to the Lord's cause, and workers have been cut off that need not have been cut off had the churches whose record is blank given even a little to the greatest work that is going on beneath the sun.

For the purpose of presenting with due clearness yet without undue length the essence of the important facts in its possession, the Committee begs leave to divide its Report into three sections:

I. The Workers and their Fields.
II. Problems and Methods of Administration.
III. Recommendations.

I. The Workers and Their Fields.

The Board of Foreign Missions in the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. conducts operations in twelve foreign countries of the globe: Africa, China, India, Japan, Korea, Mexico, Persia, Philippine Islands, Siam, Laos, South and Central America, Syria.

In addition to this, it labors among the Chinese and the Japanese in the United States.

It were well for the Assembly to pause for an instant and survey at a single glance the work of this Board, that the magnitude of its operations, the intricacy of its problems, the solemn burden of those who from the central office direct its policy, may be realized to some extent. To 117 principal stations and to 1172 outstations in these thirteen countries of the globe it extends the firing line of the Foreign Mission work of our own Church.

Upon that firing line and seeking no earthly conquests, seeking only to press the advance of that kingdom of God which is "righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Ghost," are 748

American men and women, our commissioned missionaries, and 1701 native men and women, gathered out from non-Christian faith to become the associates and helpers of our missionaries as a native force for leadership in a world-wide native Church. Six hundred and twenty-six organized churches stand in our missions as glorious evidences that Christianity is not an ethnic faith, but a universal religion, destined to take root in every soil. And in those 626 churches are enrolled 37,829 native communicants, of whom 4442 publicly have confessed the Lord during the last year. The historic affiliation between Presbyterianism and thorough education is attested on the mission field by 720 schools and colleges, where 23,929 youths are being trained for intelligent manhood and womanhood; the fidelity of our Church to the Reformation principle of giving the printed page to the masses of the people is proved by the eight great presses of the Board, whence have issued during the year, as leaves of the tree of life for the healing of the nations, over 65,000,000 pages of the pure and peaceable literature of Christianity. Finally, the complete identification of our Church with that last blessed fruit of the evolution of modern missions, the medical wing of the service, appears in the Board's thirty-five hospitals and forty-seven dispensaries, wherein during the year 321,836 afflicted persons received treatment for the healing of their maladies. Such in outline is the work of the Board. To this work there have gone forth during the year sixty-nine new missionaries, the largest number ever commissioned in a single year. Some of these new workers have gone to fill vacancies on the foreign staff, some to take up new work, marking the advance of the Church. Not a few of those that have gone made it possible for the Board to commission them, because by their own personal enthusiasm for service they were able to interest individuals or churches to become responsible for their support.

While these important and cheering accessions have been in progress, eleven of our beloved American missionaries have ceased from their earthly labors and have entered into their Master's joy.

While the Assembly of 1899 was in session at Minneapolis the sad tidings were received of the deaths of Mrs. J. G. Wishard, of the Eastern Persia Mission, and of Mrs. J. H. Loughlin, of the West Shantung Mission. On the day of Mrs. Loughlin's death in China, there also passed suddenly away in India that valued man, the Rev. Samuel H. Kellogg, D.D., of the Furrukhabad Mission. Since then glorious names have been added to this company of victorious spirits: Mrs. F. P. Gilman, of the Hainan Mission; the Rev. W. C. Gault, of the West African Mission; the Rev. C. D. Campbell, of the Mexico Mission; the Rev. D. L. Gifford and Mrs. D. L. Gifford, of the Korean Mission; the Rev. J. N. Allis, D.D., of the Chile Mission; the Rev. W. W. Eddy, D.D., of the Syria Mission, and Miss M. Christine Chamberlain, of the Brazil Mission.

The limitations of time preclude the possibility of any adequate review of the extensive and impressive activities of the Board's missionaries. An arduous, fearless, wise, loving host of chosen souls, they are standing as lights in the world, holding forth the Word of Life. The printed records constituting the sixty-third annual Report of the Foreign Board must be accepted by the Assembly as the extended expression of those chronicles of the grace of God which are herewith presented only in the form of a few brief, yet most carefully prepared suggestions.

The following comments upon the several fields are made without adhering to the chronological order in the establishment of the several missions:

China.—The hindrances to missionary laborers in China have been severe and manifold. The terrorizing policy of the Empress Dowager is a conspicuous fact; it has had its effects in decreasing the demand for foreign learning, in encouraging persecution and pillage, in curtailing the freedom of itineration. Floods in the Yellow river, drought and the plague of caterpillars have brought famine, with terrible visitations of misery in certain portions of the empire. The inability of the Board to make appropriations commensurate with the opportunities for extension, and for the reëstablishment of old work, presenting themselves to our missionaries, have caused them no little sorrow and have strained their private resources. Hopeless insanity, the effect of overwhelming pressure, has broken one of this noble band; death has removed two, others have become invalided. Nevertheless, there are rich sources of encouragement; thousands of baptisms, thousands of sick and suffering ones ministered unto, more and more important positions reached and occupied in the name of Christ.

The effects of Christian heredity are beginning to appear, a girl of the fifth generation of Christians having been received into the Church at Canton. Two missionaries have celebrated their fortieth year in China. Neither from these nor from their 200 colleagues comes a note of discouragement, only gratitude, courage and hope.

Japan.—The Revised Treaties which went into effect last July opened the whole country to foreign residence, and also made the legal status of natives and foreigners the same. Prominent features of difficulty in the year's history are the following:

Government School Regulations, compelling attendance on Government schools and forbidding the teaching of religion in schools having Government privileges, an ordinance that has seriously embarrassed many of our schools; and legislative attempts to regulate the status of all religions, placing Christianity and Buddhism on the same level; Shintoism being no longer considered as a religion, but as a national cult. There has occurred a revival of the Young Men's Buddhist Associations, constituted for the purpose of opposing Christianity. Additions to Church membership have maintained about the usual numerical average. There is a real, unquestionable, and universal growth of Christian influence.

KOREA.—The record of work in Korea is most cheering; the people are evidently ready for the Gospel, and are not only hearing the Word with gladness, but under its influence are rapidly developing a self-sustaining, self-propagating Church. Out of 261 congregations or churches 258 are self-supporting. Eight hundred and forty-one persons have been received to membership during the year, giving a membership of nearly three thousand communicants. The gain in church membership for the year is about forty per cent., while the gain in voluntary offerings for the maintenance and propagation of the Gospel is about sixty per cent.

Medical and educational work, together with a strong work for women, are demonstrating in Korea their inestimable value as Christian agencies in a deep and enduring evangelization.

AFRICA.—The Board holds the Gaboon and Corisco Mission on the west coast, to which an honored member of this Assembly, Dr. Nassau, is just returning, having completed the translation of fifteen books of the Old Testament.

Facility for prosecuting the work in the southern end of the mission has been increased by the gift of a steam launch, making missionary travel safer and more rapid, and the transportation of supplies more sure than in former days by sail and oar. At the Batanga Beach Station, another generous gift has made possible the opening of a new department of instruction for boys and men upon industrial lines. In an uncivilized country, such as Africa, and among a people with so few incentives to exertion as have the native populations of equatorial Africa, the civilizing effect of industrial education bears on Christian teaching, and will, it is hoped, conserve in the pupils the direct lessons of religious truth.

PERSIA.—The missionaries in Persia report that the signs of promise have never been more bright. The medical staff has received special honor from the Shah. The schools suffered a loss in attendance and so did some of the churches through the attacks of the Russian Church upon their faith, but the people, unsatisfied by Greek Christianity, are returning to our missions.

SYRIA.—The Syria Mission is seventy-eight years old. The churches that it has founded are formed into three Presbyteries. Its educational work is thorough and well organized. The medical missionaries have proved their usefulness, and have more work than they can do. The Mission Press is a mighty force whereby to reach the Arabic-speaking race all over the world. Many doors of opportunity are open in Syria. Mohammedans, Muscovites and monks furnish stubborn opposition, yet, in spite of cramped resources, the picket lines have been advanced.

India.—The three great missions of our Church in India are pursuing their noble course, though the tabulated results may not so appeal to the eye as do the glad tidings from Korea. The greatness and the far-reaching character of the influence exerted by our missionaries in the Indian empire calls for a far more extended reference than is possible in this Report. The splendid agencies of evangelization, the preached and printed Gospel, the steadfast prosecution of that Anglo-vernacular education which under God shall assuredly undermine the strongholds of Hinduism and Mohammedanism, the merciful visitations of the physicians amidst the plague-stricken and the lepers, the administration of life-giving relief to the miserable victims of famine —all of these forces have been flowing like great rivers of consolation from our Indian Missions.

The unparalleled famine conditions prevailing in India have led the Board to establish a direct line of communication between liberally inclined Presbyterians in this country and our missionaries on the field, directly in touch with the starving ones. Two things should be understood distinctly in this connection:

First, that the Board will transmit money for famine relief directly from the hands of churches and individuals to our missionaries on the famine field, who, unhampered by instructions from home, will use it at their discretion for the relief of misery. More than $35,000 have already been sent in this way. These gifts are not included in the Board's statement of its regular receipts.

Second, this money for famine relief should in all cases be additional to ordinary contributions for the work of the Board, otherwise, as need not be pointed out, our Indian missionaries, already in many instances painfully restricted in their proper work by enforced retrenchment, still further must be embarrassed.

Siam.—The Siam Mission is more than ever sowing the good seed and reaping goodly harvests. The attitude of king and subject toward the missionaries and their work is so cordial that Siam presents fully "the open door." The work, educational, medical, evangelistic and literary, is pushed forward with rich measures of success. The laborers are encouraged by the arrival of new missionaries, the opening of new stations and "souls born again."

Laos.—In Laos Mission 210 have been received on confession of faith. Schools, classes for trained workers, Scripture translation, Gospel proclamation, evangelistic tours, healing the sick keep the laborers more than busy. The seal of the Lord is on His work, and a good missionary spirit is abroad in the Church. Regions south, east and especially north of the land occupied are commanding the attention of the Church and demanding the entrance of Christian laborers.

The Philippines.—The Philippine Mission is our youngest mission. Heathen degradations, rapacity, tyranny, immorality and a demoralizing liquor traffic confront our missionaries. To Christianize these millions no new plans are suggested. The solution of the problem shall come only through schools, church services, Christian literature, tireless itinerations, dispensary and hospital work, the circulation of the Bible and, above all, the preaching of the Word by efficient missionaries. These, under God, shall bring to the Philippines a true knowledge of Christ and Christianity, shall offset the depraving influence of a corrupt type of Romanism.

It is a cause for gratitude that the American Bible Society is already in this field.

Mexico, Central and South America.—Latin America has a direct claim for its evangelization upon the Protestant Churches of the United States. Its struggles for religious liberty are as interesting as those of Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines. The religious condition of the Latin-American republics is deplorable. Many millions are Indians, heathen in fact, if not in name, and unreached as yet by Gospel workers. Millions more are of mixed Indo-Iberian race; superstitious, ignorant, idolatrous Romanists. Of the few educated leaders of thought, many are indifferent or infidel, and the remainder are bigoted Roman zealots. Without the Protestant workers there would be no Bible for the people, no Christian schools, no Sabbath, no preaching of Christ as the only Saviour. From the Rio Grande to Cape Horn, Latin-America needs a revolution as much as did Europe in the days of Luther. The Presbyterian Church has mission work in Mexico, Guatemala, Venezuela, Chile and Brazil.

Progress is being made in self-support. In Brazil there is an independent Synod, and many churches are entirely self-supporting. In Mexico the Presbyteries are discussing the organization of a Synod. There is already a Home Mission Board. A notable offering of five hundred dollars was raised this year by the Christian Endeavor Society of Mexico City to support a new home missionary. Good reports are sent in from day and normal schools and from theological seminaries. Special stress is laid on this work in Colombia, Chile, Brazil and Mexico. Mackenzie College, Brazil, is crowded with 546 students. Additional institutions of higher learning are urgently needed.

All the Reports speak of vigorous evangelistic work. The best method of developing the Christian life of Latin-America will be through a large native force, trained and directed by experienced missionaries.

Reference has already been made to the lamented death of Messrs. Stewart and Campbell, of Mexico; Dr. Allis, of Chile, and Miss Chamberlain, of Brazil.

II. Problems and Methods of Administration.

The receipts of the year from all sources, aggregating $920,825.50, are the largest since 1896, when they were $977,749.36. They have, however, been exceeded four times in the last twelve years, viz., in 1891, 1892, 1893 and in 1896, in one instance going above $1,000,000. While it is gratifying that the Board was able to close the year without debt, it is nevertheless disappointing that the increase in receipts has not kept pace with the enlarged prosperity now prevailing in the business interests of the country, and it is the conviction of the Committee that the most earnest effort should be made to increase the number of contributing churches.

Reference has already been made to the fact that more than one-third of our churches gave nothing whatever to this mighty cause during the past year, and a careful analysis of contributions made in some of our largest churches, enjoying a wide reputation for liberal giving, discloses the fact that the great bulk of the collection came from a mere handful of givers, the balance being supplied by small contributions, which, when distributed over the congregation as widely as possible, left often a majority of the communicants absolutely unrepresented in the Foreign offering. This is especially lamentable when it is borne in mind what the single Board of Foreign Missions is doing in the world at large, a many-sided work which in the homeland is distributed among six Boards. Your Committee feels justified in urging that an equitable distribution of the Church's benefactions cannot be reached until, either by one greatly enlarged Foreign Mission offering or by taking two or more offerings for Foreign Missions during the year, the local congregation shall make its gifts for the world evangelization commensurate with its gifts for maintaining the Church's enterprises at home.

The accounts of the Treasurer of the Board have been audited by public accountants and are certified as correct.

The expenses of administration in New York are believed to be low in view of the variety and character of the work done, being actually less than five per cent., in which are included salaries of Secretaries, salaries of secretarial clerks and treasury clerks, postage, bank collections, Stamp tax, books and supplies, cables and telegrams, traveling expenses, auditor's charges and general expenses.

In the judgment of your Committee, evidence is here given of economy in administration which merits the commendation of the whole Church.

The Records of the Board have been examined carefully, and reveal the thorough care and wisdom with which the vast and manifold interests are administered by those to whom the Church has entrusted them. The Records are full, explicit and carefully indexed.

In compliance with the special request of the last Assembly, the Board prepared an amendment to its charter, and had the same enacted by the Legislature of New York. The amendment, which became a law March 15, 1900, with the approval of the Governor, is as follows, being an addition to Sec. 3 of the Board's charter:

"All the business of the said corporation shall be conducted by the Board under and subject to the direction of the said General Assembly, as far as such direction shall be in accordance with the laws of the State of New York and of the United States of America."

Grateful mention may be made of the Senior Secretary of the Board, the Rev. F. F. Ellinwood, D.D., who has just completed thirty years of continuous service. Dr. Ellinwood, with his faithful colleagues, Mr. Robert E. Speer, the Rev. Arthur J. Brown, D.D., and the Rev. A. Woodruff Halsey, D.D., has reason to rejoice in the great enlargement of the work during his long term of service, while the Church may be congratulated on having such strong and able men to administer the trust. The Rev. Thomas Marshall, D.D., has continued to serve with fidelity as the Field Secretary of the Board. The venerable Secretary Emeritus, the Rev. John C. Lowrie, D.D., is spending peacefully the closing years of a useful and consecrated life.

For the third consecutive year the Board comes up to the Assembly free from debt. Certainly this is a reason for thankfulness. Yet the Church ought not to permit itself to be betrayed into unwarranted satisfaction. The deliverance from debt has not been accomplished save at great cost. It is true that the gifts from churches have increased, yet so long as one-third of our churches ignore the Board, too much encouragement cannot be drawn from this limited increase. The Board has extricated itself from debt chiefly through retrenchment on the Foreign field—retrenchment advised with sorrow by the Trustees acting as the Stewards of the Church—retrenchment that carried untold disappointment and heaviness to our noble missionaries, that crippled undertakings in which their very lives were wrapped up—retrenchment made necessary only because tens of thousands of the Church's communicants, whether through lack of knowledge or through lack of spiritual interest, gave absolutely nothing.

The Board is not willing to bear passively this indifference by large sections of the Church. It has entrusted to one of its Secretaries, Dr. Halsey, the care of its Home department. Two great objects engross the attention of this department:

1. The propagation of the knowledge of missions throughout the Church by enriching the supply of available missionary literature, and by vigorously promoting its distribution and its use. An illustration of what is thus done is the Christmas exercise on Foreign Missions for the use of Sunday-schools, intended to be used in connection with a Sunday-school offering on the Lord's Day nearest to Christmas Day. One hundred and fifty thousand copies of this exercise were in use at Christmas, 1899. So also have monthly leaflets been issued to Sunday-schools; in some months reaching a circulation of 50,000.

2. The development of the work of Synodical and Presbyterial Committees, with a view to awakening the interest of the pastors and duly impressing them with a sense of their responsibility, that they may not for any cause withhold from their people that knowledge of the mighty facts of missions which must be relied upon as the only enduring foundation for lay coöperation.

In this connection it should be pointed out that while the efficiency of the Synodical and Presbyterial Committees is steadily increasing, it is hindered by the too frequent changes in the personnel of the Chairmen of those Committees. An individual is just approaching a state of efficiency as the result of carefully imparted knowledge, when he is succeeded in office by one totally uninstructed. It is to be desired that the Chairmanship of these Committees shall be protected from too frequent renewals of incumbency.

An important element in the work of the Home department is the Annual Conference of Missions with Synodical and Presbyterial Chairmen and representatives of Women's Boards, held in connection with the sessions of the General Assembly. The profitable and enlightening discussions that marked the St. Louis Conference in connection with this present General Assembly confirms the great value of this undertaking. The work of the Field Secretary in the West is directed along the same general lines of promoting the growth of missionary knowledge on the part of our congregations.

Your Committee desires to record in the strongest terms its appreciation and admiration of the labors expended and the results attained by the Women's Boards and Societies of Foreign Missions in connection with our Church. The Records of the past year in the department of women's work call for the Church's official testimony of gratitude.

No more important administrative problem than that of interdenominational comity on the Foreign field is at present before the mind of the entire Church.

And your Committee notes with sincere gratitude and satisfaction that the subjoined action taken by the Board at a meeting held in New York, May 15, 1900, will, if approved by this Assembly, place our beloved Church in the very forefront of that irenic movement which has as its chief aims the promotion of a spirit of brotherhood among missionaries of the several denominations working side by side in non-Christian lands, and the furtherance of a native Church rooting itself deeply in the soil of the lands evangelized.

The following is the action of the Board herein referred to:

"Believing that the time has come for a yet larger measure of union and coöperation in mission work, the Board would ask the General Assembly to approve its course in recommending to its Missions in various lands (in line with the General Assembly's action of 1887, Minutes, p. 23, having in view building up independent national churches holding to the Reformed doctrine and the Presbyterian polity) that they encourage as far as practicable the formation of union churches, in which the results of the mission work of all allied evangelical Churches should be gathered, and that they observe everywhere the most generous principles of missionary comity; and, further, it is voted that the Board now adopt the statement of policy prepared by its Special Committee on Policy and Methods, and submitted to many of the missionaries and approved by them, as follows:

"'In the view of the Board, the object of the Foreign Missionary enterprise is not to perpetuate on the mission field the denominational distinctions of Christendom, but to build up on Scriptural lines, and according to Scriptural principles and methods, the kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ. Where Church union cannot be attained, the Board and Missions will seek such divisions of territory as will leave as large districts as possible to the exclusive care and development of separate agencies. It is believed that in other regards also missionary comity should be given large range: (1) Salaries of native workers should be so adjusted among missions as not to introduce an element of dissatisfaction among the workers of any Mission, or to tempt them away from the Mission with which they are connected. (2) Each Mission and the churches connected therewith should recognize the acts of discipline of other Missions and the churches connected with them. (3) In coöperative educational work, and especially where the schools of one Mission train helpers for other Missions, the latter should render some compensatory service. (4) Printing establishments are in many Missions required by the missionary work. Such should not be unnecessarily duplicated. The printing establishment of one Mission should, if possible, be made to serve the needs of all others in the same territory. (5) A hospital invariably opens wide opportunities for evangelistic work. Until these are properly utilized, it is not judicious or economical to establish other hospitals, the results of whose establishment will be to multiply further unutilized spiritual opportunities. (6) Fellowship and union among native Christians of whatever name should be encouraged in every possible way, with a view to that unity of all disciples for which our Lord prayed, and to which all mission effort should contribute.'"

III. Recommendations.

Your Committee offers the following recommendations for the action of the Assembly:

1. That the following members of the Board, whose terms of service have expired, be reëlected to serve until 1903: Rev. R. R. Booth, D.D., Rev. W. R. Richards, D.D., Rev. John Fox, D.D., Rev. John R. Davies, D.D., Hon. Darwin R. James, Scott Foster, Esq., W. P. Stevenson, Esq.

2. That an additional clerical member be added to the number of the Trustees, and that the Rev. Maltbie D. Babcock, D.D., be elected as that additional member to serve until 1903.

3. That the recommendations of former Assemblies be reiterated, whereby it is advised that churches shall make at least two offerings annually for Foreign Missions, one of which shall be taken on the Sunday commemorating our Lord's resurrection, and that in addition to the two church collections the Sunday-schools be advised to make a special offering on the Sunday nearest to the day commemorating our Lord's birth.

4. That an annual conference under the direction of the Board of Foreign Missions with the Chairmen of the Synodical Committees, the Chairmen of the Presbyterial Committees and representatives of the Women's Boards be held in connection with the 113th General Assembly.

5. That the Assembly approves the action of the Board taken in New York on May 15, 1900, regarding comity on the Foreign field, said action having been fully recorded in the foregoing Report.

6. That, since through lack of funds in recent years the Board has been obliged seriously to cripple many stations, it be regarded as the first duty of the Church and of the Board to maintain and extend the Missions already established; but as there is imperative call also for new work, the Church is hereby exhorted to provide additional funds for this purpose, and the Board is authorized to undertake such work wherever sufficient funds in advance of usual current receipts shall be in hand or definitely pledged for the maintenance of such work.

7. That in view of the approach of a new century, it be the special aim and effort of the Church to raise an offering for Foreign Missions that shall exceed in amount any previous offerings; and that to this end the pastors of all our churches be urged to set forth to their people the duty and privilege of promoting foreign evangelization in the light of modern conditions and opportunities; that the Chairmen of our Presbyterial Committees be charged especially to labor with churches not heretofore contributing, to the end that every one of our churches may enter the new century in vital sympathy with this onward movement; and that the Secretary of the Home department and the Field Secretary be requested to devote all possible effort toward the consummation of this desirable end. The Assembly also directs that the Board in this matter coöperate with the Assembly's Committee on the Twentieth-Century Fund.

8. That in view of correspondence occurring subsequently to the adoption by the Synod of California of the Overture (No. 276) in the matter of work among the Chinese in America, which was referred to this Committee, no action be taken upon said Overture.

Respectfully submitted,
CHARLES CUTHBERT HALL, Chairman.

The Report of the Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work, was made the Order of the Day for Thursday, at 11 o'clock A.M.

The Moderator announced the Judicial Commission in Judicial Case No. 3, being the appeal of the Rev. James G. Patterson, D.D., vs. the Synod of New York: Ministers—Paul F. Sutphen, D.D., Everard Kempshall, D.D., William H. Logan, Alexander Robinson, William G. Reagle, R. I. Gamon, Thomas Dougan, A. R. Van Fossen, Ller M. Houser; Ruling Elders—R. H. Smith, James M. Rice, C. J. Lutz, Isaiah Conley, A. McLarty, William Repp, C. I. Newcomb, John E. Akey, L. H. Whipple.

The Assembly took recess until 2.30 o'clock P.M., and was closed with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 23, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer..

The Order of the Day was taken up, being the Report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the Revision of the Confession of Faith. After full discussion the Report was amended, adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Bills and Overtures had placed in their hands by the Assembly thirty-seven Overtures, Nos. 166–196 and 251–257,* on the general subject of a change of credal statement. Of these Overtures one asks for revision, but not to impair the Reformed System—the Presbytery of Cedar Rapids; one asks for revision and brief summary of faith—the Presbytery of Troy; six ask for revision or a shorter Creed—the Presbyteries of Utica, Binghamton, Lyons, Geneva, Boston, Marion; one asks for declaratory statement, or a new short Creed—the Presbytery of Erie; nineteen ask for a new and shorter Creed. Of these nineteen Presbyteries one desires this new Creed as an alternative Creed—Newark; three desire the new Creed as supplemental—Iowa City, Detroit, Choctaw; eight desire the new Creed as a summary of Presbyterian doctrine—Utah, Lima, Blairsville, Nassau, Ottawa, Oklahoma and Madison (these eight Presbyteries do not indicate relation of the new Creed to the present Confession); eight Presbyteries desire the new Creed as a basis of subscription or a substitute for the present Confession —Rochester, Otsego, St. Lawrence, Philadelphia North, Milwaukee, Bloomington, Rock River and Washington City. This completes the nineteen Presbyteries desiring a new and shorter Creed.

* See lists on pp. 35 and 46.

Nine remaining Presbyteries—Chemung, Chicago, Cleveland, Flint, Helena, Indianapolis, Jersey City, Northumberland and St. Clairsville—desire this Assembly to appoint a Committee to consider the whole subject, and report to the next Assembly, what further action, if any, should be taken.

Of the total number of Presbyteries (thirty-seven) overturing this Assembly on the subject, eight ask revision as their first preference; one asks for a declaratory statement; nineteen ask for a new and shorter Creed; and nine ask for a Committee to consider the whole subject, and report to the next Assembly.

Your Committee deem these Overtures of such nature and number as to justify some action on the part of the Assembly. But the Overtures are of such variety and suggest so many paths of process, that they hardly furnish sufficient data to justify a distinct trial of any one of the plans proposed.

To enter at once either upon the revision of our present Creed, or upon the construction of a new Creed, or upon the preparation of a supplemental Creed, or of an explanatory statement, would be to commit ourselves to undertaking some one of the proposed methods of credal change without sufficient knowledge of the mind of the Church to warrant reasonable expectation of approval.

On the other hand, to decline all action would be to ignore a condition that seems to demand attention, and which involves a wide misrepresentation and therefore misapprehension of our doctrinal position.

We therefore recommend:

1. That a Committee of fifteen, eight ministers and seven elders, be now appointed by the Moderator to consider the whole matter of a restatement of the doctrines most surely believed among us, and which are substantially embodied in our Confession of Faith.

2. That this Committee be enjoined diligently to pursue their inquiries, seeking light and knowledge from every available source, and to report to the next Assembly what specific action, if any, should be taken by the Church.

3. That to further the work of the Committee the Presbyteries be and are hereby invited by the Assembly to take action on this subject at their approaching fall meetings, and through the Assembly's Stated Clerk to report said action to the Committee, whether suggesting revisional, supplemental or substitutional changes, or no change at all.

On motion duly made and carried the Moderator was added to the Committee on Revision, and appointed its Chairman.

The Judicial Committee presented a Report, which was accepted, adopted, and is as follows :

The Judicial Committee would respectfully report :

Judicial Case No. 5, " an appeal of certain persons, claiming to be members and members-elect of the Session of the Church of the Covenant, Williamsport, Pa., from the action of the Synod of Pennsylvania in dismissing a complaint of the said parties against the Presbytery of Northumberland," that it is found in order, and we recommend that it be referred to a Judicial Commission. Adopted.

Judicial Case No. 6, being two complaints of certain persons claiming to be members and members-elect of the Session of the Church of the Covenant, etc., against the Presbytery of Northumberland. We find this paper of the nature of a memorial concerning matters embraced in Case No. 5, and we recommend that it be returned to the memorialists. Adopted.

Judicial Case No. 11, being an appeal and complaint of N. N. McCullough vs. the Synod of Baltimore, and recommend that as the grounds of appeal set out in the appeal " do not affect the doctrines of the Church," as provided in Chapter IX of the Form of Government, the action of the Synod of Baltimore in this case, taken October 18, 1899, must be taken as final, and the appeal dismissed.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM MCKIBBIN, Chairman.

The Assembly then proceeded to the election of a Permanent Clerk, and Rev. William B. Noble, D.D., of the Presbytery of Los Angeles, was chosen, and the election on motion was made unanimous.

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions reported concerning a paper relating to the famine in India, which had been referred to them, that no action was necessary, in view of the fact that the matter had been already dealt with in their general Report.

The Assembly adjourned until to-morrow at 9 o'clock A.M., and was closed with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 23, 8 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting was held in the interest of Foreign Missions, and addresses were delivered by Rev. George Alexander, D.D., Rev. Robert M. Mateer, Rev. John H. Laughlin, Rev. Wm. Jessup, and Rev. Robert Hammill Nassau, D.D.

THURSDAY, May 24, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional exercises.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Moderator introduced to the Assembly Hon. James A. Mount, Governor of Indiana, who spoke a few words of greeting. In the unavoidable absence of Gen. Benjamin Harrison, Gov. Mount kindly consented to preside over the Missionary Mass Meeting this evening.

The discussion of the two Reports on the Method of Appointing Standing Committees, interrupted by the arrival of the Order of the Day, was made the Order for to-morrow at 10 o'clock, and the Order previously fixed for that time was postponed.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work was presented by its Chairman, Rev. George F. Pentecost, D.D., was accepted, and after addresses by the Chairman and Rev. Elijah R. Craven, D.D., Secretary of the Board, was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

There are really two great departments in this Board, each of which is again subdivided into other separate and distinct departments—e.g., the Publication department is divided into the Editorial and the strictly Business departments, for each of which a separate and distinct set of Minutes is kept, which the Secretary of the Board has submitted to the inspection of your Committee. At the same time the Treasurer has carried the receipts and disbursements of these two branches of the Publication department into one set of accounts, the detail of which may be found on pages 49 and 50 of the Board's Report. The separate financial statement in connection with the Witherspoon Building may be found in the balance sheet of the Trustees of the Board, and in the further statement of the Treasurer of the Board in account with the Trustees of the Board—to all of which accounts your Committee would invite careful attention and study.

Business Department.—With regard to the work of the Business and Editorial departments of the Board, your Committee would report that during the year the Board has done a business amounting to $382,912.63.

The net profits on this large volume of business (after paying or charging itself with the sum of $15,000 for rent paid to the Trustees of the Witherspoon Building) were $24,850.77, two-thirds of which net profits have been placed to the credit of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Fund, in accordance with the direction of the General Assembly. The remaining one-third, $8283.59, has been added to the capital of the Board, which now stands at $210,300.15. It will be seen from the statement that the net profits of the Business department represents a little more than twelve per cent. on the capital of the Board. In this connection your Committee would desire to disabuse the minds of some of our misinformed brethren and sisters in various parts of the Church of the false impression that some portion of their benevolent contributions goes to support the business part of the work of the Board. On the other hand, the Editorial and Publishing department of the Board is a paying concern, able to add more than $8000 to its capital after making the large donation of more than $16,000 to Sabbath-school and Missionary department, or a sum equal to the entire administrative expenses of the Missionary department, thus leaving the entire amount of all moneys contributed by churches, Sabbath-schools and individuals to be expended without deduction on the purely spiritual, missionary and educational work of the Board.

Undoubtedly the most successful part of the Business department of the Board is in connection with the publication of the several Hymnals, now adopted and used by more than 1000 of our congregations and Sabbath-schools, and the various Sabbath-school periodicals, the rapid growth of which is as phenomenal as it is gratifying. The subjoined table drawn from the Report of the Board will be of interest:

The work of the Board in publishing and selling, through its depositories, a certain class of books that are peculiarly pertinent to the faith and polity of our Church is obviously necessary—e.g., the Confession of Faith, Form of Government, various manuals and commentaries that are purely Presbyterian in character. It may be that the Board does not upon the whole make any profit upon these books, and may even publish some of them at a loss. But this must be said that if our Board did not publish and push the sale of these books they would soon go out of print, and the Church be deprived of that peculiar type of literature, which is necessary to the intelligent understanding of the doctrines and polity that are peculiar to our Church. It is not always the case that the demand calls forth the supply; it is sometimes the case that the supply develops the demand. It is so in the case just presented.

In addition to the publication and sale of the above-mentioned class of books, the Board publishes a great variety of books and tracts of a general religious character which find both a ready and profitable sale, as witness the reprints from former editions of more than twenty different books, called for by the people during the past year. It should be mentioned that at the general salesrooms in Philadelphia, as well as at the depositories in New York, Chicago, St. Louis and San Francisco, a general book business is done; and from these various depots there are probably more religious books sold, with a possible single exception, than from the counters of any other book house in the country. Your Committee is of opinion that the Church is not yet ready to cry "halt!" to this department of the work of the Board, but rather to speak to it that it "go forward!"

It has been mentioned that already more than 1000 of our congregations are using one form or another of the three Hymnals published by the Board. The ruling prices of the two larger ones, the Hymnal and the Chapel Hymnal, are high—so high that hundreds of our smaller and poorer churches are unable to purchase them. The result is that these churches of ours—hundreds of them—fall back upon the use of some of the many nondescript and mongrel hymn-books now flooding the country because they are cheap and within their means. Your Committee would suggest whether it would not be wise for the Board to put the price of the Chapel Hymnal, now sold at forty cents, down as low as, say, twenty-five cents to all churches introducing it into their worship. The profits would not be so great on each book, but the large aggregate sale which would certainly and quickly follow would more than make up the profit account. It is a sound commercial principle that small profits on 100,000 articles are, in the aggregate, better and larger than a large profit on 10,000. We would earnestly recommend that the Board adopt the suggestion, remembering that its business is not alone profit-making, but to further the interest, foster the growth and develop the spiritual life of our congregations.

Editorial Department.—Of the Editorial work of the Board, your Committee can only say that in the various periodicals and Sabbath-school Lesson helps is to be found their highest praise. Your Committee notes with satisfaction that the Minutes of these transactions indicate that an increasing scrutiny and care is being exercised in the selection and acceptance of MSS. offered for publication, more than three-fourths being rejected by the Editorial readers and examiners. It is by this process of exclusion that we get the best.

THE BUILDING.—The Witherspoon Building is a magnificent property representing an asset of more than $1,000,000, upon which there rests a mortgage of about $500,000, the interest upon which is provided by the income from rentals—about nine-tenths of the building being rented, and each year the number of paying tenants increases. It affords free of rent a home for the following Boards and Societies of the Church, according to a statement furnished your Committee by Mr. John H. Converse, Chairman of the Business Committee of the Board:

"The following Presbyterian organizations and officers have their quarters in the Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia: Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, Board of Education, Board of Ministerial Relief, Stated Clerk of General Assembly, Presbyterian Historical Society, Woman's Home Missionary Society, Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, Trustees of Philadelphia Presbytery, Evangelistic Committee (Presbyterian) of Philadelphia.

"In addition the following organizations meet in the building: Trustees of General Assembly, Philadelphia Presbyterian Ministers' Association, Presbyterian Social Union, Presbyterian Hospital Executive Committee, Old Ladies' Home, etc."

The Board of Publication charges itself with $15,000 annually as rental. The Presbyterian Historical Society contributed $15,000 toward the cost of its quarters. The Presbyterian Social Union pays a rent for the room occupied for its monthly meetings. All the other Boards and organizations pay nothing. If these various Boards and Societies paid rent for the space occupied by them, at the same rate charged the other tenants, the building would yield a handsome return upon the capital invested. The Chairman of the Business Committee is himself the best guarantee that the business and property of the Board is well looked after and wisely managed.

THE SABBATH-SCHOOL AND MISSIONARY DEPARTMENT.—The work of this department is divided into two subdepartments, the Missionary and Educational, though, like the Business and Editorial departments of the Board, the accounts are not separated, which in both cases your Committee think should hereafter be done, in order to avoid confusion and make for clearness of statement.

The details of the Educational work of the Sabbath-school and Missionary department are given on pp. 25–29, and are worthy of careful study, covering as they do these separate interests. The Twentieth-century Movement has for its goal the adding to the roll of our Sabbath-schools 500,000 new scholars and teachers in four years. The work is in its final year. In the first two years of the movement the Report shows 4076, or more than half of the entire number of schools in the Church, taking part and reporting the enrollment of new scholars and teachers. This enrollment during this first half of the period reached the gratifying total of 285,671 new scholars and teachers. The returns for the third year are not yet reported, but it is confidently believed that this branch of the Home work will total more than the 500,000 aimed at before the close of the first year of the twentieth century.

Under the inspiration of this department, the number of schools reporting in which the Shorter Catechism is taught was in the year 1898–'9, 4043, and prizes have been awarded to 1790 scholars under eighteen years of age who during the year have correctly repeated the entire Catechism.

Children's Day has been introduced and adopted by 4511 schools, and Rallying Day by 1193. Besides the educational worth of these special day exercises, they have afforded an opportunity to the children to contribute $54,443.14 of the total of $99,929.04 contributed by churches, schools and benevolent individuals, or considerably more than one-half of the whole receipts of the department.

The further work of this department is the gathering of the statistics of our schools, is a most important part of the Educational work of the Board.

Missionary Work.—But the main work of the Sabbath-school and Missionary department is found in its strictly missionary work—in the breaking of new ground, and in enclosing, cultivating and caring for new fields. This work has been done during the past year with the aid of ninety-four carefully chosen missionaries, both ordained and lay, of whom seventy-nine still remain in commission. Three additional men having been added since the Report of the Board was made. Of these missionaries twelve are Synodical and the balance Presbyterial, the Synodical missionaries having general supervision of the work of all the missionaries in that Synod, besides doing personal missionary work within the bounds of many Presbyteries and places for which no missionary has been provided. This work has been and now is being done within the bounds of thirty-two States and Territories and in the Island of Cuba—twenty-four Synods and seventy-two Presbyteries. It is difficult to estimate the immense value of the work to the Church and its unspeakable blessing to the many thousands of both adults and children for whom otherwise nothing has been provided. A glance at the following items may serve to stimulate thanksgiving:

During the period in which the Board has been at work in this field, it has received positive information of 3796 Sabbath-schools organized which still survive, and out of which have grown 459 Presbyterian churches, besides a large number of churches of other evangelical Christian denominations. The work of the Board in this respect is eminently and rightly catholic, not unduly insisting that all the fruits of its labors shall be garnered in the Presbyterian barns.

During the past year the following results have been tabulated: 836 Sabbath-schools organized; 329 reorganized—not every one of our children live, and it is a great and mighty work to have brought 329 of those who have died back to life again; 36,276 scholars and 3837 teachers gathered into these schools; 78,618 house-to-house visits made; 2,195,741 pages of tracts and periodicals distributed; 4399 Bibles and Testaments given away; 7155 other volumes given away; 1986 volumes sold; 4096 Sabbath-school visits made, 13,346 addresses delivered, 596,188 miles traveled—equal to one man preaching the Gospel and visiting from house to house, organizing Sabbath-schools and churches, twenty-five times around the world.

In addition to the above, the department has made grants to churches, schools and individuals of 4,296,110 pages of tracts and periodicals and 4431 separate volumes. The total value of the literature thus distributed, including Bibles, was $6288.07—the average daily distribution of pages being 17,786, of separate volumes fifty. Best of all, the missionaries report 1447 hopeful conversions, which is a vastly higher average than that reported by many of our larger and wealthy churches, which do their work at an infinitely greater cost of money and ability.

THE FINANCIAL STATEMENT.—Your Committee, owing to what they believe to be a faulty method of bookkeeping and statement, have had considerable difficulty in rightly adjusting the cost of administration to that of purely missionary and educational work, but after long and patient conference with the Secretary, Missionary Superintendent and Business Manager of the Board, and with the desire to deal with liberal fairness in considering the general financial management, have reached the following conclusion, briefly here set forth:

For Missionary and Educational work the following sums have been expended:

Bibles, books, tracts and periodicals given away, together with cost of transportation on same	$6858 63
The Cuban Mission	2522 13
Sunday-school missionaries, salaries and expenses	79,033 81

It will be seen from this statement, to which the Executive officers of the Board agreed, that the administrative expenses of the Missionary and Educational department amount to thirteen per cent. plus.

Your Committee desires to speak in highest terms of the Missionary and Educational work done by that department of the Board, but desire to say that in their judgment the administrative expenses are too great and, if possible, should be reduced.

The Committee presents for adoption the following recommendation, namely:

That the following appointments be confirmed: Elder George Stevenson, in the place of Elder Franklin L. Sheppard, resigned, whose term of office will expire in June, 1902; and Elder Eugene Delano, in the place of Elder Charles H. Biles, deceased, whose term of office will expire in June, 1901.

And also the reëlection of the following persons whose terms of service will expire next month, namely: Ministers—William Brenton Greene, Jr., D.D., Loyal Young Graham, D.D., Mervin J. Eckels, D.D., Francis A. Horton, D.D.; Ruling Elders—William W. Allen, Thomas W. Synnott, George Hale, M.D., John H. Converse. Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE F. PENTECOST, Chairman.

A resolution for the reduction of the price of all the Hymnals was referred to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work.

Telegrams from Rev. Dr. Baker and Mr. John Wanamaker, with reference to the Assembly of 1901, were referred to the Committee on the Next Place of Meeting.

The Moderator announced the following Judicial Commission on Judicial Case No. 5, being the appeal of the persons claiming to be the Session of the Church of the Covenant, Williamsport, Pa., against the Synod of Pennsylvania: Ministers—George B. Spalding, D.D., Chairman; John C. Faries, Thaddeus T. Creswell, John A. Currie, William B. Brown, John D. Maple, William A. Galt, William G. Oglevee and James Thompson; Ruling Elders—J. E. F. Collins, M.D., George C. Ward, George C. Coxhead, William Irwin, E. M. Wherritt, R. G. Martin, William H. Gibson, Lewis N. Hunt and William N. Magill.

He also announced the substitution in the Judicial Commission on Case No. 3 of the following-named persons for absent members: In place of Ministers Alexander Robinson and I. M. Houser, Ministers Henry Little and Morgan Williams; in place of Ruling Elders J. M. Rice, C. J. Lutz and A. McCarty, Ruling Elders William A. Pickell, L. S. Knight and Samuel McComb.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 24, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The action fixing the discussion of the Method of Appointing Standing Committees as the Order for 10 o'clock to-morrow was reconsidered, and without changing the time it was ordered that fifteen minutes be allowed to Dr. Cornelison to finish his argument, and fifteen minutes to Mr. James M. Rice to speak on the subject, and that the vote be then taken.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a Report, which was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following Report, which was accepted and adopted:

Overtures Nos. 148–157, from the Presbyteries of Allegheny, Blairsville, Cedar Rapids, Clarion and Dayton, asking that an Overture be sent down providing for changes in Chapter XIV, Section 4, of the Form of Government, relating to examination of candidates for the ministry. Answer—In view of the fact that our Book already allows discretionary power to Presbytery in this matter, we recommend no action at present. Adopted.

Overture No. 204, from the South Florida Presbytery, on a Constitutional Amendment against Polygamy. Answer—Your Committee in the matter of the Overtures of the South Florida Presbytery, asking that the Congress of the United States be memorialized to prepare and submit an amendment to the Federal Constitution making polygamy and unlawful cohabitation a crime, report:

Careful investigation and inquiry by those who have made the matter a study indicate that polygamy and unlawful cohabitation are on the increase in the States of Utah and Idaho and adjoining States and Territories, and that notwithstanding that

Utah was admitted into the Union of States only upon incorporating an anti-polygamy clause in its Constitution and the leaders of Idaho were pledged so to do, yet there are no adequate means in either State for the punishment of this crime, the law forced upon the statute books of Utah by external pressure being a dead letter, as the Mormon influence is strong and potent to prevent its enforcement; whilst Idaho has never recognized the promise contained in its Constitution by enacting the necessary laws to punish and prevent this evil. Not content with controlling and debauching Utah and Idaho, the Mormon hierarchy has stretched its foul hands into the adjacent and adjoining States and Territories, and is fast becoming as potent and powerful in them as in Utah and Idaho. Those who have given the matter careful study are convinced that the only way to exterminate the practice of polygamy in our land is to amend the Federal Constitution by incorporating a provision making polygamy and polygamous cohabitation a crime, and providing for the disfranchisement of those who persist in living in polygamous relations, and empowering Congress to legislate upon the subject so as to bring the prosecution of polygamists under the jurisdiction of the Federal courts.

In view of the facts, your Committee would recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly recognize with profound gratitude and appreciation the action of the House of Representatives of our National Congress in excluding from its membership Brigham H. Roberts, the polygamist, whom the voters of Utah elected in defiance of the moral sense of the American people, and in direct violation of the pledge made when Statehood was granted them.

Resolved, 2. That the Congress of the United States be and is hereby memorialized to take action in accordance with Constitutional provision for the amendment of the Federal Constitution whereby polygamy and polygamous cohabitation may be declared to be crimes.

Resolved, 3. That the Stated Clerk of the Assembly be and is hereby directed to forward copies of this Report to the President of the United States and to the Senate and House of Representatives thereof. Adopted.

Respectfully submitted,
ROBERT F. SAMPLE, Chairman.

Rev. F. D. Bovard, D.D., of the Methodist Episcopal Church, a citizen of California, was invited to address the Assembly on the subject of the taxation of church property in his State. He drew attention to the fact that the compiling and publication by the authority of the Assembly through its Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work of a book entitled Laws Relating to Religious Corporations, by Rev. William Henry Roberts, D.D., had revealed the fact that California was the only State in the Christian world that taxes houses of worship. After his address the following resolution was presented and adopted:

Whereas, California is the only State in the Union that taxes houses of religious worship; and

Whereas, The Legislature of that State, through the united efforts of the Christian people, has submitted the following Constitutional amendment for the relief from taxation of houses of religious worship:

"All buildings and so much of the real property on which they are situated as may be required for the convenient use and occupation of said buildings, when the same are used solely and exclusively for religious worship, shall be free from taxation; provided, that no building so used which may be rented for religious purposes, and rent received by the owner thereof, shall be exempt from taxation;" therefore

Resolved, That this 112th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church endorses this amendment, and expresses the earnest hope that the people of the great Commonwealth of California will grant this relief to the churches by carrying the above amendment to the Constitution at the next general election, November, 1900.

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That this Assembly repeats the hearty commendations bestowed by former Assemblies upon the Presbyterian Historical Society, located in the Witherspoon Building, at Philadelphia. With great zeal and judgment the Society is bringing together much valuable material having historical value which would otherwise be lost or, if preserved in private hands, would be lost to general knowledge and instruction. The display of historical articles and MSS. will be a feature in connection with the next General Assembly that will be anticipated with great pleasure. To the end that the work of the Society may become more valuable to the Church year by year, all persons having at their disposal historic articles of denominational interest or MSS. that should be preserved are urged to communicate with this Society.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Benevolence was presented by its Chairman, Rev. William B. Noble, D.D., was accepted, and after an address by Rev. W. H. Hubbard, D.D., Secretary of the Special Committee on Systematic Beneficence, was adopted. It is as follows:

The Report of the Committee on Systematic Beneficence, which has been placed in our hands for consideration, derives peculiar interest and value from its numerous and carefully prepared statistical tables. That Committee has spared no labor in its desire to set before the Church a picture of the existing state of things regarding the exercise on the part of our members of the grace of giving; and the picture presented, if in some respects gratifying to our pride, shows some features which must bring to our cheeks the blush of shame. These statistical tables have as their subject-matter the offerings taken in our churches for the Boards and cover the fiscal year now closing. On the one hand, they show as a matter for congratulation and rejoicing that, with the single exception of Home Missions, the church offerings to the Boards have been larger than for several preceding years. For Freedmen and the Board of Aid for Colleges, the offerings have been larger than ever before; for Foreign Missions, Church Erection and Ministerial Relief, larger than in any six preceding years. There has also been a gratifying advance in the number of churches which have sent offerings to each of the Boards.

On the other hand, it is humiliating to learn that of our 7540 churches—only 1175 have made offerings to all of the eight Boards; that is, only fifteen per cent. of the churches have been so far faithful to duty as to remember with their gifts each of the Boards. Still more astounding is it to learn that the number of churches which have given absolutely nothing to any of the Boards is larger than of those which have given to all: 1302 churches, or over seventeen per cent. of all have utterly failed in this most important duty. Besides these 1302 churches which have given to none of the Boards, there are 1172 which have given to only one Board and 1444 which have given to only two Boards. so that more than one-half of all our churches are wholly oblivious of the claims of at least three-fourths of these agencies which our Church has instituted for carrying on our saving work.

Now it is sometimes supposed that this neglect occurs only among the feebler and poorer churches which are unable to give, and that the larger and stronger churches are faithful in their duty to the Boards, but an examination of these statistical tables shows that such is not the case. Of the churches giving to all the Boards, thirty-four per cent. have a membership of less than 100; thirty-nine per cent. of between 100 and 300, and twenty-seven per cent. of over 300; and of the churches giving to none of the Boards, one is amazed to learn that 126 have a membership of between 100 and 200; twenty-one of between 200 and 300, and twelve of over 300. As to the magnitude—or rather should we say the smallness—of our offerings, the tables give interesting information concerning the 1175 churches which have given to all the Boards. The total number of offerings is of course eight times 1175, or 9400. Of these six per cent. were of one dollar or less; thirty-four per cent. were of five dollars or less; fifty-two per cent. were of ten dollars or less; seventy-five per cent. were of twenty-five dollars or less, and twenty-five per cent. of more than twenty-five dollars. We have not the data which would enable us to form an intelligent judgment whether these churches which have been faithful in the fact of giving have also been faithful in the measure of it, and have given according to their ability. Certainly the figures seem very low, and if low in the case of these churches, they are likely to be still lower in the case of those which have given to only a few instead of all the Boards. Evidently there is much room for improvement in our Church, both in the scope and the measure of our giving, and with all the improvement we have made in past years in our methods and study of the science of beneficence, the art of giving is still in its infancy.

But we do not wish to take a pessimistic view, or speak in a depressing or discouraging tone. On the contrary, as we have already said, the past year shows most encouraging progress. Both the number of churches contributing to the Boards and the offerings given are larger than before. Our need is to press on in the direction in which we have made so good a start, to perfect the details of methods and machinery by which the offerings of the Church may be stimulated, to preach on filling the minds and hearts of our people with right principles and right motives of giving, and, above all, to seek for ourselves and for them a baptism of the Holy Ghost which shall fill our hearts with love and zeal, and enable us to abound in this grace also.

Your Committee believe that the ideal of our Church, short of whose attainment we cannot rest satisfied, should be:

1. An offering from every church for every Board; and,
2. An offering from every church member for every Board.

And is not this year, which marks the boundary between the two centuries, a propitious time for our Church to come right up to this ideal and take our stand upon it for the century to come? Shall we not begin with the Assembly of 1901 to have full columns in all of our statistical Reports? Shall we not be able to say in that Assembly that every church, and every church member, has signalized the opening of the twentieth century by an offering to every one of our Boards? Is this ideal impossible to attain? Are we so faithless as to say, with the nobleman of Israel on whose hand the king leaned when the prophet of God foretold a sudden change from famine to plenty: "Behold if the Lord would make windows in heaven, might this thing be?"

Dear brethren, to move forward and upward to this ideal is the true way to open the windows of heaven, for the Lord has said: "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing that there shall not be room enough to receive it."

Let our Presbyterial, Synodical and Assembly Committees on Beneficence begin the work; let all our pastors and Sessions carry it on, and a year of faithful, prayerful labor between this and the next Assembly will by God's grace work wonders in our beloved Church. Let the members of this Assembly go to their homes and churches filled with enthusiasm and zeal on this subject, to talk of it and work with one accord for it, and the members of the next Assembly shall come up to the meeting with joy to tell what great things God has wrought.

Your Committee deplore the timidity which exists in some of the churches in relation to the presentation of the claims of the several Boards. There may be prejudice in the minds of some in the congregation against certain Boards, and the minister is often embarrassed by this. But it is possible that this prejudice may be dispelled by further light and information, or at least it should yield to a spirit of loyalty to the Church, whose agents these Boards are. Or there may be fears that offerings to the Boards will weaken the financial strength of the church and endanger the support of the pastor, or hinder the payment of the church debts. Such fears have been found in practical experience to be groundless. The withholding of our gifts from the Boards will not be helpful, but hurtful to the local church. A selfish spirit will dry up the very fountains of liberality; a generous spirit will open them and make the home support easier. The church which gives its five loaves to feed the hungry of the world will have twelve basketsful left for its own needs.

We recommend the adoption of the following recommendations, the first six of which are presented by the Assembly's Permanent Committee, and are emphasized in its Report:

1. That pastors be urged to present more frequently and fully the duty and privilege of giving, not from impulse nor because of special solicitation, but intelligently, from principle and upon spiritual grounds.

2. We recommend that all offerings should be regarded as made to the Lord, and should be in a definite and liberal proportion to personal income or resources, at least one-tenth; in many cases more. Any thought of legal compulsion or the stress of mere duty should be avoided, and the appeal be made alone to the supremacy of Christian privilege.

3. We recommend that, if consistent with the method adopted for church collections, Sabbath offerings be made at stated and suitable times in behalf of each of the Boards, with explanations that will enable hearers to understand clearly the character and claims of the cause presented.

4. We recommend that some effective means be employed for collecting the offerings, by envelope, card or otherwise; and if possible that notice be sent in advance to every member of the congregation. Many devices for this purpose are in use, and a few have proved singularly successful. The one necessity is that some definite and practical method should be selected and then invariably acted upon.

5. We recommend that the Session of each church endeavor to determine, at the beginning of the year, the amount their own church can justly be expected to provide for each cause; and with the announcement of this approximate estimate every member be urged to indicate, when practicable, the sum they will individually subscribe. This will help to give clearness and precision to the efforts of the year, and while fixing the amount to be raised, will also aid in a proper and voluntary distribution of responsibility and in providing an effective incitement for the increase of contributions year by year.

6. We recommend that theological seminaries give full instruction on the subject of Systematic Beneficence and upon the history, objects and operations of each of the Boards of the Church.

7. We recommend that the General Assembly earnestly call upon our great Church to celebrate the opening of the twentieth century by an advance to the true ideal of Christian giving, at least so far as to secure from every church and from every church member an offering for each of the eight Boards; that for the attainment of this end the pastors and Sessions and the Synodical and Assembly Committees on Beneficence set to work early and systematically and use their utmost endeavors throughout the whole year; that the Boards give all possible aid by gifts of their literature and envelopes and arrangements for such public meetings in their interests as may be practicable; and that the several Treasurers of the Boards give to the Assembly's Committee on Systematic Beneficence, on or about the 1st of March next, a list of the churches which shall not as yet have sent offerings to them, and that the said Committee make earnest effort in coöperation with the Boards to secure offerings from such churches before the close of the fiscal year.

8. We recommend that the Permanent Committee be continued; that Rev. George T. Purves, D.D., be elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Rev. D. Stuart Dodge, D.D., to represent the Board of Home Missions; that Dr. Charles P. Turner be elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Bailey, to represent the Board of Education, and that the Rev. W. R. Richards, D.D., be made Chairman of the Committee.

9. We recommend that the sum of $500 be appropriated for the expenses of the Committee for the coming year.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM B. NOBLE, Chairman.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Aid for Colleges was presented by the Chairman, Rev. Willis G. Craig, D.D., was accepted and after addresses by Rev. E. C. Ray, D.D., Secretary of the Board, and others, was adopted. The Report is as follows:

Questions which underlie the subject of Christian education are of supreme importance, are too little pondered at present by even our own Church, and are sure to rise into due prominence, even though it requires startling calamity to Christian households, to youth outside of distinctly religious influences and to the Church itself to awaken afresh that sober reflection upon this subject which all the vital interests concerned demand.

We need not hope to preserve the youth of our own families within the sacred circle of Christian influences if we hand them over during the formative period of their lives to a purely secular education. We may not expect to advance the cause of Christ with power over this and other lands if we neglect or leave to chance the proper Christian training of our young people. We cannot successfully meet the serious problems that confront us as a nation and a Church, while we remain indifferent to the claims of the mighty army of youth which is being marshaled into ordered ranks to fight the battle of life. The least observant among us can see and measure to some extent the dangerous elements, vivified and fostered by a purely secular education, which threaten to sweep our young people into the current of religious indifference and then to bear them on to the dead sea of a frigid materialism. The splendid buildings, enlarged equipments and varied courses of State schools and universities dazzle the eyes and pervert the judgment as to the vital purpose of true education, and we are already confronted with the amazing spectacle of a Christian people deliberately handing over their sons and daughters to the care of institutions in which religious negativism, if not positive objection to the Christian view of the world, is the keynote, the dominant factor.

The cry of the Church at the beginning of the new century should be, "A rescue for our imperiled youth!" To this very end the Church founded this Board, and is now making the effort to sustain it in the arduous work of establishing and fostering distinctly Presbyterian Christian institutions, mainly in the West with its pioneer population, not yet fully organized into definite and suitable Christian forms. Our Church entered late upon this work of providing proper academies and colleges for the people under her own supervision and according to her own ideas. Sister Churches marched in advance of us and at an early date assumed the task of an organized Church movement to meet the serious educational needs of the growing West. The Presbyterian Church left her scattered families in this section of our land too long unprotected, unadvised and unassisted as to Christian education. They were allowed to despair of help from the older and wealthier portions of the land and to drift to the unwilling conclusion that State education was the only hope for their growing children. Once accustomed to the fostering care of the secular school, need we wonder that opinion has crystallized in many quarters toward a definite satisfaction with non-Christian education? It is our task as a Church to wrest back our Presbyterian communities from the grasp of secular education; to bring our people fully within the inclosure of a true Christian educational movement; to establish and to sustain in every large vicinage of the West, irrespective of State lines, thoroughgoing, well-equipped, up-to-date academies and colleges, impregnated with the spirit of our holy religion and fitted to carry our youth to the fullest forms of the most modern education.

It has been sometimes declared that we do not need to engage with deep conviction and resolute purpose in this work of preparing Christian schools for our youth. So to say marks the non-reflecting mind. Such a conclusion is without knowledge of the facts. No man who has lived long in the great West can permit such a conclusion to go unchallenged. Sad havoc has already been made in the ranks of our Presbyterian youth by our neglect to provide for them suitable instruction.

It has been said again that we have placed colleges too closely together in many parts of the West. Many of our Eastern friends have an indefinite notion as to the largeness of the West. They would have us brought down to the strict idea of one college in one State. This cannot be the fast and loose rule. One college for one marked vicinage may be a good rule. There may be several distinct large, important vicinages in a single great State. To simply observe the fact that in one State there may be two or three colleges does not warrant the conclusion that it is overcrowded, and even though these colleges may be in seemingly close contact with other denominational schools, this fact does not permit the hasty conclusion that these Presbyterian schools are unnecessary. When the thrill of obligation to our own families and to those non-Presbyterian families in close connection with us is fully felt, then it is that the whole Church will rise as one man to care for and guide along the pathway of an intelligent Christian education, the mighty companies of youth in the great and ever-growing West who are looking to us for definite and thoroughgoing care.

Let us hope for more earnest investigation into this great question of our educational duty, with the expectation that examination into the needs will awaken interest and fixed purpose to provide for these great necessities.

Work of the Board for the Past Year.—The Board voted appropriations to twenty-nine institutions, namely: ten classified as colleges, seventeen classified as academies, one classified as special, and one unclassified. These institutions reported net property value of $1,122,862; students, 3275, of whom there were in college classes, 384; in academic classes, 1495; in classical study, 821, or forty-four per cent. of those in college and academic work; and in systematic Bible study, 2877, or more than eighty-seven per cent. of the total enrolled. The number of church members in aided schools was 1589, or nearly one-half, and of these the number intending to be ministers was 171.

Cash Receipts of the Board.—From churches and church organizations, $41,868.57, a gain over 1898–99 of $3201.04; from individuals, $98,067.72; from legacies, $935.59; from interest, $1820.61; from miscellaneous sources, $2737.21; total, $145,429.70. Individual gifts are mostly secured for this Board by personal solicitation by officers of the Board and by representatives of the Board and of aided institutions in fields assigned by the Board, and of course greatly vary from year to year. One notable gift of $50,000 from a gentleman in New York is to be expended for Whitworth College, Washington, as the Board may deem best. This is an indication of what we may look for in the future if the heart of the Church is once aroused to this great endeavor of providing a proper education for the Western part of our country. Lesser individual gifts, but of very considerable value, have been received during the year, sufficient indeed to make it quite assured that still larger and larger gifts may be had from our wealthy and benevolent members when the great needs of this cause once fully dawn upon the minds of our people.

Your Committee would call attention to the fact that this Board has established a classification of educational institutions. This classification is approved by your Committee, with a distinct understanding that the grade of the colleges must be constantly raised as opportunity will permit, and that the academies be rapidly brought forward to establish a four-years' course rather than a course of three years in order to gain admittance to the college.

If the Board could arrange for a central Board of Examiners, which would act for all the colleges under its care, to set papers and examine them and then make diplomas for all institutions of equal value, a great step in advance would have been taken.

Your Committee would also suggest that the schools aided by this Board be encouraged to give close attention to the education of teachers. We need for our common schools, as well as for our academies, teachers prepared by other methods than those that have been established in so-called Normal schools; and it is an eminent necessity that our colleges enter upon the task of preparing, in connection with a thoroughgoing classical education, their graduates for the high and important position of teachers.

Bible Study.—Your Committee would call to the attention of the Assembly, with its marked approval, a special feature impressed upon the institutions aided by this Board, to wit: the requirement of constant and increasing Bible study in every school which receives the fostering care of the Church. We are glad to be able to report that the Board is fixed in its determination to bring Bible study in the academies and colleges into a position not only of a real discipline, but the most prominent discipline of the entire course. In order to obtain the help of this Board, institutions must commit themselves to the full intelligent teaching of the Bible. This is the pivotal fact in the policy of the Board. Where this Bible study has been neglected the most unfortunate results have occurred. We must go back and bring up this great discipline in our schools. If we are faithful the Bible will be held as the chief text-book in our most enlarged and prominent Presbyterian institutions. When this passes from simply a perfunctory attention to the Holy Scriptures up to a thoroughgoing, steady, persistent teaching of the enlightening Word, we may expect an immense gain in our influence over youth, with corresponding benefits to character and destiny.

The Need of Endowments.—In the beginning of the work of this Board the effort naturally was made, as the chief work of the Board, to secure money to pay the current annual expenses of the various schools taken under charge. This work has been prosecuted with ever-growing industry and with at least a good degree of success, but the crying need of the cause is endowment for these various schools. As long as there is no endowment there is no assurance of permanence. Opinion is allowed to drift as to the continuance of these various academies and colleges; families hesitate to place their children under the influence of these schools lest, under the exigencies of poverty, they may either so run down as to afford a too limited educational advantage, or indeed perchance be required to close their doors. As long as the whole energy of the Board and of the institutions is given to providing simply current funds for the year, the hope of advancing the curriculum and of stimulating the atmosphere of study is too limited to warrant large endeavor. It is therefore easy to be seen that the great need at this moment is to organize a determined movement to secure endowments for the schools at present in working order, so as to render them secure for the future and thus give the Board an opportunity to move on to new fields, well selected, upon which they may plant institutions demanded so loudly in the interest of human welfare.

May we not begin with the new century an organized, widespread, determined effort to give sufficient endowment to these schools? If the Assembly will awaken to this great necessity and heartily enter into an arrangement looking to this end, the officers of our Board may be able during the immediate coming year to place these institutions upon a fixed, firm foundation by the liberal gifts of our churches and individuals all through the land. It is the confident belief of your Committee that sufficient money may be had, under a stimulating and urgent canvass, to accomplish this purpose of endowment. When once accomplished Presbyterian influence in the great West will be strengthened and increased.

Examination of Records, Reports, etc.—Your Committee has examined the annual Report of the Treasurer, and find it correct in its itemized and detailed statements, and, as far as we can see, the money entrusted to the Board has been used economically and to the best interest of the cause for which it has been given. We are also very much pleased with the plain, concise and systematic manner of the bookkeeping. The Records of the Board have been also carefully examined by a Sub-Committee, and they have found them neatly and correctly kept, and most heartily recommend that they be approved. The expense of administration has been kept at the lowest point possible, amounting to about five and a half per cent. of the amount of money received and disbursed. The efficient Secretary, the Rev. Dr. Ray, also acts as Treasurer, and has proven himself to be a most competent, accurate and painstaking business man. We therefore desire to commend the Secretary in a special manner for the way in which he has handled the funds of the Board.

Recommendations.

1. We recommend that a special effort be made to endow the institutions aided by this Board at the present time. Urgent efforts should be made to bring to the attention of pastors and of churches and of individuals the great importance of this endowment scheme. Religious journals, the pulpit and the officers of the Board should all be combined in a uniform and organized effort to secure the means necessary to endow these institutions.

2. We recommend to the churches to observe Education Day, to induce the entire membership to contribute to this important cause, under the agreement, which we hope will be formed, that at least $100,000 shall be secured for the next year.

3. We recommend that the Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies be aroused to consider this great educational movement under the care of the Presbyterian Church. This is the single work of our Church addressed specifically and only to young people. We therefore call upon the young people in the various churches to rally to this cause.

4. We recommend that the Assembly urge and persuade pastors to preach on this great question of Christian education conducted by the Presbyterian Church, and that they use special Education Day to press upon the attention of their hearers the place of the Bible in true education, and that they arouse their people to the great work which this Board has been appointed to undertake.

5. We recommend that, in order to celebrate correctly our entrance upon the twentieth century, the Church shall set apart, as approved by it in this general meeting of the Assembly, an effort to endow these institutions now under care, and such others as the Board may approve, as a special cause of such signal importance as to warrant the direction of the energies of the Church to this great subject in the fresh days of the new century.

The term of service of the following members expires with this meeting of the General Assembly, namely: Ministers—David S. Johnson, D.D., J. G. K. McClure, D.D., William P. Merrill, D.D., M. L. Haines, D.D.; Laymen—The Hon. Dan P. Eells, Henry J. Willing, Thomas Lord, James S. Hubbard.

We nominate them for reëlection.

We find two vacancies in the Board: Mr. Ransom Gillis, appointed by the last General Assembly to fill a vacancy in the Class of 1902, declined, because of ill health, to accept the appointment. We recommend the election of Mr. John F. Seeley, of Caro, Mich., to fill this vacancy. Rev. William J. McCaughan, D.D., appointed by the last General Assembly to fill a vacancy in the Class of 1901, declined the appointment; the Rev. John Reed, D.D., was elected by the Board to fill the vacancy until the meeting of this General Assembly, but he resigned in January last because of removal to the East. We recommend the election of the Rev. Edward H. Pence, D.D., of Detroit, to fill the vacancy in the Class of 1901.

Respectfully submitted,

Willis G. Craig, Chairman.

The Judicial Committee presented a Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Judicial Case No. 1, being the petition of Rev. C. W. Backus, D.D., asking for a rehearing of his case. The following action is recommended:

Resolved, That as the petition of Dr. Backus alleges discovery of new evidence in that the Records of Synod as placed before the last General Assembly were not complete, the Committee recommend that the case be referred back to the Synod of Kansas to be disposed of as the interests of the parties may determine.

Judicial Case No. 9, being the appeal and complaint of the Rev. J. G. Mason, D.D., against the Synod of New Jersey.

The question in this case is whether the Presbytery erred in excusing a candidate for the ministry from the Latin exegesis, required as one of the parts of trial for licensure. As the Assembly of 1893 decided that in this specific matter there may be exceptions, and as there is nothing in the record showing that the exception made in the case complained of was based upon insufficient grounds, we recommend that the appeal be dismissed.

Judicial Case No. 10, being the complaint of Miss Maggie Gowland vs. the Synod of Illinois. The Committee recommend that the Session of the First Presbyterian Church, Bloomington, Ill., be instructed to give Miss Maggie Gowland a letter of dismission in the usual form to the Second Presbyterian Church in Bloomington, Ill.

Judicial Case No. 4, being the request of the Synod of New York for instructions in the Warszawiak case.

In view of the fact that this Assembly has no authority to interpret the meaning of an action of a former Assembly in this case, and recognizing the difficulty of interpreting such action if it were competent for us to do so, and in view of the further fact that this case, if remanded again to the Synod of New York for further proceedings, will require a great consumption of time and subject the judiciary that might adjudicate on the case to great inconvenience, and instead of resulting in practical good, might produce great excitement and consequences injurious to the peace and edification of an important section of the Church, this case having been pending for more than three years, and after a patient hearing by the Committee of all the parties interested in the methods of procedure, namely, the representative of the Synod of New York, the Prosecutor, representing the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, the counsel for the accused, and the representative of the Session of the Fifth Avenue Church in the City of New York, your Committee, acting in accordance with precedent, recommend to the Assembly the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That in view of the representation of the case given in the above statement by the Judicial Committee, of the voluminous nature of the testimony and of the difficulties attending the case, and believing that the interests of the Church will be best promoted by adopting the course recommended by the Committee, and being willing to assume the responsibility of acting accordingly, this General Assembly, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, does hereby terminate this unhappy case and all proceedings growing out of it without further judicial trial.

Respectfully submitted,
WILLIAM MCKIBBIN,
Chairman.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Church Erection was presented by its Chairman, Rev. William H. Clark, D.D., was accepted, and after an address by Rev. Erskine N. White, D.D., Secretary of the Board, was adopted. It is as follows:

Your Standing Committee on Church Erection would respectfully report that we have examined the Records of the Board of the Church Erection Fund for the past year and find them carefully and correctly kept. In their extent and detail they afford some idea of the breadth and complexity of the interests entrusted to the Board, of the vigilance and fidelity exercised in guarding and administering those interests, and also of the very moderate ratio of expense incurred in carrying on its work.

We have also examined the thirtieth annual Report of the Board to this General Assembly.

It is most gratifying to note the spirit of thankfulness and cheer which is manifest throughout the entire Report. The depression and discouragement of the past are gone. The present is rich with blessings, and the future all radiant with hope.

The Report for the past year is the thirtieth since the reunion of the Presbyterian Church, but our work of Church Erection was begun fifty-six years ago, in the year 1844, by the General Assembly (Old School). The first appropriation was made to the little church at Havre de Grace, Md., numbering fifteen members. The first Report, to the General Assembly of 1845, states that aid had been given to forty-two churches, and to the aggregate amount of $2730. The only States beyond the Mississippi which at that time received aid were Iowa and Missouri. Three churches within the bounds of that noble State where we are now assembled were assisted by the Board of Church Erection during the first year of its existence. From that small beginning of fifty-six years ago, the sphere of the Board's operations has increased and extended until its beneficent work has been carried into forty-six States and Territories, reaching from Maine to Mexico and from Alaska to Florida.

During these fifty-six years loans without interest from the General Fund, to which all church contributions are given, have been granted to 6024 churches, and to the amount of $3,563,236; loans from the Manse Fund, established in 1885, to 543 churches, to the amount of $222,304; grants from the Manse Fund to forty-one churches, to the amount of $8593, and loans bearing interest from the Loan Fund, established in 1892, to eighty-nine churches, and to the amount of $239,925, making a grand total of 6697 churches aided by grants and loans to the amount of $4,034,058!

The beneficent influence which this Board has exercised upon the whole Church cannot be overestimated. Its helping hand has been extended to struggling churches at the most critical period in their history. When a company of believers has been organized as a church, the prosperity, the usefulness, if not the very perpetuity of their organization, often depends upon its securing a church home. The efficiency of the work of the Board of Church Erection is evidenced by the fact that during the fifty-six years of its history it has rendered assistance to more than 6500 churches in our communion.

There are practically three departments of the work of the Board—three different Funds to be administered: I. The General Fund; II. The Loan Fund; III. The Manse Fund.

I. The General Fund.—In this department the advance over the last year has been most encouraging.

Appropriations have been made to 144 different churches, aggregating in amount to $82,681, an increase of twenty-two in the number of churches, and of $23,386 in amount.

The field covered embraces the whole country from New England to Alaska. Stations separated by a distance of more than 4000 miles appear upon the chart representing the field of the Board's operations. Appropriations have been made in thirty-five States and Territories and among eighty-one different Presbyteries. All the contributions of the churches to the Board go to the General Fund, and the grants from this Fund are made for the erection of comparatively inexpensive houses of worship; the grant not exceeding one-third of the cost of the building. This grant is protected by a mortgage without interest, which becomes due only when the building ceases to be occupied as a house of worship by a Presbyterian congregation.

II. The Loan Fund, inaugurated in 1892, is composed of moneys, the product for the most part of bequests, from which loans are made to churches which are able to build their own houses of worship if they can borrow a portion of the amount needed for a few years at a low rate of interest, and with the privilege of repaying the principal in small annual payments.

Loans are commonly made from this Fund for a period not exceeding ten years, at six per cent. interest, with a rebate of three per cent. if payment of interest and principal are promptly met when due. During the past year loans have been made to ten churches to the aggregate amount of $28,050.

III. The Manse Fund.—There is no department of the work of the Board which appeals more powerfully to the interest and sympathy of the Church than the endeavor to provide homes for those who are serving our weaker churches. In new communities it is often impossible to procure a residence for a minister. In the year 1885 some Christian women—to their honor be it spoken—appreciating the necessity for homes for ministers and their families, contributed the sum of $25,000 to assist churches in procuring manse property. This Fund now amounts to $86,500, and of this about $80,000 is distributed among 150 different churches at the present time. The amounts advanced are to be refunded by the congregation in regular yearly payments, and are secured by a mortgage bearing no interest.

During the past year loans from the Manse Fund have been made to seventy-one churches to the amount of $30,425.

Your Committee is of the opinion that an addition might be made to the liberty of the Board in the administration of the Manse Fund that would still further enhance its value. If provision can be made by which manses can be partially furnished with the heavier and more durable articles necessary to their equipment, such furniture to be the permanent property of the church thus aided, it seems to your Committee that many of the inconveniences that necessarily attend pastoral life in the newer parts of our country would be obviated. The minister, and especially the missionary, would be able more readily to take charge of a field, perhaps somewhat distant, if he were relieved of the necessity of providing and transporting bulky articles of furniture. Your Committee therefore is prepared to submit a resolution providing by an additional rule for such arrangement under certain circumstances.

In summing up the results of the entire work of the year we find that the sum of $141,531 has been appropriated as loans or grants to 228 churches. In addition, special gifts to nineteen churches of $1708 make the grand total of $143,339 appropriated and 249 churches aided.

Arduous as is the duty of receiving and distributing the contributions of the Church, this is but a part of the work of the Board of Church Erection. The protection and administration of the trust funds which are under its care, and which amount to nearly $600,000 ($583,500), demand constant forethought and vigilance. There is also the Reversionary Interest in Church and Manse properties, under grant mortgages or similar liens. This amounts to $2,125,000. In addition, this property must be kept protected by proper insurance. The Board holds 4100 policies of insurance, aggregating $2,178,000. To care properly for all these interests, these trust funds, these mortgages, these insurance policies is a work whose magnitude and importance few persons realize, and the brethren, both ministers and laymen, who compose the Board deserve the hearty commendation of the whole Church for their efficiency and fidelity in administering the interests entrusted to their hands.

Another feature of the service which the Board renders to congregations is in furnishing architectural plans for the construction of church edifices, and in securing, when desired, the service of competent and trustworthy architects. The Board has in its possession a large number of designs for churches which it is able to furnish at small expense, and which will enable churches to secure houses of worship that are inexpensive, commodious and tasteful in appearance.

The following request of the First Church of Jacksonville, Fla., has been referred to this Committee, viz.:

The church having formed a union with a neighboring congregation connected with the Southern Assembly, and having been transferred by our Presbytery of East Florida to the care of the Presbytery of Suwannee (Southern), petitions this Assembly to direct the Board of Church Erection to transfer the mortgages upon its property held by said Board to the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Southern Church.

A few words of explanation are necessary in order to the proper understanding of the matter. In 1870 owing to dissensions growing out of the Civil War a portion of this church withdrew, and having organized in connection with the Southern Church instituted legal proceedings to procure the property. Our General Assembly of 1871 appointed a Committee to consider the complications thus arising, and under the advice of this Committee the claim was adjusted by the church transferring to the newly organized Southern congregation its manse property; the Committee giving the church to understand that the loss would be made good to it by contributions from the Northern Church and from its Board of Church Erection. The Board was directed to appropriate $1000 for this purpose and did so, but the response in the way of contributions from other sources was very meagre. The church having built a new manse remained burdened with a heavy debt, for nearly twenty years. Finally, through the efforts of a Special Committee, an amount was secured sufficient to relieve the church, and in accordance with the conditions named by the donors the mortgage upon the property was transferred to the Board of Church Erection, simply to secure in case of the dissolution of the church the amount thus given.

The position is as follows: The Board has at different dates advanced sums amounting to $1940 and the sum secured by the Assembly's Committee was $6000. The Board holds two mortgages upon the property of the Jacksonville Church, one for $500 and the other for $6000. The petition of the church further sets forth that owing to various misfortunes its only prospect of life is in this union with the other church, and under the circumstances the Presbytery of East Florida cordially consented to the transfer.

In view of the above facts and of the testimony as to the exigency of the case and of the advantage to the cause of religion by such union, and in the hope that a liberal and generous attitude may strengthen the kindly feeling existing between our Assembly and that of the Southern Church, your Committee believes that it will be well to authorize the Board of Church Erection to make the transfer of the mortgages, provided the consent of the donors of the money can be obtained, and the matter can be so adjusted that in case of ultimate failure of the enterprise and extinction of the Jacksonville Church, the money shall be returned to the treasury of our Board.

In concluding this Report, your Committee would recommend the following action:

1. That this Assembly heartily approves the management of the Board of Church Erection, and commends the wisdom and fidelity of its officers and members, specially recognizing the services of the laymen, who render invaluable assistance without compensation.

2. That in view of the new and promising opportunities which are constantly opening before it, all our churches be exhorted to give to the Board their hearty support, and to make each year at least one offering to aid in carrying on the work in which it is engaged.

3. That the Board of Church Erection in making loans from its Manse Fund, be authorized at its discretion to loan or grant small additional sums to be used in procuring permanent furniture for the manse, provided such furniture be the property of the congregation to which the appropriation is made, and provided also that the amount appropriated for this purpose shall not increase the total amount loaned in any one case beyond one-half the value of the manse property, and shall be included in the mortgage given by the church.

4. That the petition of the First Church of Jacksonville, Fla., asking that the mortgages upon its property now held by the Board of Church Erection Fund be transferred to the Trustees of the Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church, be referred to the said Board of Church Erection with power, if the consent of the donors of the fund represented by the mortgages be obtained, thus to transfer them, with the provision, however, that such mortgages shall be permanently maintained upon the property occupied by the united congregation of Jacksonville, and the further provision that if at any time in the future said church shall abandon its property or be dissolved or withdraw from the jurisdiction of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, then and in such case the mortgages shall be enforced and so much of the proceeds of the sale of the property as shall represent the sum specified in the mortgages, without interest, shall be returned to the said Board of Church Erection.

5. That the Minutes of the Board for the past year be approved.

6. That the following members of the Board whose term of office expires at the present time be reëlected for the term of three years, viz.: Ministers—David R. Fraser, D.D., Charles T. Haley, D.D., John A. Ingham, David Magie, D.D.; Ruling Elders—Frederick W. Baldwin, Hezekiah King; that William H. Parsons, Jr., be elected in place of Robert Jaffray, who has removed from the Presbyterian Church, and that the Rev. John Reid, D.D., be elected to fill the vacancy in the class whose term ends in 1902, occasioned by the resignation of the Rev. L. Mason Clarke.

All of which is respectfully submitted,
WILLIAM H. CLARK, Chairman.

A communication was read from Rev. Jefferson B. Clayton, Commissioner from the Presbytery of Athens, which was ordered to be entered upon the Minutes of the Assembly, and is as follows:

To the Moderator and Members of the General Assembly:

In behalf of the Presbytery of Athens and of the Presbyterian Church of Middleport, O., and of the bereaved friends who sit in the shadow of a great sorrow on the banks of the Ohio, which they have sustained in the death of Rev. W. A. Echols,

I desire to express profound thanks for the tender care and thoughtful generosity of the Assembly toward them in this sad event.

JEFFERSON B. CLAYTON.

It was also stated that Mr. Clayton was ill, and the Stated Clerk was directed to extend to him the sympathy of the Assembly.

The Report of the Committee on Mileage was made the third Order, and the Report of the Committee on Theological Seminaries, the fourth Order for to-morrow morning. The Report of Committees on Synodical Records was made the Order for 10 o'clock on Saturday morning.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 24, 8 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting in line with the New York Ecumenical Conference on Foreign Missions was held at the Odeon at which Hon. James A. Mount, Governor of Indiana, presided, and addresses were delivered by Rev. Charles A. Dickey, D.D., Rev. Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D., John H. Converse, LL.D., and Rev. George F. Pentecost, D.D.

FRIDAY, May 25, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional exercises.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Finance was presented by its Chairman, Mr. Henry R. Elliot, which was accepted, and its recommendations were adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Committee on Finance would respectfully present the following Report:

It falls to this Committee to examine the accounts of the Trustees of the General Assembly and the accounts of the Stated Clerk, and to make such recommendations as may be germane.

It is not commonly known that aside from its religious functions, the General Assembly is an important financial corporation entrusted with funds to the amount, on March 31, 1900, of $867,990.86. The safe and wise care of this large sum dedicated to sacred use calls for business and moral faculties of high grade. Your Committee are happy to congratulate the General Assembly and Church on the fidelity and sagacity with which the Trustees administer the charge committed to them.

In the face of diminished income rates on safe investments, the Treasurer of the Trustees is able to report a cash income during the year of $40,419.76, an average rate of nearly four and seven-tenths per cent. on the entire principal. This income is derived mainly from ground-rents and bonds secured by first mortgages on real estate.

During the year the principal of the funds has been increased $27,543.13, representing three legacies, to wit: Under will of Jeremiah S. Hakes, $1000, and under will of Sylvina Bacon, late of Wilkesbarre, Pa., $2000, both for the Board of Ministerial Relief; and under the will of James M. Smith, late of Boston, Mass., $24,593.63 for sundry funds, subject to life interest of Mrs. Jessie M. Henderson.

The accounts of the Board are given in detail in the Treasurer's Report accompanying their Report. This shows that during the year there was received from cash balance, legacies, paid-off investments and certain dividends the sum of $103,965.72. Payments on principal account consisted almost entirely of investments made during the year, amounting March 31 to $26,200, leaving a cash balance in hand on that date of $77,484.43. Since March 31, $70,000 of this balance of principal has been invested in first mortgage securities.

The income account shows the nature of the funds held in trust by the General Assembly, and the manner in which they are applied. The income for the year on this account amounted to $40,419.76. Of this sum the principal beneficiaries were the Board of Ministerial Relief, which received $14,767.68 from four funds; Princeton Theological Seminary, which received from a number of professorship, scholarship, seminary and students' funds an aggregate of $4060.18; the Board of Freedmen, which was paid $6538.13; the Board of Home Missions, from six different funds, $4947.18; the Board of Church Erection, $3245.-68; and other Boards, institutions and individuals in smaller amounts.

The total charge for administration, under the head of "Expenses of Trustees," amounts to only $1719.12, the principal item being the Treasurer's salary of $1500.

This shows how economically the business of nearly $1,000,000, involving much detail, was carried on.

Your Committee have in charge also the accounts of the General Assembly for the year ending May 1, 1900, with Rev. William Henry Roberts, D.D., its Stated Clerk. By the statement submitted to your Committee by the Rev. Dr. Roberts, it appears that the total receipts for the current year amount to $131,206.70, leaving a present balance in the hands of the Stated

Clerk and on deposit of $77,381.01. The principal disbursements for the year were for mileage for Commissioners and others to the General Assembly of 1899, $29,875.66; to entertainment of Assembly in 1899, $8876.81; to salaries for Stated Clerk, Permanent Clerk and expenses, $4508; for printing, mailing, etc., of the Minutes, $5570.61. The total disbursements were $53,825.69.

Pursuant to the directions of the General Assembly of last year, the accounts both of the Trustees and of the Stated Clerk were examined with vouchers by a public auditor and accountant, and certified by him as correct in every particular.

Your Committee wish also to bear testimony to the transparent accuracy of the statement of accounts as submitted by the Stated Clerk.

Your Committee note that the surplus in the hands of the Stated Clerk has been reduced $13,437.19, in accordance with the method approved by the General Assemblies of 1898 and 1899. The per capita apportionment for the expenses of the Assembly up to 1897 was seven cents per communicant. It was then reduced to five cents per communicant, and for the past two years has been only four cents per communicant. By this reduction of the per capita apportionment from seven to four cents there has been saved to the Church $28,000 this past year alone. It is recommended, therefore, that this policy of applying surplus to the reduction of the apportionment from Presbyteries be continued, and after consultation with the Mileage Committee, we recommend that the apportionment for the coming year be at the same rate as for the present year.

In connection with the surplus, attention is called to the fact that the General Assembly has ruled that it has "no power to devote funds collected for the expenses of the Assembly to other purposes" (Minutes, 1891, p. 107). This has been, in our opinion, the just and right policy.

The financial administration of the Stated Clerk, who is also the Treasurer of the General Assembly, has been highly efficient. It is to be remembered that the Stated Clerk, when elected in 1884, found the Assembly in debt, and after the close of his first year the Assembly has always had a balance to its credit. Upon this balance interest has been earned every year at an average rate of three and one-half per cent., making an aggregate income from this source of $23,060.29.

Your Committee have in charge the nomination of a Trustee of the General Assembly to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late lamented B. B. Comegys, Esq. Your Committee recommend, to fill the vacancy, Francis B. Reeves, Esq., of Philadelphia, Pa.

Your Committee recommend the payment out of the funds of the General Assembly of the sum of $765, as last year, toward the expenses of the Pan-Presbyterian Alliance, of which the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America is a member, and of ten dollars for expenses of the Special Committee on Psalmody.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

For the Committee,

HENRY R. ELLIOT, Chairman.

The Permanent Committee on the Place of Next Meeting presented a Report, which was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

The Permanent Committee on the Next Place of Meeting respectfully report to the General Assembly:

That the place of meeting of the General Assembly of 1901 has already been fixed by vote of this Assembly in the city of Philadelphia, Pa. The Committee recommend to carry out this action that the Local Committee of Arrangements be appointed as follows: The Moderator of the Assembly as Chairman, the Stated Clerk, Rev. Drs. Baker, Brownson, Munro, J. S. Jones, J. A. Henry, Dana, Wadsworth, L. Y. Graham, Bolton and Hunter, with Messrs. John H. Converse, John Wanamaker, Frank K. Hipple, R. Dale Benson, William H. Scott and George W. Bailey, the Committee to have power to add to their number.

There have been referred to the Committee by the Assembly two telegrams, which read as follows:

PHILADELPHIA, PA., May 23, 1900.

Assembly cordially invited to hold opening service in First Church. GEORGE D. BAKER.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24, 1900.

The pastors, elders, deacons, trustees and congregation of the Bethany Presbyterian Church tender their two buildings, separate, but adjoining, with seating capacity of 6200 persons, and the unbounded hospitality of Philadelphia, for the first meeting of the General Assembly in the twentieth century.

JOHN WANAMAKER.

The Committee recommend that the cordial thanks of the Assembly be returned to the First and the Bethany Presbyterian Churches for their generous offers, and that the telegrams be referred to the Local Committee of Arrangements above named, with power.

The Commmittee have also received an invitation from the First and Second Presbyterian Churches, the Business Men's Association, and the Village Trustees of Saratoga Springs, N. Y. It is recommended that the cordial thanks of the Assembly be tendered to the parties named for their invitations, with the assurance that the Assembly's non-acceptance does not in any manner indicate lack of appreciation of their continued and generous proffer of hospitality.

There have also been referred to the Committee Overtures from the Synod of California and the Presbytery of Puget Sound, inviting the Assembly to the Pacific coast for its meeting of 1901. It is recommended that these Overtures be referred to the next General Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES A. DICKEY, Chairman.

Rev. T. Ralston Smith, D.D., presented a paper which was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Report of the Committee on the Method of Appointing Standing Committees was considered, and as amended by the Minority Report was adopted, and is as follows:

The undersigned, a minority of the Special Committee appointed by the last General Assembly to consider the whole matter of the appointment of the Standing Committees of the General Assembly, would respectfully recommend that the Standing Orders and Rules of the General Assembly, as found on pp. 305, 306 of the Minutes of the General Assembly, 1899, be amended by the adoption of the following Rule, which shall be Standing Rule No. V, viz.:

For the purpose only of electing Standing Committees, the General Assembly shall be divided into twenty-two Electing Sections of, as nearly as practicable, equal size, by combining the smaller Synods and dividing the larger by Presbyteries where necessary. The Standing Committees, except those on Mileage and Finance, shall be numbered consecutively; the Electing Sections shall be numbered in like manner.

The Standing Committees shall consist of eleven ministers and eleven elders, excepting those on Mileage and Finance, which shall each consist of eleven elders.

On odd-numbered years each odd-numbered section shall elect one minister for each odd-numbered Committee, and one elder for each even-numbered Committee, and one elder for the Mileage Committee.

On the same year, each even-numbered section shall elect one minister for each even-numbered Committee, and one elder for each odd-numbered Committee, and one elder for the Finance Committee.

On the even-numbered years this order shall be reversed.

The Standing Committees shall elect their own Chairmen.

Respectfully submitted,

ISAAC A. CORNELISON, Chairman.

It was Ordered, That a Committee be appointed by the Moderator, consisting of one member from each Synod, to arrange the electing districts called for by the Plan just adopted.

The action taken on Overture No. 215, from the Synod of Ohio, on Young People's offerings, was reconsidered, and the Overture was referred to the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures for further consideration.

The Report of the Special Committee on Ministerial Education was reconsidered, and the following words were added to the Overture sent down therein to the Presbyteries, viz.: " Except in extraordinary cases and by the consent of three-fourths of the members of the Presbytery present."

The Report of the Standing Committee on Narrative was presented by the Chairman, Rev. William C. Covert, and was adopted and ordered to be printed in the Appendix.

The Ministerial Necrology for the year ending March 31, 1900, was presented and read by the Stated Clerk, after which the Assembly was led in prayer by Rev. Richard S. Holmes, D.D.

The Committee on Election Districts was announced by the Moderator, as follows :

Atlantic—William W. Faris, D.D.
Baltimore—Rev. Charles Alvin Smith.
California—Hugh K. Walker, D.D.
Catawba—Rev. H. A. Gibson.
China, Central and Southern—John N. B. Smith, D.D.
China, Northern—Rev. Robert M. Mateer.
Colorado—Rev. Edward Hayes Lyle.
Illinois—James E. Rogers, D.D.
India—Rev. Joseph P. Graham.
Indiana—Daniel W. Fisher, D.D., LL.D.
Indian Territory—L. T. Strother, M.D.
Iowa—Willis G. Craig, D.D., LL.D.
Kansas—Mr. Hugh M. Cooper.
Kentucky—John M. Worrall, D.D.
Michigan—Mr. Charles M. Wilson.
Minnesota—Russell B. Abbott, D.D.
Missouri—Mr. James L. Dalton.
Montana—Rev. George McVey Fisher.
Nebraska—Mr. Cyrus S. Clason.
New Jersey—Rev. Chester Bridgman.
New Mexico—A. E. Marden, M.D.
New York—T. Ralston Smith, D.D.
North Dakota—Mr. Archibald McLarty.

Ohio—E. Trumbull Lee, D.D.
Oregon—Mr. A. E. Donaldson.
Pennsylvania—David J. Waller, Jr., D.D.
South Dakota—Mr. Adam L. Robb.
Tennessee—Rev. John S. Eakin.
Texas—Mr. Alexander Bain.
Utah—Rev. Samuel B. McClelland.
Washington—Mr. E. D. Swezey.
Wisconsin—William D. Thomas, D.D.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 25, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a Report on Overture No. 215, from the Synod of Ohio, regarding Young People's offerings:

Your Committee feel that whatever relief from unnecessary complications may be reached by granting the Overture in this special case, it is time that a broader principle should be enunciated which will place not only one Society, but all Societies and Associations connected with a Presbyterian Church upon one common basis, thus avoiding all unnecessary complications, such as already exist or are sure to arise among these various organizations. We would therefore recommend:

1. That the contributions of all the Societies be reported to the Session of the Church for its approval before being remitted.

2. That individuals and Societies may have the power to direct how their gifts are to be distributed, always provided that the objects named belong to the work and Boards of the Presbyterian Church, and in case other preference is expressed, the same to be subject to the decision of the Session.

3. There shall be no contributions to outside objects except by consent of the Session.

4. All contributions by the Church Societies shall be reported in the regular church columns in the Minutes of the General Assembly as the contributions of the church:—the Sunday-school, and all the auxiliaries being parts of the church.

5. The Treasurer of each Session shall report to all the Boards of the Church the sources of these contributions.

We further recommend that a Committee of five ministers and four elders be now appointed by the Moderator upon this whole subject, to report to the next Assembly.

The recommendation for the appointment of a Committee was adopted, and the answer to the Overture was referred to the said Committee.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following additional Report, which was accepted and adopted:

Overtures Nos. 90–140, 264–268 and 271–273,* inclusive, relating to the appointment of Standing Committees of the General Assembly. Answer—In view of the action already taken by the Assembly, we recommend no action.

Overture No. 282, being a letter from the National American Woman Suffrage Association. Answer—We recommend no action.

Overture No. 284, being a communication from the National Committee on the Federation of Churches. Answer—We recommend no action.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT F. SAMPLE, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Mileage, through the Chairman, Mr. William P. Stevenson, presented its report, which was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

RECEIPTS.

From Apportionments, Mileage Fund	$13,970 62
From Apportionments, Entertainment Fund	9,076 94
From Apportionments, Contingent Fund,	14,322 12
		$37,369 68
From Surplus to meet deficiency in Mileage Fund,		11,583 27

DISBURSEMENTS.

Mileage Bills	$25,553 89
Entertainment Fund, in hands of Stated Clerk	9,076 94
Contingent Fund, in hands of Stated Clerk	14,322 12
		$48,952 95

Number of Commissioners on roll, 629—ministers, 326; elders, 303—Presbyteries represented, 221; not represented, 11; Presbyteries exempt from payment, comprising Foreign Mission, Indian, Freedmen and advisory members representing missions, 37.

The following Presbyteries have not contributed to the Mileage Fund: Bellefontaine and Lima.

The following Presbyteries have not contributed to the Entertainment Fund: Bellefontaine, Clarion, Huntingdon and Lima.

Your Committee would recommend as follows:

1. That the Assembly again urge upon all Presbyteries to contribute in full to the Mileage, Entertainment and Contingent Funds.

2. That the apportionment for next year be four cents for each communicant, distributed as follows: To the Mileage Fund, one and one-half cents; to the Entertainment Fund, one cent; and to the Contingent Fund, one and one-half cents.

* For names of the Presbyteries, see pp. 35 and 46.

3. That the Stated Clerk, as the Treasurer of the General Assembly, be authorized at his discretion to pay Commissioners any further sums that may be considered justly due to them, by reason of their having underestimated railroad charges or other necessary expenses in returning home.

4. That the General Assembly extend its thanks to such railroads and other transportation companies as have carried Commissioners at reduced rates.

Respectfully submitted,

W. P. STEVENSON, Chairman.

The officers of the Assembly were directed to extend fraternal greetings to the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in session at Chicago, Ill.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions, through the Chairman, Rev. Richard S. Holmes, D.D., presented a Supplemental Report, which was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Home Missions reports, as supplemental to what has already been accepted by the General Assembly, concerning three matters submitted to it since the preparation and presentation of its original Report, as follows:

1. Experience has proved that secular education is no remedy for Mormonism. We therefore rejoice in the great work which has been accomplished by our Woman's Board of Home Missions in furnishing Christian education in Utah. We rejoice in the progress which has been made during the past three years by Sheldon Jackson College in Salt Lake City, an institution especially designed to meet the peculiar conditions of that intermountain region, to counteract the anti-American influences of Mormonism, and to bring that rich and beautiful section of our country into harmony with our Christian civilization. We congratulate the officers and trustees of the college upon the prospect of their being able to begin the erection of a beautiful college building without further delay, and we commend the institution to the favorable consideration of people who are disposed to contribute of their means toward the advancement of the cause of Christian education.

2. As to Overture No. 203, presented by the Presbytery of Chester, setting forth certain limitations resting upon the Board of Home Missions and the Board of Missions for Freedmen, which prevent the undertaking of work for the evangelization of the negro in Porto Rico, and asking the General Assembly to devise means for removing those limitations, your Committee believes that the whole matter can be safely entrusted for adjustment to the two Boards above mentioned, and we therefore recommend that this Overture be referred to the Board of Home Missions for conference with the Board of Missions for Freedmen, with instructions to settle the matter at issue in such way as may seem to them wise.

3. As to the communication from a member of the Presbytery of Pittsburgh, Overture No. 287, and referred to your Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures concerning the number and needs of the Polish people in the United States, your Committee recommends that it be referred, for consideration without instructions, to the Board of Home Missions.

Respectfully submitted,

RICHARD S. HOLMES, Chairman.

The Judicial Commission on Judicial Case No. 3, through its Chairman, Rev. Paul F. Sutphen, D.D., reported the finding of said Commission in the case, which was ordered to be recorded, and is as follows:

PATTERSON vs. SYNOD OF NEW YORK.

Judicial Case No. 3.—The Judicial Committee appointed by the General Assembly to whom was referred the appeal and complaint of Rev. J. G. Patterson, D.D., against the Synod of New York, for having dismissed his appeal, and for having refused to sustain his complaint against the Presbytery of New York, having examined the papers submitted and heard the parties, took action as follows:

In view of the provision of the Book of Discipline, Chap. XI, Sec. 4, that the decision of Synod on appeals and complaints and references which do not affect the doctrine or Constitution of the Church is final, and inasmuch as no question of doctrine or constitution is, in the judgment of the Committee, involved in this case, therefore the Committee determines that the appeal and complaint of Rev. J. G. Patterson, D.D., vs. the Synod of New York be and are hereby dismissed.

PAUL F. SUTPHEN, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Temperance, through the Chairman Rev. J. Gibson Lowrie, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after an address by Rev. John F. Hill, Corresponding Secretary of the Permanent Committee on Temperance, was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee would respectfully report that we have examined the Minutes of the Permanent Committee on Temperance of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., and find them worthy of approval. The nineteenth annual Report of the Committee has been placed in our hands, and the hearty commendation of the Assembly is due them for their diligent, faithful and philanthropic labors.

The contributions of the churches for the prosecution of the work of the Committee have been only $1465.85, a very small amount and altogether insufficient, considering the importance of the work.

The Report of the Presbyterian Woman's Temperance Association shows a large amount of faithful work done in the lines of the distribution of literature and the instruction of the young in the principles of temperance and presents an encouraging outlook. This work is to be heartily commended.

Rejoicing in the progress that is being made in the promotion of temperance, we maintain that there is no safe stopping place short of the entire suppression of the immoral traffic in intoxicating liquors. We therefore bid Godspeed to every agency and society which seeks this end by legitimate methods.

We regard the use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage in any form or degree as most dangerous, if not sinful; and their sale which has for its object selfish gain an unspeakable evil, which should be made criminal, and as far and as fast as possible should be suppressed by the strong arm of the law. There should be no cessation of effort in the Church and the State to raise the standard of public sentiment on this question until its power shall become irresistible.

While every Gospel sermon and all Biblical instruction tends to this end, we face the fact that children are born daily with the same appetites with their parents and are growing up to meet the same temptations, a fact which makes it necessary to take special pains to give continual and particular attention to this subject in the congregations and in the Sabbath-schools, in the public schools and the Young People's Societies, and especially in the family.

Your Committee also believes that the growing practice of cigarette smoking, especially by young boys, is an evil that paves the way to the drink habit and cannot be too strongly condemned and resisted, both by example, instruction and precept.

We also urge attention to personal efforts to reclaim the intemperate, and not only reform them from the drink habit, but as a fundamental necessity to regenerate the whole man, that he may be filled and ruled by the Spirit of God. Regeneration alone can produce entire and lasting reformation.

We fear that there is too much effort spent in vain. Firing tons of ammunition at long range is not so effective as one well-aimed Mauser bullet. We therefore urge more personal and practical, rather than sentimental effort, seeking to advance step by step and holding the ground gained until the traffic shall be exterminated.

Twenty-two Overtures have been put into our hands:

1. One from the Presbytery of Willamette (No. 225), asking that the word "abstinence" be substituted for the word "temperance" in the literature of our Church. We believe that the word temperance is preferable for the purpose, and recommend that no action be taken.

2. An Overture from the Woman's Synodical Temperance Society of Pennsylvania (No. 286), requesting that the Assembly petition the Evangelical Alliance that one whole day of the Week of Prayer be devoted to Temperance. We recommend that the matter be left to the discretion of the Alliance.

3. An Overture (No. 285) from the Women's Christian Temperance Union asks that, in accordance with the plan adopted by the London Sabbath-school Union, the fourth Sabbath in November be named as Temperance Day. Inasmuch as the Assembly has chosen the last Sabbath in October as Temperance Day, we recommend that no action be taken.

4. In answer to an Overture (No. 283) from the Non-Partisan Women's Christian Temperance Union, asking that there be a Gospel Temperance service every month in the Sabbath-school, we recommend that no action be taken, except such as is already recommended in this Report concerning the teaching of children and youth.

5. In answer to the Overture from the Presbytery of West Jersey (No. 211), asking that a column be given in the Minutes for contributions to temperance, we would recommend that, inasmuch as the Assembly has already taken action on the subject, no action be taken. We recommend in its place that the Stated Clerk be instructed to print in the Minutes of the General Assembly the contributions to the Permanent Committee on Temperance.

6. In view of the lack of contributions to this Committee by the churches, which prevents the successful prosecution of its work, we recommend that the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work be instructed to print gratuitously for the Permanent Committee on Temperance such literature as the Committee may prepare for its use, to the amount of $500 in value annually.

Overtures also have been received from the Presbyteries of Allegheny, Columbia, Chester, Newton, Northumberland, Ottawa, Santa Barbara, South Florida, Steubenville, West Jersey, Philadelphia and Los Angeles (Nos. 153–164, 249 and 274), concerning the traffic in intoxicating liquors in the New Hebrides; in answer to which we recommend the following: That the Permanent Committee be authorized in the name of the Assembly to unite with the international organization formed in New York at the close of the Ecumenical Conference, and with other bodies having this end in view, in any wise measures toward preventing the export of intoxicating liquors to these islands.

Overtures have been received from the Presbyteries of Newton and Troy (Nos. 219 and 224) concerning the traffic in and use of liquors in our Colonial possessions; to which we recommend that the following reply be given: In view of the fact that the Permanent Committee has already memorialized the President of the United States on this subject, by direction of the last Assembly, as will be seen from the correspondence found on pages 4 and 5 of its Report, from which it appears that the United States Government is not indifferent to this matter, but alive to its importance and claims to have reduced the amount of intemperance in these Territories, and to have secured a better condition there than is found in the States of the Union;

We therefore recommend that, while deploring the existence and the evils of the traffic in intoxicating liquors in all parts of the United States, we heartily commend the efforts of the Government to suppress intemperance, and urge that the immoral traffic be restrained and as rapidly as possible be abolished by all legitimate means in all places under the jurisdiction of the United States. We also deplore the existence by official establishment of the sale of liquor in the canteens of the United States army, and we urge its abatement.

In conclusion your Committee would recommend that this Assembly urge a more complete organization of our churches and Sessions and Young People's and Woman's Societies for temperance work, and that every church make an annual contribution to this Committee.

The term of service of the following members of this Committee expires at this time: Ministers—J. J. Beacom, D.D., and J. F. Hill; Ruling Elders—O. L. Miller, M.D., and Thomas McFadden, Jr. Their reëlection is recommended.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

J. Gibson Lowrie, Chairman.

The Committee appointed to canvass the answers of the Presbyteries on the Overture on Judicial Commissions, through its Chairman, Rev. W. A. Patton, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and is as follows:

Your Committee appointed to canvass the answers of the Presbyteries to the Overture sent down by the last General Assembly, containing an amendment of Chapter XIII of the Book of Discipline, and commonly known as an Overture on Judicial Commissions, begs leave to report:

The Presbyteries voting in the affirmative were Aberdeen, Alaska, Allegheny, Alton, Athens, Atlantic, Austin, Bellefontaine, Benicia, Blairsville, Bloomington, Boisé, Boulder, Box Butte, Brooklyn, Butte, Cairo, Cayuga, Central Dakota, Champlain, Chemung, Chester, Chillicothe, Choctaw, Cimarron, Clarion, Cleveland, Columbus, Corning, Crawfordsville, Dakota (Indian), Denver, Des Moines, Detroit, East Florida, East Oregon, Ebenezer, Emporia, Erie, Fargo, Fort Wayne, Freeport, Great Falls, Gunnison, Highland, Indianapolis, Iowa City, Jersey City, Kalamazoo, Kansas City, Kearney, Kendall, Kingston, Kittanning, Knox, Lake Superior, Lima, Logansport, Los Angeles, Lyons, Mankato, Marion, Minneapolis, Monmouth, Monroe, Muncie, Nebraska City, Neosho, Newark, New Castle, Niagara, Niobrara, North Laos, North River, North Texas, Oakland, Olympia, Ozark, Peoria, Petoskey, Portland, Pueblo, Puget Sound, Redstone, Rock River, Sacramento, St. Cloud, Santa Barbara, Sequoyah, Shenango, Solomon, Southern Oregon, Spokane, Steubenville, Stockton, Topeka, Transylvania, Trinity, Utah, Waterloo, Westminster, White River, Willamette, Winnebago, Winona, Wooster, Yadkin, Zanesville—108.

The Presbyteries voting in the negative were Albany, Baltimore, Carlisle, Chicago, Columbia, Dayton, Dubuque, Elizabeth, Fairfield, Fort Dodge, Geneva, Hudson, Huntingdon, Huron, Lackawanna, Larned, Lehigh, Long Island, Louisville, McClelland, Madison, Mahoning, Minnewaukon, Morris and Orange, New Albany, New Brunswick, Newton, New York, Northumberland, Oklahoma, Omaha, Osborne, Ottawa, Palmyra, Pembina, Philadelphia, Philadelphia North, Pittsburgh, Platte, Rochester, Saginaw, St. Clairsville, St. Lawrence, St. Louis, St. Paul, San Francisco, San José, Santa Fé, Schuyler, Southern Dakota, South Florida, Steuben, Syracuse, Troy, Union, Utica, Vincennes, Walla Walla, Washington, Washington City, Wellsborough, Westchester, West Jersey—64.

The Presbyteries which took no action or made no report were sixty in number.

The whole number of Presbyteries is 232, a majority being 117. Inasmuch as the Overture has failed of receiving a majority of the votes of all the Presbyteries, no further action is called for under the Constitution.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM A. PATTON, Chairman.

The Judicial Committee, through the Chairman, Rev. William McKibbin, D.D., presented an additional Report, which was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

J. C. BOSE vs. THE SYNOD OF INDIA.

Judicial Case No. 2.—It is recommended that the petition of J. C. Bose be referred to the Synod of India with instructions to inquire into the constitutionality of its action in 1891 in reimposing, without process, its sentence of suspension upon the petitioner, five years after its action restoring him to the ministry, to the Record of which action exception was taken by the General Assembly of 1892 (to which action of the General Assembly the attention of the Synod is particularly called), and that the said Synod shall take such action in this case as the rights of all parties concerned and the best interests of the Church require.

The following resolution was referred to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work:

In view of the importance and necessity of our Presbyterian Church providing the means of training persons for the office of Sabbath-school teacher, we recommend all our Sabbath-schools, as far as practicable, to organize in each of them a Normal department as an integral part of its regular work, and also recommend the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work to consider the practicability of furnishing a periodical Lesson Help for such Normal department.

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries, through its Chairman, Rev. David R. Kerr, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

This Committee reports to the General Assembly concerning the professional training of 708 candidates for the Gospel ministry in our theological seminaries during the past year; concerning the management of property funds, including buildings and libraries, aggregating $2,090,632, endowment and special funds aggregating $4,270,375; and a teaching force of seventy-two professors and instructors. The income for current use from these funds and from special gifts for the year has been $282,-317; the total expense of the seminaries for the year has been $319,893, and the number of young men graduated is 233.

Princeton Seminary reports 196 students, a decrease of eleven, and that seventy-two have been graduated. Mention is made of the death of the distinguished scholar and professor, Rev. William Henry Green, D.D., LL.D., and of the resignation of Rev. Dr. George T. Purves. Dr. Davis has been transferred to the Chair of Oriental and Old Testament Literature; Rev. Robert Dick Wilson, D.D., has been elected to the Chair of Semitic Philology and Old Testament Criticism; and Mr. James Oscar Boyd has been appointed instructor in the Old Testament department for one year. The year closed with a deficit of $7478.

Auburn Seminary reports ninety-one students, a decrease of fourteen, and that thirty-seven were graduated. We note the installation of Rev. George B. Stewart, D.D., as President; and we commend the effort to increase the endowment by $300,000, $40,000 of which has been secured. We also commend the plan for student self-government, the abolishment of the special class for men without a college training, and the requirement for entrance either of a college diploma or of an examination in college equivalents, and the granting of scholarships only on the basis of merit, health, character and need.

Western Seminary reports sixty-five students, a decrease of ten, and that twenty-one have been graduated; the endowment in the sum of $80,000 of the Chair of Sacred Rhetoric and Elocution, and the induction into that professorship of Rev. David E. Breed, D.D.; the death of directors Rev. James I. Brownson, D.D., and Elder James C. Lewis, and to fill the vacancies thus caused the election of Rev. James H. Snowden, D.D., and Elder Frank Robinson, and to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Elder Charles H. Scott the election of Elder George H. Doverspike.

Lane Seminary reports twenty-five students, a decrease of eleven, and that eleven have been graduated. No changes are noted in the faculty We commend the appeal of this seminary to the Synod of Ohio for $300,000 endowment.

Danville Seminary reports twenty students, a decrease of two, and that four have been graduated. This Report declares that "the only drawback and discouragement has been the fewness in numbers of students and shortness of funds to aid needy young men." This seminary needs larger endowment.

McCormick Seminary reports 156 students, a decrease of fourteen, and that fifty-one have been graduated. The following-named persons have been elected as new members of the Board of Directors: Rev. William R. Notman, Charles T. Holt, Rev. John H. Boyd, D.D., Rev. Edward H. Pence and Prof. Francis Kelsey.

San Francisco Seminary reports thirty-four students, an increase of three, and that eight have been graduated. With an income of $15,450, the excess of expenditure over income was more than $16,000, or a total expenditure of $32,385. An increasing number of the students are college graduates and native to the Pacific coast.

Newark Theological School reports twenty-two students, a decrease of two, and that one has been graduated. There were but nine students in the Theological department proper. There is no report of change either in property, government or faculty. The indebtedness of the institution has been decreased during the year in the sum of $1610.85.

Dubuque Theological School reports twenty-three students, a decrease of nine, and that two have been graduated. The endowment funds of this institution are inadequate to support well even one professor, and nowhere in our Church are men making greater sacrifices for the cause of Christ than are its professors.

Lincoln University reports forty-three students in its Theological department, an increase of two, and that fifteen have been graduated. It is a pleasure to note the good work of this institution, and that the endowment funds have been gradually increased through the years. A larger endowment is needed.

Biddle University reports fourteen students in the Theological department, a decrease of six, and that three have been graduated. The Report appeals strongly for much larger endowment, and scholarship aid for students.

Omaha Seminary reports nineteen students, a decrease of two, that eight have been graduated, and the reëlection of Rev. M. B. Lowrie, D.D., to the Presidency. During the year this seminary, by the will of the late Thomas McDougall, has come into possession of property valued at $15,000; by the legacy of Judge Vanderberg, of $5000 cash, and from Mrs. Robert Laidlaw, to begin the endowment of the Chair of Theology, $2500. We commend the efforts of the Special Committee of the General Assembly for the endowment of this institution.

The Church has already noted the signs indicating a decrease in the number of candidates for the Gospel ministry, and the cry comes up from many quarters for more men. The fields are indeed white for the harvest, and in no age of the world has there been greater need that the Church obey her divine Founder's injunction that we pray the Lord of the harvest that He thrust forth more laborers into His harvest. And yet, in the clamorous effort to increase the supply of ministers, we should be on our guard lest we forget that, after all, quality and not quantity is the vital thing. One distinguishing note of the Presbyterian Church has always been her jealous insistence upon a high standard of character and scholarship for her ministry. What we need to-day is not so much "more men" but "better men."

As having an obvious and close connection with this matter, your Committee feels that enough instances have been brought to its attention to justify the expression of an earnest hope that our seminary authorities will vigilantly guard against even appearing to make use of their scholarship funds as a means of attracting students to their respective institutions. Your Committee ventures to raise the question as to whether it is wise to make any promise of a scholarship in advance of entrance into the seminary, or at least not until after a rigid examination into all the qualifications of the candidate, as measured by a reasonably high standard. The tenure of such scholarships should be rigidly dependent upon the character and promise of the man, and the quality of his work done in the seminary. In a word, each recipient of a scholarship should be sternly held up to his best work. A scholarship can very easily degenerate into a badge of poverty unless there is the constant effort to elevate it into a reward of real merit, and as an outward and visible sign of the Church's hope of efficient service to be rendered in the future. We speak sometimes of helping "worthy men;" but by "worthy men" we should mean not only men that need help, but men that thoroughly deserve help. Financial need and piety are not the only qualifications entitling the student to a scholarship; nor should financial need be as prominent a factor as sometimes seems to be the case, not only with the seminaries in granting scholarships, but with the Presbyteries in recommending students to the Board of Education. Mental capacity, spiritual character, habits of faithfulness and a diligent use of opportunities should all reach a reasonably high level before any question as to financial need is even asked. A piety which permits a student to be lazy is not the kind of piety that should be decorated with a scholarship.

Your Committee recommends the adoption of the following resolutions;

1. That the several reports of the seminaries, including all elections to the governing Boards and administrative offices, and all changes in the several faculties and professorships, where necessary, be approved by the General Assembly.

2. That never has the Church needed consecrated, self-sacrificing, efficient men for the Gospel ministry more than now, and that never have there been wider opportunities for usefulness for such men than at the close of the nineteenth century.

3. That the seminaries should be especially careful not to appear to make offers of scholarships to any students preceding a satisfactory investigation of the candidates as to scholarship, health, character and financial need.

4. That the seminaries and Presbyteries, according to action of the Assembly of 1891, should insist more strenuously on college graduation by candidates before they be permitted to enter on their theological studies, and that the number of exceptions to this rule should be largely reduced.

5. That the seminary faculties be given and held to a larger share of responsibility with the Presbyteries as to the fitness of candidates for theological studies and the ministry.

6. That no student receiving aid from the Board of Education should be granted additional aid, excepting prize scholarships, through any seminary without conference with the Board of Education being first sought by the seminary.

7. That each seminary is hereby directed to prepare a blank to be filled and signed by every candidate seeking aid from its funds, in which application shall be set forth the extent of his inability to provide for himself the necessary funds for his education. It shall also contain a pledge from him that if at any time during his course of study he should wish to abandon the ministry, or if he ceases to adhere to the Standards of the Presbyterian Church, or if he changes his place of study contrary to the direction of his Presbytery, or if he withdraws from connection with the Presbyterian Church, he will refund to the seminary all moneys received by him therefrom. This shall not apply to those who, by reason of ill-health or other providential reasons, are prevented from carrying out their purpose.

Respectfully submitted,

DAVID R. KERR, Chairman.

A resolution amending the plan adopted for the appointment of the Standing Committees was presented and seconded, and its consideration was postponed until to-morrow.

The Standing Committee on Correspondence, through the Chairman, Rev. Henry C. Cameron, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Correspondence would respectfully report that there have been placed in their hands:

1. The annual Report of the Executive Committee of the Western Section of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System. Of this Report we present the following synopsis, with the request, however, that the entire Report be published in the Appendix to the Minutes of the Assembly :

This Report relates to the fact that since the last annual Report to the Assembly, the Seventh General Council of the Alliance was held in the city of Washington, sitting from September 27 to October 6, 1899, and that it was well attended by the representatives of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches throughout the world.

By this Council the Western Section of the Alliance was reconstructed, and in its new form held its first meeting in Philadelphia on the 20th day of April last. George Junkin, Esq., LL.D., was chosen Chairman; Rev. William Henry Roberts, D.D., LL.D., Secretary; F. K. Hipple, Esq., President of the Real Estate Trust Company of Philadelphia, Treasurer, and the Rev. M. H. Hutton, D.D., Recording Secretary.

The Report sets forth the fact that there is great need on the continent of Europe for English religious services, conducted according to the faith and order of the Reformed Churches. In a number of the larger cities there is already a considerable colony of English-speaking people. To these are added every year more than a hundred thousand who go abroad for travel. Of these it is estimated that between ten and twenty thousand belong to the Churches represented in this Alliance. The only English services in many of these places are the liturgical, often ritualistic services of the Anglican Church. Those who prefer non-liturgical worship are generally left without care, even where religious influences are most needed, as in educational centres and health resorts. The Scotch Presbyterian Churches have made a beginning in this work, having about forty churches and preaching places. The Report further states that the Rev. Wallace Radcliffe, D.D., with the Rev. James A. Worden, D.D., as alternate, has been appointed to convey to this Assembly the fraternal greetings of the Alliance.

2. The Reports* of the Rev. E. T. Jeffers, D.D., the delegate of the Assembly to the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, and of the Rev. J. P. Stratton, D.D., the delegate to the General Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States, as to the performance of their duties.

3. The salutations* of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, contained in a letter from the Rev. David H. Bauslin, D.D., its fraternal delegate.

4. The greetings* of the Reformed Church in America, extended through its fraternal delegate, the Rev. David James Burrell, D.D.

*Published in the Appendix.

The Committee, therefore, recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That we rejoice in the increasing harmony, coöperation and fellowship of the Churches embraced in the Alliance of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System, and pray God that such fellowship and coöperation may be more rapidly increased and more widely extended.

2. That we most heartily commend the effort to supply religious services according to the faith and order of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System for the English-speaking people of the continent of Europe, and that our Board of Foreign Missions be authorized to coöperate with the Alliance to this end.

3. That the Rev. Wallace Radcliffe, D.D., delegate of the Alliance, be heard by this Assembly.

4. That the Rev. Albert B. Marshall, D.D., be appointed the delegate of the General Assembly to bear its salutations to the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church to meet at Des Moines, Ia., June, 1901.

5. That the Rev. Walter D. Buchanan, D.D., be appointed the delegate of the Assembly to present its salutations to the General Synod of the Reformed Church about to meet at Asbury Park, N. J.

6. That the Rev. Herrick Johnson, D.D., LL.D., be appointed the delegate to present the salutations of this Assembly to the Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in session at Chicago, Ill., and that the Rev. Willis Green Craig, D.D., LL.D., be appointed his alternate.

All of which is respectfully submitted in behalf of the Committee, HENRY CLAY CAMERON, Chairman.

The Assembly was addressed by Rev. Wallace Radcliffe, D.D., who presented the salutations of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the world, holding the Presbyterian System.

A telegram of fraternal salutations was received from the Baptist Missionary Societies in session at Detroit, Mich., as follows:

To the Presbyterian General Assembly, St. Louis, Mo.:

The Baptists in annual convention at Detroit, Mich., to the Presbyterian General Assembly in St. Louis, send fraternal greeting. See Rom. i. 8. STEPHEN GREEN, President Annual Baptist Home Mission Society.

The Standing Committee on Temperance, having completed its business, was discharged.

The Moderator announced the Committee on the Revision of the Confession of Faith, as follows: Ministers—Charles A. Dickey, D.D.,* Herrick Johnson, D.D., Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D., Daniel W. Fisher, D.D., William McKibbin, D.D., George B, Stewart, D.D., Stephen W. Dana. D.D., Samuel P. Sprecher. D.D., Benjamin B. Warfield, D.D.; Elders—Gen. Benjamin Harrison, Justice John M. Harlan, Daniel R. Noyes, E. W. C. Humphrey, William R. Crabbe, John E. Parsons, and Elisha A. Fraser.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 25, 8 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting was held under the auspices of the Permanent Committee on Temperance, and addresses were delivered by Rev. Drs. McEwan, McKittrick and Fowler, Rev. Henry Gardner and Elder H. P. Faris.

SATURDAY, May 26, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional exercises.

The Special Committee on Vacancy and Supply, presented a Report, which was accepted and adopted as follows:

The Committee on Vacancy and Supply respectfully report recommending that so much of their Report as has been adopted seriatim by the Assembly be adopted as a whole, that the remainder of the Report be referred to the Committee to report to the next Assembly, and that the Committee be increased by the addition of one minister and one elder. The following is the part of the Report which was adopted:

The Committee on Vacancy and Supply respectfully report to the General Assembly that they were appointed by the Assembly of 1899 to consider the subject of unemployed ministers and vacant churches. [See Minutes, 1899, p. 109.] The matters entrusted to the Committee included Overtures from four Presbyteries. Two of these asked the General Assembly to authorize the appointment in each Presbytery of a minister to locate unemployed ministers in suitable fields. Another requested the Assembly to consider the whole question of Vacancy and Supply, and "initiate some plan by which ministers desiring a change of field and vacant churches seeking to find pastors" might do so "in harmony with Presbyterian polity." The fourth asked for an amendment to the Form of Government, giving to the Presbytery authority to itself install pastors over congregations which had been vacant for the period of six months.

The Committee have had several meetings, have invited suggestions from the Church at large, have considered carefully the reports of the Committees previously appointed on the same subject, and have secured information in the line of their inquiries from the Stated Clerks of Presbyteries.

As the result of the inquiries made, the Committee submit first of all facts connected with the present condition of vacant churches and unemployed ministers. The returns secured show that the actual state of the ministry as to employment, on May 1, 1899, as nearly as can be ascertained, was as follows:

Pastors,	3317
Stated Supplies,	1494
Home Missionaries,	282
Foreign Missionaries,	241
Honorably retired,	397
Professors and Teachers,	268
Evangelists,	427
Without charge,	733
Ecclesiastical officers,	94
In transitu,	52
Suspended,	7
Total Ministers,	7312

The condition of the churches at the same date, in the matter of ministerial supply, is shown by the following exhibit:

Churches with Pastors,	3536
Churches with Stated Supplies,	3126
Vacant churches,	1011
Total churches,	7673

These figures show that at the date given there were in the Church 1160 ministers who were designated as "evangelists" and "without charge," and also that there were 397 ministers who were "honorably retired" and 263 who were engaged as "professors and teachers." The vacant churches numbered 1011. The number of ministers without regular employment, therefore, was 149 inexcess of the vacant churches, and there were 665 ministers in addition who, though retired from service or engaged in educational work, might be able to serve in the pulpit with some regularity. To ascertain the facts in regard to these classes of ministers, proper inquiries were addressed to the Stated Clerks of Presbyteries, and as a result the Committee are of the opinion that less than 400 of the 1160 ministers without regular employment were so situated as to be able to render continuous service in the pastorate; and that of the 665 ministers designated as honorably retired, or as teachers, less than 150 were in a position to serve the churches as temporary supplies. This reduces the number of ministers who were available during the ecclesiastical year for regular or temporary service to about 550.

The condition of the 1011 vacant churches was reported by the Stated Clerks of Presbyteries to be as follows: 211 were able to support a minister without outside aid, 208 could contribute only small sums for ministerial support, and 592 could be grouped so as to sustain about 150 ministers. Further, of the churches which were supplied with ministers, 2497 were grouped by Presbyterial action and were served by 1059 ministers, and 4165 were each served by a separate minister. Again, of the total of 7673 churches, 3332 were self-supporting and 4341 did not themselves contribute sufficient sums for the whole of the expenses of their support.

These statistics enable the Committee to summarize the situation in the Church during the past calendar year approximately as follows: 5748 ministers were engaged in ecclesiastical service of one kind or another, 397 ministers were honorably retired, 7 were suspended, 781 were incapacitated for continuous work, and 379 who were able and willing to work were without regular charge. Of the churches, about 4165 were each in charge of a minister, 2497 were grouped by twos and threes for ministerial service, and of the remaining 1011, 793 were fields where 361 ministers might have been employed. The remaining 208 churches were so situated as to be unable to aid in securing a regular ministry.

It would appear therefore that the present ministerial force is just about sufficient for the present demand and resources of the churches. The ministers desirous of employment during the year were in number about 379, and the actual fields available for service were about 361. But it is to be emphasized that 3508 of the churches furnished fields of service for only 1539 men. If every one of our churches had its own minister, 1969 additional ministers would be needed. Add to this fact the additional one, that nearly fifty-six per cent. of the churches are not in a position to support a minister without being grouped with other churches, or aided either by the Board of Home Missions or the Committees of Synodical Sustentation, and at once it becomes apparent that one of the chief difficulties in the matter of Vacancy and Supply is the lack of adequate funds for ministerial support. Given increased financial resources distributed through either of the agencies just named, and the situation of the ministry and the churches would be at once changed for the better. A more adequate support would be given to the devoted men who are serving Christ in many congregations, the weaker churches would be cared for in an appropriate and helpful manner, new fields would be opened for the spiritual harvest, and the whole work of our Church would receive a widespread and beneficent uplift along the lines of true Christian progress. The sum of $100,000, for instance, given to the Board of Home Missions, in addition to its present income, would result in the prompt employment of 300 more ministers.

While, however, the statistics of the ministry and of the churches just given are reliable, and show that there is no excess of ministers in the denomination, yet there are other facts which need to be considered in connection with the question of Vacancy and Supply. Inquiry shows that in certain sections of the country there is not a proper distribution of ministers among the churches. In some Presbyteries there are more unemployed ministers than vacant churches, and the contrary is the fact in other Presbyteries. Again, there is in some quarters considerable restlessness in the relations existing between ministers and churches, so that pastorates have diminished in length and stated supplies are numerous. In addition, in some quarters, there is an influx of ministers from other denominations. At times, also, the temporal officers of congregations interfere with purely ecclesiastical matters in a way to affect injuriously the pastoral relation. The Committee, therefore, present as preliminary and complementary to a plan for the employment of unemployed ministers and the supply of vacant churches, certain proposals affecting the authority of Presbyteries in the oversight of vacant churches and of the relations of ministers to the churches.

One of these propositions deals with the provision made in the Form of Government for worship in vacant churches. Since 1788, the year of the adoption of the Constitution of the Church, the only regulations directly connected with the pulpit supply of such churches have been those contained in Chapter XXI of the Form of Government, entitled "Of vacant congregations assembling for public worship," and reading as follows:

"Considering the great importance of weekly assembling the people for the public worship of God, in order thereby to improve their knowledge, to confirm their habits of worship and their desire of the public ordinances, to augment their reverence for the most high God, and to promote the charitable affections which unite men most firmly in society, it is recommended that every vacant congregation meet together on the Lord's Day at one or more places for the purpose of prayer, singing praises and reading the Holy Scriptures, together with the works of such approved divines as the Presbytery within whose bounds they are may recommend and they may be able to procure; and that the elders or deacons be the persons who shall preside and select the portions of Scripture and of the other books to be read; and to see that the whole be conducted in a becoming and orderly manner."

It is true that in Chapter X of the Form of Government, general power is conferred upon the Presbyteries "to order whatever pertains to the spiritual welfare of the churches under their care." But this provision is as indefinite in its terms as Chapter XXI is inadequate in its directions. Vacant churches need clear statements in connection with the Presbyterial oversight of their pulpits, and Presbyteries would be benefited by the establishment of a uniform rule. The Committee recommend, therefore, that the following Overture be sent down to the Presbyteries, viz.:

Shall Chapter XXI of the Form of Government, entitled "Of vacant congregations assembling for public worship," be amended by the addition of the following sections? viz.:—

Section ii. Every Presbytery shall arrange for the supply of the vacant pulpits within its bounds either by direct action at a meeting or through a committee. The Session of a vacant church may receive leave to supply the pulpit for a period to be fixed by Presbytery, subject to the limitation contained in the fourth section of this chapter.

Section iii. Ministers, licentiates and local evangelists connected with the Presbyteries of this Church shall be the only persons to be employed as regular supplies in vacant churches. It shall be the duty of ministers not engaged in regular church work to render service in vacant congregations within the bounds of their respective Presbyteries, unless excused by act of Presbytery. Ministers of other denominations in correspondence with this General Assembly may be employed as occasional supplies.

Section iv. When the pulpit of any congregation has been vacant for a longer period than twelve months, the appointment of ministers for the pulpit shall be made by the Presbytery, and shall continue to be so made until a pastor has been elected by the congregation and duly installed by the Presbytery.

The Committee, further, in connection with this matter of Vacancy and Supply, have had their attention drawn to the fact that a considerable proportion of our ministers from year to year are received from other denominations. While during the year 1899, 267 ministers, trained by our own methods, were ordained by the Presbyteries, 57 ministers in addition were received from other bodies, and during the six years from 1894 to 1899, 440 ministers were received by the Presbyteries from outside our bounds. This fact emphasizes the conclusion reached by the Committee that there is no excess of ministers in our church, and also suggests the need for providing in our Constitution a method of maintaining the high standard of ministerial scholarship which has characterized our Church during its entire existence. There is a tendency in some quarters to bring into our communion ministers from other denominations whose educational attainments are not equal to those required of ministers trained in our own theological institutions. It is therefore recommended that an Overture be sent down to the Presbyteries amending Chapter XV of the Form of Government as follows:

Shall Chapter XV of the Form of Government, entitled "Of the election and ordination of bishops or pastors and evangelists," be amended by the addition of a new Section to be numbered Section xvi? viz.:—

Section xvi. Ministers connected with other denominations applying for membership in a Presbytery shall submit satisfactory evidence of possessing the qualifications of character and scholarship required of candidates and licentiates of this Church; shall be examined in theology, and in the discretion of Presbytery in other subjects, and shall answer in the affirmative Questions 1 to 8, contained in Section xii of this Chapter.

The Committee also believe that there should be some fuller regulation than exists of the action of congregations and pastors in the dissolution of the relations established between them. Some of the most serious difficulties connected with the general question of Vacancy and Supply originate and are continued by the ease with which pastoral relations are dissolved. The Committee are of the opinion that an amendment to Chapter XVII of the Form of Government, entitled "Of resigning a pastoral charge," would be helpful in this connection. That Chapter is based upon the idea that pastorates are likely to be terminated only by grievances arising in the relations of ministers and congregations. Whatever may have been the fact at the time of the adoption of the Constitution, the situation at present is very different. There is considerable restlessness on the part of both ministers and churches, which leads to frequent changes for other causes than those which may be classed as grievances. To a large extent, also, the constitutional authority of Presbytery is practically disregarded in both the resignation and the acceptance of pastoral charges, and Presbyteries are expected, without objection, to accept and confirm the acts of ministers and churches. The Committee have no sympathy with the idea of arbitrary power, and deprecate any attempt to exercise such power over individuals or congregations. But the proper recognition of Presbyterial authority and obedience to reasonable regulations are not arbitrary procedure, but are the appropriate ways by which all the business of the Church may be transacted with due order, and with regard to the highest welfare of all interested. It is therefore recommended that an Overture be sent down as follows, viz.:

Shall Chapter XVII of the Form of Government, entitled "Of resigning a pastoral charge," be amended by adding the following section? viz.:—

Section ii. When a minister, for any cause other than a serious grievance, desires to resign his pastoral charge, he shall give notice of the fact to the Session, and he shall present the resignation to the Presbytery, or to its committee in charge of such matters. The Presbyterial committee may authorize the Session to call a congregational meeting to consider the question whether the congregation will agree to unite with the pastor in his request to Presbytery to dissolve the pastoral relation. Unless the congregation and the pastor are both agreed in the matter, the Presbytery shall not dissolve said relation in a less period than four months from the date of notice by the pastor to the Session, except by a vote of three-fourhts of the members present. Prior to the dissolution of a pastoral relation all arrears of salary must be paid.

The Committee are further of the opinion that much difficulty is caused in connection with the pastoral relation through the interference of temporal officers of congregations with the powers of Presbytery over the settlement and maintenance of pastors. It is therefore recommended that Chapter XV of the Form of Government be amended by adding to Section 9 a clause dealing with the pastoral call, as follows:

Shall Chapter XV of the Form of Government, Section 9, be amended by the addition of the following clause? viz.:—

No change shall be made in the amount of salary stipulated in the call without the consent of Presbytery, unless both minister and congregation agree thereto; and only the congregation, regularly assembled, shall have power to bring such a question to the attention of Presbytery.

Respectfully submitted, in behalf of the Committee,

ROBERT F. SAMPLE, Chairman.

The following resolution was adopted:

Whereas, The General Assembly has directed that the statements from the Presbyteries on the subject of Revision be transmitted to the Committee on Revision through the Stated Clerk; and

Whereas, The Stated Clerk is the custodian of the Records connected with previous Revision movements, and thoroughly acquainted with their history; therefore,

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk is appointed by the Assembly the Secretary of the Committee, and is authorized to print the statements which may be transmitted to him from the Presbyteries for the use of the Committee.

The reply sent to the telegram received from the Baptist Missionary Societies in session at Detroit, Mich., was read and is as follows:

To Baptist Societies in Session at Detroit, Mich.:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church cordially reciprocate your fraternal greetings. Hebrews, chapter thirteen, verses twenty and twenty-one.

CHARLES A. DICKEY, Moderator.
WM. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The Moderator announced the following Special Committees:

Committee on Management of the Twentieth Century Fund: Ministers—Marcus A. Brownson, D.D., George T. Purves, D.D., Richard S. Holmes, D.D., Robert Hunter, D.D., Richard D. Harlan, William J. Chichester, D.D., and William J. McKittrick, D.D.; Elders—John H. Converse, Louis H. Severance, Frank K. Hipple, John Wanamaker, H. Edwards Rowland and William B. Gurley.

Committee on Missionary and Benevolent Offerings: Ministers—R. S. Holmes, D.D., F. W. Sneed, D.D., E. Trumbull Lee, D.D., J. G. Reaser, D.D., and J. Gray Bolton, D.D.; Elders—H. C. Olin, Jacob Wilson, Abraham R. Perkins and Vincent Miller.

Committee on Vacancy and Supply: Additional members—William P. White, D.D., Mr. George E. Sterry.

*Committee of Arrangements for the Twentieth Century Celebration, Friday, May 17, 1901: Ministers—Charles A. Dickey, D.D., William Henry Roberts, D.D., William B. Noble, D.D., with Ruling Elders—John Wanamaker and William H. Scott.

The Moderator was given power to add to the Committee on the Management of the Twentieth Century Fund.

The Judicial Commission on Judicial Case No. 5 reported its finding, which was ordered to be recorded, and is as follows:

THE SESSION OF THE CHURCH OF THE COVENANT, NORTHUMBERLAND PRESBYTERY, vs. THE SYNOD OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Judicial Case No. 5.—The Judicial Commission appointed by the General Assembly to whom was referred the case of the appeal of the Session of the Church of the Covenant of Williamsport, Pa., Presbytery of Northumberland, from the action of the Synod of Pennsylvania, for sustaining certain proceedings in connection with the resignation of the Rev. James Carter, pastor of said church, beg leave to give the following Report:

The case, in accordance with the provisions of the Book of Discipline, was entertained, both parties were heard, and judgment was rendered as follows:

The appeal from the action of the Synod of Pennsylvania by the Session of the Church of the Covenant, Presbytery of Northumberland, is sustained

The case is remanded to the Synod of Pennsylvania, and the Synod is directed to send the case back to the Presbytery of Northumberland for reconsideration and action.

T. T. CRESWELL, Clerk.

The unfinished business, the resolution amending the plan adopted for the appointment of Standing Committees, was taken up and with consent the resolution was withdrawn.

The Committees on Synodical Records presented their Reports, and the Records of the following Synods for the past Synodical year were approved without exception: Baltimore, California, Catawba, Colorado, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, New Jersey, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Washington and Wisconsin.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Atlantic presented the following Report, which was adopted:

The Committee on the Minutes of the Synod of Atlantic reported, recommending the approval of the same, with the exception that on page 328 it is stated, without explanation, that Rev. R. A. Cottingham's name was by vote dropped from the roll. From such record it would appear that Synod assumed a Presbyterial function.

Your Committee therefore submits that the cause of such action, and also the Constitutional authority and method of procedure in the case, should be made matters of record.

The Committee on the Minutes of the Synod of Indian Territory, reported recommending the approval of the same, with the exception that "The Synod was opened on October 28, 1899, with a popular meeting, when two addresses were delivered," instead of a sermon by the Moderator or his substitute, as prescribed in "the Form of Government, Chapter XI, Section V."

The Report was adopted.

The Committee on the Minutes of the Synod of New Mexico, reported recommending the approval of the same, with the following exceptions:

1. That absentees are not recorded, in the particular that churches not represented are not recorded (vide Minutes, 1894, p. 181; Digest, p. 682).

2. That there was no final roll-call prior to adjournment, that the names of absentees unexcused might be recorded, if any such there should be (Minutes, 1895, p. 124; Digest, p. 682).

3. That after the General Assembly had passed upon the Minutes of said Synod of 1898, approving them without exception, the Synod appointed a Committee to compare the printed copy with the written Record, who reported that "many minor differences had been discovered." The Record fails to state the importance of these "many minor differences," but shows that the Synod then adopted the written record, which was not approved by the General Assembly, instead of the printed record which had been so approved (see pages 6, 14, 48). This shows that the Synod did not, in 1898, send an exact transcript of its Minutes to the General Assembly, and for that year their Record does not contain the certificate of approval by the General Assembly. Further, it is the opinion of your Committee that the Synod is not competent to change its Record after it has been approved by the General Assembly, without permission of the Assembly (Minutes, 1880, p. 81; Digest, p. 680).

4. That in the judgment of your Committee, if it is not disrespectful, it surely is not wise nor for the edification of the Church for any judicatory of the Church to spread upon its Minutes imputations of unfair and unjust dealings on the part of a superior judicatory, as appears on pages 40 and 41 of the Minutes of this Synod with respect to the actions of the General Assembly.

5. That the Record does not conform to the conditions required by the General Assembly as to printed Records, in that there are no blank pages for the recording of the General Assembly's certificate of approval (vide Minutes, 1884, p. 75, proviso 3, and Minutes, 1889, p. 101).

The Report was adopted.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Pennsylvania presented the following Report, which was adopted:

The Committee on the Minutes of the Synod of Pennsylvania reported, recommending the approval of the same, with the exception of the decision in the case of the Church of the Covenant, Williamsport, Pa., acted upon by a Judicial Commission of this Assembly.

The Minutes of the Synods of China Central and Southern, China Northern, and India, were not presented for the reason that these judicatories had held no meeting recently.

A letter from the venerable missionary of the New Hebrides, the Rev. John G. Paton, D.D., addressed to the Moderator and the General Assembly, asking our coöperation for the suppression of the liquor traffic in the western Pacific, was read. It was ordered that we acknowledge the receipt of the letter, and assure Dr. Paton of our willingness and desire to coöperate in so important a matter.

The Committee on Electing Districts for Standing Committees presented its Report, which was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee to whom was entrusted the work of dividing the General Assembly into Districts according to the Peoria Overture, familiarly so-called, desire to present the following Report:

The language of the Overture seems somewhat indefinite on one point. It requires that the General Assembly shall be divided into twenty-two Districts, leaving other possible interpretations. We understand this language to mean that the Presbyterian Church represented by this Assembly shall be divided into Districts for the purpose mentioned, according to its Synods and Presbyteries. The Overture itself recognizes the impossibility of making the Districts precisely equal in the number, either of communicants, ministers or Commissioners to this Assembly; but we have endeavored to secure a division as near equality as possible. As a basis of representation we have assumed that of this Assembly. If every Presbytery were represented by its rightful number there would be here to-day 666 Commissioners, which allows thirty for each one of the twenty-two Districts, with a small fraction remaining. We have therefore endeavored to arrange the Districts so that each one, as nearly as possible, should be represented in this Assembly by thirty Commissioners.

Proceeding upon this plan, we propose the following Districts, covering the entire Church :

District No.	Area, Synods and Presbyteries.	No. of Com'rs.
1.	In Synod of New York, Presbyteries of Albany, Boston, Champlain, Hudson, Otsego, St. Lawrence, Syracuse, Troy and Utica	36
2.	In Synod of New York, Presbyteries of Buffalo, Binghamton, Cayuga, Chemung, Genesee, Geneva, Lyons, Niagara, Rochester and Steuben	30
3.	In Synod of New York, Presbyteries of Brooklyn, Columbia, Long Island, Nassau, New York, North River and Westchester	34
4.	In Synod of New Jersey, Presbyteries of Elizabeth, Jersey City, Newark, Morris and Orange, also Presbyteries of Chili, Corisco and Eastern Persia	24
5.	In Synod of New Jersey, Presbyteries of Monmouth, New Brunswick, Newton, West Jersey, also North Laos and Siam	24
6.	Synods of Baltimore, Atlantic and Catawba	34
7.	In Synod of Pennsylvania, Presbyteries of Allegheny, Blairsville, Butler, Clarion, Kittanning, Erie, Parkersburg, Pittsburg and Washington	32
8.	In Synod of Pennsylvania, Presbyteries of Shenango, Redstone, Carlisle, Chester, Huntingdon, Westminster, Northumberland	26
9.	In Synod of Pennsylvania, Presbyteries of Philadelphia, Wellsboro, Lackawanna, Lehigh, Philadelphia North	38
10.	In Synod of Ohio, Presbyteries of Cincinnati, Dayton, Lima, Maumee, Portsmouth, Chillicothe, Columbus and Marion	26
11.	In Synod of Ohio, Presbyteries of Cleveland, Mahoning, Steubenville, St. Clairsville, Zanesville, Athens, Bellefontaine, Huron, Wooster	24
12.	Synod of Michigan and Synod of North China	32
13.	Synod of Indiana and Synod of India	32
14.	Synod of Wisconsin and Synod of Minnesota	32
15.	Synod of Illinois	34
16.	Synod of Iowa	30
17.	Synods of Missouri, Kentucky and Tennessee	32
18.	Synods of North Dakota, South Dakota and Nebraska	34
19.	Synods of Kansas, Colorado and Utah	36
20.	Synods of Indian Territory, Texas, New Mexico and Presbyteries of Gulf of Mexico, City of Mexico and Zacatecas	28
21.	Synods of Washington, Oregon, and Montana	38
22.	Synods of California and Central and Southern China	34

The Stated Clerk was authorized to give notice to the Commissioners from the Presbyteries of their places in the Electing Districts. He was also authorized to assign their places in Electing Districts to new Presbyteries which may be erected during the intervals of the meetings of the Assembly, and to attend to other details connected with the operation of the plan.

The Synod of New York was granted permission to amend the Record of its meeting of 1898 with reference to action upon the Minutes of the Presbytery of Albany.

The memorial Minute upon the life and services of Rev. William E. Moore, D.D., LL.D., late Permanent Clerk of the General Assembly, was presented by the Rev. Robert Hunter, D.D., for the Committee, was approved by a rising vote, and ordered to be placed on record. The Assembly was led in prayer by the Rev. Dr. George W. Knox. The Minute is as follows:

The Committee appointed to prepare a Minute on the life and services of the late Rev. William Eves Moore, D.D., Permanent Clerk of the General Assembly, present the following Report:

The Rev. William Eves Moore, D.D., LL.D., was born at Strasburg, Pa., in the year 1823, graduated at Yale College, studied theology privately, was ordained by the Third Presbytery of Philadelphia (New School) in 1850, and served in the pastorate for twenty-one years at West Chester, Pa., and for the same period of time at Columbus, O.

He was elected Permanent Clerk of the General Assembly in May, 1884, serving until his death, June 5, 1899.

Dr. Moore was the author of the Digest of the deliverances of the General Assembly (New School), published in the year 1861, and also of the General Assembly of the reunited Church, issued in the years 1872, 1886 and 1898. He was perfectly familiar with the Constitution, decisions and customs of the Church, and his opinions were recognized as of high authority.

The General Assembly owed much to his knowledge, skill and wisdom, in recognition of which he was, in the year 1890, elevated to the Moderator's chair.

He served his country in the army in his youth and during the Civil War, and was chaplain of an Ohio National Guard regiment from 1879 to 1898.

As a man Dr. Moore was genial, generous, sympathetic and magnetic; he was strong in his convictions of truth, while at the same time courteous and deferential in manner toward those who saw truth from a different standpoint from that which was occupied by himself. As a preacher he was faithful to the great doctrines of the Cross and preëminently a winner of souls. As a pastor he was a true shepherd of the people, entering into all their joys and sorrows, ever wise in counsel, and always interested in whatever pertained to their welfare in the "life which now is and that which is to come." As an ecclesiastic he was painstaking and thorough; and in the exercise of his functions as an officer of the Assembly he was accurate, faithful and kindly.

In the circle of home he was greatly beloved. God blessed him with a wife who is herself a woman of remarkable character, and with a family of six sons, three of whom are in the Gospel ministry, and all of whom are an honor to their parents.

Dr. Moore departed this life at Columbus, O., June 5, 1899, and his mortal remains, borne by the hands of his sons, were laid to rest in the cemetery near the scene of his labors in his first pastorate, at West Chester, Pa.

The Assembly rejoices that it was so long privileged to enjoy in so many lines of work the faithful labors of so able and eminent a servant of God; and hereby conveys to Mrs. Moore and the other members of the family its affectionate sympathy, and prays the God of all comfort that He may fulfill to them His gracious promises to His beloved in the day of affliction.

Respectfully submitted,

A. A. E. Taylor,
Wm. Henry Roberts,
Robert Hunter.

The Report on Young People's Societies of the Church was presented by the Stated Clerk, and was accepted and adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Stated Clerk respectfully reports to the General Assembly that, so far as returns have been made, the members of the various Societies of Young People are as follows:

Christian Endeavor Societies	3416
Westminster Leagues	16
Young People's Missionary Societies	266
Miscellaneous	207
	3905

These statistics are incomplete, and it is requested that the Clerk be empowered to continue the effort to secure accurate statistics, and that a Committee of seven be appointed to aid him.

It was moved that a new Standing Committee of the Assembly be established to be called the Committee on Young People's Work, and that the statistics should include the membership of the Societies.

These propositions, with the whole subject of Young People's Work, were referred to the Special Committee just authorized, which was appointed by the Moderator as follows:

Committee on Young People's Work: Ministers—William H. Roberts, D.D., Robert M. Patterson, D.D., Robert Hunter, D.D.,

Hugh B. MacCauley and Matthew J. Hyndman; Ruling Elders—William A. Pickell and Marshall S. Collingwood.

The Stated Clerk of the Assembly was unanimously authorized to cast and did cast the vote of the Assembly for Mr. Francis B. Reeves as a Trustee of the General Assembly.

The Stated Clerk of the Assembly was unanimously empowered to cast, and did cast the vote of the Assembly for the following persons as members of the Board of the Church Erection Fund, viz.: William H. Parsons, Jr., in place of Robert Jaffray; Rev. John Reid, D.D., in place of Rev. L. Mason Clarke, and for the term of three years, Ministers—David R. Fraser, D.D., Charles T. Haley, D.D., John H. Ingham, David Magie, D.D.; Elders—Frederick W. Baldwin and Hezekiah King.

The Standing Committee on Finance presented a Supplementary Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

With reference to the Overture of the Presbytery of Lackawanna, asking that the General Assembly direct the Treasurer to give to its Permanent Committee on Temperance the sum of $1000 annually, your Committee, having taken into consideration the fact that the Assembly has ruled, in regard to the use of its funds, that it has "no power to devote the funds collected for the expenses of the Assembly to other purposes" (Minutes, 1891, p. 107), recommend that the request be not granted.

Respectfully submitted,

EBEN S. MATHIS, Chairman Pro Tem.

The newspapers of the city were requested not to publish in their Sunday editions the Reports of the proceedings of the Assembly.

The following resolution concerning the work of the American Tract Society was adopted :

Resolved, That the General Assembly cordially congratulates the American Tract Society on the Divine favor that has so richly blessed its seventy-five years' operations at home and abroad, emphasizing the vital truth dearest to every Christian heart. Its colportage searching out the millions beyond the reach of churches, its generous grants to home missionaries and other earnest Christian workers, its unique work in behalf of immigrants of many tongues, and its invaluable aid to missions in foreign lands, all claim for it a place in the gifts of our churches.

The following resolutions were adopted :

Resolved, That we encourage all our ministers to make themselves familiar with the temperance legislation in their respective States, and give their hearty coöperation both to the enforcement of all existing laws for the suppression of the saloon, and to efforts for their amendment when necessary, so that the territory now under prohibitory statutes may be increased as rapidly as possible.

Resolved, That the Bowersock bill or some equally comprehensive measure preventing the sale or use of intoxicants at army canteens and military encampments, is an urgent necessity; and should be passed by the United States Congress and approved and enforced by the President without delay; and that Presbyterians be advised to use their utmost efforts to secure the enactment of such measure into law.

The following response was received from the United Presbyterian General Assembly :

CHICAGO, ILL., May 26, 1900.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, St. Louis, Mo.:

The General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in Chicago, returns fraternal greetings, earnestly praying for the continued peace and prosperity of your Zion.

J. P. SANKEY, Moderator.
W. J. REID, Principal Clerk.

Messages of greeting were received as follows, and the Stated Clerk was directed to acknowledge them :

STOCKTON, CAL., May 19, 1900.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church:

California Christian Endeavorers send greetings. 1 Cor. xv. 58.

FRANCIS W. REID.

OAK PARK, ILL., May 23, 1900.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church:

The Illinois General Congregational Association in session sends fraternal greetings. 1 Cor. iii. 9.

A. P. SOLANDT.

The following resolutions were adopted :

Resolved, That the General Assembly is responsible only for the expenses of its Commissioners and officers in connection with its annual meetings.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be directed, as usual, to publish the Minutes of the General Assembly.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to furnish the Minutes to such Presbyteries only as have paid in full their quotas to the Contingent Fund.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk forward a copy each of the Minutes and Reports to the Ruling Elders who are Commissioners to this Assembly ; Provided, That the Ruling Elders forward to the Clerk their post-office addresses, and that the Presbyteries which they represent have paid their full quotas to the Mileage and Contingent Funds.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk prepare a new edition of the Manual for the use of the next Assembly.

Resolved, That the Moderator be authorized to fill by appointment any vacancies which may occur, by resignation or otherwise, in any of the Special Committees.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to pay the usual bills and salaries, the undertaker's bill in St. Louis in the case of Mr. Eehols, and that he settle all accounts connected with the entertainment of the Assembly.

Resolved, That the entertainment of Commissioners remaining in St. Louis over the Sabbath be paid at the regular rate until and including Monday morning.

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions, reported that it had passed a unanimous vote of thanks to its Chairman, Rev. Charles Cuthbert Hall, D.D.

The Judicial Committee reported that it had adopted as its final Report a resolution of appreciation of its Chairman, Rev. William McKibbin, D.D. The Report is as follows, and was ordered to be entered on the Minutes :

The members of the Judicial Committee would put on record their appreciation of the efficiency, wisdom and kind consideration shown by our Chairman, Rev. William McKibbin, D.D., and our earnest prayer that the Master of Assemblies would Himself grant him His favor which is life and His loving kindness which is better than life.

Respectfully submitted,

H. BRANCH, Secretary.

The Standing Committees were called upon, reported that they had no further business, and were severally discharged, viz.: Bills and Overtures, Judicial Committee, Polity of the Church, Home Missions, Foreign Missions, Education, Publication, Church Erection, Theological Seminaries, Ministerial Relief, Freedmen, Aid for Colleges, Correspondence, Benevolence, Narrative, Leave of Absence, Mileage, and Finance.

The Roll was called, and 372 Commissioners were reported present. It was ordered that the names of Commissioners found absent without leave be printed in the Minutes. The names are as follows :

The Committee appointed for the purpose presented the following resolutions of thanks, which were unanimously adopted:

The Commissioners to the One Hundred and Twelfth General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America desire to make lasting record of their appreciation of the attentions they have received from many sources during their sojourn in St. Louis. Nothing has been left undone that could be done for our comfort. The arrangements for entertainment have been generous. The facilities for intercourse with each other, for the meetings of Committees, for the reception and transmission of mail, for telephonic communications when necessary, and for everything essential to the successful conduct of the General Assembly have been of the best order. The press of the city has been unwearied and intelligent in its efforts to present the transactions of the Assembly from day to day in convenient form. The various Committees on whose fidelity the opening and conduct of the Assembly depended, have a high claim on our regard. The women of the city have maintained the reputation which has been established by Presbyterian women, in every city where the Assembly has met, for hearty hospitality. In view of all these things, we offer in behalf of our fellow-Commissioners, and those who have been with us recipients of the kindness of St. Louis, in behalf also of the officers of the Assembly, the Secretaries of the Boards, and other corresponding members of the Assembly, the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly returns thanks to the Moderator, the Rev. Charles A. Dickey, D.D., for his generous impartiality in dealing with all matters before the Assembly, and for his uniform courtesy to all the members of this body.

2. That we, officers of the General Assembly, Commissioners, executive officers of the Boards of the Church and corresponding members, return our thanks to the officers and members of the Washington and Compton Avenue Presbyterian Church for the free use of their house of worship for the sessions of the General Assembly.

3. That we express our hearty appreciation of the able, thoughtful and alert services of the pastor of the church, the Rev. F. W. Sneed, D.D., as Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements.

4. That we return our thanks to the other members of the Committee of Arrangements and to all other Committees which have aided in preparing for the coming of the General Assembly, have conducted its progress from day to day, provided for its entertainment, contributed to its pleasure by the excursion of last Saturday, and reduced the possible discomforts of absence from home to a minimum.

5. That we heartily thank the daily press of the city for its very satisfactory presentation of the proceedings of the General Assembly.

6. That we heartily thank the ladies of the Presbyterian churches of St. Louis who have bestowed courtesies upon the members of the Assembly, some by invitations to social functions in their homes, and others by entertainment given most hospitably to Commissioners as their guests.

7. That the thanks of the Assembly are due and are hereby tendered to Dr. F. L. Marshall, for his service in conducting the singing at the devotional meetings of the Assembly.

8. That we tender our thanks to the railroads that have granted us reduced rates of travel, the post-office officials and employees, to the officials and employees of telegraph and telephone companies, and to all other persons connected with companies or corporations who have so generously extended courtesies to us.

9. That we offer our expressions of sincere appreciation for the courtesy of churches of our own denomination which have offered their pulpits on the Sabbath to ministers attending the Assembly, and for the spirit of comity which has caused sister churches of other denominational names to invite preachers from our number to declare the everlasting Gospel in the presence of their congregations; and in general to all churches for all manifestations of interest in us and love for us as brethren in the Lord.

10. That we return our hearty thanks to any others, and to all others, messengers, janitors, attendants and aides, or those in any other position or capacity who have rendered us assistance and made possible this very pleasant meeting of the Assembly.

11. That we recognize the good hand of our God upon us in our assembling together, and we give Him grateful thanks in this closing hour for the evident presence of the Holy Spirit, guiding us in our deliberations, keeping us from misunderstandings, and filling us with that peace which our blessed Master promised to those whose hearts resting in Him are neither troubled nor afraid.

For the Committee,

Appropriate addresses were made by the Moderator and the Rev. Frank W. Sneed, D.D., pastor of the Washington and Compton Avenue Presbyterian Church, Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, and Mr. W. C. Butler, Chairman of the Committee of Entertainment.

The Minutes of to-day's proceedings were read and approved.

After solemn praise and thanksgiving, the business of the Assembly having been completed and the vote taken for the dissolution, the Moderator dissolved the Assembly, saying, "By virtue of the authority delegated to me by the Church, let this General Assembly be dissolved, and I do hereby dissolve it, and require another General Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet in Philadelphia, Pa., at a place designated by the Committee of Arrangements, on the third Thursday of May, 1901."

The sessions were closed with prayer and the apostolic benediction.

WILLIAM BROWN NOBLE, Permanent Clerk.

WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

APPENDIX.

I. Narrative, Necrology, Correspondence, etc.

NARRATIVE

OF THE STATE OF RELIGION WITHIN THE BOUNDS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA FOR THE YEAR ENDING MARCH 31, 1900.

Your Committee presents no figures with which to indicate the progress of our beloved Church during the past year. We have gone through, in laborious fashion, the reports of about two hundred Presbyteries, but will not venture to tabulate the statistics as to accessions, present membership or gifts. This task would be far easier if the Stated Clerks of our Presbyteries were more uniformly careful in compiling and transcribing their Presbyterial narratives. There is an apparent indifference and in many instances a carelessness in regard to the duty of reporting through Presbyterial blanks the religious condition of our churches. This is to minimize the importance of any effort to exhibit the spiritual work and status of our Church. This is wrong. The ministers and elders and churches of our denomination scattered over the whole world wait with considerable interest the generalization of these reports. The spirit and character of our church life at this juncture is here revealed, the general hindrances and weaknesses are here suggested, the causes for grateful joy and the needs for earnest supplication are here made apparent, and the Clerks of Presbyteries should take special pains to secure full and accurate exhibits in order that a correct basis of judgment concerning our work may be sent down to our waiting brethren.

But in the absence of the complete statistics, which by no means indicate the full scope or character or present status of spiritual work within our bounds, we are ready to say that on all sides stand significant and hopeful indications of God's continued presence with us, and the undeniable evidence of substantial progress in all departments of our Church. Whether we have gone forward in proportion to our opportunities and discharged with due diligence the obligations resting upon us is not to be determined by the reports in the hands of this Committee. We deem we shall do our duty as a Committee, after having reviewed the Presbyterial narratives, if we sum up our observations under two general divisions. In one we desire to record for the consideration of the Assembly and the Church at large the things appearing in the Presbyterial narratives calculated to enhance the spiritual life and work within our bounds, and in the other division to place the things apparent from the same sources calculated to hinder that life and work, and then, without any effort, after a comprehensive recommendation, to leave to the logical, scrupulous and consecrated feelings of our beloved brethren, here and throughout the Church, to provide a way in which these fine advantages may be used and these hampering obstacles removed, to the glory of God and the blessing of our Church.

I. Note first, some of the features of our Church life, as suggested by the Presbyterial narratives, calculated to encourage us and enhance our work.

(1) The past year has been a year marked by the liquidation of debts upon our churches and denominational institutions. The Church has shared in the general prosperity of the country, and her generosity has shown itself in a signal manner, but in noway more significant than in this particular. One Presbytery during the past eighteen months has paid over $75,000 worth of debts, leaving all but two churches of that Presbytery free of encumbrances. What is true here is true elsewhere in less degree. If wise and constant supervision is exercised by pastors and Sessions in order that no reaction follow the strenuous efforts after liquidation, the Boards of our Church will from now on reap from all quarters enlarged gifts because of diminished local obligations. This, however, is a point of danger and should be seriously regarded if a blessing rather than a sorrow is to follow in the wake of the new-bought freedom of our many churches. And with our words of congratulation we join our word of warning to our brethren.

(2) No debts upon our Boards! This report, repeated until our churches feel that a habit of perfect self-restraint is now fixed upon our Boards, has had a tonic effect upon our givers. It has put good cheer and a hopeful spirit into our Church, and every indication points to larger and more systematic giving hereafter. The list of non-contributing churches should hereafter rapidly diminish.

(3) There is apparent throughout the Presbyteries a growing determination to secure and maintain a better quality of ministers. More care is being exercised in the examination and admission of candidates, and positive discouragements are courageously laid before those who, though pious and sound, yet evidence no special fitness to enter the office of the ministry in a day when tests are made more severe and exacting than ever before. This is an indication that our Church is open-eyed to the vast progress in human life and knowledge and to the increasing complications of the problems of the day, and that she is determined to put into her ministry only those who give signs of requisite strength and fitness.

(4) There is no diminution, so far as we can see, in the place and use of the pulpit. The preacher declaring the Gospel is no warring factor in modern life, but the opposite. There is no general disposition in our Church to displace the sermon with song or liturgy, where the content of preaching feeds inquiring souls. There is a definite progress in the idea of what a sermon is for. Men are finding that nothing feeds and satisfies men, wakens and holds their interest, like the plain Gospel; and without depreciating the place and use of themes touching sociology and history and philosophy, we hail with joy and gladness the healthy reaction setting toward the plainest Gospel preaching in our pulpits.

(5) Spiritual fruits cheer our hearts. Revivals of quiet but profound influence have been frequent. The colleges of the land have been particularly blessed with a genuine religious interest. Our Home Mission churches have received showers of blessings. The consecrated witnessing of our self-denying missionaries has been rewarded. Two hundred and fifty Indians were last year converted in Alaska. A special work of grace has gone on among the Indians of Oregon. The great churches have also been endued with power, and large accessions are reported. Synods have spent days in fasting and in prayer. Presbyteries throughout the land have met for the sole purpose of supplicating the presence of the Holy Spirit in their work. Conferences touching ways and means of awakening the Church and calling her to a larger consecration of men and means have been frequent at home and abroad. From these conferences the spirit of evangelization has gone forth. This spirit has been enriched by those fine spiritual influences that preceded the great Ecumenical Conference. The thought of the Church during the year has been notably evangelistic, and blessings have come upon an expectant Church at home and abroad.

(6) The most hopeful because most fruitful phase of our spiritual work is evidently from the reports among our children. There is a growing recognition of the place of the Sabbath-school. The Church last year, as is always true, drew a large part of its new membership from the Sabbath-school. The Westminster helps are becoming more popular and effective. The Catechism is not as generally taught as it ought to be, though there are a few indications of renewed interest in it. The children are attending church services in larger numbers than formerly, and pastors are happily accommodating their pulpit ministration to this encouraging feature.

(7) These reports indicate a growing interest in societies for men. There are great efforts being put forth in this direction, with results. Societies of men reporting combine literary, reform, social and religious features. They endeavor to give men less excuse for turning to the ever-increasing number of lodges and fraternal Orders with their exacting social and financial obligations, and bring them to see that fraternity and true sociability are the more fraternal and the truer as they abide nearer the Cross.

The encouraging features of our church life and work are apparent to your Committee from a perusal of the narratives of the Presbyteries. We have reasons for profound gratitude to God for the rich gleanings He has granted us during the year. It is significant of yet greater things to come.

II. But no one can read these reports without detecting throughout a spirit of frank acknowledgment of existing difficulties and embarrassments, the presence of which hinder the progress of our Church. To note these briefly is to call the Church to the duty of removing them.

(1) A restlessness of a varied and peculiar nature is affecting both our churches and our pastors. It is not to be accurately described nor entirely accounted for, but its presence is undoubted and its effects painfully apparent. It is responsible for much that is unhappy and fruitless in our church life, and needs to give place to that quiet, undistracted, simple spirit of contentment in which the fruits of the Holy Ghost only can thrive.

(2) The chilling influences of the mercantile spirit of the day are intruding upon our Church work. Presbyteries speak anxiously of this matter. They feel that the pressure of business, moving in its great interlocked combinations, is absorbing the best life and thought of too many persons, and that it is hindering the progress of the Church by preventing the growth of spiritual character, and bringing in seasons of distress and profitless labor of devoted pastors and Sessions. This condition calls for much prayer and urgent pleas for consecration of time and talents to God.

(3) A lament comes up from every quarter, particularly from the cities of our country, touching the too meagre interest of the churches in the services of Sunday evening and the mid-week prayer-meetings. It is a too prevalent condition not to be recognized and dealt with in all candor. Diligent inquiry should be had as to the causes here operating; we are not allowed in the presence of facts to attribute this condition to a decaying interest in spiritual matters, though in too many instances this may be true. Are there too many services in our weekly calendar in view of the pressing conditions of our modern life? Are we too highly organized and burdening the people with our complicated machinery? It is well to ask ourselves these questions while pleading mightily for more of that godly piety and praying faith which alone can sustain the people of God in the work of the Church.

(4) There is slow progress in the direction of larger organized means designed to inform the men of our Church as to missionary work and need. The women's societies are abounding. They go on to more abundance and increasing zeal and fruitfulness. Their societies, local and national, are coming upon more fascinating and effective methods of informing and inspiring the women in missionary matters, while the reports in our hands indicate but few efforts to bring our men into touch with the great facts of world evangelization. When we shall fall upon those means of putting the great facts and needs of our Missionary Boards before the men of our Church that are employed by the women's societies of our Church, or something as good, we will have done much to fire the heart and untie the purse-strings of thousands of generous but uninformed men in our congregations.

(5) Another hindrance in our spiritual work, noted in the reports, is the lack of active and forceful family religion. The reports on this point are calculated to waken anxiety in the hearts of all who measure the relation between the family life and the perpetuity in vigor, purity and fruitfulness of the life of the Presbyterian Church. The family altar is the great power to weld together, amidst the distracted and decisive forces of our day, the home life, and to set it, like some resisting and sanctifying thing, to save piety and shelter faith in this wicked world.

(6) There is a lack of properly equipped teachers in our Sunday-schools, which, taken with the lack of positive religious influence in the family, is the most widespread hindrance noted in the entire survey. This is serious. To fail here is to halt the advancing generations in their growth in the knowledge of the things of God, and to certainly circumscribe the future of our Church. Pastors and Presbyteries must plan some practicable methods for schooling a teaching force among the membership, lest we ill-use our greatest opportunity touching the spiritual development of our youth.

This is not the whole catalogue of our hindrances. The few we recite indicate the character of others, but more truly indicate to us our duty. Our Church is a worldwide institution. She has behind her a history whose nobility and richness are enhanced by what her good and great have contributed to it. Enlisted in her ranks are one million members. Into the hands of these million of members God has put a bountiful share of worldly wealth. We have great Boards and agencies constructed and operating upon plans whose simplicity and economy are unrivaled. They command the invention and tireless services of consecrated men and women. The past has done well by us. The present has brought us effectual doors and great instrumentalities. But, fathers and brethren, these things are not enough! It is not "might" and "power," as men know these terms, that our Church wants as she enters the new century amidst rich and hopeful conditions. These she has, for she grasps all the great sinews of modern life and is wielding them with tremendous power. But emphatically she needs the accompanying and overmastering power of the Holy Spirit if she is to pass these obstacles herein suggested and effectually enter the ripening harvest fields of the new century.

There is nothing within our whole bounds to warrant self-complacency. Every Presbyterial report hints at opportunities and needs, at discouragements and critical conditions, unsatisfied yearnings for larger things. We shall not go up to meet these things full-armed and unresisting unless with us in unusual demonstration, with quieting, guiding power, with inspiring, strengthening influences, moves the Holy Spirit. This only will secure for us the mastery of our large resources and unrivaled instrumentalities, insure to us large ingathering of the unsaved at home and abroad, deepen faith throughout the Church and beget a more spontaneous outgo of the life, love and substance of our beloved Church toward every part of the Master's work.

We recommend that upon the acceptance of this report the General Assembly, in recognition of the joyful conditions that unite us to labor, and in view of the hindrances that hamper our going and discourage our brethren, to engage in a brief session of prayer, calling upon the great Head of the Church to endue our beloved Church with His Holy Spirit, in order that we may enter the door of the waiting century mindful of our blessings and solicitous for an unreservedly consecrated and Spirit-filled Church. All of which is respectfully submitted.

WILLIAM C. COVERT, Chairman.

WM. HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

CORRESPONDENCE.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMISSION OF THE ALLIANCE OF THE REFORMED CHURCHES THROUGHOUT THE WORLD HOLDING THE PRESBYTERIAN SYSTEM.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., May 8, 1900.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.:

DEAR BRETHREN:—The Executive Commission of the Western Section of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System presents to your venerable body its Annual Report, wishing you grace, mercy and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Since our last Report the Seventh General Council of this Alliance has been held, as previously announced, in the city of Washington, sitting from September 27 to October 6, 1899. The gathering was well attended by the representatives of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches throughout the world. The proceedings were characterized by interest, dignity and power, and are contained in full in the volume which has been published by the Secretary, a copy of which is herewith transmitted to you. The results of the meeting were marked in the further development of fraternal sympathy and coöperation between the several churches. The Council elected as President for the current term the Rev. William Caven, D.D., for three years Chairman of the Western Section, and Principal of Knox College, Toronto, Canada.

The Western Section was reconstituted by the Seventh Council, and held its first meeting in the city of Philadelphia on April 20 of this year. Mr. George Junkin having resigned his office as American Treasurer of the Alliance, the Section appointed in his place F. K. Hipple, Esq., President of the Real Estate Trust Company, Philadelphia, Pa. The officers of the Section now are George Junkin, Esq., LL.D., Chairman; Rev. William Henry Roberts, D.D., LL.D., Secretary; F. K. Hipple, Esq., Treasurer, and the Rev. M. H. Hutton, D.D., Recording Secretary.

It is respectfully requested that provision be made for the apportionment of the expenses of the Alliance due from your venerable Body for the present year, and which amounts to the sum of $765. Remittance may be made to the American Treasurer of the Alliance.

The Western Section has appointed the Rev. Wallace Radcliffe, D.D., as a delegate to bear to your venerable body the fraternal greetings of the Alliance, with the Rev. James A. Worden, D.D., as alternate.

The Committee on Work on the European Continent of the Western Section calls special attention to the great need of English services on the continent of Europe. In a number of the larger cities there is already a considerable colony of English-speaking people. To these are added every year more than a hundred thousand who go abroad for travel, of whom it is estimated that between ten and twenty thousand belong to the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches of this Alliance. The question naturally arises, Shall our children be left as sheep without a shepherd? The only English services in many places are the liturgical, often ritualistic, services of the Anglican Church. Those who prefer non-liturgical worship are generally left without care, even where religious influences are most needed, as at educational centres and health resorts. The Scotch Presbyterian Churches have made a small beginning for the solution of this problem, having about forty preaching places and churches, but what are they in so large a field! The Church of England has about 400 churches and places of worship, and she is thus gaining members from our own communion, while at the same time not ministering to many abroad who prefer non-liturgical services. We earnestly pray your General Assembly to open one or more summer stations in Europe, that thus a beginning may be made at this important problem. These will grow gradually into self-supporting churches, for it is to be remembered that while almost every other department of work is cared for by our churches, such as Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Sunday-schools, etc., this field on the continent is not looked after. It is the duty of this Alliance to call the attention of the churches to unoccupied fields, and is it not the duty of the churches to occupy them? Your own children, living or traveling abroad, appeal to you through us for religious privileges, rightfully theirs, from the churches to which they belong. Shall we leave them to the inroads of rationalism, Romanism, worldliness and indifference, without attempting to care for them? Further, such missions and churches as we ask for will in time have a powerful influence on the welfare of the native churches of Europe. The great national churches of the Reformed faith may be through them stimulated to a new effort, in some measure similar to the Reformation of the Sixteenth Century. The minimum cost of a summer station is about $300. In any effort you may make the Continental Committee of this Alliance will be ready to aid by information and sympathy. The Rev. James I. Good, D.D., Reading, Pa., is the Chairman of the Committee.

In closing the Report, expression is given to the hopes cherished and in part realized in connection with the founding and growth of the Alliance. The suggestion for its organization was made at the Reunion General Assembly of 1870, when the Old and New School Branches of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, met as the representatives of a united Church for the first time since 1837. Since that date the bonds uniting the various Presbyterian and Reformed Churches have been drawn yet closer, and on more than one continent there have been evidences of the working of that spirit of harmony which produced the Alliance and which it fosters. Notably in this connection reference is made to the recent union of the Presbyterian Churches of South Africa under one General Assembly, and the approaching union of the United Presbyterian Church and the Free Church of Scotland. We can but rejoice in these signs of the times, which point to an increasing realization, on the part of Christians holding substantially the same faith and the same form of Church government, of the sentiment of the Apostle: "There is one Body and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith and one baptism, one God and Father of all who is above all and through all and in you all."

With earnest prayers for the increased prosperity of the work of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ in your midst as a Church, both at home and abroad, we are, in behalf of the Alliance,

GEORGE JUNKIN, Chairman;
WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS, American Secretary.

LETTER FROM THE DELEGATE OF THE GENERAL SYNOD OF THE REFORMED (DUTCH) CHURCH.

NEW YORK, N. Y., May 17, 1900.

MY DEAR DR. ROBERTS:—I am appointed to convey to the General Assembly the greetings of the Reformed Church in America. This duty is most grateful, since it brings me into a sort of felicitous contact with my dear brethren of former years. This is not as if I were going next door to visit a neighbor, but into another room of the same house. And the congratulations which I bring are too sincere to be formulated in conventional phrases. In behalf of the small but faithful body of Presbyterians with whom my lot is cast, I give you, brethren of the beloved and powerful Church of my fathers, most cordial greetings and congratulations. God bless your Assembly, breathing His Spirit upon it! God bless you and be with you all!

In behalf of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America.

Yours fraternally in Christ,

DAVID JAMES BURRELL.

LETTER FROM THE DELEGATE OF THE GENERAL SYNOD OF THE EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH.

May 17, 1900.

To the Moderator and Members of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church:

DEAR BRETHREN:—At the meeting of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, held at York, Pa., in June, 1899, I was appointed fraternal delegate from that body to the General Assembly, and thus entrusted with the pleasant duty of carrying you our fraternal salutation and greeting at your present meeting at St. Louis. I had earnestly hoped to be present in person at your meeting, and had anticipated no ordinary pleasure in attending upon at least part of the services of the venerable body representing the great and honored Presbyterian Church. Protracted sickness of a member of my family and other circumstances, however, have made this impossible, and I must content myself by sending this communication.

I am glad to assure you of the cordial welcome extended to your delegate to our body at its last meeting at York, Pa., the Rev. E. T. Jeffers, D.D., of that city. He was heard in his greetings with profit and pleasure. I am glad, further, to assure you that in no part of the Church of our common Lord and Master have our people a more abiding interest than in that represented by the General Assembly, and from none have been accorded a more earnest and intelligent sympathy and cordial coöperation in the peculiar work of our denomination.

I present to you, in behalf of the body I represent, Christian greetings and high fraternal regard. Our prayer is, that the Holy Spirit may be with you in your present meeting, and that the manifold graces of the Spirit may abound in all your churches.

It is our earnest desire to have a continuance of the cordial relations now existing between our respective bodies, and we would ask for the appointment of a delegate from the Assembly to our next meeting, to be held at Des Moines, Ia., in June, 1901.

With sincere regard and a fraternal prayer for the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace, I am Yours very truly,

DAVID H. BAUSLIN.

121 MONROE ST., TIFFIN, O.,
June 20, 1899.

DEAR SIR:—Your telegram as Stated Clerk of General Assembly, directing me to appear before the General Synod of the Reformed Church in session in this city was duly received and attended to as per following report:

Rev. J. P. Stratton, D.D., representative from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States, appeared before the Synod of the Reformed Church in session at Tiffin, O., on Friday, May 26, 1899. He was introduced to the General Synod by the President and received by that body standing, and 3 P.M. was fixed as the hour for the presentation of the greeting of the General Assembly. At that hour your representative appeared and was heard by the General Synod. He spoke of the closeness of polity and doctrine between the two denominations; referred to the glorious history of the two churches and conveyed the cordial greetings and best wishes of the Presbyterian Church through its General Assembly. In reply, the President of the General Synod expressed the great pleasure felt by himself and members of the Synod in receiving a representative from the General Assembly of the Church with which they were so closely allied, and have had so many historic associations. He bade me convey to the General Assembly the cordial greetings of the General Synod, and to bespeak for the Synod its hearty reciprocation of the sentiments spoken in the name of the General Assembly and to wish for it and the great Church which it represents the choicest favors of God.

JAMES P. STRATTON, D.D.,

Delegate from General Assembly to General Synod Reformed Church.

REPORT OF THE DELEGATE TO THE GENERAL SYNOD OF THE EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH.

YORK, PA., May 15, 1900.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.:

BRETHREN:—I have the honor to report that I visited the General Synod of the Lutheran Church, meeting in York, on May 30, 1899, and according to the instructions of the last Assembly, conveyed the greetings of the Presbyterians to the Lutherans. I was very cordially received by the members, and directed to convey to you their brotherly sympathies and congratulations, and to ask for a continuance of fraternal relations with their Synod. All of which is respectfully submitted.

E. T. JEFFERS.

Middle class,	47
Junior class,	51
Total	195

On the tenth day of February, 1900, Rev. William Henry Green, D.D., LL.D., entered into rest. He was spared to the Seminary until he had completed the work of the first term in the forty-ninth year of his professorship and the fifty-second year of his service on the teaching staff of the Seminary. Appropriate memorial services were held in Miller Chapel on March 27, at which an address speaking of the life and service of Dr. Green was delivered by Prof. John D. Davis.

The Board also announces, with great regret, the death of Rev. Robert Hamill, D.D., one of the senior Directors of the Seminary, in the month of February.

It appears that of the seventy-two members of the graduating class about four-fifths are settled in churches. Five go to the foreign field, four will labor in the mountains of Kentucky, and six others will enter upon home mission work in the West.

The Stone Lectures were delivered this year by the Rev. Frank U. Foster, professor in the Pacific University, Oakland, Cal. He took for his subject: "The Contribution of Christian Experience to the System of Evangelical Doctrine."

Rev. George T. Purves, D.D., Professor of New Testament Literature and Exegesis in the Seminary, presented his resignation to the Board of Directors on May 7, 1900, having accepted a call to the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York City. With great regret his resignation was accepted.

The Directors desire to report to the General Assembly the following changes in the Faculty:

1. The transfer of Professor John D. Davis, D.D., to the Helena Chair Professorship of Oriental and Old Testament Literature.

2. The election of Professor Robert Dick Wilson, D.D., of the Western Theological Seminary of Allegheny, Pa., to the Chair of Semitic Philology and Old Testament Criticism.

No election for the Chair of New Testament Literature and Exegesis has yet been had.

The award of the Hebrew Fellowship has been deferred.

The Alumni Fellowship in the New Testament studies has been awarded to Harry Apgar Nye, a graduate of Lafayette College.

The first Scribner prize in New Testament Literature has been awarded to Paul Erdman, a graduate of Princeton University, and the second Scribner prize to John Richard Wilkie, a graduate of Centre College, Ky.

The first Maitland prize for New Testament Exegesis has been awarded to David DeForest Burro, a graduate of Yale University.

On recommendation of the Faculty, the Board of Directors appointed James Oscar Boyd, Ph.D., to the position of Elliot F. Shepard Instructor in the Old Testament Department for one year.

The following were elected Directors of the Seminary, to serve three years:

George T. Purves, D.D., LL.D.
Joseph T. Smith, D.D., LL.D.
J. Addison Henry, D.D.
Francis B. Hodge, D.D.

II. AUBURN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

Report of the Governing Boards.

The Governing Boards of the Theological Seminary of Auburn, in the State of New York, report as follows for the year ending May 10, 1900, to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

On September 22, 1899, the Rev. George B. Stewart, D.D., was inaugurated second President of the Seminary with appropriate services. The charge was delivered by the Rev. Francis L. Patton, D.D., LL.D., President of Princeton University. The occasion was graced with the presence of the representatives of many educational institutions, Alumni of Auburn and other friends.

The Trustees and Faculty have adopted a scheme for self-government by the student body, which will go into effect with the next Seminary year. This scheme commits the management and discipline of the student life to the student body with power to enforce its will with proper penalties.

The Faculty and Trustees have also adopted a plan for the administration of the Scholarship Funds. There will be two graduate scholarships of $250 each, given for merit only and with a view to promoting high class work on the part of graduates competent to do it. The Undergraduate Scholarships are divided into three classes, Employment, Loan and Free Scholarships. These are given on the basis of merit to those students who may need them. No student will be allowed to enjoy any of these scholarships who does not maintain a standing of 75 per cent. and have the health, Christian character and faithfulness in daily work which give promise of usefulness in the ministry.

Friends of the Seminary during the year have contributed about $10,000 to its permanent funds and current expenses. In order to increase the Faculty and enlarge the curriculum it has been determined to seek an addition of at least $300,000 to the endowments of the Seminary. Friends of the Seminary have already promised $40,000 of this amount.

In addition to the regular curriculum there has been a large number of interesting lectures upon important themes. Twenty-four lecturers have given thirty lectures during the year, covering a wide variety of subjects.

I. THE GOVERNING BOARDS OF THE SEMINARY.

The OFFICERS of the Board of Commissioners for the ensuing year are :

Rev. NEWTON L. REED, President.
Rev. TRACY B. GRISWOLD, Auburn, N. Y., Stated Clerk.
Rev. FRANK E. VAN WIE, Clerk.
Rev. WARREN D. MORE, Assistant Clerk.

The BOARD OF TRUSTEES is constituted as follows :

III. WESTERN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

Annual Report of Directors.

The Board of Directors of the Western Theological Seminary, Allegheny, Pa., present to the General Assembly the following as their Seventy-third Annual Report:

Since the last Annual Report the following students have been matriculated:

Harry Addison Bailey,
Alvin N. Crowe,
Francis Wayland Crowe,
Owen Stephen Fowler,
Albert Henry Goettman,
Howard L. Griffith,
Alfred Hermon Haines,
Hugh Willard Hanna,
Frank C. Hoey,
William Jackson Holmes,
Hugh Leith,
John Charles Lincoln,
Rudolph Peak Lippincott,
Albert Franklin McGarrah,
Charles Newton Magill.
Park Hays Miller,
Will Livingston Moore,
Samuel Moody,
Samuel Culbertson Orr,
James Sydney Pittenger,
Richard Walter Post,
J. E. Sarver,
Hugh Sloan Shaw,
Francis E. Springer,
DeWitt T. Scott,
Edgar Ross Tait,
Scott Ingalls Wallace,
John Rayne Welch,
David Porter Williams.

Of these, twenty-five entered the Junior class, and Mr. Bert James Long, who had withdrawn from the Seminary last year on account of health, resumed the studies of the Junior year.

Messrs. Springer and Scott presented letters from McCormick Theological Seminary and entered the Middle class. Mr. Samuel Moody was received from Magee College, Ireland, and entered the Senior class. Mr. A. H. Haines was received from San Francisco Theological Seminary and entered the Senior class. Mr. Alvin N. Crowe, a graduate of San Francisco Seminary, entered as a post-graduate student.

Letters of dismission were given to the following students: Robert C. Mitchell and William J. Mitchell to Auburn Theological Seminary; John B. Mitchell to the same Seminary without grade in class; Harry P. Armstrong to Omaha Theological Seminary; Charles E. Garvin to Xenia Theological Seminary of the United Presbyterian Church.

Of other students who were on the roll of the Seminary last year, Mr. William Tipper and Mr. Alexander Steele were dismissed without grade to pursue their studies in institutions of their own Church, the Methodist Episcopal. John B. Kelso went abroad to carry on some special studies in Europe. Mr. J. H. Depue intermitted study for a year. Messrs. J. H. Patterson and R. A. Boice resumed their studies after one or more years' absence.

The entire number of students enrolled for the year is sixty-five. Of these all but one are preparing for the ministry of the Presbyterian Church. We are obliged to report for the year an unusual amount of sickness. Several of the students were prostrated, one of whom, Mr. Frank C. Hoey, died, and two or three more were obliged to give up study for the year. Mr. Charles M. Covert, of the Middle class, after a protracted illness, died at his father's home.

The year has been characterized by most praiseworthy faithfulness among the students in the duties of the Seminary.

The Librarian reports a largely increased use of the Library, especially of books of reference and of the latest missionary publications, showing an enlarged interest in the growth of Christ's kingdom throughout the world. Over 2100 volumes have been added to the library during the year, about 1600 volumes by the generosity of two of our Alumni—Rev. M. A. Parkinson, of the Class of 1847, who presented 100 volumes, and the Rev. N. W. Conkling, D.D., of New York, of the Class of 1859, who a few years ago honored the Seminary by a gift of $5000 for an alcove in the Library, has again made us his debtor by the gift of 1500 volumes.

The following students completed the course of study and received in the regular way from the Board of Directors the usual diploma, after having passed the required examinations:

Robert Hill Allen,
William Leroy Barrett,
Charles Sherrer Beatty, Jr.,
James Byers Brice,
Earl Amos Brooks,
George Carmichael,

Oliver Cromlow Crawford,
Alfred Hermon Haines,
Harry Wheeler Kilgore,
Harry Wentworth McCombs,
James Erskine Miller,
John Raymond Mohr,
Donnell Rankin Montgomery,
Samuel Moody,
William Albert Reed,
Adolph Reeg Schultz,
Peter W. Snyder,
Thomas Alden Stancliffe,
Charles Clarke Sterrett.

Messrs. Julian Hadsel Patterson and Stephen S. Popoff, being "partial students" in Hebrew, were given certificates.

The Executive Committee at the Annual Meeting announced the fact that additional subscriptions to the endowment of the new Chair of Sacred Rhetoric and Elocution had been secured since the last meeting of the Board sufficient to make good all other subscriptions conditioned on raising the full amount of $80,000; and also that in accordance with the action of the Board, leaving the matter of the installation of Rev. David Riddle Breed, D.D., to the Executive Committee, he had on the night of May 2d been regularly inducted into office in the presence of the members of the Board assembled in the First Presbyterian Church, Pittsburg, Pa. Rev. David S. Kennedy, D.D., the President of the Board, presided and delivered the introductory address. Dr. Breed subscribed to the formula required according to the Plan of the Seminary and delivered his inaugural. The addresses of the evening were ordered printed in pamphlet form.

The closing exercises were held this year on the evening of May 3d, in the North Presbyterian Church, Allegheny, Pa., and an address was delivered by Rev. William McKibbin, D.D., of Cincinnati, in connection with the delivery of the diplomas.

During the year two deaths occurred in the membership of the Board —that of Rev. James I. Brownson, D.D., and that of Elder James C. Lewis. The vacancy caused by the death of Dr. Brownson has been filled by the election of Rev. James H. Snowden, and that caused by the death of Elder Lewis has been filled by the election of Elder Frank Robinson. Elder Charles H. Scott resigned on account of removal to Philadelphia, and Elder George W. Doverspike was elected to fill the vacancy. The outgoing Class of 1900 was reëlected and made the Class of 1904.

Rev. Thomas H. Robinson, D.D., was reëlected as President of the Faculty for one year.

The Board at a called meeting in March rescinded the former action of the Board by which the words "Church Government" were inserted in the title of the Chair of Sacred Rhetoric and Elocution, and these words were formally stricken out of the title of the new Chair, and the subject indicated by them transferred to the Reunion Chair.

VI. WORK FOR THE YEAR.

It affords the Board of Trustees great pleasure to report that the Seminary year just closed has been satisfactory in the scope and quality of the instruction provided, and in the character, ability, fidelity and devotional spirit of the students.

The present Faculty has been able to cover the ground mapped out in the course of study in a thorough manner, but this has involved some double work on the part of the instructors. With five professors on full time Lane Seminary would be more adequately manned for its special work of "preparing young men for the Gospel ministry," and it is hoped that a much needed addition to its endowment may soon make this increase of the Faculty possible.

VII. REPORT OF EXAMINERS.

The following report of the Examiners, appointed by the Synods of Ohio and Indiana and eleven Presbyteries in these States, is presented as evidence of the efficiency of the instruction and the attainments of the students:

To the Honorable Board of Trustees of Lane Theological Seminary:

GENTLEMEN:—The following Examiners, appointed by the Synods and Presbyteries of Ohio and Indiana, have been in attendance upon the examinations of the Seminary classes, and beg leave to submit this report.

Synod of Ohio—Thomas L. Hughes, D.D., Piqua, O., Moderator; Prof. W. B. Langsdorf, Ph.D., Litt.D., Miami University.

Synod of Indiana—Samuel C. Bates, Ph.D.

Athens Presbytery, H. J. Steward, D.D., Ph.D.; Chillicothe Presbytery, J. L. McNair, D.D.; Cincinnati Presbytery, Rev. D. B. Fitzgerald, Rev. J. Conzett, Col. D. W. McClung, J. H. Jouvet, John Webb, Jr.; Columbus Presbytery, Rev. T. H. Kohr; Crawfordsville Presbytery, Rev. J. C. Mayne; Lima Presbytery, Rev. J. R. Lloyd; Maumee Presbytery, Rev. J. W. Wilson; Portsmouth Presbytery, Rev. T. H. Hench, D.D., Rev. W.

M. Hamilton; Steubenville Presbytery, Rev. J. F. Shepherd; Vincennes Presbytery, Rev. I. I. Gorby, Ph.D.; Whitewater Presbytery, Rev. Charles T. White, D.D.

At the beginning of our report we desire to express our gratitude to Almighty God for the establishment of this "School of Prophets," for the long line of heroic teachers who have assisted in equipping so many for our pulpits and for the blessing of God on all the work of the past. While we miss some familiar faces among the instructors, we rejoice that their places have been so ably filled. We have felt great pleasure in all we have seen and heard. There is every evidence that the work done during the past year in all the departments has been sound, comprehensive and thorough, as well as intellectual and spiritual. We believe that the character of the instruction provided will leave an indelible impress which will make for consecrated, conservative scholarship, and, what is more important, for practical efficiency in qualifying the students to preach the Gospel with power.

We note with pleasure the growing interest on the part of Presbyteries as evidenced by the increased attendance of the Examiners and Alumni, and believe that the possibilities for greater usefulness are brighter than at any time in the history of the institution.

We especially desire to commend the appeal made before the Synod of Ohio for an endowment of $300,000, which would greatly enhance the efficiency of Lane Seminary.

While the present able Faculty is sending out men fully equipped for the ministry, we regret to learn that on account of a lack of funds, double work is often necessary, and we urge the Church to respond to the appeal for money in order that increased efficiency may be given to the Seminary at once. No better use could be made of money.

With its consecrated, enthusiastic instructors, its convenient, beautiful and healthful location, its magnificent and well-equipped buildings and library, its commendable spirit of harmony and loyalty to our standards, Lane Seminary is warmly recommended to the confidence and generosity of Presbyterians, to young men seeking a sound and thorough preparation for the Gospel ministry, and, above all, to the continued blessing of the great Head of the Church.

We beg leave to add that this is the unanimous expression of all the Examiners. Respectfully submitted,

W. B. LANGSDORF, Chairman.

May 2, 1900. HARLEY J. STEWARD, Secretary.

The Board of Trustees and Faculty are encouraged by the gratifying evidence of a growing interest in Lane Seminary in the region in which it is located, and especially by the loyalty of the Alumni, who as a body reflect such lasting credit upon the institution.

Most respectfully submitted,

EMERSON E. WHITE,

Lane Seminary, May 12, 1900.

SPECIAL LECTURES FOR 1899-1900.

Rev. A. W. Halsey, D.D., Secretary Board of Foreign Missions, New York, N. Y.

Rev. John McKyle, F. M., Novo Frilargo, Brazil.
Rev. T. L. Hughes, D.D., Pastor, Piqua, O.
Rev. John N. Ervin, Pastor, Dayton, Ky.
Rev. J. Kinsey Smith, D.D, Pastor Fourth Avenue Church, Louisville, Ky.

CLOSING ADDRESS.

Rev. Peyton H. Hoge, D.D., Pastor Warren Memorial Church, Louisville, Ky.

There have been twenty students in attendance during the Seminary year—four Seniors, three Middlers, eight Juniors and five pursuing combined course.

Of the twenty students named, twelve entered the Seminary during the year—one entering the Senior class, six the Junior class and five taking a combined course in Centre College and the Seminary.

The year closing has been a profitable one and highly successful in the teaching and training by the professors, and the students have shown great faithfulness in study and all shown very satisfactory progress in study and attainments.

All in all it has been a year eminently satisfactory to the Board as to the work of professors and students, and the only drawback and discouragement has been the fewness in number of students and shortness of funds to aid needy young men. It remains for the Board to say to the General Assembly that the instructions to the young men have been faithful and thorough and in full accord with the standards of the Church and no tendency in any wise to depart from the old paths and seek out new ones.

Four students were given the Seminary diplomas, to wit: Howard L. Cornell, William A. Daniel, Thomas P. Grant and T. Wallis Rainey.

GENERAL STATEMENT.

The year has been crowned with the goodness of our God. A larger number of students has been in attendance than ever before. Twenty-five of the thirty-four students are college graduates, and nineteen of the thirty-four are from the Pacific Coast States; all of which shows that our school of the prophets is increasingly meeting the great and ever-growing demands of our coast. A seminary on the coast attracts students from the coast. Of the eight students graduated this year five are coast men. Two of the graduates are under appointment of our Board of Foreign Missions. We are not half able to supply the demand for ministers. Washington asks for six and Nevada for two, and twice the number are needed in California and Oregon. More and more clearly do we see that a local ministry is to be raised up for local needs, if we are to have and to hold this great Western land for Christ. And beyond us is the Orient, with our new possessions there. The importance of our Seminary looks larger to us now than ever before. We trust that our Eastern brethren see its growing importance as we do, and that they will open their pocketbooks and help us to educate ministers for this Empire of the West and missionaries for the waiting heathen world.

7. GENERAL REMARKS.

At the last annual meeting of the Board of Directors the following were elected as Directors of the Class of 1903:

Ministers—Adam W. Ringland, D.D., Ernst Schuette, D.D., Mead Holmes, Charles E. Dunn, John E. Funk and Ferdinand Urbach. Elders—Hon. William Graham and John Uthoff, for whose election we ask the approval of the General Assembly.

Two students, John Figge and John D. Stauss, having completed the full course of study prescribed by the curriculum, were graduated.

At a special meeting of the Board, held August 1, 1899, Rev. John Jaeger, of Embden, East Friesland, Germany, was elected Van Vliet Professor of Theology; but Prof. Jaeger, after consideration, declined to accept the position. By reason of his declination the Chair of Theology has remained vacant throughout the year. Fortunately the Executive Committee secured Rev. W. O. Ruston, D.D., the Vice-President of the Board, to instruct the classes in theology, and Rev. Ferdinand Urbach those in Greek Exegesis. Their instruction aroused great enthusiasm among the students, and gave marked satisfaction to the Presbyteries under whose care the students are.

The year has been marked by progress in the work. A deep spiritual interest has pervaded the school, and the students have manifested in an unusual degree seriousness of purpose. The decrease in the number of students results in the peculiar conditions of the work. The source of supply is from our own churches, and this is comparatively limited, though the history of many years has shown God's gracious providence in constantly calling men into the ministry, and so into preparatory study in the School.

We are grateful to the Great Head of the Church for the increase in financial resources through the friends who have been providentially raised up. Especially have we been helped by the payment of Judge Vanderburgh's bequest of $5000. The President of the Board of Directors is still continuing his efforts for the endowment of the School. This enterprise we trust will soon be successfully concluded. The General Assembly has recommended the work, and we hope will continue its favorable consideration of the education of a German ministry and the evangelization of the German population. No work is of greater importance to the Church than the winning of this strong race for evangelical Christianity.

WILLIAM GRAHAM, Secretary.

5. General Statement.

With profound regret we report the death of the Rev. Charles E. Knox, D.D., who for twenty-seven years, with a most zealous and self-sacrificing devotion, served as the first and the only President our Seminary has ever known. After an illness of a year's duration he passed away, April 30, 1900.

Although it rendered the work of the year much more difficult, yet the work itself was not allowed to suffer on account of the enforced absence of the President. On their own motion the members of our Faculty cheerfully assumed the instruction usually given by the President. This generous course, supplemented by the volunteer aid of a few kind friends found inside and outside of our Board, enables us to report that the full course of study as laid down in our curriculum has been pursued.

It gives us great pleasure to report that, despite the embarrassments of the year, we have been able not only to meet current expenses, but also to reduce our indebtedness by the payment of $1610.85.

D. R. FRAZER, Vice-President Board of Directors.

Approved by Presbytery of Newark, at Newark, N. J., May 9, 1900.

5. Aim of the University.

Lincoln University represents the mind of the Presbyterian Church respecting our negro population. It assumes that he needs the full benefit of religion in his soul, as well as a home for his body. And it assumes that none of the benefits, which Christianity brings within the reach of needy and believing sinners are to be withheld from Christ's beneficiaries.

Lincoln University is an agent of the Church in its good-will toward the negro. Believing that ignorance is a covert for sin, we are earnestly trying to do our part in removing this cause of his degradation. The higher education is inseparable from the Gospel, and our continued testimony is that he is not straitened in his capacity to receive it in its fullness.

In behalf of the Faculty of Theology,

ISAAC N. RENDALL, President.

Lincoln University, Pa., May 15, 1900.

The opportunity for growing usefulness enlarges before Biddle University. Ever and anon formidable difficulties are met, but these are uniformally overcome and the experience is found after all to be helpful. The past year has not been exceptional in this respect. Some changes which need not be detailed here have been made in the schedule of studies, with a view to greater efficiency, and there have been two additions to the teaching force in the Preparatory School. There has been an increased enrollment in the three schools of the institution, making a total of 236.

There is still greater improvements as to financial conditions in comparison with last year. The students have been able to do more in the way of self-support. With the enlargement of the work, however, have come increased demands upon the financial resources, thus making the pressure upon the income greater than heretofore. Needed improvements as to facilities and the urgent claims for scholarship aid found the funds insufficient to meet the requirements.

The health of the students has been excellent and their earnestness in seeking to profit by what the school places within their reach has been most marked.

The day of prayer for Colleges and the week of prayer under the auspices of the College Y. M. C. A. resulted in a special season of grace which influenced the entire University. There were twenty-three professions, leaving only a few in the school not professing Christians.

The closing exercises of the School of Theology will take place June 6, and the Commencement of the School of Arts and Sciences the afternoon of the same day. The attendance on the School of Theology has been fifteen, with an increased number in the other schools who are candidates for the ministry.

Industrial education for the colored people of the South has its place, and Biddle continues to bear a part of the responsibility in this respect by giving all the students in the Normal and Preparatory School a course of training in the trades. The importance of this is fully appreciated. But the moral and intellectual life of the people must be especially provided for. The demand for Christian leadership in all the walks of life is increasing with the development of the people. God in His providence seems to have given the Presbyterian Church a peculiar mission along this line of educational work.

The crying need of the colored race is for an educated ministry. The educating of such a ministry is in the hands of the Presbyterian Church in a large degree. Through her schools at Biddle the Church has a great opportunity, located as the school is amid the greatest number. The urgent need of endowments for the University is being more and more keenly felt. This report is therefore closed with a restatement of what endowments will do for Biddle. They will—

1. Permit an enlargement of the facilities and usefulness of the school industries and other necessary improvements.

2. Enable Biddle University to cope with the demand for scholarship aid, supplementary or as a whole, to indigent worthy students.

3. Place Biddle University upon a secure foundation, where the Presbyterian Church stands pledged to place it by what the Master has enabled her to do through this institution for the highest emancipation of the negro in the South, and by the more promising future under the divine blessing.

4. Endow Biddle and $15,000 of the current income of the Freedmen's Board from the churches will become available for the general work. Thus to endow Biddle will be to furnish means for greatly enlarging our whole work in the South, and the reproach of non-aggressiveness in reaching out and occupying needy fields will be taken away.

Very respectfully,

D. J. SANDERS, President.

XIV. OMAHA THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The Board of Directors of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Omaha, Neb., respectfully submits to the General Assembly its Ninth Annual Report for the year ending April 26, 1900, and asks approval of its actions.

1. Board of Directors.

At the annual meeting April 26 the following members of the Board of the Class of 1900 were unanimously reëlected to fill the Class of 1904: Ministers—Asa Leard, D.D., J. T. Baird, D.D., J. C. 2. The Faculty.

*William W. Harsha, D.D., LL.D., Professor Emeritus of Didactic and Polemic Theology, Lecturer on Divinity.
Stephen Phelps, D.D., Professor of Ecclesiastical, Homiletic and Pastoral Theology.
Matthew B. Lowrie, D.D., Professor of New Testament Literature and Exegesis.
Alexander G. Wilson, D.D., Professor of Apologetics and Missions.
Joseph J. Lampe, Ph.D., D.D., Professor of Hebrew, Old Testament Literature and Exegesis.

Note.—The work of the Chairs of Ecclesiastical History and the English Bible is distributed among the Professors.

The Rev. M. B. Lowrie, D.D., who was offered the presidency of the Seminary a year ago, having declined the office, was again unanimously elected. Dr. Lowrie signified his willingness to perform the duties of the presidency the coming year but deferred acceptance.

The title of the Chair occupied by Dr. Lampe was changed to include Hebrew, and made to be as follows: Hebrew, Old Testament Literature and Exegesis; and the Constitution was changed by striking out paragraph 3 of Sec. 12, which provided for conferring the degrees of Bachelor of Divinity and Doctor of Divinity.

3. Students.

Nineteen students in attendance during the year.

Four new members were added to the Middle class: John Harland Andress, from Chicago Theological Seminary; Harry Patterson Armstrong, from Western Theological Seminary, Allegheny; Howard Scott Morrison, from Lane Theological Seminary, and Clarence William Weyer, from McCormick Theological Seminary.

The entering class numbered five: Jerome E. Bruechert, Walter Neil Gillis, Joseph Wilberforce Livingston, Frederick Clarence Phelps and Frank Svacha.

Paul B. Naylor, of the class of 1899, and the following members of the Senior class having passed the required examinations received certificates of graduation: Warren Cyrus Buell, James Kemp Driver, Robert Thompson Graham, David Honsaker, Arthur Downs Hulbard, Leland Cummings McEwan, William Henry McEwan and Samuel Wiley.

* Died, Kirkwood, Mo., June 3, 1900.

The Board feels much encouraged by the work of the past year and consider that substantial progress has been made.

By the will of the late Thomas McDougall, the Seminary has come into possession of a large interest in the valuable property, which it is now occupying. During the year a gift of $2500 has been received from Mrs. Robbert Laidlaw, of Cincinnati, as a beginning for the endowment of the Chair of Theology. In all the property of the institution has increased about $20,000 during the year and a debt of $1500 has been paid.

The present property of the Seminary is as follows:

Real Estate,	$15,000 00
Vanderberg Legacy,	5,000 00
Chair of Theology,	2,500 00
Wilson-Douglas Scholarship,	320 00
Other Scholarship funds,	395 00
	$23,215 00

Steps were taken at the annual meeting for the selection and purchase of a suitable plot of ground for a permanent site for the Seminary, with good prospect that this may be secured at an early day.

The library has received valuable additions, notably 630 volumes contributed by the Rev. Everard Kempshall, D.D., of Elizabeth, N. J. Hitherto the way has not seemed open to undertake the work of soliciting funds for permanent endowment, but in January, in connection with the General Assembly's committee, a beginning was made which it is hoped may grow to larger things. As the work of this Seminary continues from year to year we are impressed with increasing force by the wide field that lies about us and the importance of this Seminary to meet those needs.

The institution is now doing for the mission fields about it what McCormick Seminary did thirty years ago for Illinois and adjoining States. We believe it has within itself great possibilities affecting the advancement of the Kingdom of Christ in what is still the largest Home Mission territory of our beloved Church.

Thankful for the good hand of our God which has been upon us in so wonderful a manner during the nine years of our history, we look forward with faith and hope to the enlargement and permanence of the work.

ALBERT B. MARSHALL, President.

DAVID R. KERR, Secretary.

Abstract of the Ninety-eighth Annual Report.

It has been a year of unusual exemption from death among our missionaries, only four of them having been called away from their labors. We record their names here as belonging to the roll of those who have fought the good fight and have finished their course :

Rev. E. P. Searle, Grand View, Tenn.
Rev. William Donald, Carpenteria, Cal.
Rev. John C. Gilkerson, Churdon, Ia.
Rev. George Ransom, Muir, Mich.

* Of the Presbytery of New York. † Of the Presbytery of Brooklyn. ‡ Of the Presbytery of Newark. § Of the Presbytery of Westchester. ‖ Of the Presbytery of Morris and Orange.  Of the Presbytery of Elizabeth. †† Of the Presbytery of Allegheny. ‡‡ Of the Presbytery of St. Louis. §§ Of the Presbytery of Huntingdon.

The favor of Divine Providence has likewise been manifested in the enlargement of our work and in special blessings of grace in many fields where the labors of God's servants have been honored by large accessions to the membership of the Church.

Porto Rico.

At the beginning of this year we had commissioned one missionary to the island, Rev. Milton E. Caldwell, of Cincinnati, O., his salary being pledged by the Central Presbyterian Church of Rochester, N. Y. He began his labors at Mayaguez on the 15th of July, and now, after nine months, he is able to report evangelistic and mission school work established in rented quarters. More than can be seated with the present equipment continue to press for admittance to the services; while the appetite of the people for educational advantages for their children is illustrated in the fact that the mission school has steadily enlarged until now four teachers are engaged, and the school, well organized and meeting current expenses, is proving the blessing they long have desired.

Our second station in Porto Rico was opened last January, when the Rev. J. Milton Greene, D.D., of Fort Dodge, Ia., began work in San Juan. Dr. Greene's experience and ability fitted him most admirably for this important post. The Presbyterians of Iowa had gladly undertaken his support. The beginning of the San Juan mission has been most auspicious. At Santurce, a suburb of San Juan, a property has been rented which almost at the first proved to be much too small to accommodate the large number of people who thronged to the services. Reverent and earnest assemblies fill the building for every service. The crying need at present in our Porto Rico mission is for church buildings. The people lay large stress upon a sacred edifice, the one exponent of the religious life to which they have been accustomed. Offerings having been received for this purpose, the indications are that we will be able to buy or build at San Juan at no distant date. The same need for Mayaguez is equally strong and should soon be met.

In January the Rev. Judson L. Underwood, from Macomb, Ill., went to reinforce the laborers already in Porto Rico, his salary being specially provided by two liberal friends in Illinois. He has begun work at the Playa, the port of entry of Mayaguez and a part of the city, having ten or twelve thousand inhabitants.

It has been our purpose from the first not only to build upon no other Church's foundation in Porto Rico, but to seek those parts of the population for whom nothing else was being done.

Alaska.

Our work in this Territory has been full of interest and blessing; new fields have developed and old fields have yielded abundant harvest. The following facts deserve the attention of the Church. Beginning at the southernmost point of the Territory, we have our station at Saxman.—The Rev. Edward Marsden is making this the centre of operations, extending them into the regions round about. Gravina is one of the places he has been serving, where, by a union of efforts, a building entirely of native workmanship has been erected. This is the first in Alaska that has ever been erected and paid for by natives without any aid from the outside.

Jackson.—Our work there during the past few years has been without a missionary, although the mission school has been steadily carried on. The Board has just appointed the Rev. D. R. Montgomery, a graduate this spring of Allegheny Seminary, to that station. He will serve the Hydahs at Jackson, and also the Klinkwans, twenty-five or thirty miles to the north.

Fort Wrangel.—Last June the Rev. Harry P. Corser took charge of this station, which has been greatly strengthened by the year's service. In the native church especially there have been many signs of the presence of the Spirit.

JUNEAU.—Last May the Rev. W. S. Bannerman took charge of the white church at that place. The Rev. Livingston F. Jones continues his work in the native church in Juneau, and it has been a year of peculiar blessing, no less than seventy-seven members having been received on confession of their faith, no Communion having passed without large accessions. Mr. Jones has also opened a mission station for the natives across the bay on Douglas Island, and his interpreter, Mr. Frederick L. Moore, is preaching to the natives there, with a good prospect of successful work. An inexpensive building is earnestly desired for that new mission.

HOONAH.—Here the Rev. William M. Carle continues his fruitful labors. At Christmas time, in response to his sermon on the text, "It is more blessed to give than to receive," the people loaded a table in front of the pulpit with Christmas offerings for Jesus—the result of their own handiwork, many of them implying a great deal of self-denial.

SITKA.—Our work at this important point has been signalized by a remarkable outpouring of God's Spirit. All through the year there have been tokens of divine favor, and it culminated in the remarkable scenes which Rev. M. D. McClelland thus describes: "Beginning with the week of prayer we had services every evening for two weeks, closing with the Communion of the Lord's Supper. From the very first the Spirit was with us in power. Prodigals turned back toward their Father's house; cold Christians were warmed and thrilled; the careless and impenitent were aroused. No such awakening has been witnessed for years. It was a sight never to be forgotten when, on January 21, forty-six persons stood up in the native church to profess publicly their faith in Christ."

SKAGUAY.—Last June the Rev. Norman B. Harrison and his wife took up work in this new little city. Though only three years old it is equipped with water works, electric lights and other accompaniments of civilization. Mr. Harrison found a united and earnest congregation. During the year we have been able to secure a church building and a manse, partly by help from the Board of Church Erection and partly from the generous offerings of the Skaguay people. The church building was partly burned in March, but on the same day the energetic trustees planned repairs and improvements. We shall expect this church to move rapidly forward to self-support. Besides his own church services, Mr. Harrison gives to the Indians two meetings every week.

ON THE YUKON.—Our work along the Yukon, to which the General Assembly directed us to give special attention, has been greatly strengthened during the year. In May the Rev. M. Egbert Koonce, Ph.D., from Jeannette, Pa., began work at Rampart City, on the Yukon river. In July Rev. and Mrs. James Wollaston Kirk, from Philadelphia, began work at Eagle City, an important point on the Yukon river just within the American lines. These stations have been much affected as to population by the wild rush toward the remarkable gold field at Cape Nome. But the Government has established a military post at Eagle City, and it is believed that they both will be permanent points to be held by our Church. Indeed, it is reported that the valley of the Yukon will yet have a large population aside from the mining interests which are now attracting the people. The Rev. S. Hall Young, D.D., went to Cape Nome in the autumn and has been shut in there during the long winter, seriously ill for a part of the time.

POINT BARROW.—The station here has been reinforced by the Rev. and Mrs. Samuel R. Spriggs. Report from it can reach us but once a year. The news received last summer from our missionaries, Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Marsh, indicated mission school work well established and evangelistic work among the natives carried on with vigor and some degree of success. We need more men and money for the openings that are developing from month to month.

INDIANS.

Two missionaries are at work among the six churches in the western part of the State of New York among the remnants of the historic Six Nations.

In Iowa we have two teachers among the Sacs and Foxes. Two missionaries serve three churches among the Omahas and Winnebagoes of Nebraska. In the Indian Territory our work, both educational and evangelistic, is extensive and prosperous. We have five Presbyteries, with forty-three churches and twenty-two ministers, of whom seven are Indians. In New Mexico and Arizona we have missions among the Lagunas, Pimas and Papagoes. Among the Pimas and Papagoes we have three Indian churches, with three white ministers. The Pimas have recently organized a most interesting and Christ-like mission to their less favored neighbors, the Papagoes. They have already raised $100 toward establishing the work and paying the salary of an Indian minister. The Presbytery of Dakota is composed of thirteen native pastors, with twenty-three native churches, located in Minnesota, Montana, North and South Dakota. Last year they contributed to Home Missions $1524, an average of over $1.25 per member. A remarkable work has been done among the Nez Perces Indians of Idaho, where there are now five churches, five Indian ministers and one white minister. The First Church of Kamiah, composed entirely of Nez Perces Indians, last spring sent their pastor and his wife and one of the elders as missionaries for six months to the blanket Shoshone Indians, more than three hundred miles south; result: the organization of a Presbyterian church of eighteen members. A visit last winter resulted in further accessions. This young church now numbers fifty-eight members. The First Church of Kamiah has also raised $300 to help the Shoshone Indians put up a house of worship. We have one missionary among the Utes of Colorado and one among the Umatillas of Oregon, and an organized Indian church in each place. Among the Indians at Puyallup, Nesqually and Chehalis, in Washington, are three churches and two missionaries. A new work has just been opened among the Makeh Indians of Puget Sound, a tribe of seven hundred who have been wholly without the Gospel from any source.

The fruits of our Indian work may be thus summarized: (1) A total church membership of 4223 among the Indian churches, and 601 in mixed churches (native and white); and in Sabbath-schools we have 2626 native scholars and 819 mixed (native and white)—a remnant being raised up to honor God and become worthy citizens of our country. (2) A missionary spirit developed among some of these churches which our strong churches well might emulate.

Synods.

The self-supporting Synods have been carrying on their own home missionary work according to their respective plans, and have met with good success, as is shown in their statistics, which they have presented, and which appear on page 243. A short review of the year in the various Synods receiving aid from the Board is given herewith, as it has been summarized by the Synodical Home Missionary in each Synod, or by the Stated Clerk in Synods having Synodical Missionary. Our work in New England is wholly within the bounds of Boston Presbytery.

PRESBYTERY OF BOSTON.

Encouraging Features of the Work.—Perhaps fifty per cent. of our churches have made a record that will challenge comparison with mission churches in any part of our land.

This prosperity may be specified as follows:

1. In numerical and spiritual growth. Not only in attendance, but in additions to the membership, the fact has been well attested that with the right man as pastor the harvest will surely follow faithful seed sowing.

2. In financial prosperity, in the face of unusual difficulties and discouragements. One-half of the churches that have within the past fourteen years been receiving aid from the Board of Home Missions have so far solved the problem of getting a church home and either liquidated the indebtedness involved altogether or reduced it to so small a proportion as to cease to be handicapped by it.

SYNOD OF ATLANTIC.

(Presbyteries of East Florida and South Florida.)

Though the people have been so sadly impoverished, and only two out of the forty-three churches in our bounds are self-sustaining, and thirty-one churches are still beneficiaries of the Board, yet it is a hopeful indication that five are now proposing to ask less help from the Board during the coming year. Coöperative grouping with churches in the Presbytery of St. John's (South) has happily resulted in the interest of economy and fraternal feeling. A pleasant feature of the Florida work is the spirit of fraternity existing between these two Presbyteries. Their joint meeting for the sixth time and the genuine feeling of brotherly love manifested has done much to help our Church in this South-land, and to intensify the desire that a speedy session of the two Assemblies might remove the greatest barrier in the way of success to our common cause. No new work has been attempted during the year.

SYNOD OF TEXAS.

There are thirty-eight home missionary churches and twenty-two missionaries in the Synod of Texas. Their usefulness justifies their existence. They were and generally are in places that otherwise would not have Presbyterian preaching. There are thirty-three houses of worship, with four more in the process of construction, that have been assisted by the Board of Church Erection. There has been a studied effort not to place men nor buildings where they are not needed. In no single instance has a church been organized, in towns of less than 10,000, where there was an existing Southern organization, supplied as often as once a month; nor where other denominations were sufficiently holding the ground. Our work could be greatly increased if there was money to sustain men and build churches.

SYNOD OF KENTUCKY.

Our Church in Kentucky is overshadowed by the Southern Presbyterian Church, which now outnumbers us three to one. Of the 120 counties in the State we occupy 50. Of the nearly 2,000,000 inhabitants, 8000 are members of our Church, and about 30,000 come under our influence. About 1100 pupils are enrolled in our schools, and between 300 and 400 members have been added to our churches during the year. For the last two decades we have gained about 1000 in each ten years.

Within the last six years we have established five schools, enrolling about 500 pupils and employing thirteen teachers; organized eleven churches, with a membership of over 400, and buildings erected and furnished at a cost of over $20,000—all this in the poorest and most inaccessible parts of the State, and with no expense to the Home Board excepting the salary of one teacher.

SYNOD OF TENNESSEE.

There are in the entire Synod only seven self-supporting churches; twenty-one of our churches are colored, which last year gave only $26 to home missions; eighteen churches are among the mountain people, whose means are limited; several of our country churches are in a state of decay; over 3000 young people are in attendance upon our church schools, and among these are many church members who cannot be expected to give much to the Boards; the parents of these young people, generally poor, can do little more than support their families, pay their taxes and assist in the tuition of their children.

Throughout the Synod we are laying foundations and building with an eye to the future. In the mountains we are establishing schools, and from the school there comes without fail good material for churches.

SYNOD OF MICHIGAN.

Only three churches have been organized during the year. This small number is not due to indifference, nor to indolence in extending the Church. It is due largely to the fact that church extension in the form of new organizations is practically at an end.

Three churches have reached self-support during the year, and ten more will ask less from the Board than last year. This has been accomplished by encouraging churches to increase their local support and by careful grouping. Every reasonable grouping has been seriously canvassed by our Presbyterial Committees with a view to saving expense. The condition of every mission church and group of churches has been considered by the Synodical Committee. Any material change in the present grouping cannot be made and retain the efficiency of service.

SYNOD OF WISCONSIN.

Conditions are constantly changing in Wisconsin regarding Home Mission work. New towns springing up in lumber districts; new lines of railway under construction; the magnificent water-powers on the Wisconsin and Menominee rivers being controlled to drive paper and pulp mills; the wide advertising of cheap lands by railway and lumber companies and land agents, to attract settlers; the sale of the homesteads of the old settlers to foreigners—all combine to make difficult the task of supplying Wisconsin with the Gospel.

If the population were homogeneous it would simplify the problem, but every new settlement has a large percentage of Roman Catholics and Lutherans, while the Protestant element is made up of a few families from each of several denominations.

SYNOD OF MINNESOTA.

New Work.—The question of new work is one that has been thoroughly canvassed by our committees, and only fields of special need and decided promise have been provided for in the sum asked for new work. In the three great Presbyteries, St. Cloud, Red River and Duluth, comprising more than three-fourths of the territory of this State, we have ninety-two churches, only ten of which are self-supporting. Within this region, at the source of the Mississippi river, was located recently a National Park, embracing several hundred square miles, which is already attracting settlers, and the movement in that direction, it is thought, will begin in earnest when spring opens. North and east of this park is a vast country known as the "Big Woods," which is hundreds of miles in extent, and which was opened for settlement only about three years since. It was a surprise recently, even to pioneer missionaries, to find so many log-cabins occupied by homesteaders in that dense forest.

Railroad Extension.—Three lines of railroad have been projected through this region of the State, so rich in lumber and iron, that will be built in the near future. It is the judgment of railroad men that a spur of road, now used for logging purposes, will be extended from the southeast shore of Red Lake (the largest lake in the State) to Duluth, a distance of about 150 miles. This road will be almost parallel with the Fosten Branch of the Great Northern Railway, but fifty miles north of it. This will open up a vast region of territory that is already being settled by homesteaders and raided by lumber companies. Another railroad is projected fifty miles still further north, running from War Road, on Wood Lake, and parallel with Rainy Lake river, to some point on Lake Superior. This road is being built by Canadians, and has already been finished or graded to the Canada line on Wood Lake and some work done on this side of the line.

SYNOD OF IOWA.

Last year 582 miles of new road were built in Iowa, exceeding by 214 miles that of any other State. Reports say more miles will be constructed this coming year than last. In keeping with this business impetus, Iowa lands have advanced in price about five dollars per acre in the past year. Public schools are overflowing; colleges are filling up; general thrift is now characteristic of the entire State.

Last year our churches responded to the call and raised $2200 to send Rev. J. Milton Greene, D.D., as our missionary to Porto Rico. This year our Sabbath-schools and Christian Endeavor societies propose to support him there.

SYNOD OF MISSOURI.

There has been a vast increase in population of the southwest portion of the State, where the mining interests are so attractive. We ought to have five new men in that region as soon as possible. Equally urgent is the need of the southeastern portion of Missouri; that large field has been greatly neglected by our branch of the Church. The people are for the most part poor, but they are ready to hear the Gospel and they come in large numbers whenever a minister is sent to them.

In our two great cities, St. Louis and Kansas City, there are new fields that should be occupied at once. What is done with respect to meeting the needs of our cities should be done promptly and generously or the opportunity will be lost.

SYNOD OF NORTH DAKOTA.

Conditions.—1. An area one and three-fifths times as large as Pennsylvania.

2. A population (conservative estimate) of 325,000.

3. The homestead filings during 1899 were 9000. This represents 36,000 settlers. Besides these large numbers found new homes in the towns and villages.

4. There are still vacant from ten to twelve million acres of good Government land.

The conditions above mentioned create in large measure the Needs.—A small portion of these newcomers will find homes within reach of existing churches. Another portion—the Dunkards—incline to come in colonies and bring their minister with them. The remainder, which is the largest part of the entire number, are locating in the newer sections of the State where there are no church privileges within reach.

SYNOD OF SOUTH DAKOTA.

The prospects are that a dozen new towns will be developed during the coming months along the new extensions of railroad lines; that the increased immigration will greatly strengthen our churches already organized and call for new organizations; that an increased number of houses of worship will be built; that the material prosperity of the people of the State will still continue and that the need of effective missionary work will increase. We shall probably have twice as many churches reaching self-support and more advancing toward it, but the Synod will need just as much aid from the Board of Home Missions in order to meet the increased demand from new fields and from long-neglected fields that have taken on new life and increased importance.

SYNOD OF NEBRASKA.

The past year has been attended by intense activity all along the line of church work. More additional laborers have been introduced into our Synod during the last twelve months than have been received in that length of time for many years past. On this account the most of our churches have been well supplied with regular services, and a less number of our mission fields have been without the means of grace. New fields are opening where the regular services of the sanctuary are greatly needed and where much good might be accomplished had we the ability to go up and possess the land for Christ. One of these open doors to an inviting field for church activity is furnished to us by the recent extension of the B. & M. Railway from Alliance, in Box Butte county, to Hartville, Wyoming, as well as the short line to Denver via Brush, Colorado, to which point a new line of the above-named road is now being constructed. A very inviting field is now opened up in the valley of the North Platte river, where irrigation has been successfully introduced, and where new towns are rapidly springing up to encourage immigration and permanent settlement. There are also wide fields occupied largely by cattle-men, who need the Gospel, and who would gladly welcome the man of God to show them by precept and example the way of everlasting life.

SYNOD OF KANSAS.

1. The Synod of Kansas is scarce a generation old. It is a vast agricultural territory and the development is gradual and the accumulation of wealth slow. We are just passing from the days of primal expansion into the beginning of a more substantial and permanent condition of growth. We are now in the race for future greatness where Indiana, Illinois and Iowa were thirty years ago.

2. Of 325 churches, 249 of them have less than 100 members each and 181 of them less than 50 each; thus indicating that this Synod is preëminently home mission ground.

These churches are widely scattered in 100 counties of the State and are so isolated from each other as to make grouping very difficult if not impossible. One hundred and eighty-four churches are supplied by 113 missionaries, showing to what extent we have been able to group effectively. Of the remaining 65 about 20 are grouped with self-sustaining pastorates so as to demand no help from the Board.

The remainder are under the care of three pastors-at-large; so that about 91 per cent. of our churches are regularly supplied with the ordinary means of grace.

SYNOD OF INDIAN TERRITORY.

To rightly understand the condition of the work in this Synod, one must bear in mind the fact that we are a new country. Less than eleven years ago Oklahoma was an uninhabited land. It was opened to settlement on the 22d of April, 1889. It must also be remembered that the settlers were mostly poor men in search of homes. They had to carve these out of the raw prairies. It has been a difficult and expensive task.

In the Indian Territory the same unsettled condition continues that has existed so many years. White men have not been able to acquire title to property, and there have been no school privileges for white children. These conditions have tended to keep the better class of people out of the Indian Territory. Still we have many most excellent people in the Territory, one self-supporting church, and several that are nearing self-support.

In the two Territories we have a population of about 800,000 or more. And in all this population we have but 112 churches, and a few of these have been vacant during the year. Of this number 22 are full-blood Indian churches and 11 are Colored, leaving but 79 Presbyterian churches among a population of 600,000 or more white people. In western Oklahoma there is a tract of country 150 miles by 200 miles with only six Presbyterian churches, though at least a good part of it is a thickly settled country. In the southeastern part of the Synod there is a section of country thickly settled, 100 miles by 150 miles, with only four white churches (Presbyterian), and in other parts of the Synod the same conditions prevail.

SYNOD OF NEW MEXICO.

We have 53 organized congregations as follows: 22 American, 28 Mexican and 3 Indian, with a membership of 3200, of whom about 875 are Indian and 850 Mexican.

These are ministered to by 28 ministers and 19 evangelists and helpers. Only three of the congregations are self-sustaining, while another receives $500 a year for the support of the missionary from the Copper Company of Clifton.

There have been built during the year or are now in course of erection seven churches and two manses. One great need in the Synod is the erection of comfortable manses for our missionaries.

The Indian work is most encouraging, both in New Mexico and Arizona. At Laguna, in New Mexico, the average attendance at service per Sabbath has been 200, with a present membership of 55. Some months ago our missionary here asked for volunteers to go to a neighboring village to spend Saturday amongst the people, preparing them for the Sunday service and correcting false statements which had been made concerning our religion. At once eight men arose, and one said, "That is what we joined the church for—to work for Jesus." During the absence of the missionary for a few weeks this summer the services were regularly kept up by the Indians themselves.

The work among the Pimas and the Papagoes continues. During the year ending October 1, 199 new members were received. From a letter just to hand I quote: "Sunday before last I spent at Gila Crossing, where I baptized 10 adults in the afternoon and 5 in the evening. Yesterday I baptized 17 adults at Blackwater, and I hope that during the next three months our membership will amount to 900."

SYNOD OF MONTANA.

This Synod is six and a half years old, and of its forty churches every fifth church is self-supporting. If there be frontier Synods with a better record, it is matter for devout thanksgiving.

The population is largely, so to speak, in pockets, with tenantless ranges and benchlands between. Hence we can get very little relief from grouping. In fact, we have grouped to our injury and loss. In one charge the churches are thirty miles apart, in another twenty-five, in another twenty, etc. A few months ago, for want of funds to support another minister, we tried to group two churches fifty miles apart, connected by mountain roads that were not boulevards. After a brief experiment we had to give it up. It involved four days of straight-ahead, hard driving every second week, and in inclement weather it could not be made at all.

There is marked and universal prosperity in all the industries of our State—mining, farming, stock-raising, etc. There is also a steady inflow of population. We want to keep step with the material progress around us.

SYNOD OF COLORADO.

The Synod of Colorado has sought to do all the work possible without calling on the Board for more money. This it has done by grouping its churches, by leaving some of its fields vacant and by allowing some of its willing men to do double duty. This year we have again made a strenuous effort to reduce appropriations among the stronger of our mission churches, and now we feel that we have done all that we can do.

The State of Wyoming and the northwestern part of the State of Colorado are as yet purely missionary ground. In them three new railroads are being built this year. New country is being developed and new towns are springing up.

Our largest cities need special attention. In at least four of them we should establish an additional church this coming year.

SYNOD OF UTAH.

The Synod of Utah embraces the State of Utah, all of Idaho except the pan-handle, and about one-third of Wyoming—the western part of the State. There are forty churches and fifteen out-stations.

1. Present conditions are without a parallel anywhere, at home or abroad. The education of years of contact is necessary to fully comprehend conditions as they exist in the Synod of Utah.

2. Present needs open out before us—a vast field.

We need five new men to occupy four churches recently left vacant, and to take charge of an important field once held. Two of these churches are important, and the other two can be made so. Five more men are in urgent demand for positions that have never been occupied—places of importance. One of these openings is a town of 2500 people with no Christian church, the other is a group of four villages within four miles of each other.

SYNOD OF WASHINGTON.

The four Presbyteries within the bounds of the State of Washington which have heretofore had the services of a synodical missionary have been left to work somewhat at a disadvantage, on account of the discontinuance of that office by the Synod at its last meeting, but the work has been kept well in hand and there are few vacancies; the effort has been to economize in every possible way and to strengthen the things that remain. We have sought to enter and to hold only the strategic points, working out from these as rapidly as we may. The grouping of churches has in some cases been carried beyond the point of efficiency. In one field, in Spokane Presbytery, the missionary is trying to serve five churches, traveling long distances to reach his appointments.

We send up no cry of distress, neither pitiful tale of hardships borne by our missionaries. Whatever of hardship there may be is cheerfully borne for Christ's sake. But we point to the communities without Gospel privileges and ask for the men and the means to give them the Gospel message.

SYNOD OF OREGON.

Churches.—There are now an even 100 churches in the Synod, of which three were organized the past year. But eleven of these are self-supporting. All the others are dependent upon the Home Board for aid in supporting their ministers. All our churches have been supplied with preaching during the year except the church of Curry county. No one has been there since last September, owing to the remoteness of the field and the scarcity of men.

Spiritual Progress.—Oregon has not shared in the general lack, as evidenced by small additions to the churches. While the average gain for the whole Church was but 5 per cent. last year, this Synod showed a gain of 9 per cent. in additions on examination. We do not feel proud of this, for money in Oregon can gain 9 per cent., but we are encouraged and hope for better things.

SYNOD OF CALIFORNIA.

The Synod of California, which includes Nevada, is a territory of 269,000 square miles, with a population of nearly 1,500,000. California alone, in area, equals all New England, with New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware added; and to get the size of the whole Synod, you must add West Virginia, Ohio and Indiana. In this vast territory we have 8 Presbyteries, 237 churches, 280 ministers, 709 elders and nearly 24,000 church members. Here the Gospel is preached by our Church in six languages beside English,—to large colonies of Armenians, Chinese, Japanese, Mexicans, Welsh and French,—besides missions among the Portuguese, Jews and Indians. All of this is done as home mission work except a little portion of the Chinese work in San Francisco. Geographically the Presbyteries are very large. Sacramento Presbytery is probably the largest in the Assembly, excepting Alaska. Los Angeles Presbytery alone is as large in ministers and work as thirteen of the Synods of the Assembly.

The State is just now entering upon its third year in succession of drought. Outside of irrigation districts the loss of crops is almost total, and within irrigation districts in some cases the hardship is very great. The churches are not only unable to increase their support, but cannot all maintain their present basis of self-help. They have not increased in financial, numerical or other strength.

The Woman's Board.

The work of the Woman's Board has been carried on during the year with marked success and is both important and interesting. Its importance lies in the fact that it is among certain exceptional populations which cannot be successfully reached by the ordinary methods employed by the Board.

THE FIELD.

Alaska.—The eight native churches have, with one exception, been regularly supplied during the year, the salaries of the white missionaries and the native helpers being paid by the Woman's Board. The Sitka Training and Industrial School has reached a larger enrollment than last year by about fifty pupils. The girls being trained in all manner of housework, and the boys in the industries—carpentry, shoemaking, boatbuilding, etc.—are prepared to earn an honest support. Almost without an exception, the boys and girls are brought to Christ, and hence go out to establish Christian homes.

Indians.—The eight industrial schools are doing a grand work for the Christianization and civilization of the Indian. Each one of these schools is turning out boys and girls well taught in the Scriptures, with a fairly good English education, trained to habits of industry, imbued with the Spirit of Christ and prepared to assume the responsibilities of citizenship. The day schools are schools and missions combined, and are meeting a long-felt want among the Indians. Three new fields have been opened during the year, two among the Utes in Colorado, and one among the Makehs in northwestern Washington. Neither of these tribes have ever had a settled missionary before. The lack of means has prevented greater enlargement. The Indians are pleading; souls are perishing; teachers are waiting; but no one sends them the Gospel.

Mexicans.—There are twenty-five schools with forty-eight teachers among 265,000 Mexicans. One new school was opened at the beginning of the year. There is now an earnest plea for a school in which both young men and young women can be trained for higher spheres of activity and usefulness than can be given them in the schools already established. Ministers are needed; and the natives make the most acceptable and successful preachers to their own people. Public school teachers are in demand, and the native men and women should have a chance. The work is advancing, God is richly blessing it, and the year just closed has proven to be the best in its history.

Mormons.—There are only twenty-nine schools, two more than last year, among the Mormons in Utah and Idaho. It is a small army but a brave one.

From the President of the Church down to the most insignificant tithesman, there has been a determined, persistent and almost brutal effort made to break up the schools. But God has most wonderfully preserved and sustained the workers. Grace according to their need has been given day by day. Under such stress it is marvelous that any progress has been made. Notwithstanding the hindrances, God has given blessing during the year, and has not suffered our seventy faithful missionary teachers to lose their courage.

Mountaineers.—The year has been full of work and made bright by success in all departments. There are thirty schools—day, boarding and industrial—all told, and 118 teachers. Four new day schools were opened during the year. Every school has been taxed to its utmost capacity. Teachers have been overburdened, but have held on bravely. There have been many converts from among the pupils and their parents. The whole mountain region is an open door.

Very interesting is the mountainous field under the care of our Bible readers. There are nine stations, one more than last year, with twelve of these consecrated women missionaries, and a large number of country Sabbath-schools with 1513 scholars. There have been many conversions and several churches have been organized.

Foreigners.—This work, before the present year, has been exclusively in Chicago. Its management was left entirely with the local Presbyterial Society. It has been prosecuted with vigor. It is practically industrial in character and most admirably conducted by the ten ladies in charge. At New Prague, Minnesota, a station has been opened among a settlement of Bohemians. Miss Nowak, the missionary, brings the Gospel to them in their own language. God is opening their hearts to the truth. The field here is most important and encouraging.

Porto Ricans.—The call upon the Board to enter this new island possession was such that it could not be resisted. It was urged by the first missionary appointed, Rev. M. E. Caldwell, Mayaguez, that in order to succeed a mission school was a necessity. Hence two teachers very soon followed the missionary. Two additional teachers were sent early in 1900.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT.

This department is primarily for the education of our young people in Home Missions; and in looking over the past year we note many encouraging signs.

Seventeen full salaries are paid by Endeavor Societies, ten of these being to ministers or Synodical Missionaries, the others superintendents of boarding or day schools. The Junior C. E.'s have paid the salaries of seven Indian pastors and have contributed toward a training school for boys. In several instances the societies of one Presbytery, or a group of Sabbath-schools, have adopted one special worker, and in this way our young people are represented in all of our Home Mission fields, including Porto Rico. This department periodically provides letters from the different fields to all who desire them, thus securing from contributors continued interest in the special laborer assigned them. In addition to these salaries there has been an increase in contributions to the General Fund, showing that our young people are learning that the Endeavor Societies' offerings are equally divided between the Board of Home Missions and the Woman's Board.

LITERATURE DEPARTMENT.

The following figures show something of what has been done the past year in the way of scattering among our churches the facts concerning our work.

Startling it is to note that not two-fifths of the churches in our country have sought such information. Will not pastors and Presbyteries plan for more intelligence next year in the King's business?

*Of these, sixteen are missionaries of the Board and nine are native evangelists and interpreters whose salaries are paid by the Woman's Board.

Truly the land is before us as it has never been in other years. The voice of our God is saying to His new Israel, "Go ye up and possess it." Let us not be disobedient to this latest heavenly vision. The "Go forward" which God now is speaking demands more money. Our appropriation to the Presbyteries for the year just closing was $725,000. Let us make an advance in this new year which is to usher in a new century; let us call for $800,000. Our great Church has the money in its possession. Shall it not give a good account of its sacred stewardship? Many of our church organizations and individuals have been giving royally. But one-third of our independent churches in this country have sent our treasury no offering whatever. Let them fall into line, giving systematically little or much as they may be able. Where possible let former givers increase their offerings. Then our treasury will be more than filled and the coming of the Kingdom hastened in our loved land.

The term of service of the following members expires with this General Assembly, namely:

Ministers.	Laymen.
D. Stuart Dodge, D.D.,	George R. Lockwood,
Lyman W. Allen, D.D.,	Titus B. Meigs,

Ludlow, D.D., resigned, the Board has elected the Rev. George M. Purves, D.D., LL.D.; and to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Robert Henderson, who also resigned, the Board has elected Mr. Henry W. Jessup.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

By order of the Board,

ABSTRACT OF THE SIXTY-THIRD ANNUAL REPORT.

The term of service of the following members of the Board expires with the presentation of this Report:

Ministers.	Elders.
R. R. Booth, D.D.,	Hon. Darwin R. James,
W. R. Richards, D.D.,	W. P. Stevenson,

John R. Davies, D.D.

The General Assembly is respectfully requested to re-elect them to serve until 1903. The Board requests that an additional clerical member be added to its number, and nominates for this place the Rev. Maltbie D. Babcock, D.D. It would report that it has procured an amendment to its charter in accordance with the desire of the Assembly.

The recommendation of the Assembly of 1898 that the Sunday-schools send their offerings direct to the Treasurer in New York, and the Young People's Societies through the respective Women's Boards, has been carried out in all cases where it was practicable. There is still some friction in the matter. No rigid rule can be laid down. The arrangement seems to be fairly satisfactory, but individual cases arise which have to be dealt with as the exigency requires. Extra attention has been given to supplying literature for Sunday-schools as well as churches, and the result warrants the effort put forth.

The June Conference organized two years ago for missionaries under appointment was held this year with satisfactory results. Arrangements have been made for a similar conference the coming year.

The missionary force has been seriously crippled during the year through the loss by death of the following laborers:

Rev. Samuel H. Kellogg, Furrukhabad Mission; original appointment 1854, died May 3, 1899.

Mrs. J. H. Laughlin, West Shantung Mission; appointed 1878, died May 3, 1899.

Mrs. J. G. Wishard, Eastern Persia Mission; appointed 1893, died May 10, 1899.

Rev. J. M. Allis, D.D., Chili Mission; appointed 1883, died July 16, 1899.

Miss M. C. Chamberlain, Brazil Mission; appointed 1897, died September 4, 1899.

Mrs. F. P. Gilman, Hainan Mission; appointed 1885, died September 16, 1899.

Rev. W. C. Gault, West Africa Mission; appointed 1881, died August 9, 1899.

Rev. C. D. Campbell, Mexico Mission; appointed 1893, died September 17, 1899.

Rev. W. W. Eddy, D.D., Syria Mission; appointed under American Board C. F. M., 1851, died January 29, 1900.

Rev. D. L. Gifford, Korea Mission; appointed 1888, died April 10, 1900.

Suitable mention is made in the body of the Report regarding the work of these devoted servants of the Lord who have passed to their reward. The name of Rev. Kroo Nan Tah, who died at Cheung Mai, October 18, 1899, should be added to this honored roll. He was the "first fruits" of Laos unto Christ, and in a long and useful ministry proved himself not unworthy of his sacred office.

Sixty-nine new missionaries have been sent out, the largest number ever commissioned in a single year by the Board. No inconsiderable portion of the funds required to equip and maintain them for the year was raised by the missionaries themselves.

The usual difficulties incident to the work in the foreign field were augmented by certain unlooked-for hindrances. The work in the Shantung Province, in China, has suffered through the great disasters caused by the overflow of the Hoang-ho, the prevalence of a dire pestilence and the disturbance occasioned by the "Boxers" or "Great Knife Society." The faith of the native Christians, though severely tried, has not been found wanting.

The famine and plague in India, while diverting the missionary from the regular lines of service, have opened spheres of influence that must eventually redound to the spread of the Gospel.

The war among the Bulu tribes in West Africa necessitated the closing of stations and in some instances discontinuance of work, but it has brought into clear relief the grit and grace of the noble band of missionaries in "Darkest Africa."

The educational edict in Japan seemed for a time to threaten the usefulness and in some cases the existence of many of the mission schools, but it has served to reveal the character of the native church, since the church to a man refused to accede to the demand of the Government when that involved a compromise with truth.

The record of the year is an inspiring one. In Africa, the veteran, Dr. Nassau, has completed the translation of fifteen books of the Old Testament into the Benga-Bantu language, and the American Bible Society, ever a co-laborer with this Board, has published it. The native church, while suffering from war, has added sixty-two names to its roll.

In China the increase in membership is 14 per cent. One missionary has baptized 332 adults, and self-support has gone hand in hand with increasing numbers. The new station opened in Hunan is full of promise.

In India 241 converts have been received and a new station has been opened at Qusur.

The workers in charge of the Woodstock school had the joy of seeing twenty-eight of their scholars confess Christ.

In Siam the king has abolished gambling and made Sunday a legal holiday. The native church is practically self-supporting.

The nine churches of the Laos Mission have received 210 on confession of faith; 131 of these united with the church at Cheung Mai, an increase of 50 per cent.

In Japan since the new treaties went into effect, giving liberty to foreigners to travel and trade at will through the empire, a great demand has arisen for copies of the Scriptures. The real growth of Christian influence is everywhere apparent.

A church has been organized at Manila, Philippine Islands, with nine members; a new station has been opened at Iloilo and seven missionaries are now on the ground. One generous donor has given $10,000 for the extension of the work in these islands.

In Persia "the signs of promise on the field itself have never been more bright." There have been 228 additions on confession of faith—a remarkable showing when we consider the difficulties which the missionary has to encounter in the present unsettled condition of affairs in the Persian Empire.

The missions in Roman Catholic lands, Guatemala, Mexico, Colombia, Venezuela, Brazil and Chili, evince constant growth. In southern Brazil the majority of the churches are self-supporting. In Mexico the eleven churches connected with the Home Mission Board of the Mexican Church received 151 on confession, while the total additions to all the Mexican churches numbered 369.

The banner mission is Korea—841 received into the church, 261 congregations or churches of which 258 are self-supporting, $6,620.45 contributed, nearly 3000 communicants and 10,000 adherents. This is a gain in membership of 40 per cent., in offerings of 60 per cent.

A study of the report reveals a series of most remarkable conversions, showing that the Spirit of God is working mightily in the hearts of the most degraded. The history of the conversion of the wealthy Chinese tea merchant or the degraded devil worshiper, the regeneration of the Prince of Nan in Laos or the wine merchant at Fukui, Japan, the opening of the eyes of the Mollah in Persia or the reclaiming of the sorceress Chankokai of Korea, should be told in every pulpit in the land. The whole record of the Korean Mission has an apostolic flavor about it. The rapid development of the native church whether in Roman Catholic or in heathen lands in self-government, self-support and self-propagation, should encourage the home Church to increased offerings in some degree commensurate with the magnificent opportunities afforded by the providence of God.

The financial exhibit of the year is most encouraging. The home Church has contributed $903,133.48 for the work of foreign missions. In addition to this there has been received for famine relief in India the sum of $35,466.09.

NO DEBT.

There is no debt. This has been our grateful announcement for three successive years to anxious inquiries.

Upon the closing of the books it appeared that there would be $25,000 in the Surplus Fund. The Board therefore appropriated about $14,000 of this for special building operations of an urgent character, and chiefly for homes for the missionaries, many of whom have suffered in health because of inadequate and unhealthful dwellings. The balance of about $10,000 will remain in the Surplus Fund until the Mission Treasurer's accounts for 1899–1900 have been received and adjusted.

CONTRIBUTIONS.

The contributions have shown a marked increase. This is especially gratifying, for it was accomplished without the aid of a special organized effort which was found necessary one year ago. It indicates a growth of interest, and proclaims that the Church desires a wise and healthful expansion of the work, and this can be done if the receipts continue in the same ratio of increase.

The only source of income showing a decrease is Legacies. This is not unusual and must ever be uncertain and irregular. It may be wise to create a Reserve Legacy Fund during the years in which the receipts from this source are above the average, drawing from it in years when the income from this source is below the average. This method would remove most, if not all, of the objection to classing legacy receipts among those from so-called "living sources," namely, Churches, Women's Boards, Sabbath-schools, etc.

Pastors and friends of the Board can render good service by giving prominence to this means of supporting and enlarging the work.

PERSONAL GIFTS.

There have been a large number of individual gifts both for the general work and for special and for designated work. We hope that this class of offerings will be largely increased. The work has need and is worthy of munificent gifts.

The gift of Mrs. Rachel B. Crane of $50,000 to this Board and a like amount to the Board of Home Missions was encouraging, and its application by her direction toward the mortgaged indebtedness of the Presbyterian Building is worthy of consideration and imitation. The Boards will pay Mrs. Crane during her life the same rate of interest that has been paid the holder of the mortgage.

PRESBYTERIAN BUILDING.

The building has been increasingly popular during the year. The rent roll is now larger than it has ever been. The loss to this Board in operating the building (caused by increased taxes) was $1852 93, and a small amount of bad accounts charged off, against which should be counted the free rental of that portion of the eighth floor occupied by its offices, valued at $10,000. From January 1, 1900, the one-half interest of this Board shows a net profit.

Several offers have been under consideration for the old Mission House, but they have been below what is considered to be the value of the property. When this property is sold the net revenue from operating the Presbyterian Building will be gratifyingly increased. The building and its equipment have been fully maintained and in many respects are in better condition than when first completed. The rate of interest paid on the indebtedness from the start has been very low, and for this due acknowledgment is gratefully made to Mr. John S. Kennedy, who lent his credit to the Board and secured the lowest rates on the mortgaged and unfunded indebtedness on the building, during a period when higher rates were ruling and other institutions were suffering for want of such a friend.

The outlook for the coming year is encouraging. It is hoped that the churches will furnish funds sufficient to enable the Board to reëstablish the work given up three years ago and to extend it to the regions beyond.

ABSTRACT OF EIGHTY-FIRST ANNUAL REPORT.

An unusual amount of interest has been displayed during the year in the subject of ministerial education. This manifested itself, among other ways, in the Inter-Presbyterial Conference, held in June of 1899, at Sewickley, Pa., and in the action of the Presbytery of Chicago, who requested the General Assembly to appoint a special committee to consider and report upon the whole subject. Presbyteries will do well to heed the suggestions of the Sewickley Conference, at least in the following particulars: (1) Enlarge and strengthen the Committee of Education; (2) entrust to them the examination of candidates with respect to personal religion and motives for seeking the ministry; (3) hold special meetings for the examination of candidates for licensure or ordination when full time cannot be otherwise allowed; (4) combine written with oral examinations; (5) provide for an annual sermon before Presbytery on Ministerial Education; (6) establish correspondence with other Presbyteries in order that the same standard as to examinations, and the same strictness of watch and care may be maintained through the Church.

The responsibility as to candidates does not rest with Presbyteries alone. A large share must be borne by the professors of the institutions in which candidates pursue their studies. The student-life of the young men is largely spent under their observation, and much depends upon the fidelity which they display in making reports. No small share of responsibility rests with the Board of Education, and the Church may be assured that they are using all diligence to restrict encouragement and assistance to those who appear to be called of God to the ministry.

PLEA FOR A STILL HIGHER STANDARD.

The ministry of the Presbyterian Church, taken as a whole, is far in advance of the other professions with respect to the general culture and learning of its members. The graduates of our seminaries have almost always the degree of A.B. from some college. But it is believed that yet more satisfactory results may be obtained by requiring an entrance examination in order to learn whether the college granting the degree afforded the opportunities needed, and whether the candidate made good use of them if they were afforded. The cultivation of piety and zeal at the seminaries is no less important; and, excellent as the influences are at present, it is probable that they could be made even more effective. Pastors of churches and Education Committees could be of the greatest service by coming into close personal relations with candidates, and particularly if they could take them into their own homes to serve as assistants and gain inspiration for the work of the ministry.

THE CARE OF PROBATIONERS.

The watch and care exercised by Presbytery ought not to cease when the candidate has been graduated from the theological seminary. He has been educated by the Church on the presumption that he has been called of God to the ministry. The final test, however, comes when he has been given an opportunity to try his gifts before the people. A recognition on their part of his aptness to teach furnishes the warrant for his ordination, if in other respects he meets the requirements of the holy office. Presbyteries ought surely therefore to see to it that opportunities are afforded to their probationers immediately upon their graduation from the seminary. As things are at present young men are largely left to themselves to push their way into service as best they may.

SCHOLARSHIP AID.

The wisdom of the Church's system of scholarship aid has again been earnestly called in question during the year, although no new arguments are adduced. The experience of many years makes it perfectly plain that in some way money must be provided to make possible the acquiring of the education which the Church makes a condition of ordination. Objectors seem to assume that the scholarships are "indiscriminately" given. Every one of the rules of the Board of Education under which this trust is administered constitutes a refutation of this charge. Its discriminating rules insist on high character, a consistent Christian life, fidelity in study, frequent and satisfactory reports, punctuality in attendance, and economy in living. The general result is to limit the assistance given to the purest and most promising men.

The problem of administering the scholarship funds of the Church is complicated by the fact that during the seminary course there are two boards of administration. As the aid given by the Board of Education is often insufficient, additional assistance is given from the scholarship funds of the several seminaries. It might be well if all of the seminaries would follow the example of one of the number which has a rule to the effect that the administration of its scholarship funds shall be in accordance with the rules laid down by the General Assembly for the guidance of the Board of Education; wise provision being made for those exceptional cases which are sure to occur.

Such a regulation as this, together with the rule already prevailing in the seminaries that application must first be made to the Board of Education, and the understanding that the aid of the Board as supplemented by that of the seminary shall not exceed a certain sum, are probably all the regulations necessary under existing circumstances to prevent misunderstanding and friction.

FINANCIAL CONDITION.

The Treasurer has received from all sources during the year $77,763.10, including $5500 given for the canceling of the debt. The estimated expenses for the year were met by the estimated income. The income, however, exceeded the estimate and the Board is able to enter upon a new fiscal year with a balance of $7,216.41 in the treasury. Under these circumstances there is a good hope that the rate of scholarship aid may be now restored to $80 for college and seminary students and $70 for preparatory students.

The sum of $2500 has been paid into the treasury during the year to constitute the David Stuart Banks scholarship. The income for the year was awarded to Samuel X. Cross, a student in the Sophomore class of Coe College. Seventeen scholarships of $100, or more, have been at the disposal of the Board during the year, besides the Banks, the Newberry and the Secretary's scholarships.

CANDIDATES.

The number of candidates enrolled during the year is 716; of whom 23 were in the preparatory course, 294 in colleges, and 399 in the theological seminaries. Three are Bohemian, five are Spanish-speaking students, thirty-one are Germans and sixty-seven are negroes. Four hundred and twenty-three were marked "high" or "medium plus" in scholarship. Eight have died since the last Report, and three have been compelled to turn aside, at least for a time, from their studies on account of impaired health or pecuniary embarrassment. Nine have been dropped from the roll on account of having married. There is evident need for sincere prayer for an increase of the ministry. New measures are necessary to guard against deterioration and diminution, to promote religion at institutions of learning, to lead parents to dedicate their sons to Christ's service, and to stir the hearts of ministers to a due magnifying of their office. The suggestion that a sermon be annually preached before Presbytery on the nature and importance of the sacred office is worthy of careful consideration. The visits paid by the Corresponding Secretary to candidates at their places of study have been most helpful aids to the general work of oversight.

By order of the Board,

EDWARD B. HODGE, Corresponding Secretary.

Abstract of the Sixty-second Annual Report.

April 1, 1899, to March 31, 1900.

SABBATH-SCHOOL AND MISSIONARY DEPARTMENT.

I. MISSIONARY WORK OF THE DEPARTMENT.

Arkansas.—This State is within the bounds of the Synod of Missouri. Two missionaries are laboring in the Presbytery of Ozark, one of whom devotes his time mainly to that portion of the Presbytery which lies in Arkansas. This field is far too wide for one missionary to cover, and the Presbytery has earnestly asked this Board to appoint one or more additional laborers. Our missionary organized seventeen Sabbath-schools last year and reorganized five. He reports fifty-seven schools now in existence the outcome of his work in Arkansas, exclusive of his work in Missouri, and that two Presbyterian churches have been developed from those schools.

California.—In this State we have at present only one missionary, who is laboring in the Presbytery of Benicia. During the past year fourteen Sabbath-schools were organized or reorganized. We have reports of fifty-three schools formerly organized and now living, from which ten Presbyterian churches have been developed.

Colorado and Wyoming.—We have five missionaries in this field—Synodical one, two Presbyterial in Boulder, one in Gunnison and one in Pueblo Presbyteries. During the year 110 have been organized or reorganized, with 313 teachers and 2865 scholars. Two Presbyterian churches and one Congregational have been organized during the year as the outgrowth of our work. As the result of the labors of our missionaries in past years there are at the present time in this field 123 Sabbath-schools, and from these schools four Presbyterian churches have developed besides several churches of other denominations.

Florida.—Our missionary in East Florida Presbytery reports thirty-nine living Sabbath-schools organized by our missionaries in former years, and one Presbyterian church the outgrowth of that work. He reports eleven schools organized and nine reorganized last year.

Idaho and Utah.—Part of Idaho is within the bounds of Walla Walla Presbytery, Washington Synod, and a portion is within the bounds of the Synod of Utah. Our Synodical missionary reports six Sabbath-schools organized and four reorganized during the past year.

Illinois.—We have two missionaries in this State, one in Freeport and one in Peoria Presbytery. We have reports of forty existing Sabbath-schools organized in former years, and of six Presbyterian churches as having been developed from them. The work of the past year has been mainly along the lines of developing and strengthening schools. New schools organized number four and schools reorganized two during the year.

Indiana.—The Rev. W. B. Chamberlain, who for several years faithfully served the Board as its missionary in the Presbytery of New Albany, has lately resigned his appointment, leaving us without a representative in this State. He reports fifty-nine existing Sabbath-schools organized by our missionaries and seven Presbyterian churches the outgrowth of these schools.

Indian Territory and Oklahoma.—Three missionaries are laboring in this needy and promising field—one in Oklahoma, one in Sequoyah and one in Cimarron Presbytery. A fourth should at once be placed in Choctaw Presbytery. During the last year forty-eight schools have been organized or reorganized, and reports have been received of 103 existing schools organized by our missionaries, and of thirteen Presbyterian churches which have been developed therefrom.

Iowa.—We have in this State one Synodical and four Presbyterial missionaries. The labors of the past years have borne fruit in 225 schools now existing and in no fewer than thirty Presbyterian churches which have been developed directly or indirectly from our work, besides fifteen churches which have been practically saved to the denomination or greatly aided by the labors of our missionaries. During the last year thirty-two new schools were organized and fifteen reorganized.

Kansas.—One Synodical and four Presbyterial missionaries have labored in this State during the last year. They report 47 new and 9 reorganized schools during that period, and the existence of 169 schools in the State, organized by the missionaries of this Board, and of 8 Presbyterian churches developed therefrom.

Michigan.—Our Synodical missionary, Rev. J. V. N. Hartness, having recently resigned, we have at present only four missionaries in this State. The reports for the past year show 73 schools organized and reorganized; also no fewer than 674 existing Sabbath-schools organized by the missionaries of this Board. No fewer than 229 of these schools were organized by Missionary Jewell in all parts of the State prior to 1887 in the old colporteur days, and 226 by Mr. Jewell since January, 1887. A large proportion of these schools have passed over to other denominations, a fact which Mr. Jewell explains as follows: "A considerable portion of the thirteen years covered by my report were hard years for our Board of Home Missions. As a result our Home Missions Committee would not organize churches, and therefore other denominations have benefited by our pioneer work." There are 228 schools in the State under the care of our missionaries, and from these 44 Presbyterian churches have been developed.

Minnesota.—This State reports 369 existing Sabbath-schools and 121 Presbyterian churches the outgrowth of our work. Our Synodical missionary is supported by four Presbyterial missionaries. The schools organized or reorganized last year number 110.

Montana.—One Synodical missionary is our sole representative in this State. He reports the organization or reorganization during the past year of 29 schools; also the existence of 109 schools the result of his labors in the past, the development from these schools of 21 Presbyterian churches and 13 churches of other denominations, and the securing up to this date of about 20 Presbyterian church or chapel buildings.

Nebraska.—There are laboring in that State one Synodical and five Presbyterial missionaries. Last year 134 schools were organized or reorganized, and 295 existing schools are reported. As the outgrowth of our work in this State 24 Presbyterian churches and 42 churches of other denominations are reported.

Nevada.—In this State we have had one missionary at work for two months of the past year. We have reports of 9 existing Sabbath-schools, the result of our past labors in this field.

North Dakota.—The retirement of the Rev. A. C. Manson as Synodical Missionary left us for some months without a single representative in this State. Living Sabbath-schools to the number of 20 are reported to us as the outgrowth of our work. Mr. J. B. Clapp, who has for several years been our effective missionary in the Presbytery of Fort Dodge, has been commissioned to succeed Mr. Manson.

Oregon.—This State offers a wide and open door for the Sabbath-school missionary. Owing to the changes in our working force during the past few years we cannot obtain reliable information, at the present time, of all existing schools founded by our missionaries. Rev. W. J. Hughes, who labored for several years in East Oregon, and left the work last March, reports that of 67 schools organized by him, 7 have developed into Presbyterian churches and 8 into churches of other denominations. Last year 31 Sabbath-schools were organized or reorganized. We have at present only one representative in this State.

South Dakota.—A year ago 144 existing Sabbath-schools, the result of our work, were reported, and there is no reason to suppose that the number has diminished. New schools, 13, and reorganized schools, 2, were reported during the past year. In this State there is one Synodical missionary and one Presbyterial, laboring in the Black Hills Presbytery.

Washington.—Our three missionaries in this State report an aggregate of 64 Sabbath-schools organized and reorganized during the past year. We have definite reports of 118 schools organized by our missionaries and now existing. A valuable work has been done in past years in Walla Walla Presbytery, but at present we have no missionary there, and are unable to give a verified list of our schools therein.

West Virginia and the Adjacent Mountain Region.—This field of our missions includes the whole of West Virginia, constituting the main part of the Presbytery of Parkersburg, and the eastern portions of Kentucky and Tennessee with a portion of North Carolina, constituting the Presbyteries of Transylvania, Ebenezer, Union, Holston, and French Broad. The Rev. C. Humble, M.D., is Synodical missionary of the entire district, associated with whom are 8 Presbyterial missionaries. The schools organized and reorganized during the past year were: In West Virginia, 50; in Kentucky, 51; in Tennessee, including Hancock County, N. C., 30; total, 121. In West Virginia we have reports of 185 existing Sabbath-schools and 13 Presbyterian churches, developed from our work. In Kentucky 89 existing schools and 3 Presbyterian churches are reported, and in Tennessee, including the North Carolina portion of French Broad Presbytery, 23 schools and 5 Presbyterian churches are reported, all the outgrowth of our work. We have not, however, heard from all of our living schools. In all this wide mountain region our missionaries cordially coöperate with and are greatly aided in their work by the representatives of the Board of Home Missions, and especially of the Woman's Board. Several more county missionaries are greatly needed. This year's work is conspicuous for the large number of Presbyterian churches organized—9 in all—1 in West Virginia, 3 in Kentucky, 2 in Tennessee, and 3 in North Carolina. Two church edifices have been built—one at Hickory, W. Va., the other near Hindman, Ky. The one Presbyterian church organized in West Virginia has in it more members than the other eight churches combined, being composed of several groups of people miles apart. It might properly be divided into at least five churches of about 40 members each. The nine churches organized have a membership of 330, and about 80 members besides these have been added to existing Presbyterian churches, through meetings conducted chiefly by our missionaries. It is noticeable that in every county where we have a missionary we have this year organized at least one church. In Yancey county, North Carolina, the people of three communities have joined themselves together in Presbyterian churches on the promise that a day school should also be given them.

Wisconsin.—Our missionary force consists of the Synodical missionary, Rev. Joseph Brown, and 5 associated Presbyterial missionaries. The number of schools organized and reorganized during the year was 89. We have no complete reports as to existing schools, but in round numbers at least 200 attest the labors of our missionaries. From these schools have been developed 29 Presbyterian churches, besides many that have been greatly strengthened directly and indirectly. A marked feature of the work in this State is the Sabbath-school Institute. Twenty-five of these were held by our missionaries during the year.

Work Among the Colored People.—An important and successful part of this work is that which is carried on among the colored population of this country. The chief part of this work lies in the Synods of Atlantic and Catawba, comprising North and South Carolina, Georgia and Florida. The work extends, however, into Alabama. The missionaries are all colored men. Rev. G. T. Dillard, D.D., is the Synodical missionary, having supervision of the other eight brethren. In these various fields 404 living Sabbath-schools, 325 of which are avowedly Presbyterian, are witnesses to the value of the work done by our missionaries. Out of these schools 81 Presbyterian churches have been developed, and 3 churches of other denominations. Last year 113 schools were organized or reorganized.

Work on the Island of Cuba.—This work is confined at present to the city of Havana. Two schools are in operation, one in the Calle de Industria and another in the Calle de Sitios. At each of these locations a day school has been carried on in connection with the Sabbath-school and preaching services, but as a system of public schools has been established on the island, our mission schools will hereafter be conducted as Sabbath-schools only. Concerning this change the Rev. P. Rioseco, our missionary in charge of this work, writes: "I do not know what effect the closing of our day school will have upon our work—I can only conjecture. I believe, however, that the work of the past year will not be lost, though we may not be able to hold all the children who have come under our influence." Concerning the combined Sabbath and week-day schools and the mission generally, Mr. Rioseco lately wrote: "Our school (Calle de Industria) is opened every morning with a Bible reading, a prayer and a Gospel song, and the last fifteen minutes of each day we spend in practicing hymns and learning new ones. The children show marked improvement in every way since coming to us. There are at least eight who are completing the Shorter Catechism in Spanish, and an equal number who are at the same stage in the smaller Catechism. The new Sabbath-school in Sitios street is doing quite well. In this neighborhood the white and colored children associate more readily, and the habit is not so much frowned upon as it is in the district where our first school is established." Of the preaching services Mr. Rioseco wrote: "Our Gospel services are very well attended. Last Wednesday night we had the room crowded, and would have had more if there had been more seats. I have announced to the congregation that it is our purpose in the near future to organize a church." For the support of this mission we relied upon special contributions, which were liberal, and have nearly covered all the expenses incurred. The amount received from churches, Sabbath-schools, and individuals was $2362.50; the expenditure was $2522.13.

As will be seen by the foregoing reports, the Missionary Work of this Department extends over the whole or portions of 32 States and Territories besides the Island of Cuba. It is carried on within the bounds of 24 Synods and 72 Presbyteries of our Church.

We have positive information of the existence at the present time of 3796 Sabbath-schools organized by the missionaries of this Board, and of 459 Presbyterian churches which have been developed from these schools. A large number of churches of other denominations have also grown out of schools organized by our missionaries.

The number of Sabbath-school missionaries in commission at the beginning of the year covered by this report was 79. The entire number in commission for longer or shorter periods, during the year, was 94. Of these, only 78 remained in commission at the close of the year. It is in contemplation to place immediately in the field three additional laborers, and others also as rapidly as the condition of the Missionary Fund will justify such action.

During the past year our missionaries organized 836 Sabbath-schools and reorganized 329. They gathered into these schools at the outset 36,276 scholars and 3837 teachers. They made 78,618 house-to-house visits, distributing—either personally or by grants to mission-schools—2,195,741 pages of tracts and periodicals; gave away 4399 Bibles and Testaments and 7155 other volumes; sold 1986 volumes; visited 4096 Sabbath-schools; delivered 13,346 addresses; and in the performance of their duties traveled 596,188 miles.

In addition to the distribution of literature through our missionaries, the Committee of this Department made grants to Sabbath-schools, churches, and individuals aggregating 4,296,110 pages of tracts and periodicals and 7434 volumes.

The total value of the literature gratuitously distributed, including Bibles awarded for reciting the Westminster Shorter Catechism, was $6288.07, and the average daily distribution, including Bibles, was 17,786 pages and 50 volumes for every day in the year.

The missionaries report 1447 hopeful cases of conversion coming under their notice at the evangelistic services conducted by them in their regular Sabbath-school work.

One of the most pleasing duties of the Sabbath-school missionary is to serve as the almoner of the benevolence of generous persons who send boxes and barrels of clothing through this Department to the missionaries for distribution among the poor, chiefly among children who, but for these gifts, would be unable to attend the Sabbath-schools, particularly in the winter. Last year 90 barrels and 34 boxes of clothing were shipped to our missionaries for distribution, the estimated value being $4553.60.

It is doubtful if the churches fully realize the thorough catholicity of Presbyterian Sabbath-school work. No one who supports this branch of the missionary enterprise of our Church need entertain a fear that any funds are wasted in denominational rivalry or competition.

Pressing calls for Sabbath-school missionaries constantly reach the Department from the frontier, and to meet some of the most urgent of these we have had to withdraw some of our missionaries from other districts. Our appeals for special offerings have met with generous responses. It is gratifying to be able to report an increase of $10,049.65 in the offerings received from churches, Sabbath-schools and individuals over those of last year. The total sum received from these sources in 1898–99 was $89,879.39, and in the past year $99,929.04. In some cases the entire salary of a missionary is paid by a generous donor, or by a church, Sabbath-school or association. The elders of New York Presbytery personally contribute liberally toward the support of our missionary in Transylvania Presbytery, Kentucky. In all such cases as these, the missionary sends a special report at stated intervals to the contributors.

Of the 7404 churches recorded in the Minutes of the General Assembly for 1899, 5426 contributed to this work, but of this number only 1460 contributed, as the General Assembly asks all to do, by both a congregational collection and a Sabbath-school offering; 2727 made a Sabbath-school offering but no congregational collection, and 1239 made a congregational collection but no Sabbath-school offering. Were each contributing church to adopt the plan of sending offerings from both congregation and Sabbath-school our resources would at once be greatly increased, and our work correspondingly extended.

II. EDUCATIONAL WORK OF THE DEPARTMENT.

The Twentieth Century Movement.—This Movement, now in its final year, has for its aim the ingathering of at least half a million of new scholars into the Sabbath-schools of our Church within a period of four years, namely, from April, 1897, to April, 1901. We have at the end of the second year to report additions to our Sabbath-school membership as follows: In the main Sabbath-schools, 169,999; in the Home Departments, 21,579; in the mission schools of this Board, 94,093; total additions to Sabbath-school membership, 285,671.

Home Departments.—Much attention has been given during the past year to this interesting and growingly popular feature of Sabbath-school work. The number of Sabbath-schools in our Church having Home Departments increased from 680 in 1898, with a membership of 29,863, to 979 in 1899, with a membership of 40,437.

The Shorter Catechism.—The Department, as in former years, awarded the prize of a Teacher's Bible to all scholars in Presbyterian Sabbath-schools, under eighteen years of age, who have been certified to the Department as having correctly recited the entire Shorter Catechism. The number of such awards during the past year was 1790. The number of Sabbath-schools reporting that the Shorter Catechism is taught was in 1898-99 4013.

Children's Day and Rallying Day.—These anniversaries are an important part of our Sabbath-school educational system. As directed by the General Assembly, this Department last year prepared two main programmes and one primary programme for the services on Children's Day, giving to the main schools a choice of two programmes. The same course is being pursued this year. Besides the spiritual and educational features of these anniversaries they possess special interest and value as the source of liberal offerings in support of Presbyterian Sabbath-school missions. This is especially true of Children's Day. During the past year the Sabbath-school offerings reached the amount of $51,443.14 out of a total amount of $99,929.04 received from churches, Sabbath-schools and benevolent individuals.

REPRINTS OF FORMER PUBLICATIONS.

Of these 101 editions of books and tracts have been published.

Periodicals.

A few words of description will explain the character and purpose of each of our periodicals.

(1) LESSON HELPS.

The Westminster Teacher is issued monthly. It is prepared specifically for the teachers and officers of Sabbath-schools, but is also used by many Bible-class scholars. It contains full expositions of the International Bible Lessons. It is published in octavo form, each number containing from 40 to 52 pages, with cover. Price, single copy, by mail, per annum, 60 cents; school subscriptions to one address, 50 cents per copy.

The Westminster Senior Quarterly is prepared for older scholars, and is used also in adult classes. It is issued quarterly and each number contains full lesson work for three months, with Order of Service, Map, Bible Dictionary, Hymns and Music, and other valuable matter. Each number contains 42 pages. School subscriptions to one address, 12 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Intermediate Quarterly is designed for scholars of intermediate grade. It contains full lesson text, with notes, questions and practical teachings. In it are found also Map, Order of Service, Hymns with Music, and Bible Dictionary. It is the same size, too, as the Senior Quarterly, each number containing 42 pages, and is furnished at the same rate.

The Home Department Quarterly is our newest lesson help. It is prepared for the use of those who, though unable to attend the sessions of the Sabbath-school, yet desire to study the lessons week by week. This Quarterly is the same size and price as the Senior—12 cents a year for school subscriptions to one address; 20 cents for single copies separately mailed.

The Westminster Junior Quarterly is prepared for younger children in the Junior Department. It is prepared by Mr. Israel P. Black. School subscriptions to one address, 12 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Lesson Leaf is prepared with special reference to intermediate and younger scholars. It is issued monthly, but it is so arranged that, if desired, the leaves can be separated and distributed to scholars weekly. Each leaf contains one lesson complete, with Scripture, Golden Text, Catechism, Lesson Story, Questions and Practical Teachings. School subscriptions to one address, 5 cents a year.

The Westminster Junior Lesson is a leaf adapted to the little people. Illustrated. It is issued weekly in the same form and at the same price as The Westminster Lesson Leaf.

The Westminster Lesson Card contains a brightly colored lithograph picture, illustrating the lesson of the day, with Lesson Title, Golden Text, Lesson Hymn, Lesson Story and Questions. It is adapted in grade to younger children and to primary classes. The price for school subscriptions to one address has been reduced and is now only 10 cents a year, or 2½ cents a quarter. Single sets, 20 cents a year.

(2) ILLUSTRATED PAPERS.

Forward is designed especially for young people in Intermediate and Senior grades, and is adapted for reading in the home and by young people in general. Every effort is made to produce a paper of the highest class. Forward, while intended primarily for the older classes in Sabbath-schools, is adapted also for young people in the home and elsewhere. In clubs it costs less than one cent a number. School subscriptions, 50 cents a year; single subscriptions, 75 cents.

The Sabbath-school Visitor is adapted to a younger class of readers than Forward. It is an illustrated four-page paper, each number containing attractive and interesting matter adapted to children. It is published weekly. It may, however, be taken once or twice a month, if preferred. Single subscriptions, per year, weekly, 50 cents; fortnightly, 30 cents; monthly, 20 cents. School subscriptions to one address, per year, weekly, 30 cents; fortnightly, 16 cents; monthly, 8 cents.

The Morning Star is issued to meet the demand for a paper at small cost. It is of the same quality, grade and style as The Visitor, but it is only half the size. It is issued every week, but it may be taken once or twice a month, as desired. Single subscriptions, per year, weekly, 25 cents; fortnightly, 15 cents; monthly, 10 cents. School subscriptions to one address, per year, weekly, 15 cents; fortnightly, 8 cents; monthly, 4 cents.

Sunbeam is a four-page weekly illustrated paper for very little people. It has been enlarged and improved. No subscriptions are taken for less than one month. Single subscriptions, 30 cents a year. School subscriptions to one address, 20 cents a year for each scholar.

IV. BUSINESS DEPARTMENT.

This Department conducts all the business operations of the Board. Of these the most important are, first, the manufacture of books, tracts and periodicals; and, secondly, the placing of the publications on the market.

PUBLICATIONS.

There have been published during the year 2,488,620 copies of books and tracts, and 43,454,550 copies of periodicals, which, together with 8750 copies of the Annual Report,* make an aggregate of 45,951,920 publications for the year.

PLACING ON THE MARKET.

This work continues to be performed by means of the main store in Philadelphia, the depositories in Chicago, New York, St. Louis and San Francisco, and eleven other houses where the publications of the Board can be obtained.

* This refers to the number of copies of the Report for the year ending March 31, 1899.

The depositories, which are owned and conducted by the Board, are as follows:

DEPOSITORIES.

Chicago, Ill., H. S. Elliott, Manager, 37 Randolph Street.
New York, N. Y., C. W. Hippard, Manager, 156 Fifth Avenue.
St. Louis, Mo., D. R. Williams, Manager, 1516 Locust Street.
San Francisco, Cal., L. H. Cary, Manager, 16 Grant Avenue.

The other houses referred to are these:

Baltimore, Md., S. W. Harman, 320 North Charles Street.
Boston, Mass., H. D. Noyes & Co., 13½ Bromfield Street.
Cincinnati, O., Western Tract Society, 420 Elm Street.
Cleveland, O., The Burrows Bros. Co., 133-137 Euclid Avenue.
Los Angeles, Cal. C. C. Parker, 246 South Broadway.
Montreal, Quebec, The William Drysdale Company, 232 St. James Street.
Pittsburg, Pa., Board of Colportage, 706 Penn Avenue.
Portland, Ore.. J. R. Ewing, 267 Morrison Street.
Toronto, Ontario, Upper Canada Tract Society, 102 Yonge Street.
Winnipeg, Manitoba, Russell & Co., 504 Main Street.
London, England, Publication Committee Presbyterian Church of England, 14 Paternoster Square.

These houses, with the exception of the one in London, furnish all our publications at the Board's prices.

Our periodicals are still further brought to the attention of churches and Sabbath-schools by advertising in Sabbath-school and other papers, and by circulars addressed to pastors and Sabbath-school superintendents. Our missionaries also bring all classes of our publications to the notice of those who dwell in missionary districts.

SALES.

The sales for the year in books and tracts were $144,223.09. This amount, as it includes credit sales, does not agree with the Treasurer's account, which account exhibits only cash received. The Treasurer's account includes cash received for the sales of the current year, and also cash received for the credit sales of preceding years.

The amount received during the year for the sale of periodicals was $238,689.54.

The aggregate of the preceding sales include not only the ordinary sales of the main house, and of the depositories and branch houses, but all sales made to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department for grants, and all sales by Sabbath-school missionaries.*

FREE LIBRARIES.

The General Assembly of 1891 made the following recommendations to this Board:

"That such of the stock of books, bound or unbound, the sales of which have been superseded by more recent issues, be made up into 'Cheap Libraries' as far as possible, and, so far as proper, also donated to Sunday-schools and home mission stations, or any appropriate benevolent work."

In our last Report we stated that the old stock was "practically exhausted," but during the year a number of old books were returned by our branch houses, and these, together with those remaining in our own hands, enabled us in a measure to supply the many demands made upon us. During the year ending March 31, 1900, the Board distributed 105 free libraries, containing 6563 volumes, to needy ministers, churches and Sabbath-schools, and also to other deserving objects, in thirty States and Territories. The value of these books, at their former catalogue price, was $5494.28. They were no longer valued on the inventory.

*The above statement relates only to amounts received and credited by the Business Department. In addition to the amount received by this Department from sales by missionaries, the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department received $40.26 from those sales (see p. 47). The Business Department sells all its publications to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department at "the highest rate of discount allowed on the same classes of publications to the most favored branch houses in this country;" the missionaries are required to sell, for cash only, at catalogue prices; the excess inures to the benefit of the latter department.

Net Profits.

The net profits of the year were $24,850.77. Of this sum two-thirds, or $17,567.18, has been placed to the credit of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Fund, in accordance with the direction of the General Assembly. The remaining third, or $8283.59, has been added to the capital.

Capital.

This, at the beginning of the year, according to the balance-sheet of the last Report, was $202,016.56. In consequence of the addition of one-third of the profits of the year, or $8283.59, the capital is now reported as $210,300.15.

C. T. McMULLIN, Treasurer.

Philadelphia, April 2, 1900.

The undersigned, in conjunction with Mr. Horace Hill, Accountant, have examined the account of the Treasurer of the Trustees, and find it correct. The balance of cash in the hands of the Treasurer is thirty thousand nine hundred and sixty-six dollars and sixty-nine cents ($30,966.69).

They have also examined the securities in his hands, amounting to sixty-three thousand seven hundred and forty dollars ($63,740.00), and find them in the name of the corporation.

(Signed) WILLIAM W. ALLEN,
WILLIAM H. SCOTT,
Auditing Committee.

ABSTRACT OF THIRTIETH ANNUAL REPORT.

The year has been characterized by a marked advance in all departments of the work, a result undoubtedly significant of the greatly improved business conditions of the country that have marked the last two years. The nature of the work committed to the Board is such that it cannot be otherwise than that it will reflect the condition, whether of financial prosperity or business depression, among the people at large.

APPLICATIONS.

The number of applications to the General Fund for grants or loans without interest was 149, asking in the aggregate for $89,687. This was an advance upon the previous year of twenty-six in number and $29,514 in amount, or of nearly 22 per cent. in number of churches, and of 49 per cent. in sum applied for.

The Manse Fund shows a still greater advance in the demand, there being a total of seventy-nine applications and $35,335 in amount; an increase over the previous year of forty-five and $19,260 respectively, or a percentage of advance in number of 132 per cent. and in amount of 119 per cent. It is also to be added that the record is an advance of more than 50 per cent. upon the demand in this department during any previous year since the Fund was instituted.

In the case of the Loan Fund, while there are three more applications, the aggregate asked is $2069 less than last year, the number being fourteen and the amount $36,200.

The total number of churches applying to the Board is 242 as against 168 last year, and the amount aggregates $161,222 as against $114,574, an advance of more than 40 per cent.

RESOURCES.

The total income of the Board from all sources was, for the year just closed, as follows:

Contributions from churches,	$52,887 06
Individual contributions,	1,284 20
Legacies,	6,324 47
Interest on invested funds,	9,868 51
Sales of church buildings,	7,387 70
Appropriations returned,	2,614 51
Receipts from insurance,	5,239 88
Special contributions,	1,824 55
Revenue of Barber Fund,	3,407 86
		$90,838 74
Installments repaid to Loan Fund,	$26,993 41
Interest on Loan Fund and profits on bonds sold,	14,372 05
		41,365 46
Contributions to Manse Fund,	$607 81
Legacy to Manse Fund,	960 80
Repayments to Manse Fund,	17,623 90
Interest on Manse Fund,	1,511 20
Special contributions to Manse Fund,	100 00
Receipts from insurance,	375 00
		21,178 71
Receipts from Raynolds Bequest and interest thereon		27,752 75
		$181,135 66

APPROPRIATIONS.

1. The General Fund.—In this department the advance over last year has been marked, and is most encouraging.

Appropriations have been made to 144 different churches, aggregating in amount $82,681, an increase of twenty-two in the number of churches, and of $23,386 in amount, or nearly 20 per cent. and 40 per cent. respectively.

Of these churches 112 received grants only, and seventeen loans only, while fifteen were given both grants and loans; the total result being 127 grants, amounting to $68,447, and thirty-two loans aggregating $14,234, or as given above, $82,681 to 144 different churches.

2. The Loan Fund.—This fund, so designated by the General Assembly of 1892, is not like the General Fund, dependent upon the annual income of the Board, nor can it like the latter be voted in actual grants to churches. It is a permanent fund composed of moneys, for the most part the product of bequests, that are held by the Board in trust to provide an additional income available for grants. Under the plan of the Assembly the Board is permitted to invest these funds in loans to churches which do not come within the original sphere of the Board's work, being not in a strict sense "feeble churches."

Under this plan loans have been made during the past year to ten churches, to an aggregate amount of $28,050, an advance upon last year of three churches and $4550.

3. The Manse Fund.—During the past year loans have been made to seventy-one churches to the amount of $30,425, and three grants amounting to $375 to little congregations upon Indian reservations. To this is to be added two specials, amounting to $100. It is gratifying to notice that both in the number of churches reached and in the amount promised the appropriations are more than 50 per cent. greater than in any previous year.

SUMMARY.

In looking over the entire work in this its aggressive aspect and summing up the results, we find that either as loans or grants $141,531 have been appropriated to 228 churches. Adding to these special gifts of $1708 to nineteen churches we have a total of $143,339 and 249 churches.

A RETROSPECT.

It seems appropriate in presenting this Report in the closing year of the century to give a brief summary of what has been accomplished by the Board during its fifty-six years of activity. This is done in the table to which reference has been already made. It will be seen that the work has been extended into forty-six States and Territories; that there have been granted loans (without interest) from the General Fund, to which all church contributions are given, to 6024 churches and to the amount of $3,563,236; loans from the Manse Fund (established in 1885) to 543 churches to the amount of $222,304; grants from the Manse Fund to forty-one churches, to the amount of $8593, and loans bearing interest from the Loan Fund (established in 1892) to eighty-nine churches and to the amount of $239,925, making a grand total of 6697 churches, and grants and loans $4,034,058.

THE FUTURE.

In presenting an estimate, as required by its charter, of the probable demands upon the Board during the coming year, it is reminded of the words with which its Report closed a year ago. It stated that the fact that the applications to the General Fund had for two years shown a falling off did not permit it to assume that a smaller amount of contributions would suffice for the coming year. How true was this suggestion is seen by the statements of the present Report, which manifest that in all departments of the work the increase in demand has been fully 50 per cent. above that of the year just closing.

This Board does not ask for contributions upon the scale justly established for the Boards that provide for the maintenance of the grand army of advance, but it does ask and urge that its claims shall be considered by every congregation of our Church, and that each shall make some contribution in accordance with its means to the no less important work of entrenching our hosts upon the field by providing permanent houses of worship, and homes in which those we send forth may dwell.

DAVID MAGIE, President.
ERSKINE N. WHITE, Corresponding Secretary.

ROLL.

We have had upon our roll for the year ending March 31, 1900, 903 names—363 ministers, 483 widows, 32 orphan families, 1 widow of a medical missionary, 8 female missionaries and 16 guests in the Home at Perth Amboy, N. J. The average amount paid to ministers on the Honorably Retired roll was $282.87. Some ministers on the Honorably Retired roll did not ask for the full amount to which an Honorably Retired minister is entitled when in need. The total amount paid to Honorably Retired ministers last year was $35,925. In 1889 the rule was adopted allowing ministers who are 70 years of age, and who have been 30 years in active service in the ministry of our Church, to be placed on the Honorably Retired roll of the Board and to be granted, without being annually renewed, an annuity of $300, when they certify that they need that amount. Since then 232 ministers have availed themselves of this privilege. Nineteen names have been added to this roll during the past year; 13 ministers whose names were on this roll have died during the year. During the past year we have had 127 Honorably Retired ministers on the roll and their average age has been 78.4 years, and their average active service has been 44.4 years. Forty-two of these men were over 80 years of age, and 7 of them were over 90. The average amount paid all annuitants was $199.48, but the average amount paid annuitants not on the Honorably Retired roll was only $181.76.

During the past year we have added 111 new names to the roll of annuitants—63 ministers, 42 widows, 1 female missionary, 5 orphans—and we have to-day 26 more families on the roll than we had the year previous. Fifty-seven of those who were on the roll have died during the year—39 ministers, 16 widows, 10 orphans and 1 guest at the Ministers' House at Perth Amboy, N. J. Several of those formerly receiving aid have withdrawn their request for further assistance, and others have not been renewed by their Presbyteries. Notwithstanding these facts, we have had 903 families on the roll during the past year—being 26 more families than we ever had in any previous year. The name of the Ministers' House at Perth Amboy has been changed and it is now called the Westminster House.

" " —Transferred from Permanent Fund Account,	1,175 51	7,896 50
	$186,689 45	$192,637 40

We have received during the past year collections from 4240 churches. This is the largest number of contributing churches we have ever reported in any year of the Board's work. Three thousand one hundred and nineteen churches have failed to send any contribution to this hallowed cause during the year.

STARTLING FIGURES.

The work of Relief was organized by the O. S. General Assembly in 1849 and by the N. S. General Assembly in 1860, but the N. S. body did not report any aid granted until 1865. The two branches of the Church in 1860 (omitting fractional numbers) had only one minister's family on the Relief roll to every 87 ministers on the rolls of the two Assemblies. Ten years later, at the time of the reunion in 1870, there was one family on the roll of Relief to every 19 ministers on the roll of the General Assembly. Ten years later, in 1880, there was one to every 12. Ten years later, in 1890, there was one to every 10; and to-day we have one minister's family on the roll of the Board of Relief to every eight ministers on the roll of the General Assembly.

SOURCES OF INCOME.

The money used in paying annuities is derived from four sources: From interest on the Permanent Fund, from church collections, from individual contributions and from unrestricted legacies.

In regard to these sources of income we call the attention of the General Assembly to some facts which make it imperative that a vigorous effort should be made this year to secure much larger contributions to this sacred work from the churches and from individuals than the Board has ever received.

1. We cannot expect to receive as much interest from our Permanent Fund by several thousand dollars as we have been receiving from this Fund for some years past.

If some of our wealthy Presbyterians would make as large contributions to our Permanent Fund as they sometimes make to colleges, hospitals and other institutions, the Board would be enabled to pay its worthy annuitants the lifelong support they have well earned by their faithful service.

A venerable minister of our Church, who is not on our roll of annuitants, thus writes: "It does seem to me that retired ministers should be pensioned, and that they ought not to feel that they are paupers. Why do not some of our millionaires contribute of their wealth toward a Ministerial Pension Fund as well as toward building and endowing seminaries, colleges, universities, etc.?"

We submit this question to our wealthy Presbyterians for their prayerful consideration.

Until our Endowment Fund is largely increased, what is to be done? We must receive largely increased amounts from the other sources of income.

2. The cause of Ministerial Relief depends very materially upon individual contributions. Just here the cause has suffered a great loss during the past year in the death of Mr. John D. Thompson, of Los Angeles, Cal., who departed this life January 3, 1900. For the last ten years his contributions to the Board have averaged nearly $5000 a year. Although we lost his liberal contribution last year another generous-hearted man gave us $10,000, which greatly gladdened our hearts in time of great need. Who will take their places during the year upon which we have entered?

If some of the warm friends of our aged ministers would, early in the fiscal year upon which we have entered, send the Treasurer of the Board some large special contributions, it would greatly relieve the anxiety of the members of the Board and enable them to make the appropriations to our annuitants more satisfactorily.

3. Another source of income is from unrestricted legacies. The income derived from this source is in the nature of the case a very uncertain quantity, and the amount received from this source is by direction of the General Assembly kept in a special Emergency Fund to meet such drafts upon it as the appropriations made by the Board may from year to year demand.

4. The other and the main source of income upon which we must depend is the money received from church collections.

Whilst we are greatly encouraged by the fact that more churches have contributed to Ministerial Relief during the past year than during any previous year, yet, by examining the tabular statement it will be seen that the contributions of the churches have neither kept pace with the advance of the Church nor with the advance of the roll of annuitants. If we are to continue to pay anything near the general average amount we have been paying our annuitants, the churches must very largely increase their annual contributions to the Board. We should receive at the very least $25,000 more this year than we received last year to enable the Board to make the appropriations that will be earnestly asked for by the Presbyteries.

LIFELONG SUPPORT.

It is not saying too much when we say that men who have given all their time, all their strength and all their money to the Church of their choice have a right, a God-given right, to fair treatment for themselves and their families in the days when they are forced into retirement from the activities of the pastoral office. It is not a charity, in the common acceptation of that term, to pay these honorably retired men for the faithful service they have rendered our beloved Church, and to grant annuities to the families of deceased ministers who have died in the service of the Church. It is but the payment of a well-earned lifelong support, which justice, honor and all the dictates of our holy religion declare should be paid cheerfully and without grudging. "EVEN SO HATH THE LORD ORDAINED."

ABSTRACT OF THE THIRTY-FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The Board, with thankfulness to Almighty God and to the many friends who made special effort this year in its behalf, gladly reports that it closed its books free of debt and finds itself in a better condition financially than it has been in for many years.

* Deceased.

Last year the Board went to the Assembly with a debt of $40,000. It having been learned before the Assembly met that none of the other Boards would have any deficit and that the Freedmen's Board, in this respect, stood alone, sympathy turned our way.

A circular letter, headed Cleveland, Ohio, May 1, 1899, and signed W. W. Hulbert, Chairman in behalf of the Committee, and sent to every Commissioner-elect to the approaching Assembly, stated that the Presbyterial Committees of Cleveland Presbytery had that day organized to clear off before June 1 the deficit of the Freedmen's Board—"this last vestige of debt upon the Presbyterian Church."

While no large amount was secured directly by this effort, the way was no doubt prepared for the finally successful effort of the Standing Committee on Freedmen, of which Rev. Charles Herr, D.D., of Jersey City, N. J., was Chairman.

It was in the air that the debt of the Freedmen's Board must be removed, and a scheme was soon devised and executed whereby at the close of the day on which Dr. Herr made his report on the Freedmen's Board we could publish to the world that the whole $40,000 was pledged, sufficient assurances having been received by letter, by telegram, by pledge and by verbal promise to that effect.

When our books closed for the year, over $37,000 had been paid on these pledges, and we are glad to say that the excess of receipts over expenditures for the current year enabled the Board to come to the rescue and wipe from its books every last vestige of the debt that had been hampering and hindering its work and progress for the last eight years.

The Mary Holmes Seminary, at West Point, Miss., which burned March 6, 1899, as announced in our last Report, was rebuilt and occupied by January 1, 1900. The erection of the new building was superintended by Rev. H. N. Payne, D.D., the President of the Seminary. With the money we received from insurance and money previously pledged for salaries and scholarships, which was used with the consent of the donors, the building was restored without drawing on the general fund.

The total receipts for the year were $5599.76 in excess of last year.

Rev. J. J. Beacom, D.D., our Treasurer, was stricken with paralysis the first of last December and has been confined to his home ever since. The duties of the Treasurer have been borne by the present office force with some degree of additional burden to them, but with no additional expense to the Board.

Mrs. C. E. Coulter, who for sixteen years served in our office as General and Corresponding Secretary of the Freedmen's Department of the Women's Board, on October last laid down the burdens of office to seek that rest and quiet to which a long and useful life has entitled her.

Mrs. Flora D. Palmer, as General Secretary, and Mrs. V. P. Boggs, as Corresponding Secretary, have been appointed to take charge of the work that was previously under Mrs. Coulter's care.

The women of the Church, through their well-organized societies, increased their gifts to our work $7153.78 over last year.

We owe special thanks to the Woman's Board of Home Missions for the kindly and Christian spirit with which they have fostered the Freedmen's Department of their Board.

The number of churches contributing to our cause this year, directly or through one or more of their organized agencies, was 4981—a gain of 376.

The amount contributed by the Freedmen for self-support in their churches and schools, none of which goes through the Board's Treasury or enters into their accounts, was $71,762.81—an increase over the amount reported last year of $7183.81.

Abstract of the Seventeenth Annual Report.

The year opened, as we announced to the last General Assembly, with a notable gift of $50,000 from a gentleman in New York, who withheld his name from publicity, to be expended for Whitworth College, Washington, as the Board might deem best. Much care was given to the matter. The college was to be relocated and reorganized. Many places in Washington were visited, and the situation thoroughly studied. The Board finally accepted the offer of citizens of Tacoma, locating the college there. A property was secured at one-fifth of its value by cash gifts from Tacoma people and from the $50,000 fund. The situation is unsurpassed, the buildings nearly new, elegant and suitable. Adjacent land was purchased for a campus. The city of Tacoma gave the college an adjacent public library building erected by private generosity, containing 6000 nearly new and well chosen volumes, a fine assembly hall and space for recitation rooms. Complications incident to transfers of the properties delayed the opening, but the college is now in comfortable occupation and prosperous operation.

After paying all expenses accrued and current, securing a property free of encumbrance and worth more than $100,000, and equiping it for college use, the Board still had more than three-fifths of the original gift left to run the college with while it secures endowment.

The Board will give equal care to the disposal of similar gifts. It can make them fruitful.

Receipts from churches are sadly inadequate to meet the needs of our aided institutions. This fact forbids the Board to assist other institutions perhaps as needed and as promising. Cities, Presbyteries and Synods beg such aid. Neglect now means future loss incalculable. The Board could do a great additional work for the Church with moderate additional income.

Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies do not generally realize what should be their share in the work of this Board, the only work of our Church for young people only. The corresponding board in the Methodist Episcopal Church is supported entirely, and bountifully, by Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies. What should our young people do about it?

Receipts from legacies and individuals for property uses, especially for buildings and endowment, are so far below the demands of the situation as to forbid the progress, and even to menace the permanence of institutions which have grown these seventeen years under the Church's fostering care, and now need enlargement and endowment. Thousands of dollars given for such purposes are made by the College Board to bring many thousands more from local friends of institutions, and are secured forever to our Church by mortgages on the property of the aided institutions.

Education Day.

Education Day—"A Sunday near the Day of Prayer for Schools and Colleges"—is happily used by many churches for considering the relation of the Bible to education, a topic long neglected in our Church. The systematic Bible study required of all candidates for graduation, and of many other students, in all institutions aided by the College Board, secures conversions, consecration and equipment for Christian service. This study, forbidden in State and neglected in most other institutions, is paramountly important. Did the churches know about it, this work would not lack fair support. Did the churches fully feel and act upon the knowledge, the Board would have strong support.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE, 1900.

In accordance with the instructions of the last General Assembly, the Committee regard itself as charged with the duty of presenting a plan that might, if possible, harmonize the views and methods now prevailing in our Church on the question of Systematic Beneficence, and at the same time not recommend any action that shall interfere with the recognized prerogatives of Presbyteries and churches, or have the appearance of needless inflexibility or attempted dictation.

The highest motives for Christian stewardship have been abundantly urged, and a number of practical methods to incite and guide the benevolence of the Church have from time to time been carefully matured and presented.

All of these plans possess features of value, and while no one has been universally accepted, each contains something our Church cannot afford to lose. A combination and enlargement of the best elements in these various schemes may possibly suggest a method which can hope to secure more general approval.

It must be premised, however, that no scheme will be successful that does not recognize certain fundamental aims and facts.

1. The primary end to be sought is not so much to obtain funds for the Boards, or for any special object, as to inculcate principles and foster habits which shall actuate all giving.

2. Every one must be left free to give according to their own views of personal duty.

3. Individual churches must be allowed the same liberty.

There are appeals involving, perhaps, the work of great educational or charitable undertakings; the interests of the Church universal, or of international effort; the country at large or the local community, or the claims of humanity in any form. The Committee recognizes that provision must be made for such calls.

The duty of this Committee is chiefly concerned with measures calculated to increase the support of the established agencies of our own denomination.

We regard it as beyond controversy that our churches, as a rule, are glad to recognize the propriety of invariably making a solemn offering on the Lord's Day, in the Lord's house, for some department of the Lord's work; that every member of the church and congregation should share in these offerings, and all should be urged to give from a sense of grateful obligation to the Lord Himself.

A number of plans have been tried, but have proved, in some respects, defective.

1. It seems in many cases impracticable to include all objects in each Sabbath offering, and to distribute the amount according to some fixed schedule, however discriminating.

This method lacks the pressure and enthusiasm of a definite appeal, and involves a comprehensiveness of view and a combination of claims not apt to insure large returns.

2. The apportionment system has the advantage of settling in advance the total amount to be raised and the share each Synod, Presbytery and church should be expected to assume.

But even if the Presbyteries were invariably ready to accept the assignment of the General Assembly and of the Synods, and every Presbytery would undertake to determine the sum each of its own churches should give, there would always be room for complaint that an arbitrary assessment had been ordered, and that the assessment was either unjust or inadequate.

3. It is unquestionable, however, that the work of the Church, in all its departments and ramifications, would at once be established upon a sound and satisfactory basis if, at the beginning of our ecclesiastical or the secular year, every individual connected with our congregations would, in some way, announce at least the minimum they would pledge themselves to give during the year for all or each of the causes to be presented in their own church.

This would make it reasonably certain that every member would give something, and, in the majority of cases, to each of the causes approved by the Session.

Such definite information would make it possible for the General Assembly to estimate with a degree of exactness what the aggregate would be and what each of the Boards could depend upon. Every church also would know in advance what its probable annual income would be, and could arrange its offerings and expenditures accordingly.

This is the method constantly employed in many of our congregational and charitable undertakings. Nor is it open to the charge that no room is left for special appeals and unlooked-for emergencies. The plan centres upon the proposition that only the minimum should be pledged in advance as a ground of security for necessary Church work.

It is obviously expected that the heart and the purse shall be kept free to enlarge the gift, as circumstances may demand and permit. The clear-eyed faith that can make provision beforehand for a part of one's religious obligations can be trusted to meet the remainder in an equally liberal spirit.

4. The plan to reduce the number of the Boards and appoint one Treasurer for all the Boards, does not appear to be, at present, practicable. While it would seem to promise greater simplicity and economy in administration, it is evident, from investigation and comparison, that the union of any two Boards would not reduce the number and cost of agents, in the office or in the field, and would probably lessen the support now given to both causes and be apt to confuse the mind of contributors. The attempt to have one General Treasurer might concentrate authority, but it would require as many and as capable assistants and offer no saving in the multiplicity and character of the books or accounts.

The Committee recommend:

1. That pastors be urged to present more frequently and fully the duty and privilege of giving, not from impulse or because of special solicitation, but intelligently, from principle and upon spiritual grounds.

The injunction to give is binding alike upon rich and poor; and upon both, because all are redeemed by the precious blood of the Son of God.

2. We recommend that all offerings should be regarded as made to the Lord, and should be in a definite and liberal proportion to personal income or resources, at least one-tenth; in many cases more. Any thought of legal compulsion or the stress of mere duty should be avoided, and the appeal be made alone to the supremacy of Christian privilege.

3. We recommend that, if consistent with the method adopted for church collections, Sabbath offerings be made at stated and suitable times in behalf of each of the Boards, with explanations that will enable hearers to understand clearly the character and claims of the cause presented.

We believe that marked emphasis should be given to these occasions, and an effort made to have every member realize their personal responsibility to support the various organized missionary and benevolent operations of their own denomination. No other method would seem to do justice to the important causes represented by these Boards. The very life of the Church is involved in the vigorous and generous prosecution of all these lines of effort.

4. We recommend that some effective means be employed for collecting the offerings, by envelope, card or otherwise; and, if possible, that notice be sent in advance to every member of the congregation. Many devices for this purpose are in use and a few have proved singularly successful. The one necessity is that some definite and practical method should be selected and then invariably acted upon.

5. We recommend that the Session of each church endeaver to determine, at the beginning of the year, the amount their own church can justly be expected to provide for each cause; and with the announcement of this approximate estimate every member be urged to indicate, when practicable, the sum they will individually subscribe. This will help to give clearness and precision to the efforts of the year and while fixing the amount to be raised, will also aid in a proper and voluntary distribution of responsibility and in providing an effective incitement for the increase of contributions year by year.

6. We recommend that theological seminaries give full instruction on the subject of Systematic Beneficence and upon the history, objects and operations of each of the Boards of the Church.

It would often save mismanagement, loss and distress in churches if the ministry generally had more personal knowledge of practical business affairs.

In making these recommendations, the Committee desire to call particular attention, in the first place, to the paramount influence of the pastor if success is to attend these and all similar measures. Work so vital to the healthy development of his own church and to the progess of the kingdom everywhere cannot be delegated to any one else.

The pastor must be leader in the benevolent activities of his people as distinctly as in the spiritual. They are interdependent, and, in fact, one. This will demand special study.

He will, moreover, resist the fallacy that the men of a household can be excused from giving if they encourage the women to give. In many churches the difficulty has long been that the men have not been as thoroughly organized or interested as the women. The pastor will gain this end if he can lead all who attend upon his ministry to give as they are able, whether old or young, of whatever station or condition.

It can be added that every church which receives aid from one or more of the Boards should scrupulously see that at least some gift, however apparently trivial, shall appear in each of the blanks representing the causes authorized by the Assembly.

COÖPERATION OF THE SESSION.

Unless the members of the Session are their pastor's best counselors and most efficient supporters in fostering a spirit of true benevolence and in securing contributions, his own efforts will be largely neutralized. These officers are naturally men of prominence in the church and represent the lay element. Their sentiments and example may, in some cases, have more weight than exhortations from the pulpit.

Too much stress cannot be laid upon the importance of selecting a suitable member of the Session to act as special treasurer of the benevolence of the church. It is indispensable that he should be energetic in collecting the various offerings and prompt in forwarding them to the treasurers of the respective Boards. The Session can aid efficiently by promoting public meetings to discuss the principles of Christian giving and in carrying forward a campaign of education on this vital subject.

COMMITTEE ON BENEFICENCE.

The Synodical and Presbyterial Committees are essential to any general and effective quickening of the churches in the matter of giving and they are invaluable in coöperating with the Committee of the General Assembly.

They can do much in correspondence with the pastors, in providing for local conferences, and especially in circulating suitable literature. They will see to it that every pastor or Session provide that the annual statement of the several Boards come into the hands of every family of their congregations. By applying to the Board of Church Erection as many copies as are needed will be freely furnished.

The Assembly Herald is now exclusively devoted to information connected with the work of our different Boards. It ought to find access and a welcome in every Presbyterian home. It frequently contains suggestive and helpful articles on beneficence, telling the experience of pastors, and giving an occasional outline of methods which have been found practicable and advantageous.

We also cordially commend the Presbyterian Handbook, issued by the Board of Publication. The cost is almost nominal ($1.50 per 100 copies), and it presents a rare condensation of facts that cannot be found elsewhere in a form so convenient for immediate and instructive use.

THE DUTY OF ALL.

The unprecedented conditions of our day; the practical opening of every land to the preaching of the Gospel; the advanced stage of all missionary effort; the recent providential placing of important nationalities under the direct control or influence of the United States; the largely increased number of applicants for foreign service; the swift development of our own country; the ingress of a new and less favorable immigration; the incredible growth of our Western States and Territories; the inability or the delay of denominational agencies to occupy places imperatively needing the Gospel and ready to welcome it; the increasing audacity of all forms of irreligion and unbelief or false belief; the advance in general wealth and prosperity, and yet the large diversion of Christian funds into other than church channels; the universally accepted conviction that nothing but the religion of Christ can redeem and preserve this land; the confessed necessity for immediate and more adequate measures—these and all other considerations of loyalty to our faith and of an enlightened patriotism call, with irresistible urgency, upon the members of our Presbyterian Church to accept their increased and unquestionable obligations.

Every instrumentality approved and employed by our Church should be sustained and vitalized. Every member of every congregation should have a glad and personal share in the common work. No one need speak of inability. One penny a week from every member—if that is all a straitened purse can clearly yield—would swell into an aggregate that will supply a full treasury for every Board. An average of one cent a day would multiply our agencies so grandly that if other churches would do the same, the Gospel might indeed be preached to every creature during this generation.

GROWTH OF THE CHURCH AND SYSTEMATIC GIVING.

Systematic beneficence is so closely connected with the life of the Church that conditions which foster the growth of the Church are also those which will ultimately increase the systematic giving of the people, as both growth and giving are dependent upon obedience to the commands of Christ. It seems, therefore, that the Committee on Systematic Beneficence should call the special attention of the Church to the rate of growth in membership during the past ten years in the various Synods.

The increase of the entire Church, as indicated by the table which is herewith submitted, in ten years has been only 27 per cent. In 1890, the total membership reported to General Assembly was 775,903, and in 1899, 983,907. The great Synod of Pennsylvania has just kept step with the average increase of the entire Church, whereas the Synod of New Jersey has fallen 9 per cent. below the average for the entire Church, and the great Synod of New York 18 per cent. below the average. The fact that there are more people in the vicinity of our churches to be reached with the Gospel of Jesus Christ than ever before, taken with the fact of the small rate of increase in the membership of the churches, indicates a condition of the Church which is not altogether reassuring.

It is possible for a church to grow very rapidly and at the same time not show corresponding increase in giving; the energy of the church for the time being may be absorbed in caring for young converts and new members. But a church that is not characterized either by growth or enlarged giving has but little encouragement for the future.

If we should name the causes which seem to affect both the growth of the Church and systematic giving, we would say:

1. There seems to be a tendency in many of our churches to forget that the chief end for which a church exists is to be an aggressive and working force for the immediate salvation of the community in which it is placed. If a church does not feel the necessity of active work for saving the immediate community in which it is placed there can be no adequate sense of responsibility for the saving of the uttermost parts of the earth.

2. The change in many families even in one generation, both as to spirituality and wealth. Sometimes the sons of church members become saloon keepers and children of saloon keepers become church members; the children of the rich become poor and the children of the poor become rich. A large portion of the present lapsed Protestant population of our country had church antecedents, and a very large portion of the very poor Protestant population had well-to-do antecedents. The fact that neither religion nor wealth necessarily continue in successive generations compels the Church that will be ever alert in doing its Master's work to be in the widest sense a Church which is no respecter of persons, and the Church which loses sight of this fundamental law which seems to govern in the life of men is constantly in danger in the near future of empty pews and an impoverished treasury. Large giving usually spends itself in two generations. Among those who have been large givers during the past generation are those whose lives were touched by the great revivals of '37 and '57.

A Church therefore, to preserve its spiritual life and its continued ability to give for the cause of missions, must be ever at work for the poor and non-church-going population in its immediate vicinity.

3. A radical change in the method of work is the demand of the present time. There has been too much reliance upon the presentation of truth in the public services of the Church on the Sabbath, and too little following up of the truth as presented from the pulpit on the part of the pastor and the membership of the Church. People are rarely brought into membership of the Church by public preaching. It is the personal effort that God has signally blest.

In the same manner, to keep alive in an adequate degree the spirit of the missionary and benevolent work of the Church requires something more than simply the presentation of these causes from the pulpit. The personal effort with individuals must be more prominent in the future. If the same energy and persistency which is shown by the average life insurance agent should be shown by the pastor and membership of the Church in the matter of bringing others to the confession of Christ and to adequately supporting the home Church and its missionary and benevolent work, there would be no question that the churches would be characterized by large accessions to membership and the treasuries would be filled.

Summary for the Year Closing May 1, 1900.

Your Committee, by the prompt and hearty coöperation of the officers of the various Boards of our Church have been able to present from the advance sheets of the Annual Reports of the Boards the actual condition of the missionary and benevolent work of the Church as indicated by the gifts to our various Boards during the year just closed. This can best be done by a series of tables of statistics. For the advantage of comparison we have included in our table similar reports for the nine previous years.

Abstract of the Nineteenth Annual Report.

Your Committee respectfully submits its Annual Report, together with minutes and statement of Treasurer. We have aimed at brevity, omitting many things of importance, the reiteration of which seemed unnecessary after recent presentation in preceding reports.

Organization Work.—Convinced that the lack of the Sessional Temperance Committee is highly detrimental to the effectiveness of the plan of organization adopted by our Church, the Permanent Committtee has continued to direct its efforts toward the remedying of this defect.

Relative to the work competent to such committee we have been sending to Sessions, and especially to Sessional Committees, a letter, part of which we here subjoin:

Replying in general to the inquiries addressed to us, we offer a few suggestions. In the endeavor to forward this important department of the Lord's work, the attention of this committee should be directed toward—

1. The Sabbath School.

Endeavor to make sure that the quarterly Sabbath-school lesson is faithfully taught. Conferring with your superintendent and teachers, secure the introduction of the temperance covenant into each class. If it seems practicable, have the Sabbath-school organized, after a very simple form, as a temperance society, with a brief meeting once in three months at the close of the regular session of the school.

Have good temperance books placed in the library and suitable tracts and papers distributed.

2. The Young People's Society.

Utilize to the utmost this valuable agency. The temperance covenant and pledge roll should be in the hands of the Society's Temperance Committee, who should solicit signatures, beginning with members of the society. Then let open meetings of the society be held, or public meetings arranged for, at which the temperance pledge shall be presented and instructions given by addresses, distributing of literature, etc., thus seeking both to rescue the inebriate and fortify the unfallen.

3. The Prayer Meeting.

At least as often as once in three months at the general midweek prayer meeting presentation should be made of some phase of this subject, and prayer offered for guidance and help in the conflict with this fearful foe of Christ and His Church.

4. The Communion Table.

If the wine of commerce, alcoholic and often adulterated, be still used in the celebration of the Lord's Supper, endeavor to have substituted for it the unfermented fruit of the vine which "fulfills every condition in the celebration of the sacrament, and obviates a manifest peril."

5. Offerings for the Work.

Sessions have been repeatedly called upon by the Assembly to remember the work of its Permanent Committee on Temperance in making distribution of the benevolent contributions of their churches. The annual Temperance Day in October, for which the Session's Committees should make arrangements, would appropriately include among its services an offering. In the churches where this object has not a place on the annual contribution list, we would suggest to the Temperance Committee that an offering be secured at one or more of the temperance prayer meetings, or in the Sabbath-school or Young People's Society. The Permanent Committee needs funds for printing literature and for the support of its temperance missionaries laboring among the colored people of the South. Remit to Rev. James Allison, D.D., Penn Building, Pittsburgh, Pa.

6. The Public School.

As a committee of your Church let your influence be wielded—and seek to enlist your people in the same endeavor—in promotion of the faithful observance of the laws requiring that all pupils be taught the pernicious influence of alcoholic liquors and narcotics on the human system.

7. The Strong Arm of the Law.

This Committee should be ready to coöperate with similar committees of other churches in measures for the banishment of the saloon, whether by securing prohibitory legislation or enforcement of existing laws.

8. The Periodical Press.

This most potent agency in educating public sentiment should not be neglected. Your local newspapers should be kept supplied by competent hands with short articles—original, clipped or collated—on local issues or on phases of the general subject.

9. The Annual Report.

Presbyterial Temperance Committees are often disheartened by the failure of Sessions to respond to the annual inquiries sent them. The Assembly, hoping to obviate this complaint, indicates this as one of the duties of this committee of the Session—"to report to and assist the Presbyterial Committee in the work."

The Pen and the Press. Being compelled by lack of funds to forego the proffered privilege of presenting our cause before distant Synods, Presbyteries and other public meetings, your Committee has worked, except in a few instances, solely through the pen and the printing press. During the year the correspondence work of our secretary has been supplemented by like labors on the part of nearly every member of the Committee, and consequently the aggregate of this year's output of letters relative to our work has been greater than ordinary.

Weekly presentation of some phase of the subject of Temperance has been made through the religious newspapers and also occasionally through the secular press. Circulars, leaflets, tracts, brochures, temperance catechisms, covenant cards, pledge books, constitutions, etc., have been sent abroad for free distribution as heretofore—the amount approximating 1,000,000 pages. There has been a largely increased demand, and greater variety is needed, especially of such literature as may prove attractive and instructive to children. We have also been repeatedly importuned for tracts for distribution among our vast foreign-speaking population—Spanish, Italian, French, German, Slav, etc.

The duty which to us seems first and most pressing is the safeguarding of our youth by confronting them with the guide-boards of God's warning truth, written so plain that "he that runneth may read." We would hope by our printed matter to aid in the equipment of those who are fighting this enemy of God and humanity. We would supply some smooth stones for the young Davids, who with sling in hand go forth to meet the heaven-defying giant. And were we but adequately equipped, we would persistently ply with printed truth our indifferent brethren, till by the blessing of God, apathy should yield and importunity win.

Temperance Mission in the South.—A greatly needed and very promising work was that begun by this Committee a few years since, among the colored people of the South. It was begun in prayer and with the fond hope that we might be permitted to share in the emancipation of this re-enslaved people—once the hapless victims of the cruel slave trade, now cursed with a worse slavery by the heartless and rapacious liquor trade. Our hope has not thus far been realized. Funds were lacking and the work has been almost suspended.

Petition Work.—The last General Assembly laid upon this Committee the duty of investigating the current rumors regarding the liquor traffic in our newly-acquired national possessions, and of memorializing the President on this subject, should the rumors prove authentic.

As to the saturnalia of alcoholism alleged to prevail at Manila, P. I., the proofs seem indisputable. Bishop Thoburn of the M. E. Church, after visiting that city, writes: "Every alternate place of business seems to be a liquor shop of some kind, and the soldier has temptations before his eyes whichever way he may turn. . . . . Drunken soldiers meet me everywhere, and it is painful in the extreme to remember that many of them have come from Christian homes, and that they have been thrust into the very jaws of temptation from which only a strong man can be expected to escape."

This sad story is abundantly corroborated by chaplains, soldiers and newspaper correspondents. The president of the first Philippine Commission, Dr. Schurman, says: "I regret that we allowed the saloon to get a foothold on the islands. . . . . It was unfortunate that we introduced and established the saloon there to corrupt the natives and to exhibit to them the vices of our race, etc."

In your Committee's letter to the President his attention is cited to the fact that "the official records at Washington show that the amount of alcoholic liquors exported to those countries has doubled in six months." The statement supplied by the Bureau of Statistics is as follows: Value of liquors exported to Philippine Islands, fiscal year ending July 1, 1899, $192,655; value of liquors exported to Philippine Islands, seven months ending February 1, 1900, $269,052.

Many of our Presbyteries have, upon suggestions from this Committee, memorialized the President and Congress for the exclusion of the drink traffic both from the army and our new possessions, and some have petitioned our Government to yield to the entreaty which comes from the New Hebrides Islands that American traders be forbidden to carry firearms and strong drink and opium to those islands, and it is our hope that this General Assembly will second the appeal to this effect made to our Government by the venerable missionary John G. Paton.

The Committee has approved and our Secretary is now sending out the following for adoption by public meetings, and presentation to the President and the two houses of Congress:

"Whereas the civilized nations of the world agreed in the treaty of Brussels, for the protection of the African races on the Congo, to exclude the liquor traffic, a policy previously adopted in our country regarding the Indians; therefore,

"Resolved, That we deplore and condemn as backward steps, and as crimes against civilization, the repeal by our national Government of prohibition in Alaska, and the recent pouring of the products of American breweries and distilleries into the Philippines, Hawaii, Cuba and Porto Rico, debauching races hitherto comparatively sober, and wrecking, both physically and morally, thousands of American young men in our armies of occupation in those islands.

"Resolved, further," That we hereby authorize the officers of this meeting to join in our behalf with the Presbyterian General Assembly in its petition to the President to exercise his power for the righting of this great wrong; and also to petition Congress to forbid in those islands the importation and sale of all intoxicating drinks, and to reënact the nullified anti-canteen law."

The reports from the Presbyterial Committees are coming in more slowly than usual. They bring the usual story of the brave struggle of some in our churches and the supine inactivity of others. There has been Temperance work in the usual form. The Presbyterian Woman's Temperance Association, whose report we hand herewith to your Standing Committee, has been active in circulating the pledge, distributing literature, securing Temperance organization and other good work, especially in the churches of Philadelphia and vicinity; and similar organizations of Presbyterian women report work in the Synods of Pennsylvania and Tennessee and in some Presbyteries elsewhere. There have been no gains in the line of Temperance legislation except in the adoption of scientific temperance instruction in Virginia. There is need that the friends of the cause shall rally to the support of the most important department of Temperance work.

As may be seen by our minutes, your Committee have joined with the Permanent Committees on Temperance of the M. E. Church and the Congregational Church and representatives of the W. C. T. U. and other Temperance societies in efforts for the counteracting of the influences set on foot by the opponents of scientific temperance instruction.

Upon the whole we find the result of this composite picture, composed of the Presbyterial reports, is an impression of increasing hatred of the saloon and greater efforts "to destroy the accursed thing from among us."

There seems to have been almost perfect unanimity and often much emphasis in the affirmative answer given to Question 2 of the blank form, which reads thus:

"Is the influence from pulpit, Sabbath-school, Young People's and other societies in your church exerted for total abstinence and toward the banishment of social drinking customs and of the liquor traffic?"

From one Session, however, comes the surprising answer: "There is no need for such influence!" Can that be true anywhere this side of that city where "nothing enters which defileth or worketh abomination or maketh a lie?" Is the saloon conceded to be the most prolific breeder of crime and wretchedness, and yet may the Church be serenely indifferent to it?

While the answer here commented upon may seem but a solitary utterance, there is sad reason to fear that it correctly indicates the attitude of not a few, by whom no allusion is ever made, in prayer or sermon, to that notable work of the devil which more than all else hinders the Gospel of Christ both at home and abroad.

The Assembly's Standing Committee on Temperance last year directed attention to "a tone of discouragement" in the report of the Permanent Committee. If by "discouragement" is to be understood such depression of confidence as might deter us from the work, we should be reluctant to acknowledge such a feeling. The obstacles and enemies may be many and mighty, and our progress may seem slow. It is a fact that the hope we expressed a few years ago, that the ebb of the awful tide of drink had set in, has not been justified by the official statistics as may here be seen:

At the General Assembly of 1899 the representatives of the Permanent Committee on Temperance plead for the moral support of the Church and for that financial aid without which we cannot accomplish large things. Now, at the close of another year, we have to report to you that our appeal has seemed to fall on deaf ears. As in the years preceding, a few friends have remembered the needs of our work, but the vast majority of the churches, and nearly all of the stronger churches in the great cities, have sent no offering, so that all our endeavors to place a sufficient fund in the hands of our Treasurer to enable us to do effective work have been futile.

Has the great, rich Presbyterian Church given full expression to her interest in this work by the contribution of $1465 to her own appointed Temperance agency—not one-fourth of what we ought to be using in the dissemination of printed truth?

We are thoroughly convinced, however, that if our congregations generally were but given opportunity to contribute to the Temperance work of the Church, though no word of commendation were uttered, funds would be furnished in abundance.

The General Assembly has repeatedly commended the faithfulness and diligence of its Committee, and reminded the churches of our need of money. But this does not avail. Were any one of our Boards dropped from the authorized schedule of required contributions and left with only a general commendation to the liberality of the churches, its work would soon be in the same languishing condition as ours.

If it be asked, "What shall be done for your treasury?" we presume not to say whether you shall place Temperance on the regular schedule of annual collections, assigning it a column in the blanks sent to the churches and in the statistical tables appended to the Assembly's Minutes, or shall supplement our receipts by an appropriation from the surplus in the General Assembly's treasury, or shall authorize the Permanent Committee to make requisition on the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work for such amount and variety of printed matter as the exigencies of our work shall require, or shall devise some other method for our relief—we defer to your wisdom; only we beg that help in some form be given and given now. We seem to have reached a crisis in this work.

The term of service of the following members of this Permanent Committee expires at this time: Ministers, J. J. Beacom, D.D., and J. F. Hill; Ruling Elders, O. L. Miller, M.D., and Thomas McFadden, Jr. All of which is respectfully submitted.

By order of the Committee,

JOHN J. BEACOM, Chairman.

FRANK K. HIPPLE, Treasurer.

The undersigned, in accordance with the directions of the General Assembly of 1899, have caused the Cash Account of Frank K. Hipple, Treasurer, to be examined and vouched by Horace Hill, a public accountant (there not being in Philadelphia any one known as a public auditor), whose annexed certificate shows that the same is correct, there being in the Treasurer's hands on the 31st day of March, 1900, a balance of seventy-seven thousand four hundred and eighty-four and $\frac{43}{100}$ dollars ($77,484.43), as verified by deposit in bank, to wit:

Balance of principal,	$77,610 22
Less overdraft of income,	125 79
	$77,484 43

SAMUEL C. PERKINS,
B. L. AGNEW,
JOHN H. CONVERSE,
Committee on Accounts.

NOTE.—Since March 31, 1900, seventy thousand dollars ($70,000) of the above-mentioned balance of principal have been invested in first mortgage security.

The undersigned, in accordance with the directions of the General Assembly of 1899, have caused the Securities, Bonds and Mortgages and other evidences of property belonging to the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, as set forth in the Treasurer's statement herewith submitted, to be examined by Horace Hill, a public accountant (there not being in Philadelphia any one known as a public auditor), whose certificate hereto annexed shows that the same are in proper order, and amounting at their face value in the aggregate, at the close of the fiscal year, March 31, 1900, to seven hundred and ninety thousand three hundred and eighty and $\frac{64}{100}$ dollars ($790,380.64), adding to which seventy-seven thousand six hundred and ten and $\frac{22}{100}$ dollars ($77,610.22), cash balance of principal for investment, makes total permanent fund on hand at close of fiscal year, as shown on the books, eight hundred and sixty-seven thousand nine hundred and ninety and $\frac{86}{100}$ dollars ($867,990.86).

The investments are registered in the name of the Corporation, excepting six thousand dollars ($6000) in Corporation Bonds, which are coupons, being securities specifically bequeathed to the Corporation, and which are kept in the vaults of The Real Estate Trust Company of Philadelphia.

CHARLES M. LUKENS, } Committee
J. HALL KINSEY, } on Finance.

The undersigned, a public accountant in the City of Philadelphia, hereby certifies that he has examined the accounts of Frank K. Hipple, Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and after careful vouching as to items of charge and discharge, does approve of the same as correct in all particulars; and that he found that there was, at the close of the fiscal year, March 31, 1900, the cash balances shown by said account, to wit: the sum of seventy-seven thousand four hundred and eighty-four $\frac{43}{100}$ dollars ($77,484.43), duly deposited to the credit of the said Trustees in The Real Estate Trust Company of Philadelphia; and, further, that he also examined all the Securities, Bonds and Mortgages and other evidences of property belonging to the said Trustees, and found the same to be as set forth in the statement thereof accompanying the Treasurer's Report, hereto annexed, the same amounting at their face value to seven hundred and ninety thousand three hundred and eighty $\frac{64}{100}$ dollars ($790,380.64), and being duly deposited in the Safe Deposit vaults of the aforesaid Trust Company.

HORACE HILL, Public Accountant.

714 Witherspoon Building, April 26, 1900.

The Committee on Finance, in compliance with the first item of Article IV of the By-Laws, respectfully reports to the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America the investments, as set forth in the foregoing table.

V. Miscellaneous.

I. THE MILEAGE AND CONTINGENT FUNDS.

SPECIAL attention is called to the Mileage and Contingent System adopted by the General Assembly of 1870, and amended by the General Assemblies of 1875, 1877, 1884 and 1896. As amended it is as follows:

"The Committee to whom it was referred to consider and report a uniform system of Mileage, whereby full provision may be made for the traveling expenses of the Commissioners to our General Assemblies, and to meet the contingent expenses of each Assembly, respectfully report:

"It is affirmed, Form of Government, Chap. xxii, Section 3, that, 'in order, as far as possible, to procure a respectable and full delegation to all our judicatories, it is proper that the expenses of ministers and elders, in their attendance on these judicatories, be defrayed by the bodies which they respectively represent.'

"The principle is thus established, that provision should be made for the payment of the traveling expenses of Commissioners to the General Assembly. This provision should be made by the Presbyteries. As far as possible, the feebler Presbyteries should be aided in this matter by the stronger. It appears just and reasonable, and so has been found by experience, that the estimated contingent expenses of each Assembly, and the traveling expenses of the Commissioners in coming to and returning from the Assembly, should be fully met by the apportionment of the whole amount among the several Presbyteries, according to the number of their communicants respectively.

"It is therefore recommended—

"1. That the Standing Committee on Mileage, annually appointed, be instructed to present an estimate of the probable amount that will be needed by the next General Assembly, in order to meet their contingent expenses and the traveling expenses of their Commissioners, with a statement of the per capita rate, based on the number of communicants, that will be needed to secure the amount.

"2. That the Presbyteries, at their Stated Meeting next following the adjournment of the General Assembly, apportion the amount required of their churches as they deem best.

"3. That the churches be instructed to pay over their respective apportionments at the Stated Meeting of their Presbyteries next preceding the meeting of the General Assembly—the whole amount due from the Presbytery to be forwarded to the Assembly by their Commissioners.

"4. That, as early as the fourth day of the sessions of the Assembly, the apportionment of each Presbytery be paid in full, and a bill of the necessary traveling expenses of its Commissioners be presented to the Standing Committee on Mileage.—N.B. It is understood that Commissioners, both in coming to and returning from the Assembly, will avail themselves of any commutation of fares that may be offered in season; and that in other cases they are to take, when practicable, the most economical route; no allowance to be made for extra accommodations on the way. Also, that no one will charge for return expenses unless he intends to go back to his field of labor; and that no one on a business tour, or excursion of pleasure, will make a convenience of the meeting of the Assembly and expect payment of his traveling expenses from the Mileage Fund. Also, that Commissioners, as soon after their arrival as practicable, are to report themselves to the Committee of Arrangements, and have their respective places of abode assigned them.

"5. That the Mileage Committee, after appropriating from the whole sum an amount sufficient to meet the estimated contingent expenses of the Assembly, be instructed to audit these bills and that the Stated Clerk pay them pro rata (if found in accordance with the preceding regulations), as far as the funds will permit.

"6. That, in order to avail themselves of the proceeds of this fund, the Presbyteries must contribute their full proportion to it according to the per capita rate.

"7. That every minister, and every vacant church contributing to this fund, connected with the Presbyteries thus complying with the provisions of this plan, be entitled to a copy of the Annual Minutes of the General Assembly.

"8. That the Commissioners from Presbyteries in foreign lands receive their necessary traveling expenses, pro rata, from their place of residence in this country."

In accordance with this system, every Presbytery is requested to pay in full, next year, to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, a sum equal to one and one-half cents for Mileage, and one and one-half cents for Contingent Expenses, or in all three cents for every communicant under the care of their churches, as determined by their Statistical Report, herewith printed. This will entitle their Commissioners to a full share in the apportionments for necessary traveling expenses. It is expected that these expenses will be fully met, if the Presbyteries comply with the recommendations of the Assembly.

They are expected, also, to provide for an ENTERTAINMENT FUND.

In addition to the Mileage Fund, the Assembly of 1877 made provision for a "Supplemental Contingent Expense Fund," to "be used for the purpose of meeting the expense of entertaining such Commissioners as are not otherwise provided for." Each Presbytery is requested to contribute to this fund a sum equal at least to one cent per church member, and to forward it, with the Mileage Fund, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly. It is to be disbursed by the Committee of Arrangements, whose bills for entertainment the Stated Clerk, as Treasurer, is authorized to pay, after they have been approved by an Auditing Committee composed of the clerks of the Assembly.

☞See, also, Minutes of 1900, p. 134.

II. THE ANNUAL MINUTES.

The Minutes for 1900 will be supplied at One Dollar per copy, postage included. A copy will be sent, without charge, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery and of every Synod; also (in the case of every Presbytery that has paid its full apportionment to the Mileage and Contingent Funds of the Assembly), to every ordained minister, and to the Session of each contributing vacant church, whose address is known; also to every ordained missionary of the foreign Presbyteries.

III. SYNODICAL REPORTS.

A Statistical Report is to be forwarded to the Assembly by the Stated Clerk of every Synod; in which are to be stated the number and names of the Presbyteries within their bounds; the changes which may have been made in the number or arrangements of their Presbyteries; the names of the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries; the place and hour of the next annual meeting; and the names of the Moderator and Stated Clerk of the Synod. A blank will be sent to the Stated Clerk of every Synod, near the close of the calendar year, which should be filled up, and forwarded, without delay, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

IV. PRESBYTERIAL REPORTS.

It is required of every Presbytery to prepare and forward to the General Assembly:

1. A Statistical Report, according to the form exhibited on page 311 of the present Appendix; a printed blank for which will be furnished in due season, by order of the Assembly, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery. This Report should, if possible, embrace all the changes in the Presbytery previous to the first day of April.

2. A Narrative of the State of Religion within the bounds of the Presbytery, for the year ending April 1st. A blank for the Narrative was adopted by the General Assembly of 1891, and a copy will be forwarded to every Stated Clerk. By order of the Assembly of 1880, a blank for a Tabulated Statement of facts will annually be forwarded to the Stated Clerk of each Presbytery, to be filled properly, and duly reported to the Assembly. This Tabulated Statement should be sent to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly at least ten days before the meeting of that body. As the Narratives are not to be publicly read, less care may be given to their style, and more to the details of particulars, such as will aid the Committee of the Assembly in preparing their Annual General Narrative of the State of the Church. The blank for the Congregational Narratives, ordered by the Assembly of 1895, can be had from the Board of Publication. See Minutes, 1897, p. 123.

V. STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES.*

In preparing the Statistical Report, let the following RULES be strictly observed:

(1) Carefully copy the blank form and order of columns, etc., on page ☞301, Minutes, 1899, if a blank has not been received.

(2) Record ministers in the order of their MINISTERIAL AGE, with their CHRISTIAN names in full, without abbreviations, and their address on the same line, in the adjoining column.

(3) ☞Place the name of every Church and Mission Chapel opposite the name of its Pastor, or Stated Supply; never opposite the name of any other minister; if the Church is Vacant, place it at the foot of the roll. If the Church uses in worship a language other than English, indicate the fact by words such as German, Welsh, etc.☜

(4) Place, after the name of every minister, an abbreviation, denoting his occupation; e. g., P., for a Pastor; P. E., for a Pastor Elect; C. P., for a Colleague Pastor; A. P., for an Associate Pastor; S. S., for a Stated Supply; H. M., for a Home Missionary; D. M., for a District Missionary; C. M., for a City Missionary; T. M. for a Tract Missionary; S. M., for a Synodical Missionary; S. S. M., for a Sunday-school Missionary; P. M., for a Presbyterial Missionary; F. M., for a Foreign Missionary; Pres., for the President of a College; Chan., for a Chancellor; Prof., for a Professor of a Theological Seminary or College; Prin. for the Principal of an Academy, etc.; Sec., for a Secretary or Stated Clerk; D. Sec., for a District Secretary of a Benevolent Institution; Ag., for an Agent of do.; Ch., for a Chaplain; Tea., for a Teacher; Ed., for an Editor; Ev., for an Evangelist; H. R., for a Minister honorably retired; Col., for a Colporteur; Com. for a Commissioner; Supt., for a Superintendent; Libr., for a Librarian; and W. C., for other ministers without charge.

(5) Place after the name of every Church the abbreviation P., for one that has a Pastor; P. E., for one that has a Pastor Elect; S. S., for one that has a Stated Supply, and V., for one that is vacant.

* These rules were adopted as a whole by the General Assembly of 1891. See "Minutes," p. 181.

(6) If a Church fail to report, let the "whole number" of communicants be given as reported to the Synod, or to the last Assembly, with an asterisk (*) in the column of communicants, denoting the fact.

(7) In the Additions to the Church, distinguish between those on examination and those on certificate; in the Baptisms, between the adults and the infants; and be careful to observe the order of the columns in which these particulars are recorded.

(8) In the Losses to the Church, distinguish between (1) those dismissed and erased, and (2) those deceased. Under dismissed and erased, place the total number of communicants dismissed, suspended, erased or dropped by purging the Roll.

(9) In the report of "Funds" contributed, observe the order of the columns, and the directions of the Assembly of 1871 (Minutes, 1871, p. 589) as modified by the Assemblies of 1873, 1874, 1883 and 1887, as follows:

1. Home Missions. To include all moneys collected, whether for the Board, or for any Home Missionary operations, including Presbyterial Mission Schools, value of boxes, Ladies' Societies, etc.

2. Foreign Missions. To include all contributions for the spread of the Gospel in foreign lands.

3. Education. To include all that is given for the education of Candidates for the Ministry, whether to the Board or otherwise; and for Theological Seminaries.

4. Sabbath-school Work. To include all moneys contributed to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work for their Missionary work, Sabbath-schools included, and for Synodical and Presbyterial Depositories.

5. Church Erection. To include all contributions for Church Erection, outside of the congregation, whether through the Board or otherwise.

6. Relief Fund. To include all moneys contributed for the support of disabled ministers, and Missionaries, and in aid of their families.

7. Freedmen. To include all moneys contributed to the evangelization and education of Freedmen, whether through the Board or otherwise.

8. Synodical Aid. To include all contributions to the Synods for Synodical Sustentation.

9. Aid for Colleges. All given for Presbyterian Colleges, Academies and Schools, whether established for the education of males or females.

10. General Assembly. To include all given for ecclesiastical expenses, whether in Presbytery, Synod, or General Assembly.

11. Congregational. To include all moneys contributed for the congregation, the salary of the minister, the support of the Church Sabbath-schools, the relief of the poor of the congregation, building and repairing churches, liquidation of debts and current expenses.

12. Miscellaneous. To include all other collections, for Bible and Tract Societies, etc., and for general benevolence.

Be sure to omit the fractions of the dollar, except in the General Assembly column.

(10) The names of the Licentiates are to be recorded immediately after the list of Ministers, in the same column, with their Address in the next column; but of the candidates—including all who are studying for the ministry under the care of the Churches of the Presbytery—the number only is to be given.

(11) ☞ADD UP☜ and verify every column of figures, and Authenticate the Report with your signature.

(12) Annex a statement of the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dissolutions of pastoral relations, organizations, receptions and dissolutions of churches; also, any changes in the names of Churches; and the decease (with age, date and place) of Ministers since the last Annual Report.

(13) Avoid erasures and interlineations, make names and numbers distinctly legible, and punctuate properly.

(14) Affix no extraneous matter, such as memoranda, explanations, or orders for the delivery of the printed Minutes of the Assembly; let these be given on a separate sheet; also, every Overture to the Assembly.

Revise your Report, and find out its defects. Put in the commas and periods that are wanting; fill out the abbreviations; supply the Christian name of every minister (an initial letter is not a name), and see that every name and figure is perfectly legible.

☞Forward the Statistical Report by April 25, but if anything should prevent the forwarding of the Statistical Report in time for the meeting of the General Assembly, let it be sent at the earliest date possible to the STATED CLERK OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, the Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D.

IX. STANDING ORDERS AND RULES.

1. The General Assembly meets invariably on the third Thursday of May, annually, at 11 o'clock A.M.

2. The credentials of Commissioners and Delegates are to be presented at a previous hour of the same day, or of the preceding day, according to public notice, to the Stated and Permanent Clerks, acting as a Permanent Committee on Commissions.

3. The Lord's Supper is to be celebrated by the Assembly on the evening of Thursday, the first day of its sessions.

4. The dates assigned to popular meetings are as follows.

The evening of Friday, the second day, to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work and the Sabbath-school interests of the Church.

The evening of the first Saturday to the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies.

The afternoon of the first Sunday, to the Woman's Executive Committee of Home Missions; the evening, to Young People's work for Home and Foreign Missions.

The evening of Monday, the fourth day, to Missions among the Freedmen.

The evening of Tuesday, the fifth day, to the Home Mission Work.

The evening of Wednesday, the sixth day, to the Foreign Mission Work.

The evening of Friday, the eighth day, to the cause of Temperance.

5. For the purpose only of electing Standing Committees, the General Assembly shall be divided into twenty-two Electing Sections of, as nearly as practicable, equal size, by combining the smaller Synods and dividing the larger by Presbyteries where necessary. The Standing Committees, except those on Mileage and Finance, shall be numbered consecutively; the Electing Sections shall be numbered in like manner.

The Standing Committees shall consist of eleven ministers and eleven elders, excepting those on Mileage and Finance, which shall each consist of eleven elders.

On odd-numbered years each odd-numbered section shall elect one minister for each odd-numbered Committee, and one elder for each even-numbered Committee, and one elder for the Mileage Committee.

On the same year, each even-numbered section shall elect one minister for each even-numbered Committee, and one elder for each odd-numbered Committee, and one elder for the Finance Committee.

On the even-numbered years this order shall be reversed.

The Standing Committees shall elect their own Chairmen.

6. The reports of the Standing Committees shall be considered at the times herein designated, viz.:

Ministerial Relief, Saturday, at 10 o'clock A.M.

Freedmen, Monday, at 10 o'clock A.M.

Education, Monday, at 3 o'clock P.M.

Home Missions, Tuesday, at 10 o'clock A.M.

Aid for Colleges and Academies, Tuesday, at 3 o'clock P.M.

Foreign Missions, Wednesday, at 10 o'clock A.M.

Publication and Sabbath-school Work, Wednesday, at 3 o'clock P.M.

Church Erection, second Thursday, at 3 o'clock P.M.

Benevolence, second Thursday, at 7.30 o'clock P.M.

Temperance, second Friday, at 3 o'clock P.M.

7. That the Standing Committees on Home Missions and Foreign Missions have each two and a half hours; and those on Education, Publication, Church Erection, Ministerial Relief, Freedmen, Temperance and Aid for Colleges, have each one and a half hours. That the Secretaries and the Chairmen of the Standing and Special Committees be requested to make their statements within the limits of half an hour.

8. The Stated Clerk shall receive all Memorials, Overtures and other miscellaneous papers addressed to the General Assembly, shall make record of the same, and then deliver them for distribution or reference to the Committee on Bills and Overtures. All complaints and appeals, however, shall be transmitted by the Stated Clerk directly to the Judicial Committee.

9. All Special Committees appointed by one General Assembly to report to the next Assembly shall be ready to present their reports on the second day of the session.

10. The Stated Clerk shall have printed and ready for distribution, so far as practicable, on the morning of the day fixed for their consideration, the resolutions appended to the reports of Special Committees appointed at previous Assemblies to report at that meeting.

11. The Stated Clerk and Permanent Clerk shall be a Committee to revise the phraseology of all papers sent down to the Presbyteries to be voted upon, provided that in no case shall this Committee so change the phraseology as to alter the meaning [1886, p. 113].

12. The Stated and Permanent Clerks shall be a Committee to supervise the publication of any and all editions of the Constitution hereafter issued by the Board of Publication, and also of the Rules for Judicatories [1886, p. 113].

13. Each Board and Permanent Committee is instructed to send up its minutes with its report, that these minutes may be reviewed by the Assembly on the report of the appropriate Standing Committee [1885, p. 690].

14. A sufficient number of the Reports of the Boards and Committees shall be forwarded by them to the place of meeting of each Assembly, prior to the day of meeting; and a complete file of the same, stitched together, shall be delivered to each Commissioner [1886, p. 77].

15. In all regions where, through the organization of Union Presbyteries, there are no Presbyteries in connection with this Assembly, each mission organized as such under our Board of Foreign Missions may send to the General Assembly an ordained missionary, or ruling elder, as a delegate; and the Standing Rules of the Assembly are hereby so amended that such delegate is entitled to sit as an advisory member in the Assembly, and to speak, under the rules, on all questions, and that his expenses from his domicile in this country to and during the Assembly, and return, shall be met as those of Commissioners, out of the funds of the Assembly [1887, p. 247].

16. No person shall serve as a member of a Board who is a salaried executive officer or employé of said Board, or a member of any other benevolent Board of the Church; and no more than one ruling elder from the same congregation shall serve on a Board at the same time [1887, pp. 51, 108; 1898, p. 132].

17. Any vacancy occurring in the membership of any of the Boards of the Church during the interval between the Assemblies may be filled until the next succeeding meeting of the Assembly by the Board in which such vacancy may occur [1887, p. 128].

18. The Moderator is authorized to fill by appointment any vacancies which may occur, by resignation or otherwise, in any of the Special Committees [1892, p. 209].

19. All resolutions for the appropriation of money, outside the Boards, should be brought before the Finance Committee before action by the Assembly [1892, p. 199].

20. The recommendation of any particular congregation to the benevolence of the denomination by the General Assembly is not to be understood as creating either a legal or a moral obligation upon the Assembly for the payment of the amount recommended to be contributed by the churches [1892, p. 36; 1893, p. 41.]

21. All Overtures must be presented to the Assembly not later than the fifth day of its sessions.

22. The Stated and Permanent Clerks shall be a Committee to have the oversight of arrangements for the entertainment of the General Assembly [1896, p. 130].

23. All Reports of Special Committees shall be delivered to the Stated Clerk thirty days prior to the meeting of the General Assembly, and shall be printed by him and delivered to Commissioners in bound form on the second day of the sessions [1897, p. 144].

24. Upon the original appointment of any salaried executive officer of any of the Benevolent and Missionary Boards of the Church, such appointment shall be subject to the approval of the General Assembly [1898, p. 132].

25. The Moderator, with the Stated and Permanent Clerks, should an emergency requiring action at any time arise, are authorized to provide a new place of meeting for the General Assembly.

GENERAL RULES FOR JUDICATORIES.

The following "General Rules for Judicatories," not having been submitted to the Presbyteries, make no part of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church. Yet the General Assembly of 1871, considering uniformity in proceedings in all the subordinate judicatories as greatly conducive to order and despatch in business, having revised and approved these rules, recommended them to all the lower judicatories of the Church for adoption. The rules were amended by the General Assemblies of 1885 and 1887.]

I. The Moderator shall take the chair precisely at the hour to which the judicatory stands adjourned; and shall immediately call the members to order; and, on the appearance of a quorum, shall open the session with prayer.

II. If a quorum be assembled at the time appointed, and the Moderator be absent, the last Moderator present, being a commissioner, or if there be none, the senior member present, shall be requested to take his place without delay, until a new election.

III. If a quorum be not assembled at the hour appointed, any two members shall be competent to adjourn from time to time, that an opportunity may be given for a quorum to assemble.

IV. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, at all times, to preserve order, and to endeavor to conduct all business before the judicatory to a speedy and proper result.

V. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, carefully to keep notes of the several articles of business which may be assigned for particular days, and to call them up at the time appointed.

VI. The Moderator may speak to points of order, in preference to other members, rising from his seat for that purpose; and shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the judicatory by any two members.

VII. The Moderator shall appoint all committees, except in those cases in which the judicatory shall decide otherwise. In appointing the standing committees, the Moderator may appoint a Vice-Moderator, who may occupy the chair at his request, and otherwise assist him in the discharge of his duties.

VIII. When a vote is taken by ballot in any judicatory, the Moderator shall vote with the other members; but he shall not vote in any other case, unless the judicatory be equally divided; when, if he does not choose to vote, the question shall be lost.

IX. The person first named on any committee shall be considered as the chairman thereof, whose duty it shall be to convene the committee; and, in case of his absence or inability to act, the second named member shall take his place and perform his duties.

X. It shall be the duty of the clerk, as soon as possible after the commencement of the sessions of every judicatory, to form a complete roll of the members present, and put the same into the hands of the Moderator. And it shall also be the duty of the clerk, whenever any additional members take their seats, to add their names, in their proper places, to the said roll.

XI. It shall be the duty of the clerk immediately to file all papers, in the order in which they have been read, with proper indorsements, and to keep them in perfect order. The Stated Clerk shall receive all overtures, memorials and miscellaneous papers addressed to the judicatory; shall make record of the same and deliver them to the Committee on Bills and Overtures for appropriate disposition or reference. This committee shall have the floor on the reassembling of the judicatory after each adjournment, to report its recommendations as to reference of papers, and this right of the committee shall take precedence of the Orders of the Day. This committee shall report the papers retained by it as well as those recommended for reference to other committees, and no committee shall report on matters which have not been referred to it by the judicatory.

XII. The minutes of the last meeting of the judicatory shall be presented at the commencement of its session, and, if requisite, read and corrected.

XIII. Business left unfinished at the last sitting is ordinarily to be taken up first.

XIV. A motion made must be seconded, and afterwards repeated by the Moderator, or read aloud, before it is debated; and every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the Moderator or any member require it.

XV. Any member who shall have made a motion, shall have liberty to withdraw it, with the consent of his second, before any debate has taken place thereon; but not afterwards, without the leave of the judicatory.

XVI. If a motion under debate contain several parts, any two members may have it divided, and a question taken on each part.

XVII. When various motions are made with respect to the filling of blanks, with particular numbers or times, the question shall always be first taken on the highest number and the longest time.

XVIII. Motions to lay on the table, to take up business, to adjourn, and the call for the previous question, shall be put without debate. On questions of order, postponement, or commitment, no member shall speak more than once. On all other questions, each member may speak twice, but not oftener, without express leave of the judicatory.

XIX. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, unless to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a day certain, to commit, or to amend; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are herein arranged; and the motion for adjournment shall always be in order.

XX. An amendment, and also an amendment to an amendment, may be moved on any motion; but a motion to amend an amendment to an amendment shall not be in order. Action on amendments shall precede action on the original motion. A substitute shall be treated as an amendment.

XXI. A distinction shall be observed between a motion to lay on the table for the present, and a motion to lay on the table unconditionally, namely: A motion to lay on the table, for the present, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, the effect shall be to place the subject on the docket, and it may be taken up and considered at any subsequent time. But a motion to lay on the table, unconditionally, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, it shall not be in order to take up the subject during the same meeting of the judicatory, without a vote of reconsideration.

XXII. The previous question shall be put in this form, namely, Shall the main question be now put? It shall only be admitted when demanded by a majority of the members present; and the effect shall be to put an end to all debate and bring the body to a direct vote: First, on a motion to commit the subject under consideration (if such motion shall have been made); secondly, if the motion for commitment does not prevail, on pending amendments; and lastly, on the main question.

XXIII. A question shall not be again called up or reconsidered at the same sessions of the judicatory at which it has been decided, unless by the consent of two-thirds of the members who were present at the decision; and unless the motion to reconsider be made and seconded by persons who voted with the majority.

XXIV. A subject which has been indefinitely postponed, either by the operation of the previous question, or by a motion for indefinite postponement, shall not be again called up during the same sessions of the judicatory, unless by the consent of three-fourths of the members who were present at the decision.

XXV. Members ought not, without weighty reasons, to decline voting, as this practice might leave the decision of very interesting questions to a small proportion of the judicatory. Silent members, unless excused from voting, must be considered as acquiescing with the majority.

XXVI. When the Moderator has commenced taking the vote, no further debate or remark shall be admitted, unless there has evidently been a mistake, in which case the mistake shall be rectified, and the Moderator shall recommence taking the vote. If the House shall pass the motion to "vote on a given subject at a time named," speeches shall thereafter be limited to ten minutes. Should the hour for adjournment or recess arrive during the voting, it shall be postponed to finish the vote, unless the majority shall vote to adjourn; in which case the voting shall, on the reassembling of the House, take precedence of all other business till it is finished. Under this rule the "yeas and nays" shall not be called, except on the final motion to adopt as a whole. This motion to fix a time for voting shall be put without debate.

XXVII. The yeas and nays on any question shall not be recorded, unless required by one-third of the members present. If division is called for on any vote, it shall be by a rising vote, without a count. If on such a rising vote the Moderator is unable to decide, or a quorum rise to second a call for "tellers," then the vote shall be taken by rising, and the count made by tellers, who shall pass through the aisles and report to the Moderator the number voting on each side.

XXVIII. No member, in the course of debate, shall be allowed to indulge in personal reflections.

XXIX. If more than one member rise to speak at the same time, the member who is most distant from the Moderator's chair shall speak first. In the discussion of all matters where the sentiment of the House is divided, it is proper that the floor should be occupied alternately by those representing the different sides of the question.

XXX. When more than three members of the judicatory shall be standing at the same time, the Moderator shall require all to take their seats, the person only excepted who may be speaking.

XXXI. Every member, when speaking, shall address himself to the Moderator, and shall treat his fellow-members, and especially the Moderator, with decorum and respect.

XXXII. No speaker shall be interrupted, unless he be out of order; or for the purpose of correcting mistakes, or misrepresentations.

XXXIII. Without express permission, no member of a judicatory, while business is going on, shall engage in private conversation; nor shall members address one another, nor any person present, but through the Moderator.

XXXIV. It is indispensable, that members of ecclesiastical judicatories maintain great gravity and dignity while judicially convened; that they attend closely in their speeches to the subject under consideration, and avoid prolix and desultory harangues; and, when they deviate from the subject, it is the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call them to order.

XXXV. If any member act, in any respect, in a disorderly manner, it shall be the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call him to order.

XXXVI. If any member consider himself aggrieved by a decision of the Moderator, it shall be his privilege to appeal to the judicatory, and the question on the appeal shall be taken without debate.

XXXVII. No member shall retire from any judicatory without the leave of the Moderator, nor withdraw from it to return home without the consent of the judicatory.

XXXVIII. All judicatories have a right to sit in private, on business, which in their judgment ought not to be matter of public speculation.

XXXIX. Besides the right to sit judicially in private, whenever they think proper to do so, all judicatories have a right to hold what are commonly called "interlocutory meetings," in which members may freely converse together, without the formalities which are usually necessary in judicial proceedings.

XL. Whenever a judicatory is about to sit in a judicial capacity, it shall be the duty of the Moderator solemnly to announce, from the chair, that the body is about to pass to the consideration of the business assigned for trial, and to enjoin on the members to recollect and regard their high character as judges of a court of Jesus Christ, and the solemn duty in which they are about to act.

XLI. In all cases before a judicatory, where there is an accuser or prosecutor, it is expedient that there be a committee of the judicatory appointed (provided the number of members be sufficient to admit it without inconvenience), who shall be called the "Judicial Committee," and whose duty it shall be to digest and arrange all the papers, and to prescribe, under the direction of the judicatory, the whole order of proceedings. The members of this committee shall be entitled, notwithstanding their performance of this duty, to sit and vote in the cause, as members of the judicatory.

XLII. The permanent officers of a judicatory shall have the rights of corresponding members in matters touching their several offices.

XLIII. The Moderator of every judicatory above the Church Session, in finally closing its sessions, in addition to prayer, may cause to be sung, an appropriate psalm or hymn, and shall pronounce the apostolical benediction.
